"If this is my day of harvest, in what fields have I sowed the seed, and in what unremembered seasons?"

"Say not, "I have found the truth," but either, "I have found a truth."

"Where shall you seek beauty, and how shall you find her unless she herself be your way and your guide?"

And how shall you speak of her except she be the weaver of your speech? . . .

"Beauty is of soft whisperings. She speaks in our spirit . . .

"We have seen her dancing with the autumn leaves, and we saw a drift of snow in her hair." . . .

She is an image you see though you close your eyes and a song you hear though you shut your ears. . . .

Beauty is eternity gazing at itself in a mirror . . .

But you are eternity and you are the mirror."

*"For what is your friend that you should seek him with hours to kill?
Seek him always with hours to live."*

"He who understands you is greater kin to you than your own brother."

"You talk when you cease to be at peace with your thoughts;

And when you can no longer dwell in the solitude of your heart you live in your lips, and sound is a diversion and a pastime.

And in much of your talking, thinking is half murdered.

For thought is a bird of space, that in a cage of words may indeed unfold its wings but cannot fly. . . .

When you meet your friend on the roadside or in the market place, let the spirit in you move your lips and direct your tongue.

Let the voice within your voice speak to the ear of his ear;

For his soul will keep the truth of your heart as the taste of the wine is remembered

When the colour is forgotten and the vessel is no more."

Let there be no purpose in friendship save the deepening of the spirit . . . And let your best be for your friend . . . And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter and sharing of pleasures.

And a woman who held a babe against her bosom said, Speak to us of Children.

And he said:

*Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.*

*They come through you but not from
you,*

And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.

You may give them your love but not your thoughts,

For they have their own thoughts.

You may house their bodies but not their souls,

For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.

You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.

For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.

No man can reveal to you aught but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge . . .

. . . If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind . . .
