

Classified Staff Council Meeting

25-Feb-2015

Present: Jim Tatman, Ann Reed, Connie Bailey, Eric Squires, Mindy Marsh, Deb Jenkins, Sheri Skidmore

Absent: Jason Phares, Gail Westbrook, Jodi Ocheltree

Also Present: Joanna DiStefano, Krystal Smith

Public Comments:

Joanna DiStefano addressed council about opportunities for staff training. These could include dispute/conflict resolution through role play situations. She will research other options and topics.

Called to order at 8:50 a.m.

- Ginny Grottendieck application
 - Thomas Snyder (m/s Skidmore/Marsh) Approved
- November minutes approved (m/s Reed/Bailey)
- Reports
 - Krystal Smith
 - Oasis going live for HR has been pushed back to January 2016
 - NeoGov is an applicant tracking system.
 - Cronos (time keeping system) will be delayed until Oasis goes live.
 - Handbook update is still being worked on.
 - Discussed SB 439 and SB 137
 - Budget cuts are still being discussed.
 - At this time, there are no final numbers for those cuts.
 - Turnover is high
 - Sheri Skidmore
 - GSC Staff Council - $240.71
 - Ginny Grottendieck fund - $1264.41
 - Ann Reed
 - $2,563.00 left in professional development
- Old Business
 - Plaque for Clemons Tower-Still waiting on prices
 - Campus Governance Committee is discussing charge of committees
 - Connie Bailey agreed to take Mary Alltop's vacant position on ACCE. This leaves council with no secretary. Sheri Skidmore has agreed to do it until elections in June.
- New Business
 - Classified Staff Employee of the year will be going to calendar year instead of a school year. Award will be announced at annual Christmas luncheon.

- Jim Tatman resigned as chair of Classified Staff Council and as council representative from service personnel.
 - Brian Hipp has agreed to fill his council position until his term is up in 2016.
 - Need to fill Chair position until elections in June.
 - Eric Squires was nominated by Sheri Skidmore and seconded by Ann Reed. Approved unanimously.
- Motion to adjourn (m/s Reed/Marsh). Meeting adjourned 9:30 am.