The Kanawhachen acknowledges that there were more seniors who had their portrait taken in hopes of being included in this yearbook. We sincerely apologize for not having more of these pictures but this is all that we received. To those whose photos we didn't receive, hopefully you will find your picture elsewhere in this yearbook. If not, we hope that you will still enjoy this first yearbook, in almost a decade, as you reflect on the 2009-2010 academic year.

Homecoming 2009

Kristy Arrington was crowned
2009 Homecoming Queen by President Barr

Homecoming Queen Kristy Arrington
and Homecoming King Josh James

Serving as the 2009 Homecoming Parade Marshal was Ed Evans '82, the Alumni Association's 2009 Alumnus of the Year and America's Top Science Teacher of the of the Year. Dennis Pounds, GSC's Vice President for College Advancement and Executive Director of the GSC Foundation, drove Evans in the parade.

President Barr and his wife, Betsy

Some of the returning Mercury Staff members participated in the homecoming parade while others joined them later at the game.

GSC Alumni Association President Bill Deel (in top hat) chats with Professor Wayne de Rosset and others following the homecoming parade.

Alumnus of the Year Ed Evans '82 waves to the crowd as he is accompanied onto the track by GSC Pioneer Brock McVane, President Barr, and Alumni Association President Bill Deel.

Professor Emerita Yvonne King '57, GSC's longest serving advisor to "The Mercury" enjoyed seeing many of her former students return to campus for Homecoming 2009.

The Mercury was GSC's campus newspaper from 1929 – 2001.

Montrose and Williams Award Winners

Steven Blake
2009 Frank Montrose
Award Winner

Montrose Award

The prestigious Frank Montrose Award has been given annually since 1952 to GSC's top male athlete who graduated during the previous academic year. Selection criteria requires that the graduate be a good athlete, a scholar, a leader, and a person of high moral character. This award is named for Frank Montrose who came to Glenville in the fall of 1939 from Richwood High School (Richwood, WV) where he had established himself as a grid great. Shortly before final examinations in the spring of his freshman year, Frank went blind. A month later, in June 1940, the 21 year old Montrose died in a Baltimore hospital, a victim of nephritis.

Steven Blake was the 2009 Montrose Award winner. He lettered all four years as a member of the Pioneer track team. Steven competed in the shot put, discus, javelin, and hammer throw during his college career. He qualified for the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship meet all four years and, in his senior year, was captain of his Pioneer Track team. Additionally he was a member of the Pioneer Football team for two years.

Candace White-Young
2009 Clarissa Williams
Award Winner

Williams Award

The Williams Award was established in 1983 and is named for Miss Clarissa Williams, an Associate Professor of Physical Education at Glenville State College who began her career at the college in 1947 and served as the cheerleader sponsor until her retirement in 1964.

Candace White-Young was the 2009 Williams Award winner. She was a four-year starter at catcher and a three-year captain for the GSC softball team. Candace was awarded ALL Conference honors during her sophomore and junior years. She hit two walk-off homeruns to beat Seton Hill and Alderson-Broadbudd during the 2009 season and was a key component in the Lady Pioneer's runner-up finish in the WVIAC Tournament. Candace was also an outstanding student, receiving the WVIAC BB& T Student Athlete of the Year Award with a GPA of 3.89.

Good Luck, We Will Miss You...

Dr. Kathy Butler, GSC's Provost and Senior Vice President, left the college at the end of the 2010 academic year to pursue other job opportunities with the Higher Education Policy Commission in Charleston.

Kipp Colvin left GSC in June 2010 for a position at Wayne State College in Wayne, Nebraska.

Brenda McCartney, long time Associate Registrar, accepted retirement from GSC in July 2010 after thirty-four years of service.

Thanks to Annette Barnette, Bob Edwards, Dustin Crutchfield, and Matthew Thompson in GSC's Public Relations Department for providing most of these pictures to the Kanawachen. Without their willingness to share these pictures, this yearbook would not have materialized.

Debbie Nagy, Editor
