

Alumni Spotlight

Professor Emerita Janet (James) Bailey '79 retired from GSC in 2016 and has been staying busy doing work for the United States Olympic Committee and the United States Anti-doping Agency. A native of Normantown, Gilmer County, West Virginia, Janet also continues to stay active with GSC and is a member of the Alumni Council.

She got her start in drug testing in 1997 while she was working as an athletic trainer at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Since that time she has worked at many different events for them throughout the world

Wild, Wonderful Opportunities in Higher Education

An editorial from GSC President Dr. Tracy Pellett

West Virginia's public higher education system is definitely seeming more wild than wonderful lately.

With talk of funding formulas, consultant recommendations and Blue Ribbon Commissions, there is a natural tendency to think negatively about potential impacts and assume the worst...

including the Pan American Games in Toronto, the Boston Marathon, and the 2012 Olympics in London, just to name a few.

Janet earned her bachelor's degree from Glenville State College in physical education, health, and driver's education K-12 and Library Science K-12. As a student athlete, she was a member of the Women's Basketball Team and the Women's Track and Field Team. Bailey completed a Master's Degree in Physical Education with an emphasis in Sports Medicine from West Virginia University in 1983.

She completed a distinguished teaching career of thirty-seven years, including twenty-eight years at GSC where she was an Associate Professor of Physical Education and a supervisor of student teachers and other internship programs in addition to serving as Athletic Director for a number of years.

Bailey resides in Charleston, West Virginia with her husband Tom and can often be found at various sporting events, still cheering on the student-athletes who mean so much to her.

We are pleased to feature Janet in this week's Alumni Spotlight. Thank you Janet, for all you have done and continue to do for Glenville
