

SALVI QUINTETTE WILL PLAY HERE MONDAY, FEB. 24

Concert Will Begin at 8:15
P. M.—Director is World's Greatest Harpist

WON ROYAL SCHOLARSHIP

Will Reveal Certain New Avenues
of Thought in Chamber Music

Alberto Salvi, master of the harp, and his notable instrumental quartette will give a concert in the College auditorium, Monday evening, Feb. 24, at 8:15 o'clock.

Mr. Salvi's ensemble is of the kind one rarely has the opportunity to encounter in the concert world, and for this reason Monday night's concert will be fraught with more than ordinary significance. The quintette will reveal certain new avenues of thought in chamber music and will point out fascinating highways and by-ways in the delectable and edifying phase of expression in tone.

Accomplishments of the quintette are almost uncanny in completeness, and the compositions are of the kind that have always held their place among the great cultural and educational influences of the world. Salvi was always a brilliant student. He won the Royal Italian Scholarship prize which made further training possible at the expense of the Italian government. When he graduated with highest honors, he was three years in advance of his class. His name is now synonymous with the beauties of the modern harp.

Appearing with Salvi will be Ernest Guntermann, flute; Erich Sorantin, violin; Alexa Robert, viola; and Goffredo Mazzari, violincello.

DEBATE WILL BE HELD HERE FEB. 20

Wesleyan College to Furnish Opposition in First Contest

The subject, "Resolved that Congress should have the power to override by a two-thirds majority decisions of the Supreme Court declaring acts of Congress unconstitutional" will be debated in the College auditorium, Thursday night at 8 o'clock. A team from Wesleyan College will support the issue against attacks to be made by Coral Mae Gulantz and Armond Stalnaker, representing the College.

Tentative plans have been made for Millard Cunningham and Goff Giboney to support the affirmative side of the question at Wesleyan.

Dates Set for Speech Festival

March 26, 27 and 28 has been set as the date for the West Virginia Speech Festival to be held at Shepherd State Teachers College, Shepherdstown, according to Miss Margaret Dobson, speech instructor in the College.

Mr. Freed's Condition Improved

Raymond E. Freed, social science, underwent an operation Monday, Feb. 10, at Saint Mary's Hospital, Clarksburg. Mr. Freed is expected to return to his classes next week.

"Bill" Malone spent the week-end at his home in Weston.

Makes All A's

H. Laban White, Jr., (above) son of Dean and Mrs. H. Laban White, headed the honor roll for the first semester in the College. His scholastic ranking was 3.00, or an all-A average. White is a junior in the College and is a graduate of East Fairmont High School.

MISS WILSON IS MOST POPULAR

Glenn Findley, a Freshman, Leads Men Students in Popularity Contest

Catharine Wilson, senior, of Glenville, secretary to the Student Council, and Glenn Findley freshman, of Valley Fork, were voted the most popular girl and the most popular boy in Glenville State Teachers College in an election held in chapel, Wednesday. Voting was done by secret ballot.

Seventy-three candidates figured in the balloting. Of these, forty-eight were boys and twenty-five were girls.

Winifred White, freshman, of Bridgeport, ranked second as the most popular girl, and Mary E. Jarvis, of Weston, was third. Lloyd Metheny, president of the Student Council, received the second highest number of votes for the most popular boy. Thomas Pierce, senior, of Chester, was the third highest.

Because there were so many students mentioned on the ballots, no one student received a large number of votes. Miss Wilson received forty-one votes more than her nearest opponent.

Solemn Ceremonies Mark Burial of George Washington, Says Newspaper of 1800

Solemn ceremonies which marked the burial of George Washington are depicted in a story published in the Ulster County Gazette, Kingston, Va., Saturday, Jan. 4, 1800. A copy of the story as originally published is the property of Paul Mason, sophomore in the College.

Washington was born Feb. 22, 1732, at Bridges Creek near Fredricksburg, Westmoreland County, Virginia. He died Dec. 14, 1799, at Mount Vernon.

WASHINGTON ENTOMBED

On the Wednesday last, the moral part of Washington the Great—The Father of his Country and a Friend of man, was consigned to the tomb, with solemn honors of funeral pomp.

