ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Criminal Justice prepares students to go directly from the classroom and into the field of their choosing. Professors in the department are seasoned professionals in their field. They are dedicated to providing students with the career focused skills and knowledge necessary to enter the fields of law enforcement, corrections, probation, parole, and the courts.

Students in the department process mock crime scenes at GSU's crime scene house, work with some of the same equipment and labs for training that members of state and local police use, and arrange an internship in the setting of their choosing to develop networks and further their professional experiences.

Majors are available in Administration of Justice and Field Forensics.

Students can earn their Bachelor of Science degree or an Associate of Science degree in Criminal Justice 100% online or via traditional in-person course delivery.
