Stepping Around Campus

The Kanawhachen chose for the 1981-82 theme "Step by Step," which correlates nicely with the number of steps on this hilly campus. Situated on a hill, such as GSC is, there is no way around climbing steps to at least one class a day.

Some of the steps used daily are built for attractiveness, such as those in the Library, others, such as in the Ad Building, are useful.

But as well as having many steps on campus, there are other steps, we as college students take. The step towards a college degree, a hope for a better life, a step towards new friends and relationships, and possibly a step towards changing a lifestyle completely.

Each year the college student takes a step in a new direction, their freshman year, leaving home and having to make a few decisions without the help of parents, the steps towards a possible affiliation with a Greek organization, and deciding on what type of field to go into. A major step is to decide whether or not to be an education major or a Liberal Arts major.

The biggest step of all college careers is the one taken by many in May of each year. This is graduation, all the strings of school years have ended and now each person must truly make their own choices. This yearbook is a remembrance of the school years, as taken by every student — "Step by Step."

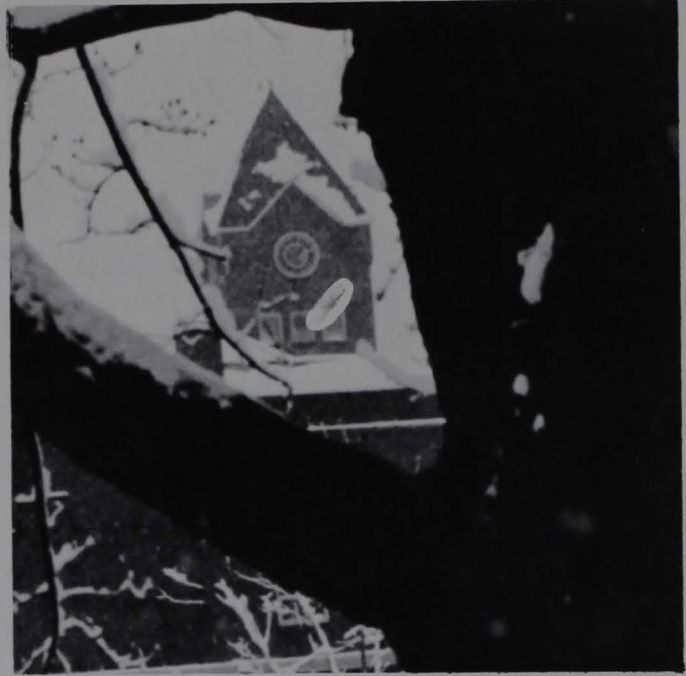

The steps that now lead to the Physical Education Building are cement.

New steps were erected to lead from the RF Kidd Library to the Pioneer Center.

Fall left us, as the season changed and the leaves fell from the trees, leaving them bare. The sun shone less and the warm days fled as winter imposed itself on the campus.

Winter, as the seasons called for, dumped snow and hit us with blast after blast of cold air. Finally it was over, spring seemed right around the corner, as the old cliché goes.

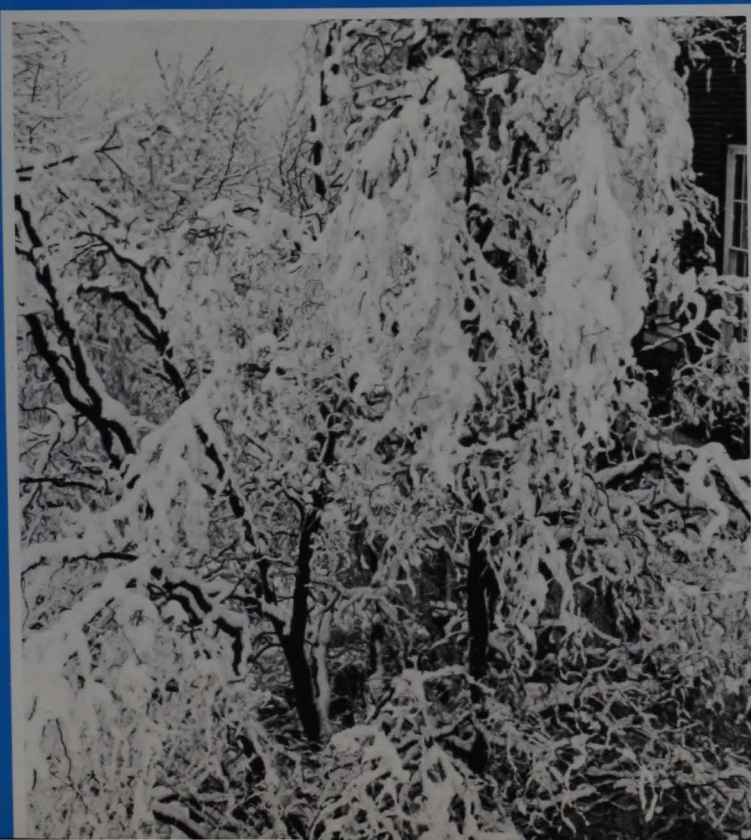

There would be no more ice or snow or so we thought. Suddenly, as the warm sun made an appearance, winter took one last stab. In its wrath, the air seemed colder and sharper, but the snow left us with a certain beauty.

Snow and ice encased the trees, bending and torturing them with one last fight. But even winter could not last, as its season ended, and the trees were left bare again to wait for spring. Spring, and rebirth leaves one warm after the chill of winter.

100 Miles is a Lot of Steps

Running is an individual sport that can be done in competition or for getting into shape.

"If I don't run eight to ten miles a day, I don't feel like I've done anything," stated Pat Godfrey, a junior English major from Parkersburg, WV. Pat keeps a very strict log of the miles he runs and finds that he runs approximately 100 miles a week.

He began running four years ago, to get in shape for basketball. He found he had a natural ability for running long distances and has become a road racer and marathon runner.

Pat ran on the GSC Cross Country team for one year, and got to help represent West Virginia in Wisconsin at the Nationals of Cross Country. Pat is now an independent runner who has run in ten different states to compete.

However, Pat and his marathons and road races have some harrowing experiences. For example, in an Indiana marathon he ran, he and the other top nine racers got lost on the track and later found they were eight miles off the course. In another race, where he was a top contender, he was pointed in the wrong direction and finished fourth, from the wrong direction!

Leading running magazines, Runner's World and The Runner have both made mention of Pat as a top runner. Runner's World in Jan. of 1981 and The Runner in Mar. 1981. Pat had these parting words to say of his running career, "I've done everything I wanted."

Pat Godfrey averages running about 100 miles a week. He runs in the early morning and afternoon.

Stretching out the muscles before running is very important to Pat. Aside from being a runner (below) Pat has attended professional umpiring school in Florida.

The GSC Marching band, 75 members strong, ran onto the football field to perform at every home game.

Under the direction of Ed McKown, the band performed exciting half-time shows at every home game.

The Pride of the Pioneers

GSC's Marching band was outstanding this year. They performed exciting half-time shows at all the Pioneer football games, with such tunes as "Celebration," "Hit Me With Your Best Shot," and "She Believes in Me."

The band was directed by Mr. Ed McKown and the Field Commander was sophomore Pat Mollahan. The band featured five majorettes, and a flag corp.

The band held their annual winter concert in the auditorium on Dec. 13. Christmas music was played under the direction of Ed McKown. Four instrumental pieces were conducted by students, who are music majors.

The outstanding marching and concert band was 75 members strong and proved to all other colleges in West Virginia, that they were one of the biggest and best college bands in the entire state of West Virginia.

The band made their first appearance of the year the the Homecoming Parade.

The members of the band were exciting to watch as they performed current hits and traditional music.

Majorettes for the 1981 season were (front to back) Sarah Wood, Rhonda Anderson, Marilyn King, Doretta Pugh, and Melisa Lowther.

The majorettes performed at half-time of all home games. During Homecoming they had a special performance.

Sophomore Pat Mollahan was chosen as Field Commander for the 1981 GSC Marching Band.

Students, faculty and staff of GSC and the general public were treated to five one-act plays which offered much-needed experience to cast members, crew members and students in the Speech 311 class, who directed the plays.

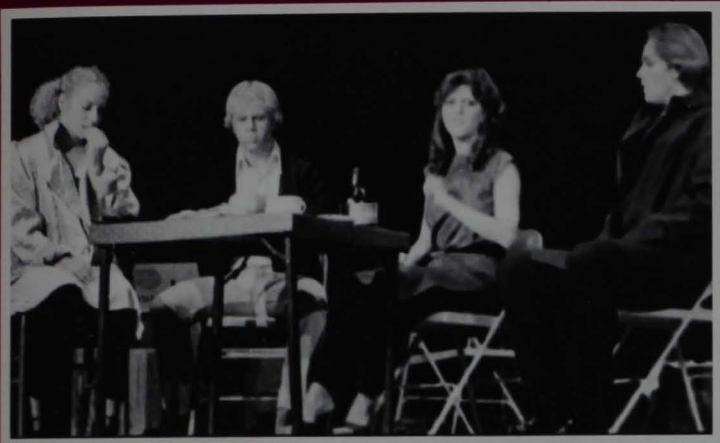

The plays presented and their directors were: Twenty-seven Wagons Full of Cotton — Fran Davis; Plaza Suite — Danny Bayer; The Lottery — Jennifer Morton; Love and How to Cure It — Raeleen McMillion; and Victory on Mrs. Dandywine's Island — Lisa Taylor.

The Second Shepherd's Play, a mystery play of the Towneley Cycle, was presented by members of Dr. Craig McDonald's English 314 class. The play was performed on the lawn of the Wesley Foundation.

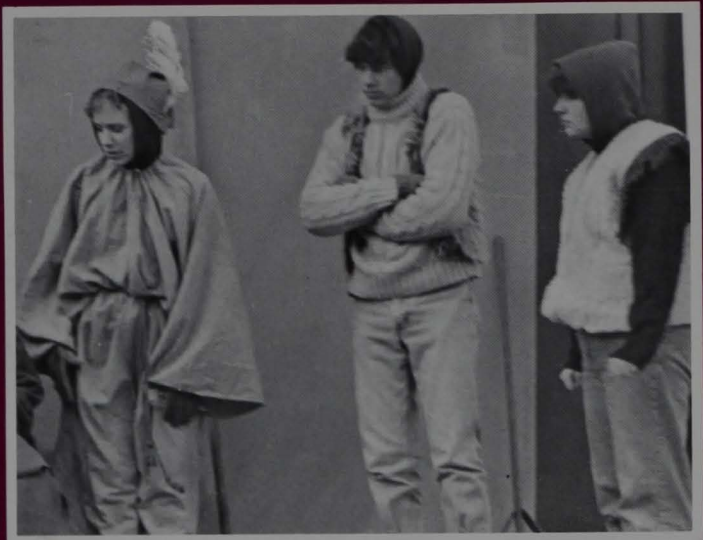

All the one-act plays and the English 314 class play were products of much hard work and were greatly enjoyed by all who attended and those who participated.

What do you think when you think of the Greek system on the GSC campus? People running around with funny letters on their shirts? Or maybe a sorority or fraternity? These are signs of a Greek system, but that is not all there is to it.

Members of the Greek organizations do wear Greek letters as a way to be identified with their organization, but that is not all there is to being a Greek member. Sororities and Fraternities are the first to be identified with the Greek life. On the GSC campus there are two sororities, Delta Zeta and Sigma Sigma Sigma, and three fraternities, Lambda Chi Alpha, Theta Xi and Tau Kappa Epsilon. Members of these organizations are united through a bond of sisterhood and brotherhood, which goes beyond wearing the letters. It leads to having a family which will stand behind you and give you support, and even opens the door to career opportunities. But it is also friends, someone to party with on Thursday nights, someone to take a problem to who will listen, and someone just to have fun with. Of course this is not saying that the sorority or fraternity is the only way to have a family or friends, or that being Greek is right for you.

