REPRODUCTION SERVICES AND FEES

Rare Material

Archives and manuscripts, photographs, and other rare materials that are restricted to use in the Archives Office may be copied only by an archives staff member.

The charge for black and white paper copies is $.20, and $1.00 for color copies.

Copying is permitted only if the original document is stable enough to withstand the stress of copying.

Microfilm

Microfilm copies may be made using the microfilm reading and printing equipment located in the Library.

The fee for copies is $.10, which is payable at the Reference Desk.

Photographs

Prints per copy:
• 3.5 x 5 --------- $1.50
• 5 x 7---------- $3.00
• 8 x 10--------- $5.00
• 11 x 14------ $15.00
• 16 x 20------ $17.00
• 24 x 36------ $20.00

Photographs may be ordered on site or via the internet at http://www.glenville.edu.

We reserve the right to charge $15.00 per hour for labor required to process special requests. If this charge is applicable, you will be informed of it upon placing your order. All shipping and handling is $2.50.

Audiovisuals

Sound Recordings:
• All audio reproduction requests are to be prepaid.
• For each audio cassette, tape, or CD used as a source for reproduction, a $15.00 fee will be assessed. For example, if parts or all of three source recordings are dubbed to a single cassette or CD, the fee will be $45.00.

Videocassettes and Motion Pictures:
• $15.00 per hour service charge. A $40.00 publication fee will be charged for a first image, and $20.00 each for additional images.
Conditions for Duplication of Materials

Duplicating materials in the Archives Office of Robert Kidd Library at Glenville State College is subject to the following conditions:

a. Duplication is permitted for the purpose of private student and research only in lieu of researchers taking notes. Duplicates may not be used for publication, exhibition, or any other public purpose without the express written permission of Glenville State College. Permission is granted only by the Archivist/Library Director.

b. Some materials in the Glenville State College Archives Office are protected by copyright laws and other restrictions. The researcher assumes all responsibility for possible infringement of copyright and/or literary, artistic, property or privacy rights in the act of copying or in the subsequent use of the materials copied.

c. Permission will be granted to reproduce only portions of manuscript or archival collections. The reproduction of any collection in its entirety is prohibited.

d. Any publication, exhibition, or other public use of materials reproduced must properly credit the source from which a copy is made. For archives and manuscripts, the proper credit line includes the full name of the collection plus “Glenville State College Archives Office.” For works of art, the proper credit line includes the names of the artist and artwork plus “Glenville State College Library.”

e. The right to publish duplicates of materials held in the Glenville State College Archives Office is granted on a one-time basis. Any further reproduction is prohibited without the express written permission of the Glenville State College Library. In authorizing the publication of materials, Glenville State College does not surrender its own right to publish the materials or to grant permission to others to do so.

f. Researchers are not permitted to make their own copies of archives and manuscripts, maps, photographs, rare books, and recordings. Staff members will perform such service for which a fee will be charged.

g. Researchers are not permitted to photograph any materials in the Glenville State College Archives Office. To order photographs, users may inquire at the Archives Office about policies, forms, and fees.

h. The GSC Archives Office reserves the right to limit the number of photocopies provided per day to 50 per researcher.