THIRTY-FIVE NEW STUDENTS ENROLL SECOND SEMESTER

Total is Now 414, an Increase of 24 Over Corresponding Term Last Year

MEN OUTNUMBER WOMEN

President Rohrbough Says Figures
May Reach 420 With Late Registrations

Enrollment for the second semester in Glenville State Teachers College is 414, according to Carey Woofter, registrar. This is an increase of twenty-four over the corresponding semester last year. President E. G. Rohrbough estimates that this number will be increased to approximately 420 by late enrollments.

As usual, men outnumber women on the campus. There are 219 men and 195 women. There were 441 students, 236 men and 205 women, enrolled the first semester.

The new students are: Autumn Amos, Burnsville; Unice Bean, Kodak; Nancy Callahan, Richwood; John H. Campbell, Chelyan; Wesley Chenoweth, Nicut; Bernice Childers, Weston; Martha Jean Daniels, Mill Creek; Colia Duffy, Hookersville; Esta Marie Dunn, Birch River; Mildred Erlewine, Withers; James W. Erwin, Linn; Denzil R. Garrett, Fletcher; Sara Harrison, Chesapeake.

Mary Hawkins, Spencer; Eddis Kennedy, Orton; Opal LaFayette, Mill Creek; Vada McCutcheon, Mt. Lookout; Paul D. Mullenix, Harrisville; Kathleen Murphy, Glenville; Allen Parsons, Parsons; J. A. Pirkey, Troy; Hosea P. Prather, Berea; Theodore N. Riddle, Burnt House; John M. Rogers, Charleston; Cleora Deitz Rohrbough, Richwood; Lillian H. Rohrbough, Glenville; Woodford D. Short, Troy; Harry Smith, Tanner; Madelin Vineyard, Looneyville; Dwight L. Walker, Reedy; Glenn W. Warner, Walkersville; Hansel Warner, Buffalo; Dale Whitsell, Burnsville; Gladys Wilson, Enoch; and Sexton Wright, Glenville.

Mrs. Beall Named Critic Teacher

Mrs. J. W. Beall, S. N. '18, former teacher in the Glenville graded school, has been named critic teacher in the first and second grades. Mrs. Beall's position is for twelve weeks, or until directed teaching courses are completed this semester.

PLAYGOERS LEAGUE WILL PRESENT EMMETT LAVERY'S DRAMA "THE FIRST LEGION" TONIGHT AT 8:30

Earl McDonald, noted actor, will be seen tonight as a member of the cast in "The First Legion," by Emmet Lavery, a drama to be given under the direction of Nat Burns.

MANY ENROLL IN TEACHING COURSE

Fourteen Students Work With High School Pupils, Others Teach in Grades

There are 115 students enrolled in directed teaching courses in the College this semester. Of this number, fourteen are teaching in the high school and 101 are teaching in the grades.

Those teaching in the high school and their subjects are: Gwendolyn Smith, Meryl McClung, Iva McCartney and Mayfield West, biology; Lloyd Metheny, Donald Young, and Henry Young, geometry; Ruth Ramsey and Muriel McGinnis, mathematics; Roy Byrd and Benjamin Tatterson, chemistry; Bruce Reed, Harley Reger, and Lou Williams, general science.

Distinguished Visitors Here Today

Dr. Samuel P. Duke, president of Harrisonburg (Va.) State Teachers College, and Dr. Robert M. Steele, president of the California (Pa.) Teachers College, are guests at the College today. Dr. Duke and Dr. Steele, who represent the American Association of Teachers' Colleges, are here to confer with President E. G. Rohrbough and others as to possibilities of the College becoming a member of the national organization. Dr. Duke and Dr. Steele were honor guests last evening at a dinner given at the home of President and Mrs. E. G. Rohrbough. Also present were Dean H. Laban White and Dr. J. C. Shreve.

Dean White to Speak in Clarksburg

Dean H. Laban White will discuss "The Old and The New in Education" at a meeting of the Business and Professional Woman's Club of Clarksburg, Tuesday, Feb. 25, in the Stonewall Jackson Hotel. Arrangements for the meeting were made by Miss Margaret LeRue, '33, teacher in the Central Junior High School, Clarksburg.