The Greek system does not end with social organizations. They also include honoraries, which are numerous on campus. These groups also have the united feelings of sisterhood and brotherhood, that revolves around scholastic achievements. These honoraries also open doors for career opportunities.

The Ladies of the White Rose, the auxiliary to the Lambda Chi Alpha's enjoy a 'smoker' party.

The two Sororities on campus held open rush, the theme for the jointly held party was "Fantasy Island."

Steve Gandee began the Theta Xi's dribble to Charleston. The dribble was to benefit Muscular Dystrophy.

New initiates of Kappa Delta Pi are: Leslie Walker, Louis Kent, Raeleen McMillion, Tracy Carter, Jackie Gum and Denny DePugh.

A Glimpse Into The 'Greek' Life

It Was The Worst of Winters

If you are not a snow bunny, you may not have liked the winter of '81-82. Snow bombarded the GSC campus and everywhere else in one of the worst winters in years. For us unwilling residents of a hilltop (GSC campus) the snow can pose a lot of problems. The bad problem is once you get started sliding at the top it's a straight shot to the scenic Little Kanawha River.

The students of GSC normally find snow a break from the everyday routine of academia. You know the old saying of, "oh, what fun it is" — Well, bellywhopping, innertubing, 'free style,' skating, dodging snowball, snow sculpturing, snowshoeing and even skiing is hilarious.

Time and time again, people have soon found out that snow can be beautiful, but once the novelty wears off, it can become ugly and somewhat menacing (ask the poor souls who have the scare of their life on a downhill sidewalk.) The wind whips the unwary student around like a needle in a hurricane, and if you,

'Bellywhopping' down the hill in front of Clark Hall became a popular past-time.

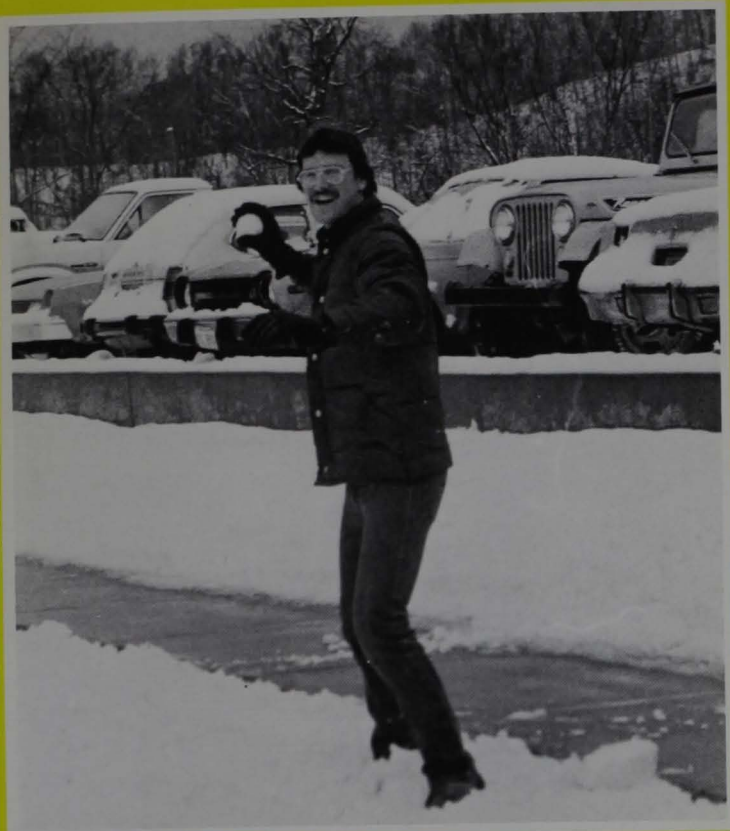

Many of the trees were often covered with the 'cold white stuff' that made walking treacherous to many students.

perchance, have an umbrella open, then you might be mistaken for a national weather balloon. Also, if you are a walker, you have to be careful for crazed cars that keep trying to slide into you like you're in a giant game of bumper cars (except you take the place of one of the cars.)

So, GSC is a virtual wonderland in snow season, and if you survive, you deserve a ski patrol badge and a bottle of the best brandy around (plus or minus the St. Bernard, but that is your choice.)

The snow covered the tombstones of the cemetery beside Clark Hall as well as the pine trees.

Sir Sidney (Sidney Tedford) entertained the guests with music played on his handmade lute.

Students Return to Renaissance

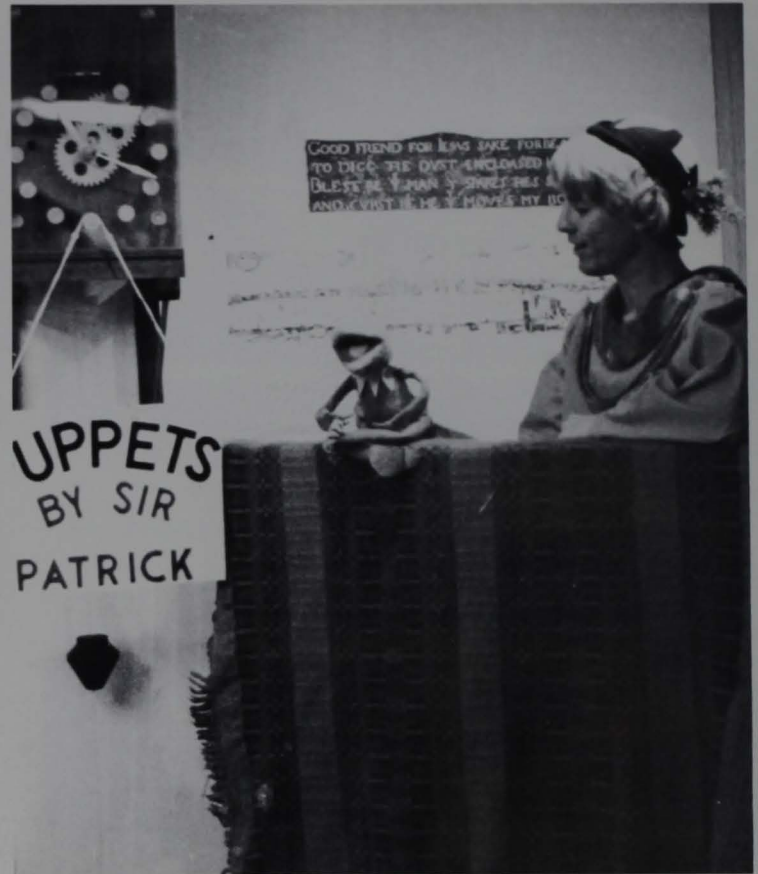

Shakespeare lives! On April 21, 1892, The English 409 and 450 classes, Mrs. Martha Keating, Dr. and Mrs. Craig McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Tedford met at the Tedford residence for a renaissance banquet.

Each person attending was dressed in costumes depicting the period. Students came dressed as Ladies, Knights, and King Henry VIII.

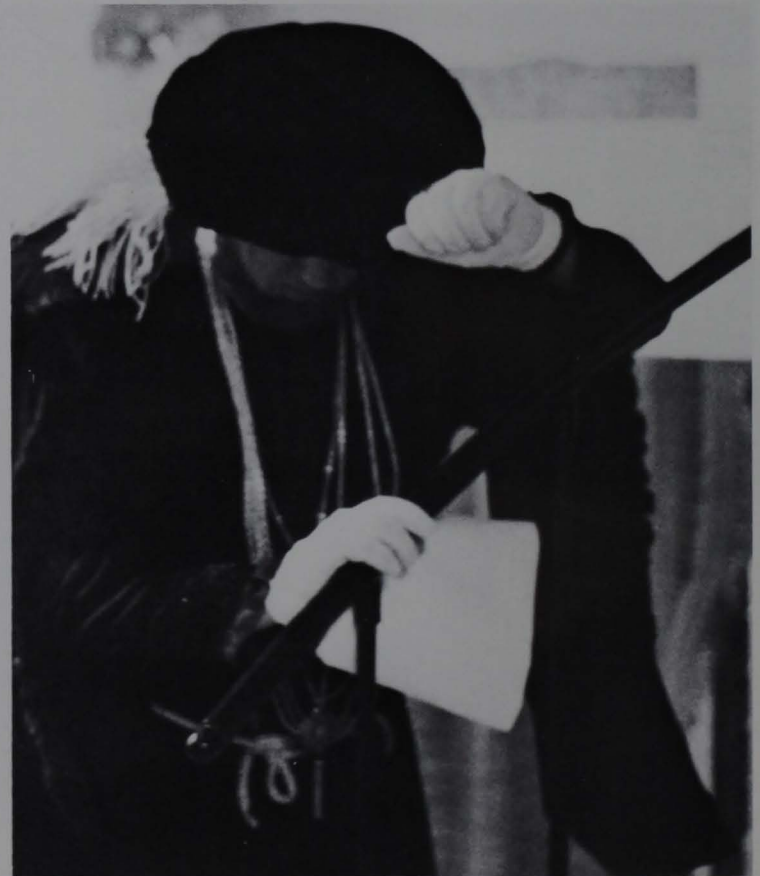

The banquet included foods eaten during the Renaissance, such as spinach tarts, and baked venison.

Mrs. Martha Keating, Assistant Professor of English came dressed as a Lady-in-waiting.

Sir Patrick (Pat Godfrey) provided comic entertainment with Kermit the Frog reciting "Hamlet."

King Henry the VIII (John Brooks) talked to the guests about his marriage troubles.

Four teams attempted to stack Stroh's cases in the shortest time possible.

New Contest Invades Halftime

During the halftime of the GSC-Fairmont game a new sport invaded the campus — The Stroh's Stacking Contest. On February 11 four teams of students, consisting of four members, each tried to stack 16 cases in the shortest time possible.

GSC's winning team was "Al's Boys" consisting of Charles Bennett, Shane Hickey, Shawn Wahl, and Jim Wiley, who stacked 16 cases in 2 minutes and 15 seconds.

Other teams were: "Iota Beta Offa," TKE and "Benny Hill Express."

The problem with the stacking of the cases was that no sooner were the cases stacked than they would fall.

Judy Collins had a song called "Send in the Clowns" in 1964 and in 1981 the Homecoming theme of the Glenville State College Homecoming '81 was also "Send in the Clowns." The weekend of October 2-4 was a busy one for the students at GSC as a whole schedule of fun-filled events were planned. These events ranged from a banner contest, a two-act drama production, a parade, the crowning of the Homecoming Court and Queen, a semi-formal dance, and finally the all important game between the Glenville State Pioneers and the West Liberty State Hilltoppers.

In a breakdown of each event, we will start out with the banner contest, which started off the week on Wednesday. The Kappa Delta Pi Education Honorary won the contest with a banner stating, "Pioneers Don't Mess Around, GSC Is Victory Bound!" On Thursday a student/faculty picnic was held on the lawn in Thursday, Friday and Saturday the Drama Department presented the play "The Effects of Gamma Rays on Man-In-The-Moon Marigolds." The cast consisted of Tammy Igo, Mrs. Barbara Nicholson, Cara Keenan, and Liz Sweeney.

