  - ii. Homecoming: There was a more developed schedule and there is currently an expected tentative schedule.
- V. Executive Reports:
  - i. Parliamentarian Report: Parliamentarian Tanner stated that the attendance policy will be enforced and encouraged everyone to reach out if they were going to miss a meeting. Then addressed that people need to go to the committee meetings when they start up and more importantly fulfilling their responsibilities.
  - ii. Treasurer Report: Absent
  - iii. Secretarial Report: As committees start meeting up and discussing, if a member of the committee could inform myself of the designated time. It will be put into the schedule and not overlap with other meetings that need to be held.
  - iv. Public Relations Report: Absent

VI. Committee Reports:

- i. Absence of Committee Reports...

VII. Assembly Report:

- i. Majority Leader Waggoner announced that the first home football game was this weekend and welcomed members of SGA to come support everyone involved in the event. Especially members within SGA that participate in the football team, band, cheerleading, etc.
- ii. Senator Hypes addressed that there is currently an ant infestation within the eateries on campus. Constituents reached out and regarded that it was unsanitary conditions.
  - i. President Wade responded that it would be a good idea to reach out to maintenance and Aramark's supervisors regarding the issue.

VIII. Old Business:

- i. Homecoming: the committee will be meeting up and finalizing the budget before the next meeting. This will give the members of SGA a more finalized look at the schedule and budget for homecoming.
- ii. Special Elections: During last meeting, Vice President Lynch was elected as President Pro-Tempore. Due to Vice President Miller's resignation, Vice President Lynch succeeded him and that left the President Pro-Tempore open. Liaison Ferguson passed out votes and asked for nominations for President Pro-Tempore. Senator Guy, Representative Crites, and Representative Devins nominated themselves for the positions.
  - i. Representative Crites won the President Pro-Tempore vote and is not assuming that position.