Troupe Comes to College From the Forty-Sixth Street Theatre

NAT BURNS IS DIRECTOR

Program Here Will Be First of Series on 10,000-Mile
Circuit

Opening a 10,000 mile circuit, Playgoers League, Inc. will present "The First Legion"—three act play by Emmet Lavery, in the College auditorium tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

The play, hailed on Broadway as one of the greatest hits of the past season, was recast this year under the direction of Nat Burns, and includes such notable stage personalities as Earl McDonald, William Dorbin and Ainsworth Arnold.

Play Is Broadway Success

Plays of the type of "The First Legion" are not looked upon kindly by Broadway producers. Emmet Lavery, the author, received many rebuffs before he finally met a man who saw the possibilities of this great play and banked his all on its production. Success was immediately forthcoming. In January 1935 the cast finished a run of 112 nights in the Forty Sixth Street Theatre on Broadway.

Earl McDonald appeared in the "Merchant of Venice" with George Arliss. He has been a great success in pictures and on the legitimate stage.

Nat Burns was a favorite in "Morning Becomes Electra," with Alice Brady.

William Dorbin has appeared in nineteen New York successes and has crossed the United States fourteen times on tour. He has appeared with such stars as E. H. Southern, Julie Marlow and William Faversham.

Characters Are Jesuit Priests

Although most of the characters of the play are Jesuit priests, the element of contrast is introduced by an old Doctor who erroneously believes that he is an atheist; a boy, Jimmy Mager, and a little priest who insists on joking his friends about their eccentricities.

William Allen White, noted Kansas editor, says of the play: "I found it more than a clean show. It is a gripping dramatization, carefully and powerfully executed, of a universal theme—the struggle of human faith."

C. W. POST IS SPEAKER

Discusses Geography and Education Before Sociology Class

The influence of geographic location upon man's habits, education, and religious views was discussed by C. W. Post, geography, Thursday, in a talk before the students of Dean H. L. White's educational sociology class.

"Geography," Mr. Post said, "is not a study of the surface of the earth as we have formerly been taught, but a description of the environment in which man lives. Climate is probably the most important factor in determining the energy and process of any country," he added.

Julia Swiger and Alice Snyder visited in Roanoke last week-end.

SPRING, WHERE ART THOU?

After experiencing the unusual weather conditions that have prevailed for approximately two months, there seems to be few thrills left in grandfather's stories of winter in the far off "good old days." Most of these stories we have been inclined to regard as of Munchausen quality, having their origin enveloped in antiquity, and comparable to the talismanic tales of the "Arabian Nights" or the heroic exploits of Don Quixote.

Perhaps the recounting of waist-deep snows, sub-zero temperatures, and solid, silent rivers, affected us more directly than did the mysteries of more ancient times. From our own personal experiences, however, we are now able to appreciate, more fully, the authenticity of stories of old-time winters.

In the dim, distant future, then, may we not expect other grandfathers, hovering over electric heaters and puffing cigarettes, to recount, with slight exaggeration perhaps, the escapades of old man winter in the ancient thirties? And too, we wonder if they will remember as vividly how they longed, as we are longing now, for the first harbingers of an early West Virginia springtime.

PERSONALITY BREEDS POPULARITY

Popularity is an elusive spectre that visits itself upon too few of us. Those who possess the type of personality that contributes to popularity are to be commended.

People as a whole are critical. They care not for conventions, customs, etiquette or politeness. Personal feelings or ambitions are completely disregarded. The measuring unit used by society to estimate popularity is not material wealth, or inherited material advantages. It is personal accomplishments and the ability of an individual to acclimate himself to prevailing conditions.

Many of us might profit from a study of the characteristics of persons upon whom society has placed her stamp of approval—popularity.

CONGRATULATIONS, LABAN!

We of the Mercury staff take this opportunity to commend Laban White, Jr., upon his excellent scholastic attainment and the honor which undoubtedly goes with it. The record you made, Laban, is one any student in any college might be proud of. Also, we commend all others of the student body whose names were found among the high "71"; for in doing honor to yourselves you have honored the College, your parents and your friends. May your good work continue.

Glenville's Own News Reel

By M. W.

