WV House, Senate Recognize Glenville State for College Affordability

On Thursday Glenville State College was recognized by members of the West Virginia House of Delegates and Senate for the role it has played in making college more affordable for students and families. The House of Delegates honored GSC with a Legislative Citation, presented by Delegate Brent Boggs '76 (D-Braxton, 34). The Senate document, Senate Resolution 53, was sponsored by Senators Mike Romano (D-Harrison, 12), Doug Facemire (D-Braxton, 12), Robert Beach (D-Monongalia, 13), Ron Stollings (D-Boone, 07), and Sue Cline (R-Wyoming, 09). During Thursday's session several Senators spoke in favor of the Resolution prior to its adoption.

"Obviously we are very appreciative that state lawmakers have taken note of our many initiatives to keep college affordable while still maintaining high quality programs here

Ph.D. in Hospitality Management this past May.

In her spare time, she enjoys traveling, golfing, and spending time with her fiancé Onick and his daughters at the nearby beaches. Onick and Heather met during their tenure at GSC and will be married in May 2018.

Congratulations, Heather on receiving your Ph.D. and on your recent promotion. We are proud to feature you in this week's Alumni Spotlight and proud that you are an alumna of Glenville State College.

at Glenville State College. I, along with my leadership team, are laser-focused on making sure that students don't pay more than absolutely necessary to come to our college," said President Pellett. "I want those on our campus to know, and all of the future Pioneers out there to know, that we're just getting started. In fact, I'm already working on another announcement that will benefit our students as well as faculty and staff – so stay tuned for that," Pellett added.

In addition to the focus on affordability, Glenville State has also reaffirmed its commitment to the quality of its academic program offerings and putting students on a path of career readiness. Campus safety, educational support systems, and a revitalization of student life have been top priorities as well.
