Time is fleeing, better seeing old friends — crying hi!
Only yesterday we stood here, ghosts of us pass by.

Simple pleasures are the last refuge of the complex.

Student Life

No civilized man ever regrets a pleasure.

As the sun colors flowers so does art color life.

Sir John Lubbock

Where there's music there can't be mischief.
Cervantes

ON HISTORY

The historian is a prophet looking backwards.

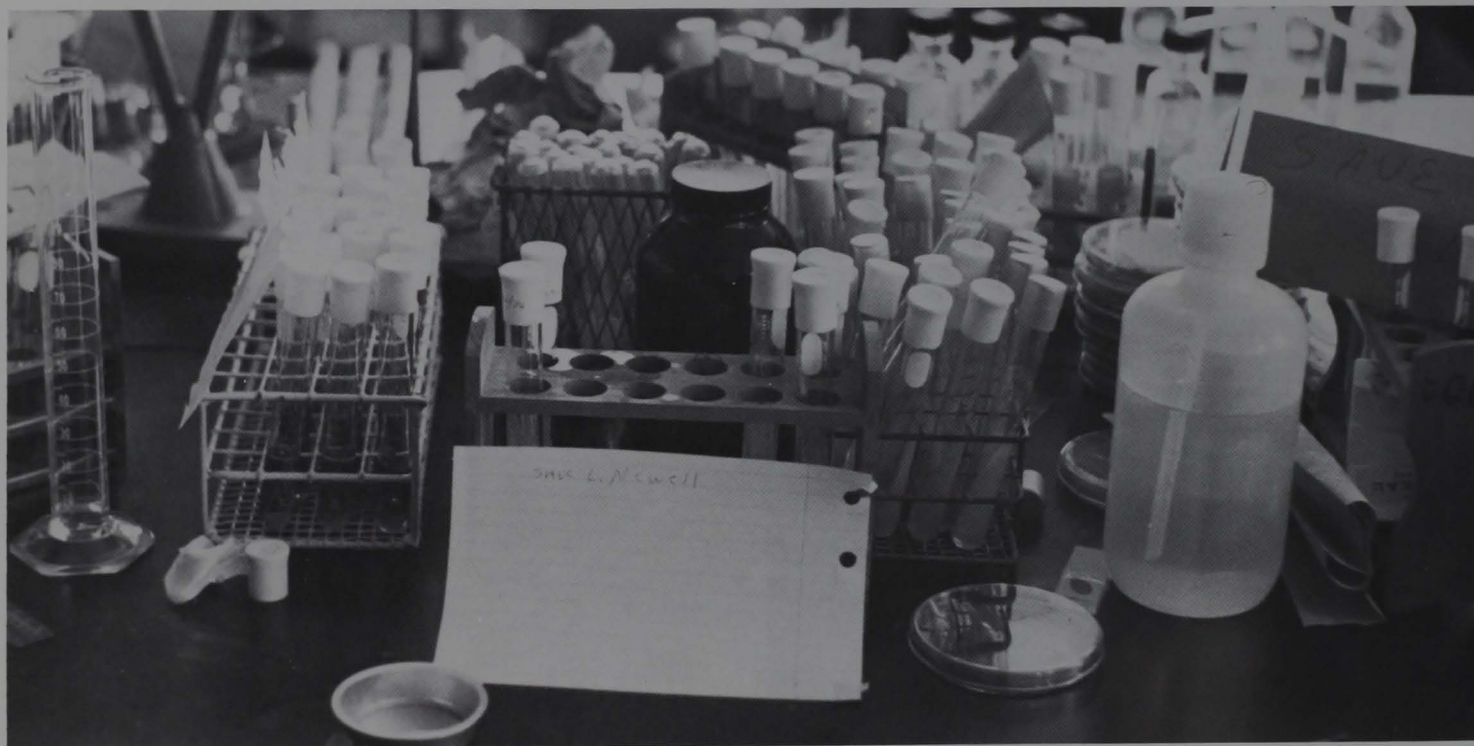

Schlegel

ON SCIENCE

Mystics always hope that science will someday overtake them.