What with slippery streets, ice gorges, and rising waters, it was dangerous to be safe the past week. Heavy blasting of the ice in the river Friday made as much noise as Italy warring on Ethiopia. Directing the dynamiting were Russell Hardman, Overt Hardman, Blair Gainer, and Boyd Reaser, and many a stick was tossed by "Tiny" Moore. Until about three o'clock Saturday morning all indications were that the town would be under water by daylight.

Earl Boggs, '32, principal of Glenville high school, was elected chairman of the committee in charge of the sectional basketball tourney to be held here March 6-7. A. F. Rohrbough was chosen secretary. The tournament will be a reunion for seven of the eight coaches who will bring teams here, Hamrick of Calhoun County High School, being the only exception. . . . Mrs. John E. Wagner, former home economics teacher in the College, addressed the local Woman's Club on "Wild Flowers for the Garden" at the last meeting of the club. . . . Another former teacher in the College, Miss Laura Fries, of Grafton, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Erle Arbuckle. Both are former English instructors. . . . Mrs. Joan Hauman, '35, Bayard Young, '32, and Lucy Wolfe, '34, took main parts in a Rudyard Kipling program given by the Glenville P. T. A. Thursday evening. . . . Carl McGinnis, '34, is chairman of the Gilmer County Safety Council. Russell McQuain is vice-chairman, and Haymon Boggs is secretary. . . . Kidd Lockard, '35, one of the honor students of his class, is working on his Master's at West Virginia University. We are told he is holding three jobs and still making his usual high averages. . . . Louise Preysz, '32, has recently had published another volume of her poems. . . . Two former College athletes have coaching positions in Ohio schools—Howard Lindell, '32, at East Liverpool, and Albert MacTavish, '30, at Barnsville. . . . Many were singing or watching the words of the "West Virginia Hills" flashed on the screen in chapel Wednesday morning without knowing that the song was written by a native of Glenville and a former student of the College—Mrs. Ellen Ruddle King, an aunt of Mrs. J. Ernest Arbuckle. Mrs. King, whose mother is buried in the cemetery behind the College, wrote the words as she was leaving the state to live in Maryland. She later moved to California, where she died and was buried in a Hollywood cemetery.

THE WOMEN'S LOUNGE

To the Editors of the Mercury:

Why did Glenville State Teachers College go to the trouble and expense of furnishing a study room for girls who are attending school? When school began it was used for the purpose of study, a place to relax and as a place to comb one's hair or apply make-up. The door is now kept closed, probably because the furniture looks as though it has been mistreated. Upon investigation one might come to the conclusion that the damage has not been done wholly by the students, but in part by excessive heat. However, if the furniture has been treated carelessly by a few, why should the innocent majority have to pay the penalty?

If it is necessary to close the room during class periods, the girls who bring their lunches would appreciate it very much if the room could be left open at least during a part of the day. The room could be repaired at small cost and could be made into a delightful lounge for those who come on busses and spend their noon hour here.

Miss McCutcheon Visits Here

Miss Evalena McCutcheon, S. N. '22, head of the mission school, San Salvador, El Salvador, is a guest in Glenville this week. She gave a short talk at the Glenville Baptist Church Sunday evening and spoke to the Evalena McCutcheon chapter of the World Wide Guild Girls at a social meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. N. E. Rymer. Miss McCutcheon came to the United States the latter part of November and will return to her duties in San Salvador about February 24. A sister, Vada McCutcheon, is a student in the College.

Herman Vannoy spent the weekend at his home in Harrisville.

Much-Talked of Subject of 'Weather' May Soon Give Way to 'Love'—and Why Not?

By S. M. F.

Mark Twain once said: "There is more talk about the weather and less done about it than any other subject." He might just as well have added: "Love talk sometimes drowns out the subject 'Weather'."

Take a stroll around the campus these days—if it snows this will not apply—and see the budding romances preparing to burst into bloom. Why just the other day we saw an attractive couple going along hand in hand, eyes sparkling and smiles radiating from ear to ear. Surely that was love. There could not have been talk of the weather.

Yes, campus romances are not far distant. Words of love will soon predominate. And after all, why not? But we hope the infatuations will not come to such a point that Dean White will be forced to introduce an anti-love code such as was recently introduced in American University, where Dean George B. Woods ruled that students should not sit together in the library, should not sit together in automobiles and should not have off-campus dates except on Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

But United States Representative Josh Lee, former Oklahoma University professor, caught the students' S. O. S. signal and replied to Dean Woods, "Forget the code. It's unconstitutional."

