

Whispers of Yesterday

Crowds straining through the mind,
Faces quasi-blurred just as a picture that has faded with age.
Smiles — once vibrant and encouncing, now only whispers of what they seemed once.
A remembered brilliance:
Stars at their peak of activity,
Still aglow, yet not nearly as illuminating as
yesterday.

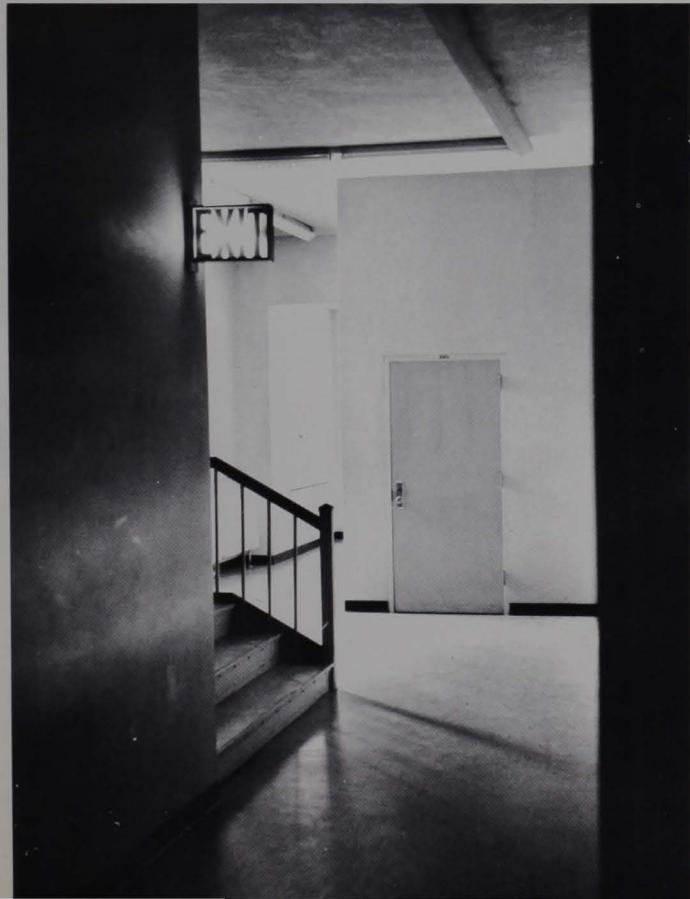

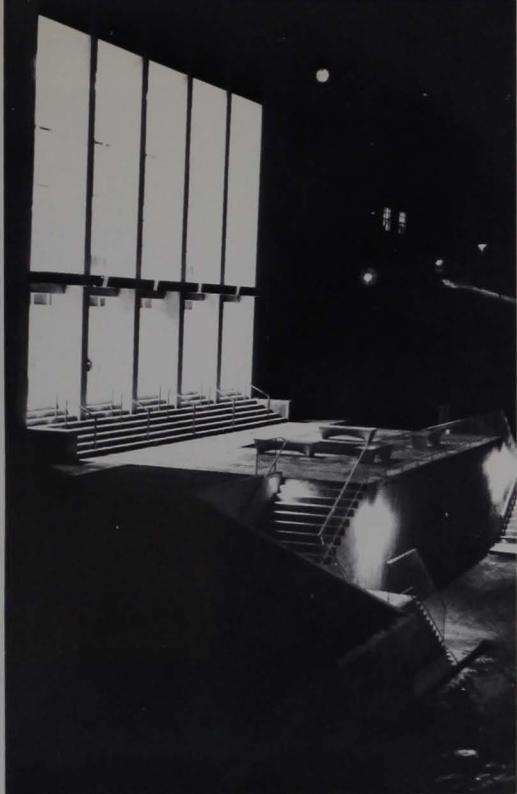

Remember . . .

"Big Ben" raucously arousing a sleepy world,

A deserted campus whose life begins unraveling, unwinding with the rude reality of dawn.

"Must" morning come so early in the day?"

