Citing Full-text Articles within Online databases
MLA Style

Use these guidelines when citing journal articles found full-text within an online periodical index such as Academic Search Elite, InfoTrac OneFile, or Wilson OmniFile. When using MLA style to cite full-text periodical articles from an electronic source, include the following information:

- author(s)
- full title of the article (include subtitle if present)
- title of the journal, magazine, or newspaper
- volume and issue numbers of the journal or magazine
- date of the publication (which may include month and day)
- page numbers
- for a work from a subscription service: the name of the service
- name of any company, institution, or organization sponsoring or associated with the Web site
- date when the researcher accessed the source
- electronic address, or URL, of the source or, for a subscription service, the URL of the service's main page (if known) or the keyword assigned by the service

Examples:

Journal articles

Magazine articles

Newspaper articles
