

GLENVILLE STATE COLLEGE POLICIES

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY 4

ETHICS

4.1. General.

1.1. Scope - This policy implements guidelines in accordance with the West Virginia Governmental Ethics Act.

1.2. Authority - W. Va. Code §18B-1-6, 6B-2-5(L)

1.3. Effective Date - April 19, 2006

1.4. Repeal of Former Rule -Revises and replaces Title 131, Series 43 of the Board of Directors of the State College System. This policy supersedes any or all previous GSC policies in reference to ethics.

1.5. Preamble - In 1989, the West Virginia Legislature enacted the West Virginia Governmental Ethics Act, set out in Chapter 6B of the West Virginia State Code, declaring unlawful certain activities by public employees. Section 5(a), Article 2, of the Act prohibits a public employee from using his or her office or the prestige of that office, for private gain. Section 5(c), Article 2 prohibits solicitation of gifts that may confer precuniary benefits upon the employee. Section 5(d), Article 2, prohibits an interest in the profits or benefits of a public contract which an employee has direct authority to enter into or over which he or she may have control.

The original version of the Ethics Act subjected all public employees, including higher education employees, to fines, sanction, and criminal prosecution for violation of the Ethics Act unless they obtained prior approval for the proposed activity from the West Virginia Ethics Commission. Many of the teaching, research, consulting and publication activities of higher education faculty and staff necessarily result in known and appropriate private benefits or gain which are customary and normal in higher education, but which were identified as potential violations of these provisions of the Ethics Act after its enactment.

In 1990, the Ethics Act was amended at Section 5(1), Article 2, to allow higher education employees who derive private benefits from teaching, research, consulting, or publication activities the option of seeking exemption from the above prohibitions from their employing institution instead of through the Ethics Commission.

Therefore, this policy is adopted to set forth an expeditious procedure for granting such approval of exemptions at the College level to faculty and staff members who seek to be relieved of certain statutorily imposed prohibitions of the West Virginia Governmental Ethics Act. Nothing in this policy shall be interpreted as restricting or prohibiting the otherwise lawful College or outside activities of faculty or staff consistent with their College duties and responsibilities or employment contracts, or as requiring the prior approval of such activities by the Board of Governors. Nor shall this policy be interpreted as restricting academic freedom, as defined in Series 9 of the Higher Education Policy Commission Rules, or the constitutional rights of employees to free speech and association. However, this policy shall not be interpreted to require or grant institutional approval or sanction of faculty or staff activities that violate or conflict with their institutional duties or responsibilities, employment contract, federal or state law, the policies of this Board, or the ethical standards imposed by the West Virginia Governmental Ethics Act.

4.2. Approval of Activity.

2.1. Institutional approval of any activity pursuant to this policy shall be deemed to be a part of the employee's employment contract.

2.2. Any institutional approval granted pursuant to this rule may be revoked upon reasonable notice to the employee.

2.3. Approval for any activity under this policy may only be given by the president or the president's designee or designees. Such delegation of authority by the president shall be in accordance with the needs of the College but in no case shall such delegation be at an authority level lower than a departmental chair, director or other similar supervisor.

2.4. Approval for any activity may be granted on a case-by-case basis or, when such activities are common within the College, a department of other category or grouping of employees, to all of the College's employees or any subgrouping thereof.

2.5. Disclosures required by this policy are personal in nature and shall be kept confidential, as permitted by law.

4.3. Solicitation of Gifts.

3.1. Unless otherwise restricted by one's supervisor, employees shall be permitted to solicit gifts which directly benefit the Board or the College. Solicitations on behalf of a particular department, on behalf of the GSC Foundation, or on behalf of an affiliated corporation, or center shall, for the purposes of this policy, be deemed to be a solicitation on behalf of or for the benefit of the College.

3.2. Permissible solicitations shall include but not be limited to the following, even though the soliciting employee may work in a position which will be directly or indirectly supported thereby:

3.2.1. Grants from governmental agencies, foundations, corporations, or individuals to the College to support teaching, research, publication or service activities of the College;

3.2.2. Contracts with governmental agencies, foundations, corporations, or individuals to the College to support teaching, research, publication or service activities of the College;

3.2.3. Donations from foundations, corporations, or individuals to the College to support teaching, research, publication or service activities of the College.

3.3. Support for teaching, research, publication and service activities shall include but not be limited to such normal and regular institutional needs as support for salaries; scholarships; capital improvements or repairs; and classroom, laboratory, athletic, medical, scientific and other similar equipment supplies.

