Alumni Spotlight

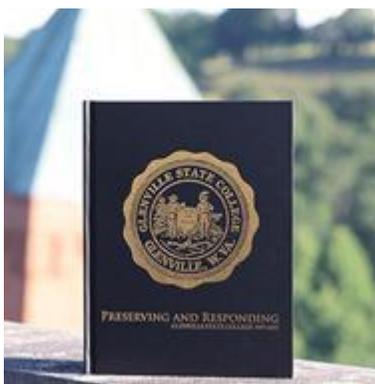

Daniel A. Durbin '84 has been named Associate Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for the University of Louisville Health Sciences Center in Louisville, Kentucky, effective July 1, 2017. He previously served as senior associate vice president for administration and finance at West Virginia University and has more than 30 years' experience with the finances

Memorial Held for GSC Student

- Scores of students, faculty, staff, community members, and others attended a remembrance ceremony for GSC student Jonathan Knotts who was killed in an automobile accident last week. Knotts, who was lovingly known by many as Big John, will be remembered for his kind nature, humility, and ability to care for others.

- Glenville State's Associate Professor of Spanish and Director of International Programs Dr. Megan Gibbons was interviewed by WV MetroNews this week. She discussed GSC's continuing efforts to expand study abroad opportunities for our students. You can view the article here.

- Copies of Preserving and Responding, a full-color photo and history book about the last twenty years at Glenville State College, are still available. Throughout the over 100 pages of the book, the tenures of five different college presidents are detailed including major projects, initiatives, challenges, and more. The text contains several noteworthy listings including inductees into the College's Curtis Elam Athletic Hall of Fame, former Board of Governors members, past Pioneer at universities and academic health centers.

Durbin earned his Bachelor's Degree in accounting and finance from Glenville State College and his Master's in public administration from West Virginia University. He serves as a Peer Reviewer with the Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the National Association of College and University Business Officers as well as the Southern Association of College and University Business Officers.

Durbin joined the WVU Division of Finance in 2006. While at WVU, he had overall responsibility for central finance functions comprising more than 140 staff members in areas including institutional accounting, budget planning, procurement, payment services, revenue services, risk management, grants accounting, payroll, and financial compliance. Durbin also served as the treasurer for the WVU Research Corporation and the WVU Innovation Corporation. Before joining the finance division, he held financial and administrative leadership positions at the WVU Health Sciences Center for nearly 20 years, ultimately becoming its director of budget and financial operations.