On Friday a carnival was held, with all the organizations and clubs sponsoring different events. Due to rain, the Carnival was held in the Ballroom. Games such as the bottle pick-up, coin toss and a display of international bookmarks were available to students and faculty.

The parade took place Oct. 3, down Main Street. This year's parade was one of the largest parades ever for a GSC Homecoming. Grand Marshal of this year's parade was Coach Jesse Lilly. The GSC Marching Band, the Black Walnut Festival Queen, the GSC Homecoming Queen and Court, the Montrose Winners and Bob Dulaney's candy apple red wagon and hitch of six Clydesdales were just some of the highlights.

Please print this as soon as possible; any delay could mean the end of the football program at Glenville State.

Today, while shopping at Krogers, I overheard a conversation that roused my curiosity. The sounds came from the pet-food section and, as I was standing near the Wheaties, I could not identify the voices. One voice suggested that GSC drop football and pick-up waterpolo. The other voice disagreed, suggesting the potential water hazards to the horses, and described the difficulty that a marching/swimming band might encounter.

I smiled, knowingly, because horses are natural swimmers. But what did action. Was the little lady connected with the college's sports? Could she be the commissioner of Waterpolo? Does the cat have a string of horses and is just waiting for the opportunity to suit them up in blue and white? I accelerated!

The cha-cha routine was designed to throw one off and something must be done quickly to prevent our pool from becoming a quagmire of tubas, snare-drums, splashing majorettes and used hay.

Please Miss or Mrs.? and cat, don't take any action 'till after the '82 season. Remember, we won a game last year! The Lewis County Shrine Clown Unit came to Glenville prior to the Homecoming game and several hours later the Pioneers had their victory of the year.

I know the Clowns can't be in town before every game. But maybe, just maybe, the team and the fans can rekindle the spirit from last year's Homecoming for the entire '82 season. I'm not suggesting that the theme "Send in the Clowns" or that the appearance of the Clowns had any effect on the game. Perhaps it's only a coincidence that the Pioneers had their lone victory the day the clowns came to town.

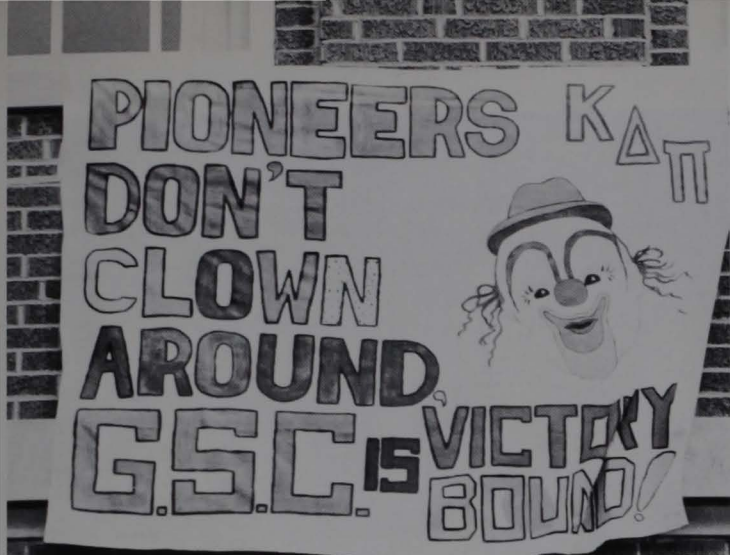

alarm me was the financial impact the change could have on the school budget.

Horses are known for the mess they make and the expense of draining and cleaning the pool, not to mention the water damage to the musical instruments, could be a financial disaster. I ran around the "price-cutter special" to identify the voices. The pet-food aisle was empty, except for a little lady who was dancing the cha-cha with a grinning cat. Neither appeared to have any interest in football or waterpolo.

Later, while driving home with bags filled with the essential Ruffles and dip, I began to have doubts about my

Christmas Carnival Enjoyed By All

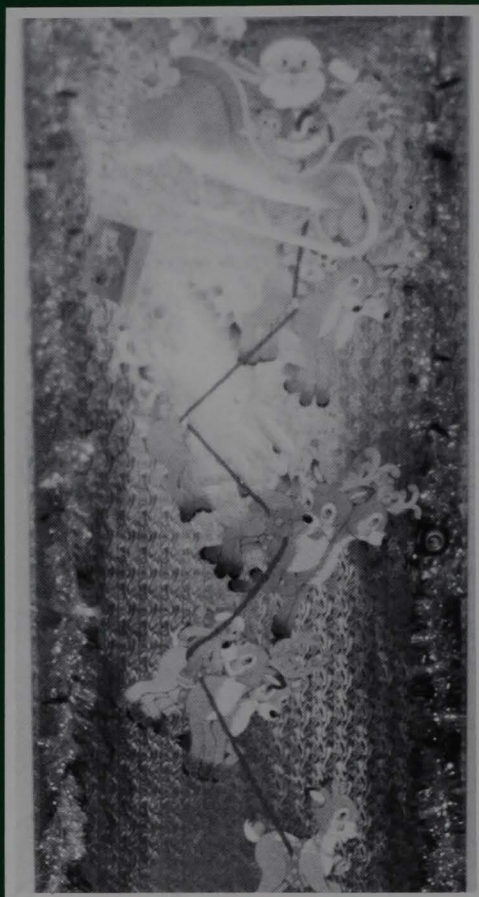

Christmas time is a time of celebrating and parties. The annual President's Christmas Party was held on Sunday, December 20, 1981.

A carnival was held around the holiday theme with cake walks, lollipop shops, assorted games and Santa.

Also, refreshments were served to the lofty strains of Christmas music. Presents were given to all faculty children by Santa Claus.

The Cheerleaders sponsored a kissing booth and the Sigma Sorority had a lollipop shop.

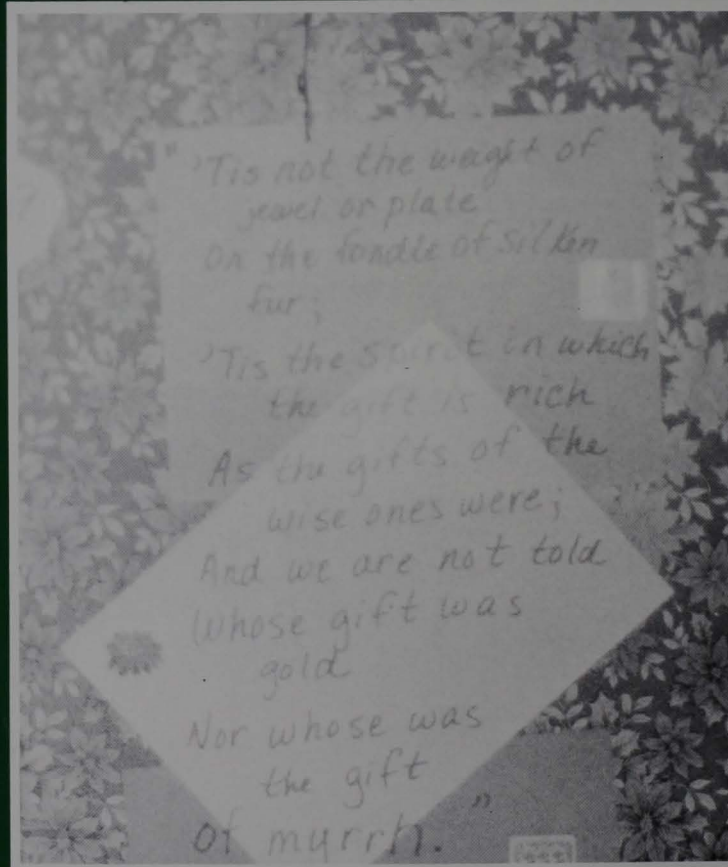

The winner of the door decorating contest was Kay Galford and Ruby Tenney in the women's dorm.

Christmas Spirits at GSC

After Thanksgiving break, as Christmas time nears, a strange thing happens to the GSC campus. All of a sudden trees spring up on desks, windows are decorated with colored lights and dormitory doors become covered with Santa Claus and Baby Jesus.

The entire student body, faculty and administration get into the Christmas spirit with the President's Christmas party for faculty children, campus organizational Christmas parties and decorating contests.

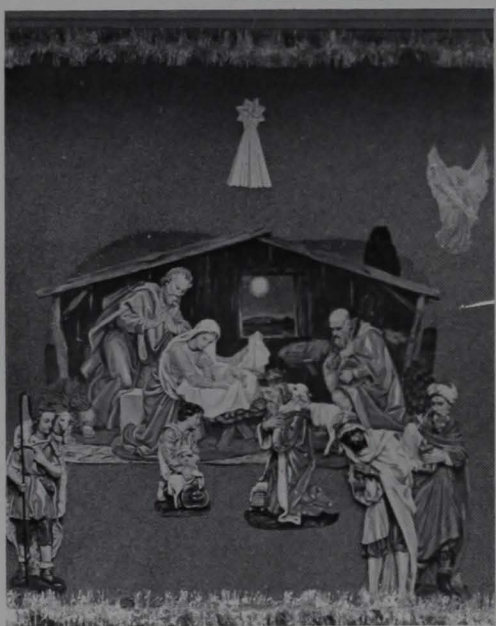

Once again the Student Congress erected a tree in front of the R.F. Kidd Library and all clubs and organizations held a decorating contest. After the tree lighting ceremony, students went Christmas caroling.

Pickens Hall provided a Christmas banquet and door decorating contest for the residents of Pickens Hall, Scot Burdett and Bob Shrewsbury won the men's division of the contest and Kay Galford and Ruby Tenney won the women's division. The winners each received a gift certificate to the campus bookstore.

Louis Bennett Hall held a Christmas dance for their residents with refreshments.

Hooray for Hollywood and for the Glenville State College Drama Department and their presentation of The Music Man on March 5-7 on the GSC stage. The background of the play is Iowa in 1912 and the All-American Dream back when it was something to believe in. The Music Man was written by Meredith Wilson in 1957 and is a musical of love and spring and how people deal with the intricate workings of both. The directors of the play were Ed and Linda McKown.

The cast numbered forty and was made up of GSC students and children from Glenville. The leading male role was Harold Hill and was played by Danny DePugh. The leading female role was Marian the Librarian played by Pam Perry. Mayor Shinn was played by Danny Bayer and Eulalie Mackecknie Shinn was brought out by Kelly Davis. The slimy salesman who tried to ruin Professor Hill's and Marian's love was Charlie Cowell and he was played by Bill Anderson. Marcellus, Professor Hill's friend, was played by Mickey McDonald. Marian's mother, Mrs. Paroo, was brought to life by Dana Balachowski. The Wa Tan Ye Girls were made up of Doretta Pugh, Melisa Lowther, Vickie Parish, Sandy Gainer and Kim Evans. They provided a comical back-up crew for Eulalie Mackecknie Shinn. The children, the Del Shart Ladies and the Board of Education Quartet helped to keep the audience in stitches and carried off their parts excellently.

The orchestra was comprised of the music department who entertained the audience with such tunes as "Seventy-Six Trombones," "Till There was You," "Wells Fargo Wagon," "Gary Indiana," and "Lida Rose." Those students were Betty Wagner (flute), Carolyn Snodgrass (flute), Jenine Carpenter, Bobbie Gonzalez and Robin Crist (clarinets), Letha Butcher (bass sax and clarinet), Bill Wilkes, Ron Hall, and Pam Brown (trumpet), Lacy Bryant, Aaron Eubanks, and Pete Brown (trombones), Carl Watson (bass), Jeff Nestor (percussion) and Ed McKown (piano).