A visage plodding semi-consciously through the dream world of mist and fog that surrounds him as he enters that world of today and knows it to be.

Remember . . .

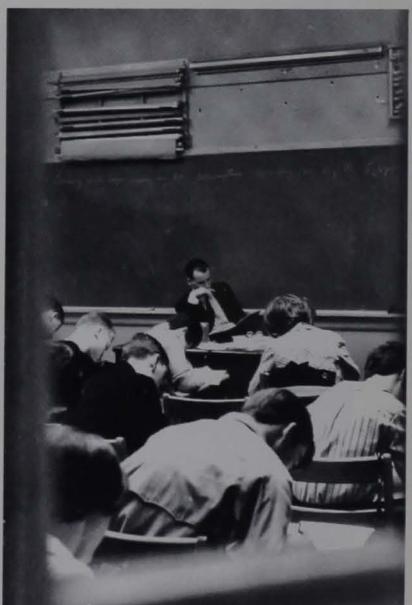

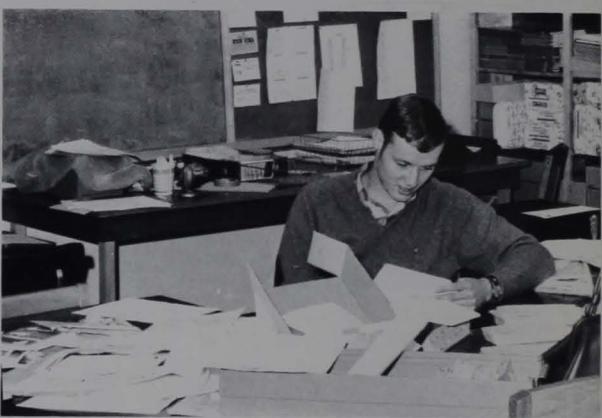

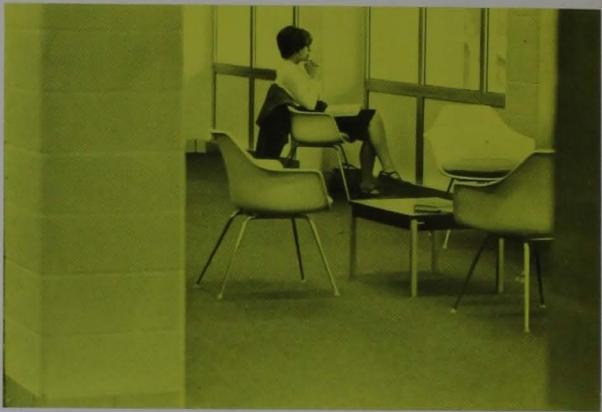

Passages — winding stairways and quotes from John Stewart Mill, both dark and circuitous to the predisposed mind.

Remember . . .

Moments of contemplation, meditations of unadulterated caliber, ponderings of reality, moments easily forgotten in the rigor of life outside the mind.