In the Movies

"HERE COMES THE BAND"

Mirth and melody blend as Ted Lewis weaves magic melodies in "Here Comes the Band," musical romance with the high-hatted master of syncopation, which comes to the local screen Sunday and Monday, Feb. 23 and 24.

A dramatic story dealing with the reunions of an army band, a young composer, a stolen song and a musical lawsuit that restores it to him, the new picture is packed with luring song hits and rollicking comedy. Through it runs the love story with Harry Stockwell and Virginia Bruce in the romantic leads.

"Headin' Home" is the principal song hit of the picture. "You're My Thrill" is the big production number with Ted Lewis and Spanky McFarland, "Our Gang" comedian. Lewis introduces his own hits such as "Me and My Shadow," "When My Baby Smiles," "Wear a Hat With a Silver Lining," and "Peanuts."

Money-Back offer helps pipe smokers find what they want

IT'S THE WORLD'S SWELLEST TOBACCO

"The money-back offer introduced me to Prince Albert," says John T. Norton, '38. "It's great."

THE MONEY-BACK OFFER STARTED ME ON THIS GRAND TOBACCO

"Prince Albert is a grand tobacco," says Jennings Potter, '37. More men like Prince Albert than any other kind. This mild, choice tobacco is sure to please you. See no-risk offer below.

PRINCE ALBERT NEVER BITES MY TONGUE

"Prince Albert is the mildest tobacco I've ever smoked," says Jesse Heise, '39. "It never 'bites'."

HOW TO TRY P. A. WITHOUT RISK

Smoke 20 fragrant pipefuls of Prince Albert. If you don't find it the mellowest, tastiest pipe tobacco you ever smoked, return the pocket tin with the rest of the tobacco in it to us at any time within a month from this date, and we will refund full purchase price, plus postage. PRINCE ALBERT THE NATIONAL JOY SMOKE

Way of the World

IN THE DAY'S NEWS—

Whiskey now leads all other imports to this country.

It has been so cold in Davenport, Ia., that factories have been unable to use their noon whistles.

Dr. Clara Frances Chassell of Columbia University reports that smart people are more likely to be good than "dumb" persons.

One couple of every three in the United States is childless.

Goffredo Caluzzi of Italy invented a "snoremeter." Anxious to do away with his wife's snoring, he waited until she was asleep and strapped the muzzle-like "snoremeter" over her mouth and nose. The apparatus failed to work and his wife nearly suffocated.

Construction work has started on the $150,000 Walter Williams Hall, completion of which will double the physical size of the world's first journalism school at the University of Missouri. It is named in honor of the late founder and long-time dean of the school.

—COMMENTS ON LIFE

We must promote free speech and free assemblage as an educational process and must revitalize our educational process system if we are to forestall the development of a dictatorship.—Dr. John W. Studebaker, United States Commissioner of Education.

Our civilization is a dinosaur civilization. If it is to survive it must undergo a change.—Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa.

AND SOME HUMOR—

Then there was the mechanical engineer who wanted to take his nose apart to see what made it run.

She had just received a beautiful skunk coat as a gift from her husband. "I can't see how such a nice coat comes from such a foul smelling beast."

"I don't ask for thanks, dear," said the husband, "but I do demand respect."

—FRESHMEN SHOULD KNOW

A criminology class at Syracuse University has discovered that morons can dance as well if not better than most people of normal mentality. The students declare that they are gifted with an abnormal sense of rhythm. In view of this fact, think twice before you smile the next time your boy-friend tells you that you dance divinely.

AND SOME VERSE—

These lines were written by Mary Hazel Butcher last year for Education 112, a class taught by Dean H. Laban White.

ASPIRATION

Oh! I would love to go up in an airplane

And sail around on high

And let the pure cool air whip my face

In the wide and open sky.

Oh! I would love to go up in an airplane

With its outspread hawklike wings

And leave this earth far down below

With its sordid worldly things.

I'd whiz right up into the heavens

There Jupiter would see with delight

An airplane bird go floating by

So far above his height.