Marian the Librarian and Winthrop lament over the disappearance of Harold Hill.

The Del Sart Ladies and the Board of Education Quartet kept the audience laughing throughout the play.

The Wells Fargo Wagon just delivered the instruments and Professor Harold Hill distributes them to his students.

Professor Harold Hill (Danny DePugh) professes his love for Marian in the River City, Iowa library.

Harold Hill and Marian meet on the bridge to discuss their love.

Crew members of the major drama production work just as hard (if not harder) than the cast. This years crew members were:

Set Construction: Head — Jennifer Morton, Mickey McDonald, Chris Keister, Neal Benson, Ronnie Hall, Bill Anderson, Vickie Carder, Danny Bayer, Cheryl Keenan, Raeleen McMillion, Dan Langford, and Robin McDonald.

Lights: Chris Keister, Jennifer Morton, Steve White, Mike Schartiger, Dennis Jarrell.

Make-up: Co-heads — Raeleen McMillion, Danny Bayer; crew — Pat Lewis, Jamie Martin, and Lisa Taylor.

House Management: Co-heads — Lisa Taylor and Danny Bayer; crew — Jo Cooper, Vickie Carder, Cheryl Keenan, Randy Harper, Cara Keenan, Marlene Lewis, Arnie Headley, Tim Brown, Kim Evans, Tammi Igo, Neal Benson, Lou Davidson, Sheila Moran.

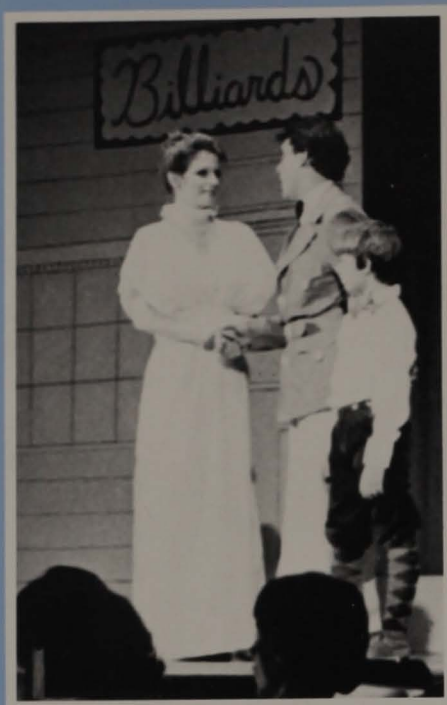

Props: Co-heads: Vickie Carder and Jennifer Morton; crew — Gayle Stanley.

Costumes: Costume Mistress: Lois Miller; crew — Melanie Green, LeAnn Butler, Betty Wagner, Karen Stanley, Dena Dunlap, Jennifer Morton, Marlene Lewis, Janet Gainer, Dorothy Green, June Evans, Willa Pugh, Pam Perry, Gayle Stanley, Mickie Warner, Sandra Lowther, Deltha Lake, Tammi Beecher.

Sound: Bill Anderson and Jennifer Morton.

Marian and Harold (above) have a confrontation about the all-boys band Harold plans for River City. Mayor Shinn and his wife perform at the fourth of July Events.

The townswomen (the Del Sart Ladies) were taken in by Harold Hill's conniving.

A splice of New York City Broadway came to GSC on March 5-7 and everyone was delighted. In fact, standing ovations honored the end of the performances each night and everyone in any way associated with the production deserved every minute of the praise.

Charlie Cowell (Bill Anderson) tries desperately to break up the love affair between Marian and Harold.

Music Man Receives Rave Reviews

The Music Man, Meredith Wilson's 1957 prize-winning musical, brought smiles and a few tears to many eyes. The story of the red, white, and blue American Dream was well performed by the 38 member cast.

Dan DePugh, as Professor Harold Hill, a slick traveling salesman, and Pam Perry, portraying Marain Paroo, River City, Iowa's spinster Librarian, excellently displayed their singing abilities. Both Dan and Pam won many hearts through their exciting performances of their tender love story.

Mayor Shinn, played by Danny Bayer and Eulalie Mackecknie Shinn, played by Kelly Davis, were the showstoppers, and although it is a hard decision to make, they made their characters hilarious standouts.

Every situation in life must have a "black sheep" and The Music Man was no exception. Charlie Cowell was the slimy salesman who constantly tried to throw a monkey wrench into everyone's plans. Bill Anderson portrayed Charlie to his slimiest.

Marcellus, played by Mickey McDonald, was a cross between a carnival barker and a younger Jackie Gleason. Mrs. Paroo, portrayed by Dana Balachowski, could sing with the best of them. She hit every note in the book and then some. The children acted like old pros and the Wa Tan Ye Girls played the part of a vaudeville girlie group to perfection.

The Del Sart Ladies and the Board of Education Quartet provided many enjoyable moments throughout the play with their hilarious antics and fine voices. Another delight was offered by the presence of children in the play.

All in all, it was one of the best we have seen here at GSC. The whole production, cast and directors, should give themselves a big pat on the back because the magic only happens now and then.

Clowns were a welcome addition to the GSC Homecoming, "Send in the Clowns."

Exhibits such as this were open for all interested women on campus who were going through open-rush.

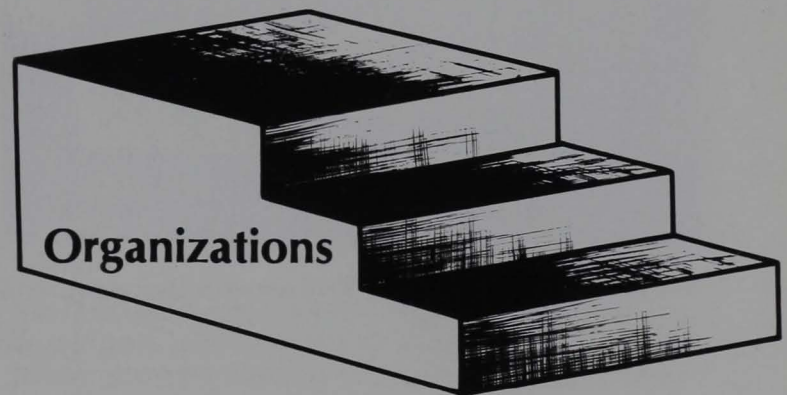

One act plays were produced by the Drama 399 class, as part of their directing experience.

The Commode Bowl, featuring the three Fraternities is an annual event.

Alpha Psi Omega

Honorary Fraternity

Alpha Psi Omega is a national theatre fraternity. Selection for this honorary is based upon on-stage and back-stage work and is granted only to members of the Junior and Senior class.

New initiates were: Bill Anderson — an English major; Tim Brown — a Business major; Jo Cooper — an Elementary education major; Tammi Igo — an English major; Raeleen McMillion — an English major; Lois Miller — a Business major; Sheila Moran — an Elementary education major; Jennifer Morton — an Oral Communications/History major and Lisa Taylor — an English major.

New members of Alpha Psi are (row 1) Raeleen McMillion, Jo Cooper, Lois Miller (sitting), Bill Anderson, Tim Brown, Tammi Igo, (row 2) Jennifer Morton, Sheila Moran, and Lisa Taylor.

Mrs. Linda McKown and Louis Kent discuss technical problems with the "Marigolds" play.

Ohningohow Players

The Ohningohow Players are the oldest Greek organization on the GSC campus. They are also the oldest organization in the State, originating in Fairmont, WV. The members of the group help with the plays, working on lights, make-up, sets, props and costumes.

The members also present "Reader's Theatres" and an annual children's play.

Five Couples Vie for "Cutest Couple"

The annual "Cutest Couple" contest was held April 7-8, 1982, with five couples vying for the title. The contest was sponsored by the Delta Zeta Pledges. The students and faculty of GSC were able to vote for their favorite couple by the penny-a-vote method.

The couples were: Larry Taylor a sophomore Physical Education major from St. Marys, WV, and Sandy Kincaid, a sophomore Elementary Education major from Fayetteville, WV.

Marvin Taylor, from Weston, WV, who is majoring in Business Administration, and LouEllen Wentz, a freshman majoring in Social Work. She is from Buckhannon.

Tina Hunt is a freshman from Nitro, WV, and is majoring in Elementary Education and John Huxley, a Junior from Parkersburg, majoring in Physical Education.

Lori Euler and Everette Sparr are both freshmen from Clendenin. Lori is an Elementary Education major and Everette is majoring in Business Administration.

The winners of the contest were Marilyn King and Bob Dinkler. Marilyn is a senior English major with a minor in Journalism. Her activities include the Sigma Sigma Sorority, Ladies of the White Rose, the Mercury staff, and majorette for the marching band.

Bob is a graduate student in Educational Administration. He is a GSC graduate of 1981. He currently serves as House Director for Louis Bennett Hall and is a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Tina Hunt and John Huxley

Marilyn King and Bob Dinkler were chosen as the 1981-82 "Cutest Couple."

Officers for the year were:

President — Sheila Martin
Vice President Membership — Susie Ballengee
Vice President Pledging — Jamie Copenhaver
Treasurer — Lora Park
Recording Secretary — Connie Tanner
Corresponding Secretary — Tina Helmick
Historian — Mary Grose

The Delta Zeta Sorority had a very active and productive year. The sisters started off by sponsoring the Senior, Sophomore and Freshman princesses at Homecoming and also placed second with their float. Delta Zetas are active in much on campus, as well as in the community. They helped with the annual Blood Drive, Heart Fund, and Muscular Dystrophy Week. The annual Spaghetti Dinner was again a success, and another fund-raising event that went well was the Softball Tournament that was sponsored by the DZs.

The Delta Zetas are proud of Dena Dunlap who represented our chapter at the Delta Zeta National Convention, which was held in New Orleans. There she was honored with the Florence Hood Minor Award and became known as the Delta Zeta's most outstanding Junior in the nation. State Day was worth traveling to Beckley where the DZ's won several state awards, including the Scholarship and Attendance. The year came to a close with the annual Closed Ball, which was held at the Gateway Inn at Huntington. Thus ends another great year for the Delta Zeta Sorority at GSC.

Officers for the 1981-82 year were: Mary Grose — Historian; Lora Parks — Treasurer; Jamie Copenhaver — V.P. of Pledging; President — Sheila Martin; V.P. of Membership — Susie Ballengee; Rec. Sec. — Connie Tanner; Cor. Sec. — Tina Helmick.

On October 1, 2 and 3, Glenville State College was introduced to the 1971 Pulitzer Prize-winning play, "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds," by Paul Zinder. The play, under the direction of Mrs. Linda McKown was well-accepted by the audiences.

Excellent performances by the five-woman cast became the accepted norm during each show. The cast consisted of Barbara Nicholson as Beatrice, the embittered mother and ringleader of the Hunsdorfer Family Circus; Cara Keenan as Ruth, the older half-mad daughter who was victim to nightmares and convulsions; Tammi Igo as Tillie, the younger daughter, who was a believer in atoms, hope and the effect of gamma rays on man-in-the-moon-marigolds; Liz Sweeney as Nanny, an ancient shut-in who provided the Hunsdorfer family's sole income; and Debby Dean as Janice Vickery, a finalist in the High School Science Fair.

The three embittered women of the Hunsdorfer Household involved in a normal family argument.

Although the GSC Football team did not finish with a good record in 1981, however the Pioneers did provide some excitement and gained valuable experience while doing so.

GSC's final record was 1-8, with the highlight of the season being a thrilling 24-23 win over West Liberty in the Homecoming game in the third week of the season. The Pioneers scored two touchdowns in the final four minutes, including a remarkable 100-yard kick-off return by Scott Pottmeyer, to pull off the great win.

