Re: Annual Report and Certification of Compliance Pursuant to West Virginia Code §18B-1G-4

Dear Members of the Joint Committee on Education:

On behalf of Glenville State University, I respectfully submit this Annual Report and Certification of Compliance pursuant to West Virginia Code §18B-1G-4.

Glenville State University is committed to full compliance with the provisions of West Virginia Code Article 18B-1G. During the reporting period, the University undertook a comprehensive review of its policies, programs, organizational structure, and administrative practices to ensure compliance with the requirements of the statute.

Specifically, the University has taken the following actions:

- Reviewed institutional policies, procedures, and administrative practices for consistency with the requirements of West Virginia Code Article 18B-1G.
- Confirmed that no prohibited diversity, equity, and inclusion office or officer exists within the University's organizational structure.
- Evaluated University-sponsored programs, activities, employee training, and student services to ensure they comply with applicable state and federal law.

- Provided guidance to University administrators, faculty, and staff regarding the requirements of Article 18B-1G and the University's obligation to comply with the law.
- Established ongoing administrative oversight to monitor compliance and to review future initiatives for consistency with statutory requirements.
- Continued to provide services required by state and federal law, including those related to nondiscrimination, equal opportunity, disability accommodations, Title IX, veterans' services, and other legally mandated programs.

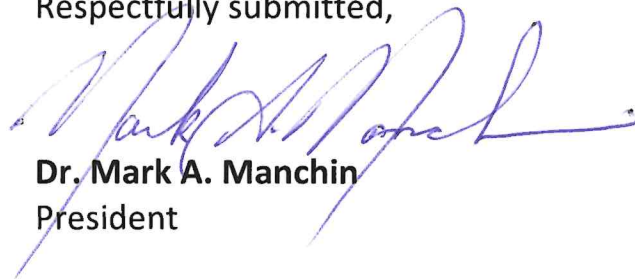

Based upon this review, Glenville State University certifies that it has taken the necessary steps to comply with the requirements of West Virginia Code Article 18B-1G.

The University further certifies that this report has been published on the official Glenville State University website as required by West Virginia Code §18B-1G-4(b).

I hereby certify that the information contained in this report is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and is submitted in fulfillment of the annual reporting and certification requirements of West Virginia Code §18B-1G-4.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. Mark A. Manchin
President