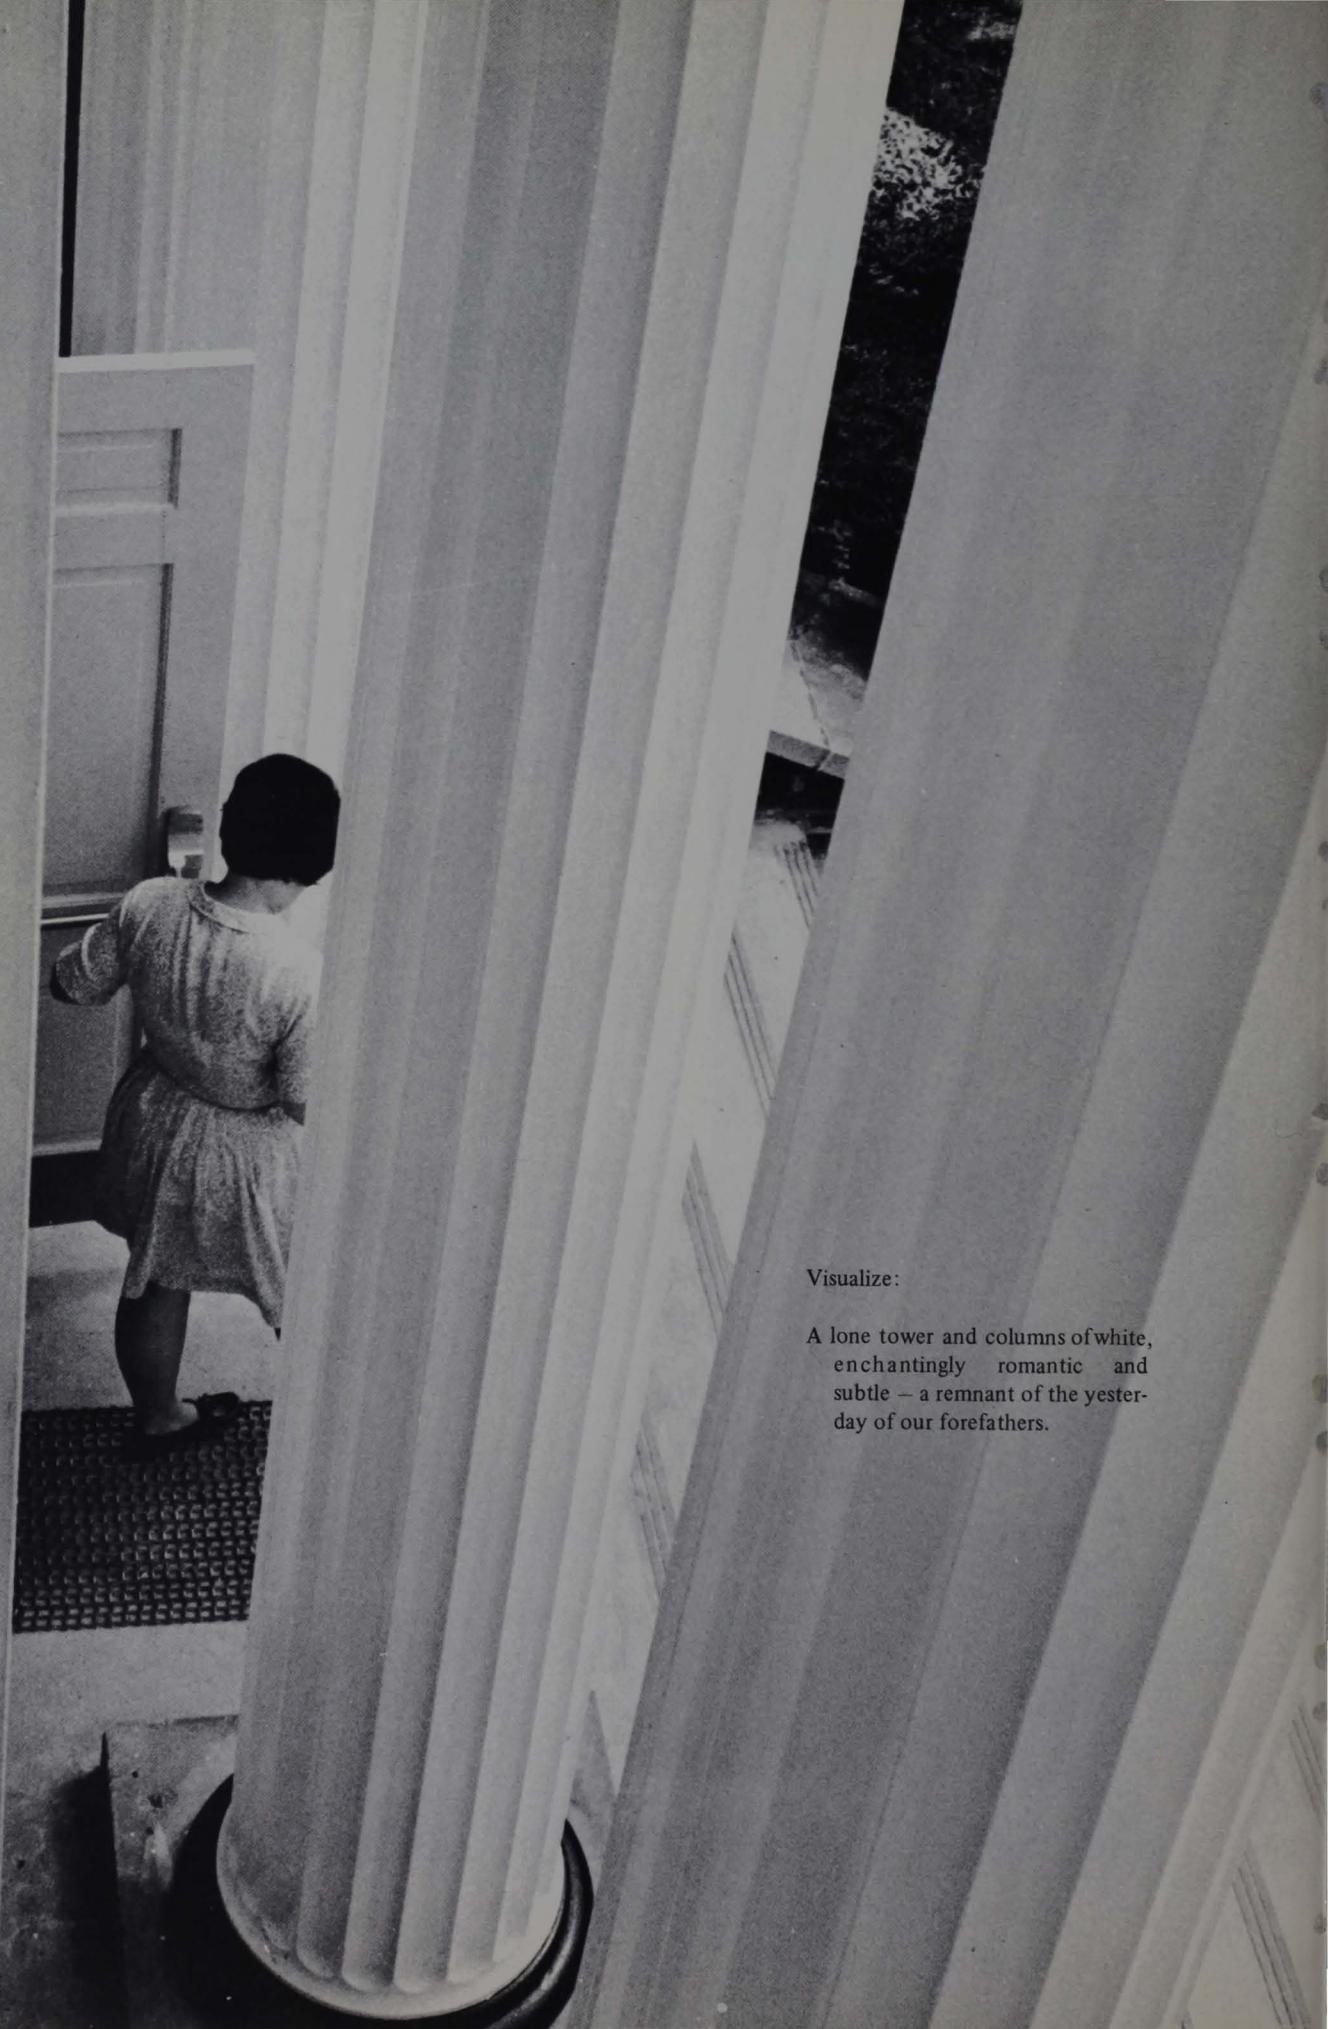

Remember . . .

Sunshine smiles and eyes that roar with laughter — sensitive hands that mold the clay and sensitive people who feel the good and the bad of being.

Visualize:

A lone tower and columns of white,
enchantingly romantic and subtle — a remnant of the yesterday of our forefathers.