Only two members completed their senior seasons this year. Steve Gandee and David Boggess were the two senior co-captains. Gandee, who received Honorable Mention in the All-West Virginia Conference Team, caught 26 passes for 432 yards and scored 47 points, including extra points and field goals. Boggess was the team's leading rusher with 444 yards on 119 carries.

With only two players leaving, GSC should have a strong nucleus for next years' squad.

Coaches for the 1982 season were Frank Vincent, Head Coach, and Assistant Coaches Ollie Pottmeyer, Jerry Milliken, Randy Hunt, Mark Reger and Gary Nottingham.

Steve Williams uses timing and balance to punt the ball on a fourth down.

Steve (Reno) Gandee adds an extra point to a Pioneer touchdown.

Harriers Travel To Nationals

The 1981 Cross Country Team consists of (Row 1) P.K. Coon, Larry Taylor, Lee Haddox, Craig Bock, Janine Howley, (Row 2) Steve Keenan, Biddle Williams, Frank Lewis, Steve Roberts, Billy Belcher and Dr. Jim Hilgenberg.

Cross Country as a team sport at GSC finally reached the top in 1981. For the first three years of the existence of the fall sport at Glenville, the Pioneer team, coached by Dr. Jim Hilgenberg, Jr., finished second in the West Virginia Conference Competition.

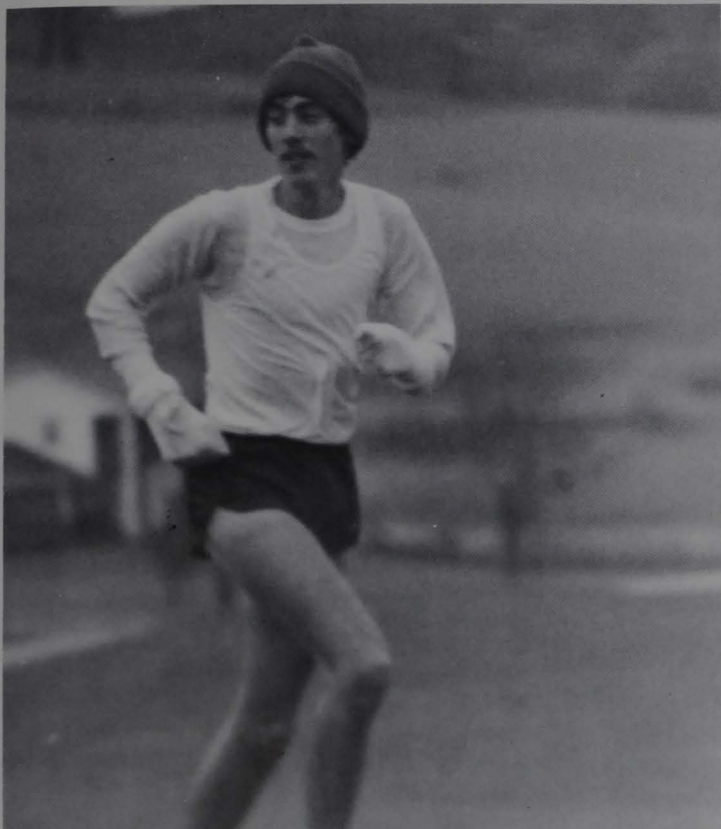

Things changed, however, as GSC won it all in 1981. The Pioneers defeated Fairmont and five other conference schools in the WVC meet and qualified for National Competition in Wisconsin. The chance to run in the Nationals came from a long season of hard work and dedication. GSC was 27-1 in the WVC.

Coon, the team's four-year captain and Bock were the only seniors. Taylor and Haddox were both named to the All-Conference Team. Taylor received the honor for the second year in a row.

Dr. Hilgenberg remarked, "The guys put a lot of work into the season. They deserved to be Conference Champs."

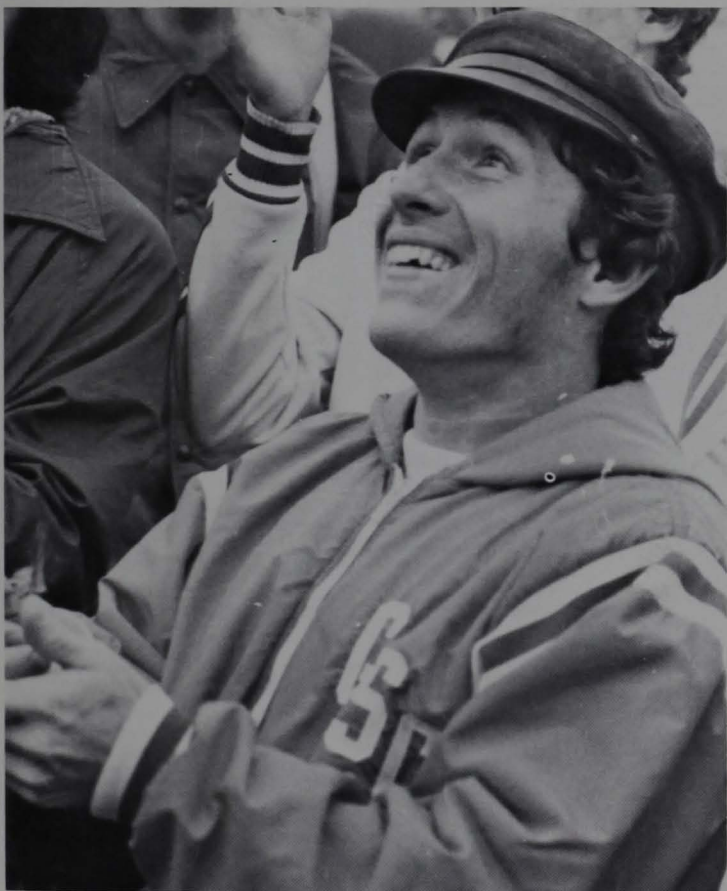

Lee Haddox, P.K. Coon and Larry Taylor wait anxiously for fellow team members to cross the finish line.

Lee Haddox, a freshman, was named to the All-Conference Team.

Billy Belcher, a three year member of the team, pushes himself against the clock at the GSC Invitational.

Larry Taylor found the thrill of victory sweet as he opened a bottle of champagne.

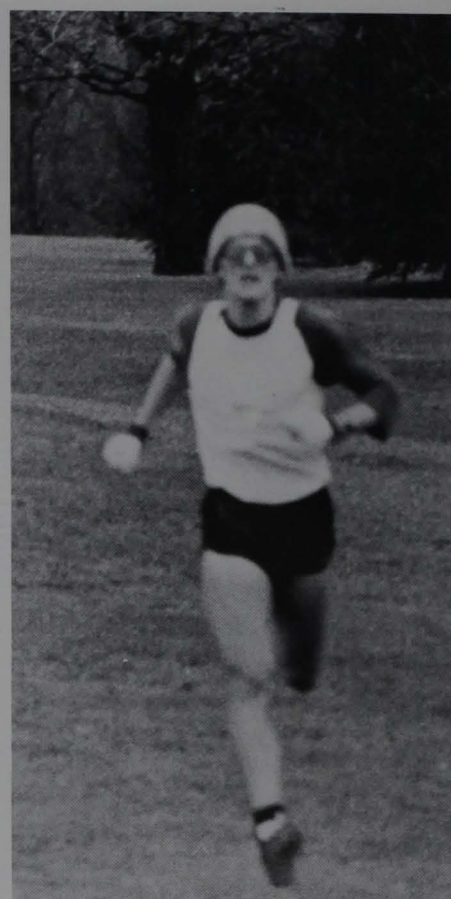

Biddle William learned early in the season that cross country running was an endurance test.

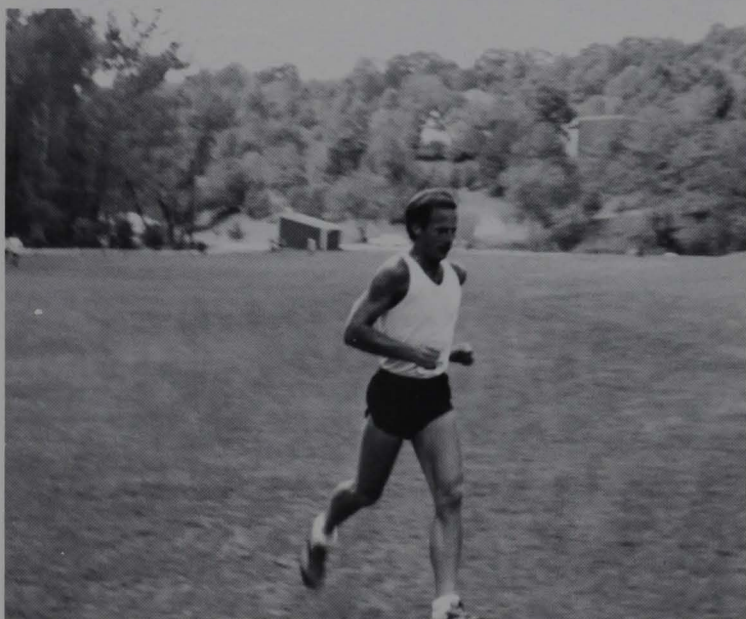

P.K. Coon was the only four-year member of the award winning squad.

Lee Haddox is followed closely by an opponent. Lee was named as a member of the All-Conference Team.

Steve Keenan was chosen as the sophomore captain of the team. To keep warm Steve wears a toboggan.

Steve Roberts takes the lead in the GSC Invitational, held at the Gilmer County Golf Course.

Lee Haddox, a freshman on the squad, finds that sweats, a sweat shirt and a toboggan helps to keep him warm.

Craig Bock finds that Cross Country racing takes a great deal of endurance. He had just passed a checkpoint on the race.

Larry Taylor gets stiff competition from a West Liberty runner.

Steve Keenan runs sandwiched in between two Fairmont State harriers.

GSC Pioneers End Season 11-17

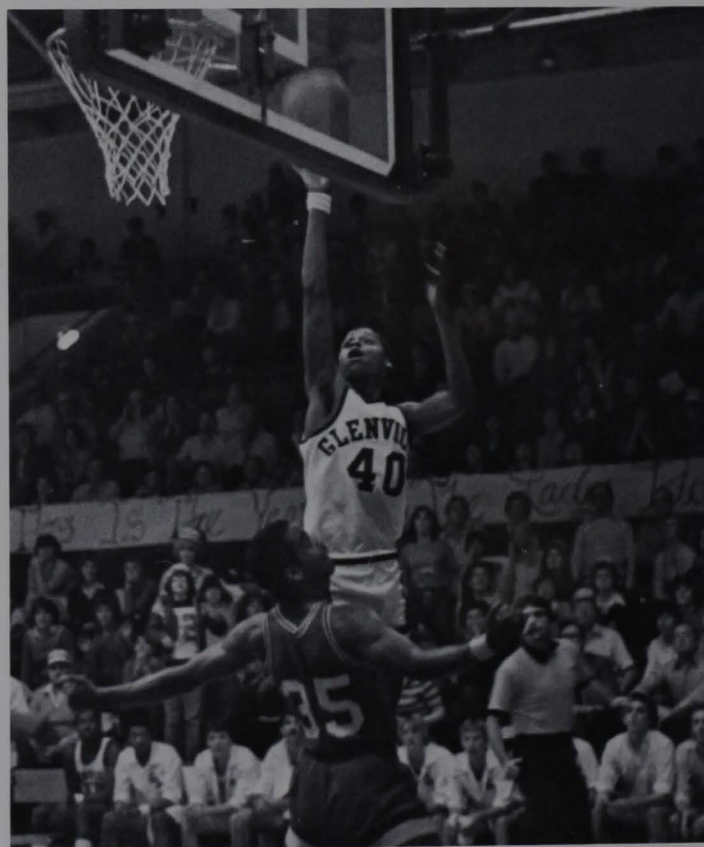

1981-82 Basketball members (left to right, Row 1) Randy Anderson, Scott Ludwig, Rich Moore, Ricky Smith, Brian Pearis, Mike Forbes, Bob Bolen, Billy Lilly, Ron Allen. (Row 2) Coach Jesse Lilly, Kenny Osborne — Manager, Mike Morrison, Don Bullett, William Woodland, Chris Bell, Clay Young, Derick Miller, Jerome Hampton, Gary Nottingham (Assistant Coach).