Booth Tarkington

ON FORESTRY

Generations pass while some trees stand, and old families last not three oaks.

Sir Thomas Browne

ON LIBRARIES

Every library should try to be complete on something, if it were only the history of pinheads.

O. W. Holmes, The Poet at the Breakfast Table

THE ARTS

Art hath no enemy but ignorance.

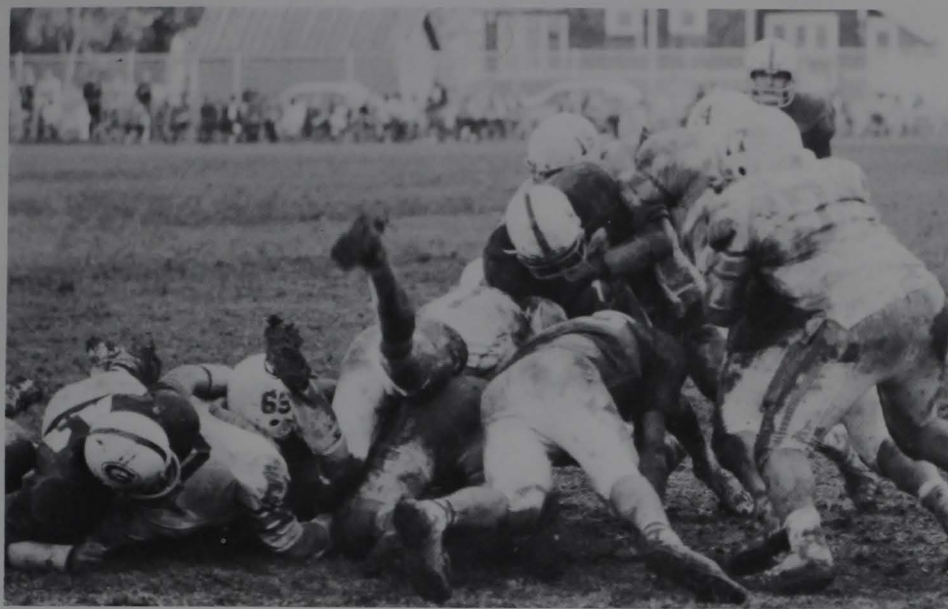

Ben Jonson

Activities

Life is not dated merely by years.
Events are sometimes the best calendars.
Benjamin Disraeli