Oh! how I would like to go up in an airplane

And skim the clouds forever

And let a thousand miles of sky

Me and this world sever.

Goff Giboney spent the week-end at his home in Tanner.

Linn B. Hickman Asked to Assist With Publicity for Education Association

Miss Dorcas Prichard, of Fairmont, announces the appointment of Linn B. Hickman, English and Journalism, as a member of the publicity committee of the State Education Association. Miss Prichard is president of S. E. A., succeeding Dean H. Laban White.

The committee has been appointed to provide a continuous outlet of news for the association in cooperation with association headquarters in Charleston.

George Turley, of Clendenin, is chairman of the committee, which includes W. Lee Crocker, Journalism, of New River State Teachers College; L. D. Wiant, Marshall County; E. B. Phares, Hampshire County; Ruth Hamrick, Upshur County; J. W. Garrett, Morgan County; Dorothy P. Roberts, Wirt County; Eleanor Stone, Monongalia County; Grant Hutchinson, Preston County.

MAGIC TO FEATURE PROGRAM

Science Club to Sponsor Varied Entertainment

Magic and music will be the principal features of a program to be given in the College auditorium Friday evening, March 13, at 8 o'clock, according to Mr. John R. Wagner.

There will be a series of tricks of magic by Dr. J. E. Judson of Buckhannon. Dr. Judson's program will be similar to the one he gave before the Academy of Science meeting in Montgomery last year.

Other features on the evening's program will be readings by Miss Laura Jean Watson, Buckhannon, a princess at the State Forest Festival last year; and music by a male quartet under the direction of Prof. Frank Edwin Muzzy, instructor of voice, West Virginia Wesleyan College. There will be a small admission charge.

Harris Completes Research Work

A. E. Harris, former instructor in the College, has completed his research work in the Congressional Library, Washington, and has returned to Iowa City. Mr. Harris attended the Mine Union convention while in Washington.

Each puff less acid—Luckies are A LIGHT SMOKE OF RICH, RIPE-BODIED TOBACCO

For twenty-five years the research staff of The American Tobacco Company has worked steadily to produce a measurably finer cigarette—namely, a cigarette having a minimum of volatile components, with an improved richness of taste—"A LIGHT SMOKE."

We believe that Lucky Strike Cigarettes embody a number of genuinely basic improvements, and that all these improvements combine to produce a superior cigarette—a modern cigarette, a cigarette made of rich, ripe-bodied tobaccos—A Light Smoke.

Luckies are less acid

Recent chemical tests show that other popular brands have an excess of acidity over Lucky Strike of from 53% to 100%.

"Honey in the Horn"

"Honey in the Horn," by L. H. Davis, recently added to the Robert F. Kidd Library, is a narrative of the open spaces of Oregon during the homesteading period, 1903-1908. The central character is the boy, Clay Calvert, who is involved in a jail delivery and whose subsequent adventures brings him into contact with herders, horse traders, sheriffs, storekeepers, real estate men, Indians, half-breeds and settlers of every variety. "Honey in the Horn" is a humorous, racy story of pioneer days in Oregon. It is a Harper prize novel.

Library Science References Added

Nine new books for library science have been added to the Robert F. Kidd Library. They are: "The Library in the School," Lucille Fargo; "School Library Management," Martha Wilson; five volumes of School Library Year Book, published by the American Library Association; and "The Standard Catalogue for High School Libraries." Some other new books are: "Jane Addams," a biography by James W. Linn; "Sawdust Caesar," the untold story of Mussolini, George Seldes; "The Pageant of Chinese History," Elizabeth Seeger; "The Root and the Flower," L. H. Myers; and "Elson's Music Dictionary."

West Virginia Colleges Have 1,436 Directors' Reports Show

Of the 290,017 students receiving aid from the National Youth Administration in 1935, 166,347 were high school students; 118,889 were college students; and 4,781 were graduate students.

The N. Y. A. is paying high school students six dollars a month, college students fifteen dollars a month, and graduate students twenty-five to thirty dollars a month.

West Virginia's quota of N. Y. A. students in 1935 was: 4,110 high school students, 1,436 college students, and 24 graduate students, making a total of 5,570.