An overall record of 11-17 was achieved by the Pioneer Men's Basketball team in the 1981-82 season. The Pioneers were 8-14 in the West Virginia Conference, including an exciting upset of Fairmont State College at the GSC gym.

Three seniors, Don Bullett, Mike Forbes, and Bill Lilly finished their careers at GSC. Bullett, who was an All-WVC selection in 1981 and a strong candidate for the 1982 team, finished his career with 1,854 points for a 16.1 average. Forbes had 658 career points for a 6.3 average, while Lilly saw little playing time in four years.

Leading returners for next years squad will be Scott Ludwig, Randy Anderson, and Clay Young. Ludwig averaged 15.6 points a game in his junior year and Anderson averaged 4.9 points and 4.5 assists in his junior year. Transfer Clay Young, a sophomore, had 14.6 points and 8.8 rebounds a game for GSC. He was awarded a trophy for Most Valuable Player on a first-round losing team at the WVC Tourney Game, in which he scored 27 points and had 14 rebounds.

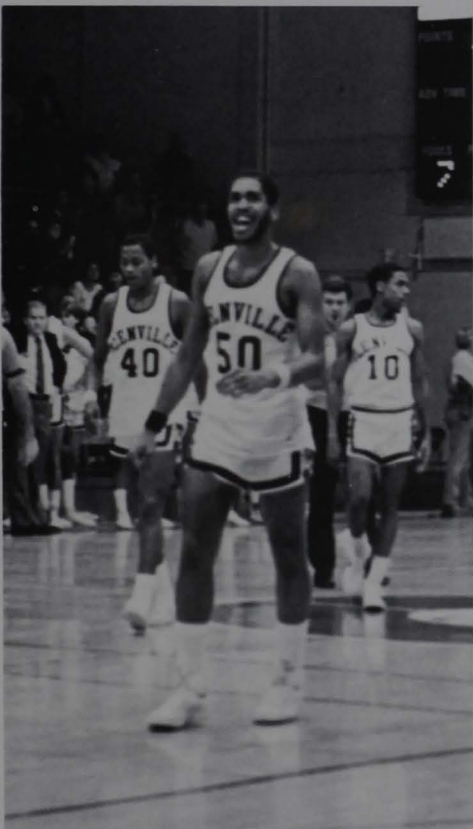

Don Bullett goes underneath in an attempt for two points.

Junior Scott Ludwig was a sure outside shooter for the Pioneers.

Coach Nottingham gives advice to forward Randy Anderson concerning the defense.

The Pioneers showed their spirit through winning the games and hard work.

'Mr. Hustle' Randy Anderson displays his quickness and agility in a scramble for the ball.

Clay Young, a sophomore forward goes up for two against Davis and Elkins.

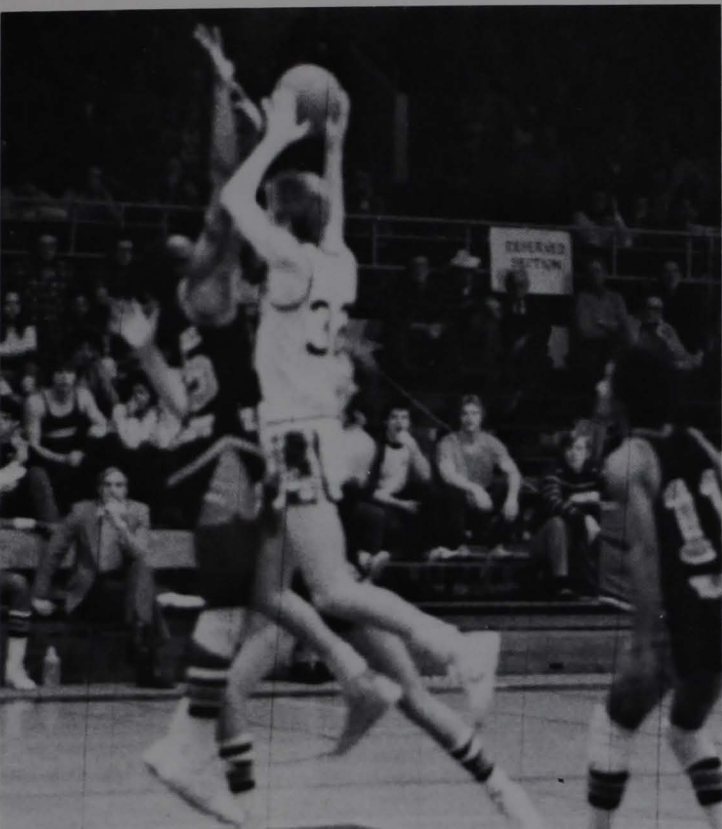

Jerome Hampton takes a long corner shot to help raise the GSC score.

In tough competition the support from the bench is a big help for the Pioneers.

Senior Don Bullett was one of the leading scorers for the GSC Pioneers this season.

Richard Moore came off the bench to play guard in several key Pioneer games.

Scott Ludwig was chosen the leading percentage shooter in the nation at one time in the season.

Bill Lilly adds a technical foul point to beat Alderson-Broaddus.

Women's Basketball Shows Pioneer Spirit

Pam Minigh finds the court too crowded under the basket.

Maria Lothes makes a shot from the baseline against the Fairmont State Lady Falcons.

The GSC Women's basketball team had yet another fine season this year, as the Lady Pioneers went 15-8 and placed third in the West Virginia Conference Tournament in Buckhannon, WV.

The 15-8 record moved Coach Tim Carney's three-year total to 49-17.

In the WVC Tourney, GSC's gals defeated Bluefield and Fairmont before losing a close 74-73 contest to the University of Charleston in the semi-finals. Then they beat Davis and Elkins in the consolation game for third place.

Two seniors, Pam Linger and Donita Cox, finished their seasons at Glenville. Linger, the team's senior captain had almost 900 points in her four year career.

Next years squad should be strong. Returning will be Pam Minigh, Bunny Taylor, Sonja Bailey, and ten others. Minigh, an all-around performer who received All-Tournament Honors, went over 1,000 points in her junior year. Taylor, who led the team in assists and steals was also an All-Tournament pick. Receiving the Heart and Hustle Award for her scrappy play at the tourney was Sonja Bailey, a sophomore.

Robin Phipps (Front) and Pam Linger (Back) guard a West Virginia State Player.

Bunny Taylor takes a shot over a defensive player's hand.

Kim Maynard takes a long shot to add two more points for a Glenville victory.

Pam Linger's inside shot was knocked away by the defense.

Maria Lothes takes the ball to the inside for an inside shot against WV State.

The 1981-82 Women's Basketball Team consists of: (Row 1) Shelly Tharp, Donita Cox, Bunny Taylor, Sonja Bailey, Cathy Starcher, Judy Niday. (Row 2) Tim Carney, Pam Minigh, Robin Phipps, Jill Burkheimer, Maria Lothes, Janice Hensley, Kim Maynard, Laura Dabney, Paula Bush, Pam Linger and Assistant Coach Mark Kozlowski.

Pam Linger and Bunny Taylor battle against Fairmont for control of the ball.

With all the experience the GSC Squad received this season, it should be a top contender again next season.

Maria Lothes was able to use her height the opposing teams.

Coach Tim Carney discusses defensive strategy with the Lady Pioneers.

Bunny Taylor shoots from the outside in tournament play.

Pam Minigh scored over 1,000 points in her three year college career.

The Pioneer cheerleaders brought an immense amount of support with them to the Tourney in Charleston.

Jeff Campbell and Jeff Chapman (with his face painted) came to the Tourney all painted up for action.

Spirit Caps, Warpaint, Bad Bandanas!

Pioneer Tommy Davisson rouses the spirit of fans by running around the court with GSC flag.

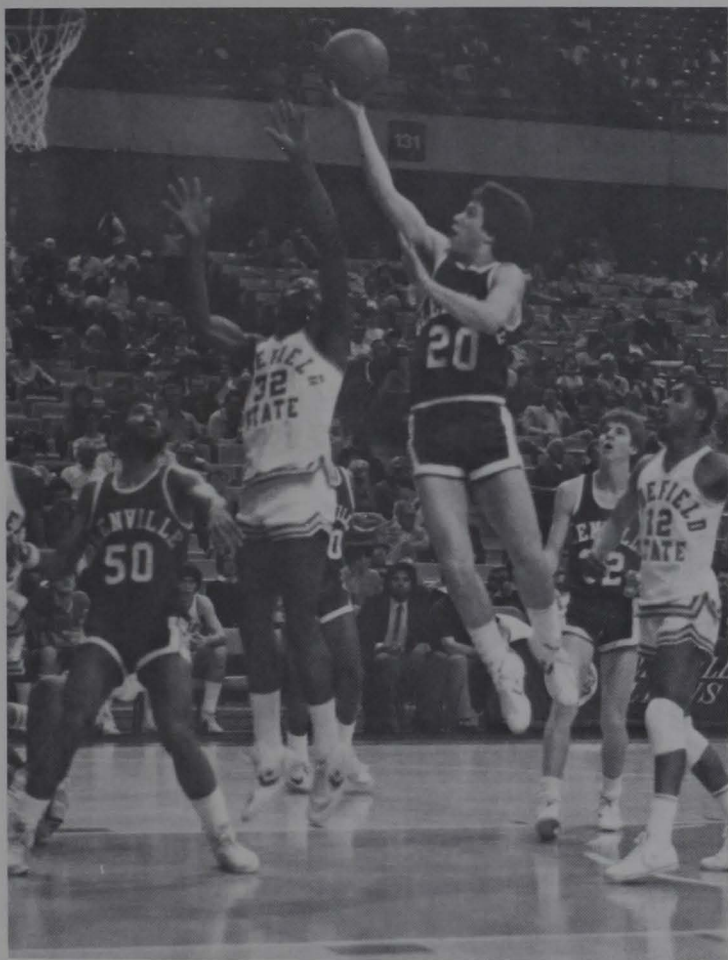

Crowds are always at the Civic Center in Charleston when Tourney time comes around. Alumni and students can always find the time to support the Pioneers.

The Lady Pioneers placed third in the WV Conference but to the students of GSC they're #1.

Randy Anderson makes a quick pass to another Pioneer against Bluefield in the Civic Center.

Scott Ludwig goes up for two while Clay Young waits under the basket for a possible rebound.

A special aura surrounds post-season basketball tournaments. As the regular season approaches a close, players, coaches, and fans alike begin gearing up for tourney play, the "second season" as it is widely known. As is the same with intense rivalries, all records can be thrown out the window when tournament time rolls around. Anything can and will happen.