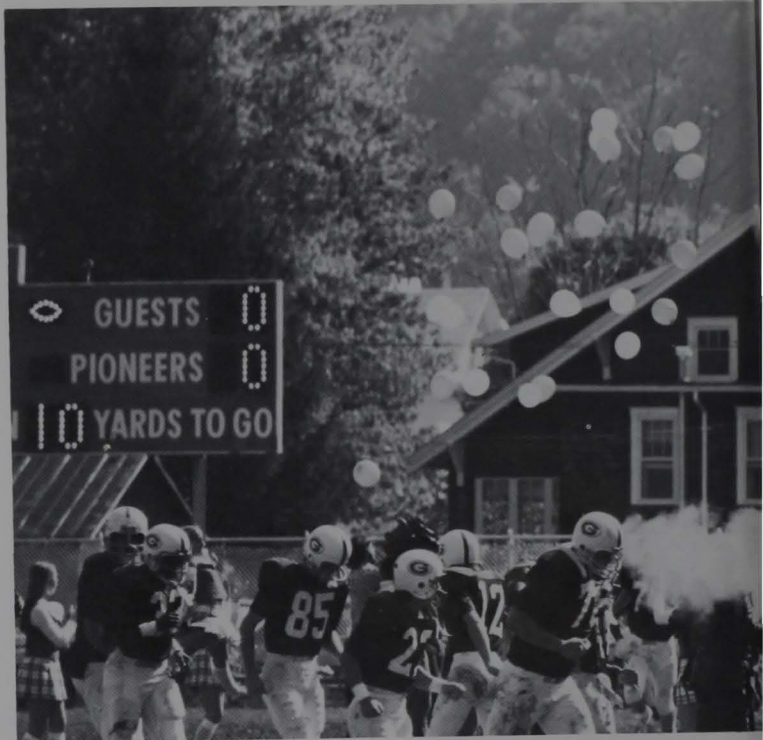

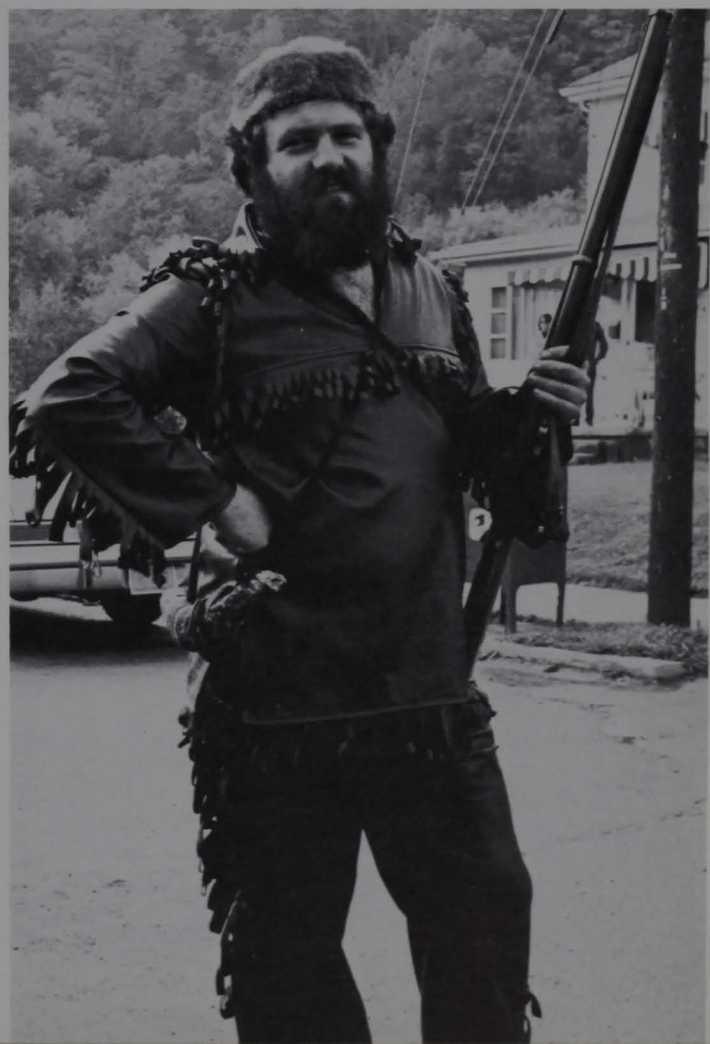

HOMECOMING 1975

HOMECOMING

A word which evokes so many events and emotions . . .
The air is getting crisper and cooler, the academic pace quickenning and spirits soaring.
This year a lovely queen,
Becky Watson, was chosen to reign during the festivities.
Serious football games, and not so serious games (the seventh annual Commode Bowl), took place amongst the fun and fanfare.
Parades, floats, parties and celebrations marked the beginning of another season at Glenville.
Everyone seemed to be looking ahead with an anticipation of the future . . .

IN APPRECIATION . . .

Taking on the job of describing the many important occurrences, people, happenings, plays, sports events, etc., we occasionally needed help, often in the form of a smile, a chair when our feet ached, an encouraging word, a pencil, a piece of paper or just a bit of key information to complete a layout. The people here supplied the tangibles as well as those special intangible things which did much to make the job easier. Their very presence did and does make things go a lot smoother, not only for the yearbook staff, but the entire school as well . . .

CONCLUSION

Old time in whose bank we deposit our notes, is a miser who always wants gineas for groats; he keeps all his customers still in arrears by lending them minutes and charging them years.
