Homecoming 2018 - A New Queen and King are Crowned

Happy Homecoming Week Pioneers! On Monday we recognized the 2018 Homecoming Court and crowned Jessica DiGennaro as Queen and Clayton Swisher as King. Jessica is a Music Education major from Binghamton, New York. She is a member of the Pioneer Marching Band, Kappa Delta Pi, and is the President of the GSC chapter of the National Association for Music Educator's. Clayton is a Music Education major from Ripley, West Virginia. He is a member of the Pioneer Marching Band, Concert Choir, Chamber Choir, Concert Band, and the Tuba Euphonium Ensemble.

In 2014, Chelsea received her Bachelor of Science degree in business administration with emphasizes in management and sports management from GSC. She is currently completing a Master of Science degree in higher education leadership from Capella University.

Chelsea notes that becoming Interim Director of Admissions at GSC is one of her biggest accomplishments so far in her career. "I love being able to bring students to GSC that will not only succeed but accomplish their goals. There's no greater feeling than seeing the first group of freshmen that I helped recruit getting ready to graduate this spring," said Stickelman.

We are pleased to feature Chelsea in this week's Alumni Spotlight and proud to have her as an alumna of Glenville State College.
