from Northern Kentucky University.

Prior to joining the staff at Minnie Hamilton in 2019, she practiced as a labor and delivery nurse for seven years; during three of those years she was a travel nurse in Arkansas and Texas. After receiving accreditation from the National Certification Corporation for Women's Health Nurse Practitioner in 2017, she moved to North Canton, Ohio and spent almost six years working in various women's health and obstetrical offices.

Corrie's life revolves around her children and family, raising a garden, attending her children's sporting events, and reading. She currently lives in Glenville, West Virginia with her husband Jeremy and her children Lexington, Beckett, Asa, and JP.

When asked what GSC means to her, she said, "My whole life has been tied to GSC. My mother, Karen (Bush) Lay '79, was the Director of Financial Aid for many years. I remember visiting her in her office, riding my bike through the big parking lots, attending the percussion ensemble every year, attending sporting events, and so much more."

We are proud to feature Corrie in this week's Alumni Spotlight and proud to call
