Land Resources – Action

- Dr. Heaster motioned to approved the changes. Dr. Barr seconded. Motion passed.

Social Science – Action

- Dr. Vann motioned to approved the changes. Dr. Barr seconded. Dr. Sawyer asked if there was a plan to raise enrollment in the minor, and if the History major could pair with the minor. Dr. Ensor stated that Dr. Squires had been hired full-time as a Political Science professor and was working to raise enrollment in the minor, and that the History major already included Political Science (History/Political Science major), so those students are not eligible to take the minor. Motion passed.

Criminal Justice

- The Criminal Justice Department discussed the proposed CRJU 110 course with the organizer of the course, and the organizer was adamant that it be a 3 credit course. Dr. Lang motioned to table the CRJU 110 course to allow for further discussion. Dr. Sawyer seconded. Motion passed.

New Business

- Dr. Lang asked members to start working on any non-action items that needed to be brought before the committee, and thanked members for the work that has been done so far.

Dr. Lang adjourned the meeting at 12:35 p.m.
