

Job posted on 2014-06-16 by joanna.distefano; posting expires on 2014-07-30

Employer: Major League Soccer

Position: Sales Trainee - Minneapolis, MN

Job Description:

Are you an Ambassador of the World's Game? Do you want to help grow a Soccer Nation? Do you have instincts to sell? If you think you have what it takes to go above and beyond, this is the opportunity for you.

Start Date: August 4th, 2014

The Opportunity: The MLS National Sales Center is seeking positive and passionate individuals to enter an intensive and highly selective two-to-five month sales training program. Candidates completing designated performance criteria will have the opportunity to interview for sales positions at MLS clubs.

Qualifications: The best individuals for this position must be driven, positive and have a PASSION for soccer. Specifically, the best individual will have all the criteria below:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college and commitment to be a soccer sales industry leader
- Ability to participate in entire two-to-five month curriculum (evening, weekend, and potential holiday hours)

Ability to work as a team player

- Proficient in basic computer software programs
- Strong organizational and communication skills
- Excellent customer service skills

Open to learning

- Ability to move to Minneapolis, MN on the National Sports Center Campus for 2 to 5 months
- Ability to relocate to an MLS Club immediately following the training session

Perferred Major(s): Accounting; Management; Marketing; Resort Area Management; Sport Management;

Application Instructions: For full application instructions, please visit

<http://mls.teamworkonline.com/teamwork/r.cfm?i=65358>

Link: <http://www.mlssoccer.com/nationalsalescenter>