Tournaments are no different with GSC fans. As a matter of fact, Pioneer supporters usually are the most vocal, active group of fans at tourney time. A large contingent of GSC fans annually make the trip to Charleston, or Buckhannon, or wherever, to cheer the Pioneers on. The best group of cheerleaders around, the Pioneer cheering squad, leads the rabid GSC fans, using 'bad bandanas, spirit caps, and war paint' to raise the spirits.

The kind of support that GSC fans give at tourney time has helped Pioneer teams to win many games throughout the years.

On the GSC campus five young men and women carry the burden of keeping the Pioneer spirit flowing. Early in the spring of 1981 cheerleaders were chosen. The first step to a good cheering squad was holding camp.

The girls went to camp in August at Virginia Polytechnic State University for the Universal Cheerleading Association.

The team, consisting of Head cheerleader Angel Goddard, Donna Bumgardner, Beth Carpenter, Mary Gross and Melissa Simpson. The girls left the competition with the highest honors in the all-girl competition of 28 schools.

In November the male cheerleaders were chosen. The male cheerleaders for the basketball season included: Mike Simpson, Danny Barnhouse, Doug Payne, Scott Taylor and Kevin Johnson.

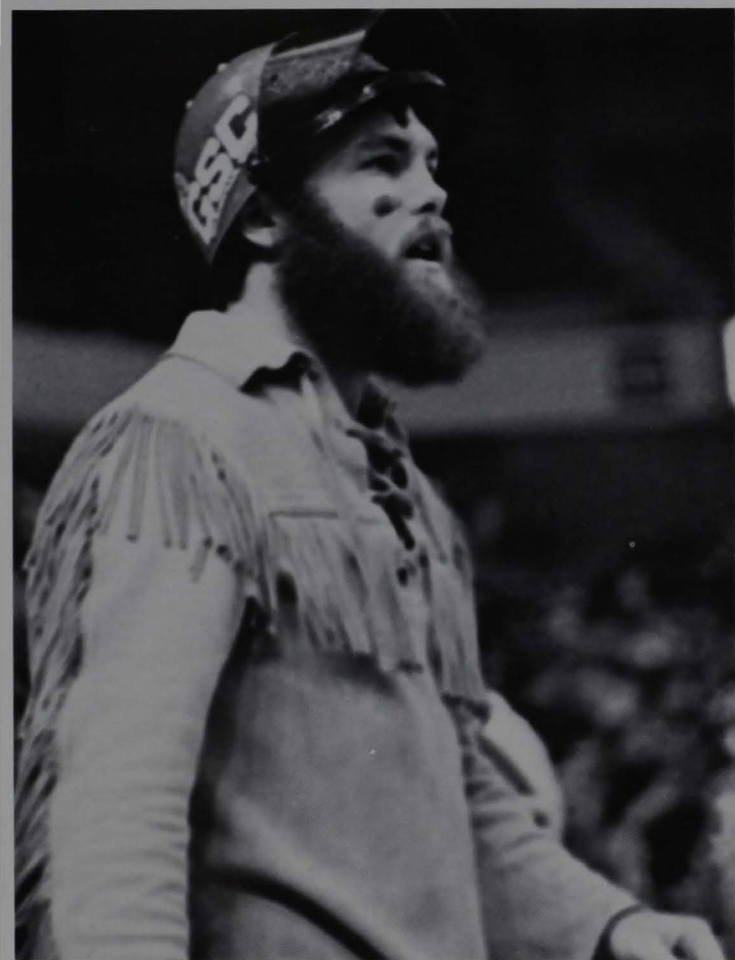

The final step for the Cheerleaders was to compete in Charleston at the WVC Tournaments. Miss Angel Goddard, a senior and Head Cheerleader of the squad, was chosen among three of the best cheerleaders at the tourney.

The cheerleaders went to great heights to raise spirit at the basketball games.

Male cheerleaders for the 1981-82 season are Scott Taylor, Danny Barnhouse, Mike Cotrell, Mike Simpson and Kevin Johnson. Later in the season Doug Payne was added to the squad.

Tom Davisson served as the GSC Pioneer during all the football and basketball games.

Cheerleaders Raise Spirits

Building pyramids was one of the specialties of the GSC Cheerleading squad. The Pioneer helped in these spirit raising cheers.

Bill Welch uses his forehand to return a serve from an opponent

The membrs of the 1982 Tennis Team are: Bill Welch, Jeff Borah, David Clites, Randy Anderson, (row 2) Randy Heckman, John Waldeck, Steve Meckfessel, and Coach Gary Nottingham.

Jeff Borah, a four year member of the team concentrates on the ball returned by the opposing team.

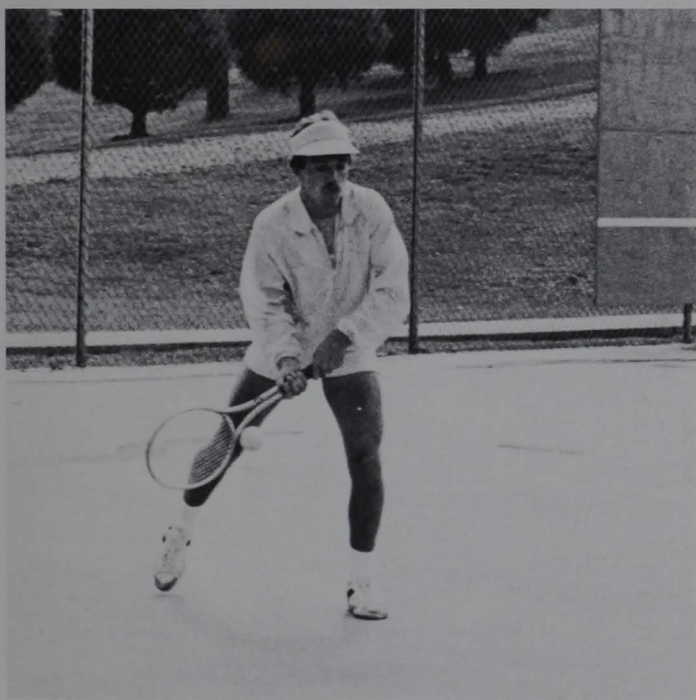

Steve Meckfessel puts his all into returning a serve.

David Clites awaits his opponent's serve.

Virgil Davis crosses the finish line first for Glenville in a relay sprint.

Larry Taylor and a Fairmont defender keep neck-in-neck in the distance run.

Gary Brissey ran the hurdles for the Pioneers this year.

Don Bullett, a senior, ran for the Pioneers during the year. Don ran the 400 meters sprint and several relays.

GSC Thinclads Cop Third in Conference

The 1982 Men's Track team got off to a slow start, but as the season rolled by, the thinclads of GSC pushed to end their season ranked third in the conference. Everyday the students on the track team practiced by running miles and miles, lifting weights and stretching for a season that lasted three months.

Track is one of the most individualized sports at GSC. While each person must compete by himself or with other members of a relay, the satisfaction of crossing the finish line first, or receiving a trophy is a team enjoyment. Standouts on this year's team included Ken Minifield, a freshman sprinter, Mark Price and Larry Taylor.

With the finish line tape only yards away, Kenny Minifield pushes hard to win another first place.

Coach Jerry Milliken lends Larry Taylor a steadying hand after a distance race.

Runners help one another stretch out after and before events.

Mark Price breaks the finish line tape to bring Glenville another first place finish at the GSC Invitational.

Scott Pottmeyer awaits the starting gun in the 800 meter relay.

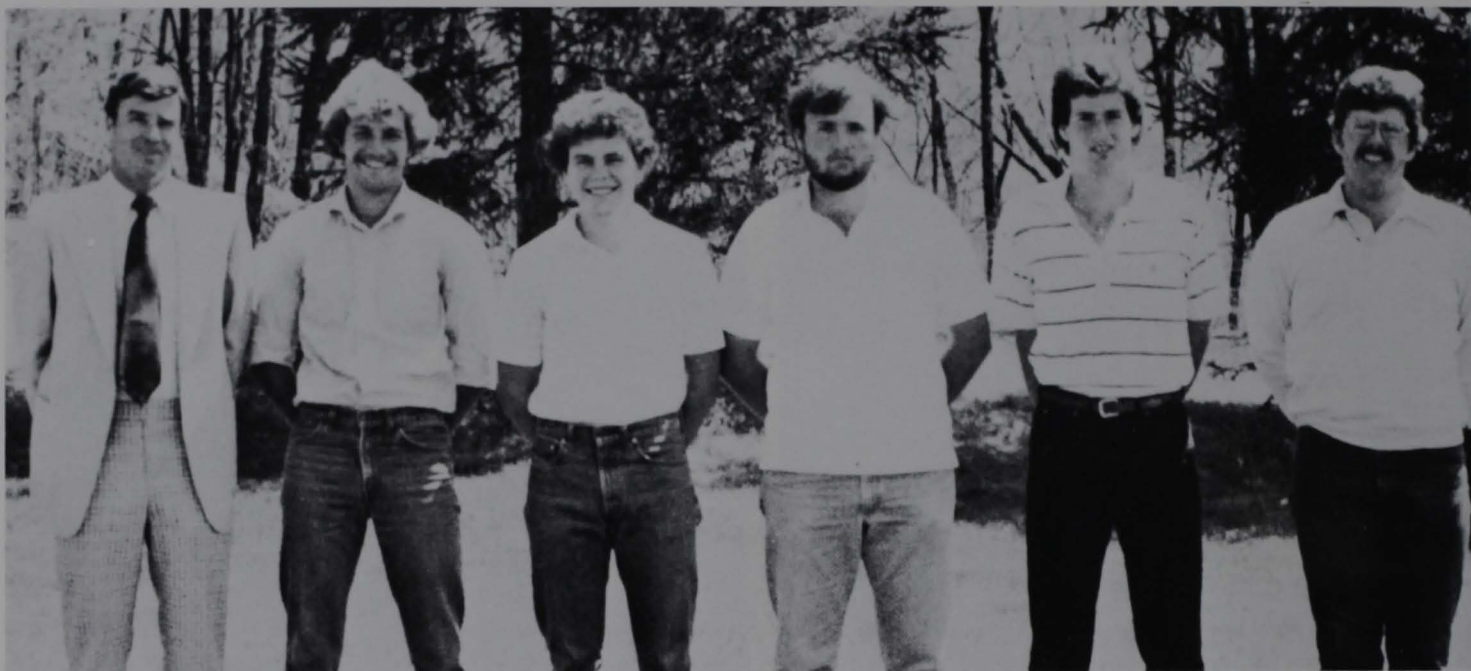

Kenny Minfield contemplates before another sprint at the Conference Meet.

Glenville's own Scott Pottmeyer, Don Bullett, and Mark Price all push towards the finish line tape in the 220 meter dash.

The 1981-82 Golf Team consisted of Coach Tim Carney, Gordie DeLaat, John Forrest, Dave Lamm, Randy Slabaugh and Jerry Kurjian.

It Takes Concentration to Putt

The 1982 Golf Team swung into action at the James Madison University tournament, placing 4th and then continued its success straight to the WVIAC Conference meet.

Coach Carney's men of the turf took all the experience the four returning lettermen possessed and rolled it into one golf ball, with "winning" written across it.

Although the squad was small, with only five members, they packed a swing that will be felt again in '83, when there will be four returning lettermen.

Keglers Finish Season 5-5

The 1981-82 Bowling team finished the season with a record of 5-5. Through the season, practice was held in the bowling alley in the basement of the Pioneer Center. The four returning lettermen helped new bowlers learn the ropes of college competition bowling. With experience which was left by old team members and the new ideas of new members, the team progressed through the season.

