- IX. Public Comment:
 - a. No public was present
- X. Committee Reports:
 - a. Secretary Carr reported on the Retention committee meeting her and Advisor Black attended. There was talk of more positive press from the faculty and staff. If you know of any good press that needs to get out, contact Dustin Crutchfield. There was also discussion on the community service credit moving forward and it will probably be the fall of next year before that will be available to the students.

- b. Vice President Moore reported on the Curriculum committee meeting he attended. The Social Science department asked for another extension on the Psych proposal in order to get more materials together for the next meeting. Professor Jason Barr talked about adding a jazz band and improv concentration to the program. All prerequisites for the Math 106 class will be removed per HEPC standards. There will be no more developmental math classes offered. The elimination of the Military Science minor was also discussed since ROTC has left the campus. There was talk of just suspending the minor instead of eliminating it all together.
- c. Treasurer Woods reported on the Parking committee meeting that also included the members of the SGA Executive Board. The change to parking in the gravel lots was the main topic of the meeting. The change in the parking rules for the two gravel lots has went into effect and unless and until we have a different solution to the issues that we can present to the Parking committee, the rules will remain in effect.

XI. Old Business:

- a. Org Dinner:
 - i. Vice President Moore stated the committee needs to meet to go over the program for the dinner
- b. Thanksgiving Dinner:
 - i. Secretary Carr updated the group on the progress. She met with Deb Nagy to put in the work order for the tables and chairs. She also met with Jerry to go over the time and location. He suggested the dinner be held in the lobby of Goodwin Hall at 1pm. She asked for a list of churches or contact names and phone numbers so she may get an idea of who will be donating what.

XII. New Business:

- a. Approval of Requisition for Thanksgiving Dinner:
 - i. Secretary Carr made a motion to spend less than $300.00 on the Thanksgiving dinner.
 - ii. Parliamentarian Woods second the motion
 - iii. All was in favor, the motion passed.

XIII. Advisor Comment/Administrative Liaison Comment:

- a. Advisor Gross stated there may be more students staying on campus due to weather concerns. She wanted to let the Board know because this might increase the number of students we have for the dinner on Wednesday.
- b. Advisor Black asked about the SGA meeting schedule. It was stated we will have two more meetings once we come back from Thanksgiving break. We will not meet during finals week.
- c. Administrative Liaison Walters told everyone to have a good break and get some rest.
- d. Administrative Liaison Spears informed the group a grant has been received to construct a walking trail from the college to Hays City to make it safer for the students who walk to and from school from that area. Construction might be in conjunction with the construction of the round-a-bout. He then updated the group on the opening of 10 E. Main. It will be Wednesday, November 30th at 3:00 pm.

Jodi will be doing activities and drawings and he asked that SGA help get the word out.

XIV. Congressional Forum:

- a. Senator Neal asked if help was needed at the new lounge. Advisor Gross stated they have a staff of students so as of now, no additional help is needed. He then stated he would like to see SGA host a recruitment event next semester. He asked that the answer to students with regards to the parking issues be inclusive. He stated the open house went well.
- b. Senator Howard asked if food would be served at the new lounge and it was stated the only food available there will be through vending machines.
- c. Vice President Moore asked Senator Neal to please invite Dr. Keene to the Campus Beautification committee meeting when the first one is called.
- d. Senator Neal stated that next semester he would like to see SGA pick an activity or two a month to attend as a group to show our support and also do the same for sporting events and music as well.
