

Off-Campus Employment

Job posted on 2014-05-30 by joanna.distefano; posting expires on 2014-06-30

Employer: State of WV - WV Disability Determination Services of Division of Rehabilitation Services

Position: Disability Evaluation Spec., Trainee

Job Description: Full Time,

All positions located in Harrison or Kanawha Counties. Evaluates data to determine eligibility for disability benefits under Titles II and XVI of the Social Security Act (SSA). Analyzes medical, psychological, vocational and other evidence utilizing knowledge of federal policies, regulatory codes, legislation, directives, court precedents or other guidelines. Learns to evaluate medical evidence for consistency, validity and sufficiency.

VERY IMPORTANT: This announcement is NOT for a specific vacancy. We are building the pool of qualified applicants for possible future vacancies. If you qualify and need information about hiring plans or vacancies, contact the hiring agency directly.

Qualifications: Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited four-year college or university. If you do not have a 4-year degree do not apply. There is no substitution. No experience is required. Persons with the training shown and specific experience related to the duties described may receive preference.

Perferred Major(s): Psychology/Sociology;

Application Instructions: This posting is on the WV Division of Personnel website under Disability Examiner Specialist Trainees. Visit the site at <http://agency.governmentjobs.com/wv/default.cfm>.