June Casto and Janice Hensley ran distance for the Lady Pioneers.

The Lady Pioneers competed in four meets during the '82 season, compiling a record that placed them fourth in the Conference.

Individually for the Pioneers, Marion (Poncho) Richards won two events, the shot put and the discus. Karen Terry placed second in the javelin and the freshman Laura Dabney helped to lift the team's winning spirits.

Carol Wilson and Brenda Kinnison (left) prepare themselves for a grueling relay.

Baseball Players Experience Heartaches to Homeruns

"Batter Up!" is one of the most common sounds associated with the springtime and that great American sport — baseball. Ollie Pottmeyer's team faced many problems in the training season, which hampered their playing. One hindrance was the fact that the Pioneers could not use their home field advantage over other teams. Early in the season, bad weather plagued the Glenville area, and caused heavy damage to the field.

The Pioneers also lost the pitchers they had in previous years. New team members and returning team members all tried their hand at the successful fast ball, curve and spitball, but to no avail.

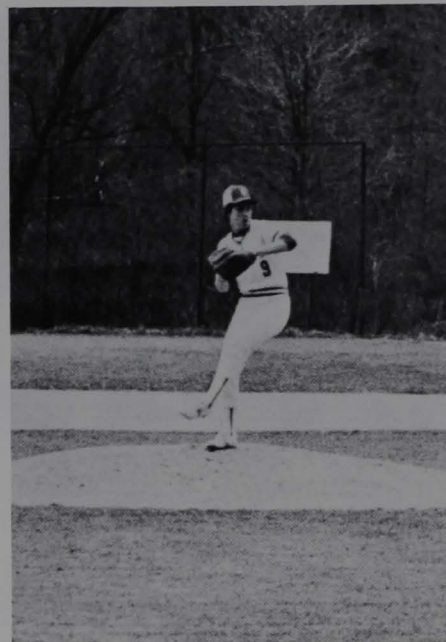

The extensive travel, lack of sufficient pitching members and no home field advantage left the Pioneers with a 10-21 record.

The annual trip south, made during GSC's spring break gained the Pioneers the much-needed experience, yet, when they returned, the season looked longer than ever.

The team will only be losing three of its members to graduation, and this year's playing experience will be a big factor in next season's record.

Randy Edges watches to see if a catch is made on his fly ball.

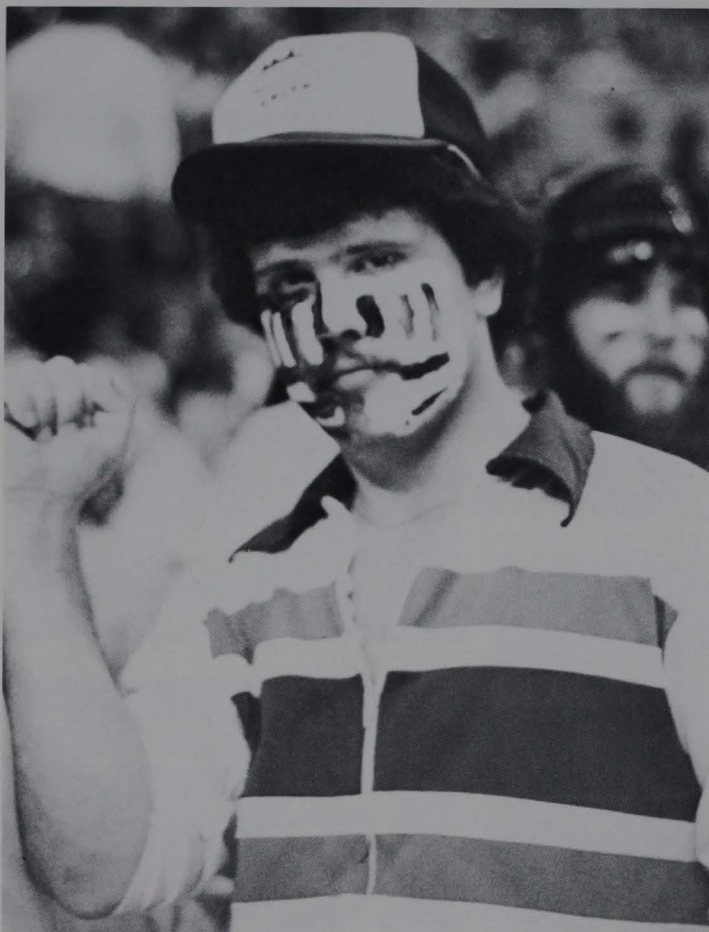

Freshman Everett Sparr reads the signals and readies himself for a curve ball.

Jeff Metheny awaits a bunt. Jeff played third base for the Pioneers.

During Tournaments, Jeff Chapman painted his face blue and white.

Glenville always has a large crowd during the Basketball Tournaments in Charleston.

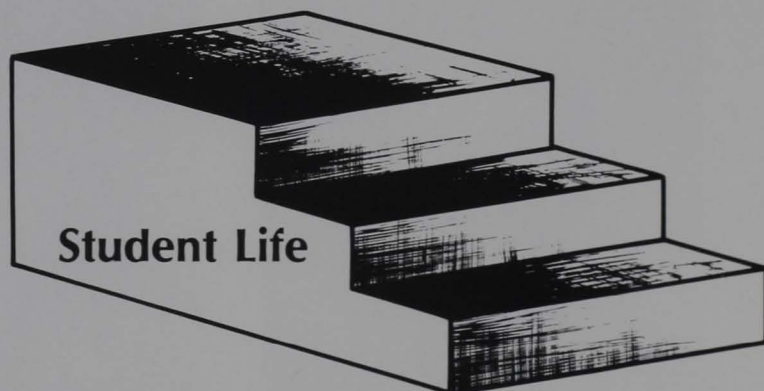

When spring comes to GSC, the students enjoy being out-of-doors. Some entertainment is always handy, such as this banjo session.

With their 'bad bandanas' and spirit caps the students enjoy being rowdy at Basketball games, especially when we're winning.

Student Congress bought the campus these new trash cans and sponsored a "stash the trash" day.

The Miss GSC Pageant 1982, held March 31 in the GSC Auditorium, saw Carolyn Snodgrass crowned Miss GSC 1982. Carolyn, a 19-year-old sophomore majoring in Music Education, is from Milton, WV. In the talent competition, Carolyn played the flute, and in the evening gown competition, she wore a green cap-sleeved gown. Carolyn won the preliminary swimsuit competition, wearing a purple bathing suit. She was sponsored by Music Educators National Conference.

First runner-up was Lori Euler, a freshman Elementary Education major from Pinch, WV. Lori's talent was a jazz dance, and her evening gown was an off-the-shoulder lavender color. Lori won the evening gown phase of the competition and was sponsored by the Sigma Sigma Sigma Pledges.

Second runner-up was junior Business Administration major, Melissa Simpson. Melissa hails from Weston, WV, and was sponsored by the Sigma Sigma Sorority. For the talent competition, Melissa performed a modern dance.

Miss GSC "Shines It On"

Winner of the talent competition was Traci Carter, a junior Elementary Education major, who is a resident of Milton, WV. A piano solo was Traci's talent, and for the evening gown competition she wore a plum-colored off-the-shoulder gown. Traci was sponsored by Kappa Delta Pi.

"Miss Congeniality," Melissa Sellers, is a freshman History major, who hails from Melbourne Beach, Fla. In the talent phase of the competition, Melissa performed a dance and gymnastics routine. She wore a yellow chiffon gown for the evening gown competition. Melissa was sponsored by The Spirit of Fashion.

Special guests for the pageant were Gus Pettit Master of Ceremonies; Candy Cohen, Miss West Virginia 1981; Miss Fran Davis, Miss GSC 1981, Miss Angel Goddard, Miss GSC 1980, and Miss Vicki Parrish, Miss GSC 1979. The special guests entertained the audience with songs and dance routines and also performed the opening act with the contestants.

Miss GSC was sponsored by the Student Congress.

Third Annual GSC Week Celebrated

Dr. Eldoonie entertained the GSC population with his many card and magic tricks.

Glenville State College Week and Field Day was sponsored April 13-17 by the GSC Student Congress. The third annual event was again well-received and enjoyed very much by GSC students, faculty and staff. GSC Week began on Tuesday, April 13 with the opening of the West Virginia Culture Rig and concluded on Saturday, April 17 with a concert by the Amazement Park Revue, from Cedar Point.

Other activities during the week included a hands-on contest, sponsored by Pickens and Louis Bennett Halls, a student, faculty and staff picnic, a music contest, the International Club exhibition; wildlife exhibit, a square dance, arts and crafts fair, a magic show, a donut eating contest, a Rubik's cube contest, and everyone's favorite, Field Day. Though Field Day was rained upon again this year, all those who attended enjoyed the nice friendly competition and camaraderie.

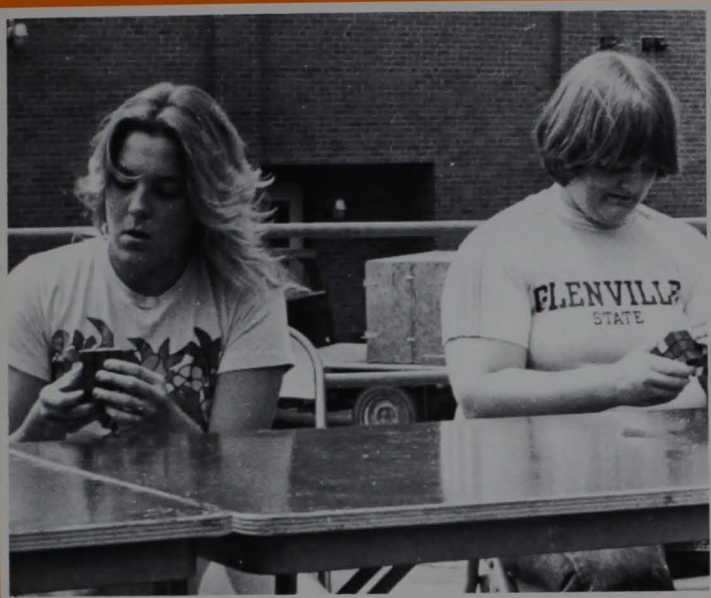

Overall, the third annual GSC Week and Field Day was a success. All those who participated received mugs and ribbons and some cash prizes.

On May 16, four years of hard work and dedication, good times, bad times and many memory-making times were culminated in the reception of a diploma from Glenville State College by 307 graduates.

The pomp and ceremony of a college graduation was definitely present in the GSC gymnasium, despite the extreme heat, as GSC President William K. Simmons conferred the graduates' degrees.

Speaker for the graduation ceremonies was former GSC President, Dr. Harry B. Helfin. Dr. Helfin was also awarded the first Distinguished Pioneer Award by Dr. Simmons.

Other awards presented during the graduation ceremonies included the Outstanding Student Award, which was presented to Dena Dunlap; The Outstanding Faculty Member Award, which was presented to Dr. Bruce Flack. Outstanding Student Teacher Awards were presented to Janet Curry Singleton and Anita Smithson.

The Final Step

The picture at right is of the amphitheatre steps, after a heavy snowfall. As you close the 1982 edition of the Kanawhachen, with the theme, "Step by Step" take time to reflect upon the theme.

As college students, we took a large step in coming to college; choosing Glenville was another large step. Each person chose a field of study. Sometimes they changed their major or added another minor.

The final step was taken when 307 students received their diplomas. They now must become alumni, and may look back through this book with many memories. The staff and I hope this book will remind you of all the good times had at GSC—they were taken "Step by Step."
