Alumni Spotlight

Lloyd Willis '87, GSC's Men's Triple Jump record holder for the last 30 years, recently qualified for and participated in the 30th Annual National Senior Games in Birmingham, Alabama. His team, the Georgia Zags, won the Gold Medal game over hometown Alabama Defenders. The N.S.G.A is an athletic

In Brief

Short, but busy week. Hope everyone enjoyed our national birthday celebration and remembered why we are so blessed to have this freedom. Highlights for the week...

- Successful Men's Basketball Outing recognizing 1970 and 1972 Men's teams
- Completed the initial phase of the "million dollar walk" to identify visual opportunities as visitors arrive on campus (landscaping, curbs, potholes, etc...)
- Powering up for Power Park in Charleston next week (click here to learn more)
- Lunch scheduled with the mayor of Ripley and her team next week
- Continuing to push "Best Value in West Virginia" media message through reducing cost while maximizing quality of people, programs, and physical appearance association dedicated to “Live Long the Challenge”.

The N.S.G.A. offers multiple sports including basketball, track and field, pickle ball, badminton, horseshoes, shuffle board, bowling, tennis, and more for ages 50+. Over 10,500 athletes participated at the 2017 Nationals. Willis has dedicated himself to getting back to the 2019 National Senior Games in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Lloyd and his wife Kathy (Miller) Willis reside in Strasburg, Virginia. He serves as Sales Manager for Centennial Broadcasting II in nearby Winchester.

Congratulations, Lloyd. We’re proud to have you as an alumnus of Glenville State College.
