- V. President's Report:
 - a. President Woods stated that the SGA Board had a short meeting with John Beckvold. A discussion was held about an article released in "The Phoenix" about the different parking policies on campus and about people being towed on campus for having an outstanding number of tickets. The Board as well as Mr. Beckvold thought that it wasn't a policy issue but it was a problem of how they present the policy and people do not know why they are getting towed. There will tentatively be a handout that will show the different violations you can get for how many tickets you have. Administrative Liaison Logan Harrison will be reserving the Sports Complex for the SGA Softball Tailgate on the 27th of April. President Woods invited all organizations to encourage their members to participate.