4.4. Use of Public Office for Private Gain.

4.1. No solicitation or other activity permitted by this policy shall be deemed to be the inappropriate use of an employee's public office (position) or the prestige of that office for one's own private gain or that of another person.

4.2. When an employee of Glenville State College uses his or her knowledge and personal prestige for private gain without the use of the employee's public office, or the prestige of the employee's public office, then there is no requirement to obtain an exemption under this ethics policy.

4.3. W. Va. Code §6B-2-5(1) gives Glenville State College limited authority to grant exemptions to their employees from the prohibitions in the State Ethics Act relating to the use of public office or the prestige of public office for private gain when the employee is using his or her field of expertise as an author, speaker, consultant or through other approved activities such as service as a board member for outside agencies or businesses. Therefore, when an employee of Glenville State College seeks to use his or her public office or the prestige of their public office for the employee's private gain or for the private gain of another person, the employee may seek from the president an exemption (as limited by the Ethics Act) from the prohibition against the use of public office or the prestige of public office for private gain.

4.4. The president may grant the employee an exemption to permit the employee to use the employee's public office, or the prestige of the employee's public office, to derive private benefit from the employee's field of expertise as an author, speaker, consultant, or through other approved activities such as service on the board of an outside agency or business.

4.5. In granting permission for an employee to engage in such outside activities which may be directly or indirectly associated with the employee's position with the College, consideration should be given to the following:

4.5.1. Whether the employee brings to his/her position his/her own unique personal prestige which is based upon his/her own intelligence, education, experience, skills and abilities, or other personal gifts or traits;

4.5.2. Whether such activity is customary and usual within the field;

4.5.3. Whether the College derives any benefit through prestige or otherwise from the activity;

4.5.4. Whether the College expects or anticipates that the employee will gain financially from the activities which are not a part of the employee's required employment activities;

4.5.5. Whether the employee's activity will increase his/her personal or professional development or will lend service or benefit to the nation, state or community;

4.5.6. Whether the outside activity will create an overriding conflict with the employee's responsibility to the College or will interfere with the satisfactory performance of the employee's College duties.

4.6. The disclosure by an employee of an employee's position, title, and work history with Glenville State College in the promotion of an employee's private activities shall be exempt from the prohibition against the use of prestige of public office for a private gain. However, in these cases the employee has the responsibility to make clear the fact that he or she is not representing Glenville State College but is speaking as a private citizen.

4.7. An employee who obtains an exemption from the Ethics Act prohibitions under the procedure authorized in this policy shall not be deemed an agent of Glenville State College when the employee is acting outside the scope of his or her other employment for his or her private benefit.

4.8. No exemption granted under this ethics policy shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by Glenville State College of any lawful contractual provision in the employment contract of a full or part-time employee.

4.5. Interests in Public Contracts.

5.1. Each employee shall be required to disclose any interest the employee or any member of the employee's immediate family may have in the profits or benefits of a contract which the employee may have direct authority to enter into or over which the employee may have control unless such interest is limited within the meaning of W. Va. Code §6B-2-5(d)(2).

5.2. The College may review any interest an employee or any member of the employee's family may have and determine what, if any, restrictions or limitation should be placed on the employee's activities.

5.3. Without limitation, the following represent examples of interests in public contracts which may be permitted:

5.3.1. The employee is the author and copyright owner of a leading textbook in the employee's teaching field and may wish to require the use of the textbook by his/her students;

5.3.2. The employee is the inventor and patent owner of a scientific tool necessary for research in the employee's field;

5.3.3. The employee is an expert in the region in a particular field and such consulting expertise is being sought by the College or another governmental agency and the providing of such consulting services is not a part of the employee's duties to Glenville State College.

4.6. Additional Permissible Activity.

6.1. Unless otherwise prohibited by the Board of Governors, no activity permitted under the West Virginia Ethics Act shall be deemed to be a violation of this policy.

6.2. Unless otherwise prohibited or restricted by the Board of Governors, no activity approved, permitted or exempted by the West Virginia Ethics Commission shall be deemed to be a violation of this policy.

4.7. President.

7.1. The Chair of the Glenville State College Board of Governors shall have the authority to review and grant approval of those activities of the president which may involve a conflict of interest pursuant to this policy.

Approvals:

_____
President

_____
Chair of the Board