Remember . . .

Attempts at converting the conventional to the unusual and the bitterness of discovering the difficulty of the task.

Isolation sets as does the sun upon a lone deserted shack.

Remember . . .

Discussions of politics – Will it be Humphrey, Nixon, or Wallace?

Remember . . .

Feelings as words of gentleness and sanguinity, as the blades of springtime grass.
Yet there were at times spurts of disconcertment, as errant autumn leaves and cold winter eves.

Remember . . .

Fortresses of knowledge or buildings of books spotting the hillside through the four phases of a year span. They stand as silent as the intangibility of their purpose. Yet they take sound within their maze as morning brings mankind into their newly opened mouths. Feelings felt, opinions expressed, thoughts evolved — all taking place within.

Those walls have known us all.

CLARK HALL

Reflections of a yesterday
Catafaulking from the mind's magical memory mirror,
Whispered within the depths of the inner ear, Humming melodiously, yet ever so softly as if when without one's utmost mental concentration the reflections and refractions would become nil.

WE DEDICATE

The 1969 Kanawhachen is dedicated to a man who has spent the greater part of his life in educational endeavors — Dr. Delmer K. Somerville, a Jackson County native who is married to a Jackson County lady, the former Audrey Sayre. He has devoted the past sixteen years to the betterment of education at Glenville State College; many are not aware of the extra hours he spends in his office at night working on schedules, catalogs, and other matters of importance for the benefit of students of Glenville State College.

Dr. Somerville earned his A. B. from Glenville University, his M.A. from West Virginia University, and his doctorate from Cornell University. He also served as a First Sergeant in the Marines during World War II. Having been an elementary school teacher, a secondary school teacher, an elementary school principal, Assistant Superintendent and Superintendent, respectively, of Jackson County Schools, a college professor, and a college dean, Dr. Somerville is thoroughly acquainted with all phases of education. When he returned to Glenville in 1952, he became a Professor of Education and Chairman of the Division of Education and Psychology. Since 1954, he has been the Dean of Glenville State College.

While earning his doctorate at Cornell University, Dr. Somerville was a member of Phi Delta Kappa and was listed in Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges. He is a past president of both the West Virginia Association of Academic Deans and the West Virginia Association for Higher Education. In 1965, he was N.E.A. Director of Rural Education for West Virginia. At the request of Governor Barron, he served as chairman of the Governor's Centennial Conference on Conservation Education. With regard to Dean Somerville's successive accomplishments of further instilling the importance of a well-rounded education, we, the students of Glenville State College, dedicate the 1969 Kanawhachen to him and his ideals.

Remember . . .

Teachers — Explorers of the mind — yet only shadows now as we meet within the memory. Once they brushed against our own shadows and left their impact there.

ADMINISTRATION

FACULTY AND

DR. D. BANKS WILBURN
President

Class of 1969:

The graduates of 1969 will go from the College into many avenues of service in business, the classroom, government, industry, social welfare, and further preparation for several professions. The challenges for service have never been greater, and require now more than ever a greater sense of dedication and a need to perform at the highest degree of excellence possible. Hopefully, the Class of 1969 is better prepared than others before them to meet these challenges to be found in service. It, however, remains to be seen whether you will do so. You can, if you will, move our society mightily toward the one goal which is the purpose of all human existence, and that is to bring dignity in personal and social living to every child, youth, and adult regardless of age, position, or station.

Will you put forth your best efforts to meet these challenges? You are prepared to do so if you only will.

Cordially yours,

D. Banks Wilburn

THE KANAWHA UNION BANK

Main St.

Glenville, West Virginia

"Come to us for all your banking needs."

Will he take the right road?

On the threshold of his career.
He can go in many directions.
We think the right road is here in West Virginia.

Our young people need new jobs and greater opportunities. This is one of the reasons Hope Natural Gas has a vigorous industrial development program to bring new enterprises into West Virginia.
That young man is one of our state's most valuable resources.
We want him to stay here.