These figures were taken from reports of state youth directors submitted at the close of 1935 and received here this week.

For Digestion's Sake—smoke Camels

COLLEGE LIFE is a strain on the physique, with its endless demands on mind and body. Often, as a result, digestion suffers. Smoking Camels eases the strain of the busy whirl—promotes good digestion.

Natural digestive action
notably increased by smoking Camels

People in every walk of life get "keyed up"...live too hurriedly. The effects on digestion are known to all! In this connection, it is an interesting fact that smoking a Camel during or between meals tends to stimulate and promote digestion. Enjoy Camel's mildness... the feeling of well-being fostered by Camel's matchless blend of costlier tobaccos.

the diners. William says of Camels: "Camels and good food go together. Our patrons naturally prefer quality tobaccos, judging by the popularity that Camels enjoy here. So we try to keep well stocked with Camels."

IN BRITISH GUIANA—the LaVarres ford a river. "Camels make any meal digest easier," says William LaVarre. Mrs. LaVarre adds: "Camels help my digestion, in the jungle or dining at home."

GEORGE LOTT, tennis champion, knows how over-exertion strikes at digestion. He says: "I smoke a lot. Camels have a beneficial effect on digestion. They help me to enjoy what I eat and get more good out of it."

COLLEGE WILL SPONSOR HIGH SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

EIGHT TEAMS TO VIE FOR HONORS HERE MARCH 6-7

Coach Rohrbough Will Direct Activities—Three Counties to Be Represented

JERANKO MAY REFEREE

Seven of the Eight Quintets Are Coached by Former College Athletes

Glenville State Teachers College will be host to eight high school teams representing three counties, Guilmer, Calhoun, and Roane, at a high school sectional tournament in the College gymnasium March 6 and 7. Coach A. F. Rohrbough will direct the tournament. Earl Boggs, principal of Glenville High School is chairman of arrangements.

Representatives of the eight schools, with Coach A. F. Rohrbough and R. T. Crawford, of the College faculty, as guests, met at Grantsville Tuesday, Feb. 11, and completed plans for the annual floor classic. The meeting was called by E. W. Taylor, principal Calhoun County High School.

Will Play Four Sessions

Four teams—Spencer, Troy, Tanner and Normantown—were seeded according to their season's records as of Feb. 11. The tournament will be played in four sessions, Friday, at 2 p. m. and 7 p. m. respectively, and Saturday at 2 p. m. and 7 p. m. A consolation game will be played preceding the finals.

Drawings for the opening round pits Spencer against Sand Fork and Troy against Calhoun County High School. Tanner will meet Glenville and Normantown will play Walton. Season tickets will be $1 for adults and fifty cents for students. Single session admissions will be forty and twenty-five cents for all except the finals. College students will be charged the same admission as high school students.

Coaches Are Former Students

Seven of the eight teams are coached by Glenville alumni. They are: C. D. Wilfong and "Joe" Hall of Glenville; Harold Burke, Tanner; Allan Morford, Walton; Lionel Heron, Spencer; Roland Butcher, Sand Fork; Shirley Westfall, Normantown; and Creed Westfall, Troy.

Three trophies will be awarded—one to the winners, one to runners-up, and one to the consolation victor. Individual prizes, donated by Glenville merchants, will be given also.

Either Stanley Jeranko, '33, or Loren (Pat) Hull will be the referee.

The eligibility committee includes H. N. Williamson, Spencer, chairman; A. V. Cooper, Tanner; and E. W. Taylor, Grantsville.

MUSIC FEATURES PROGRAM

Dean White Urges Students to Confer With Faculty Advisers

Group singing by members of the faculty and student body featured the chapel program Wednesday. Words and music were projected on the stage screen by means of slides.

Dean H. L. White, in a brief talk, urged students to pay more attention to curriculum planning for the four years in order to avoid the numerous changing of class schedules. He also pointed out that each class has a faculty adviser and suggested that the students avail themselves of this service.

Joe and David Haight and Lawrence Hamilton spent the week-end at their homes in Grantsville.

Glenville State Teachers College will be host to basketball teams from three central West Virginia counties, March 6 and 7. Coach Rohrbough has been appointed secretary for the meet, which will bring eight teams here. Six of the teams will be coached by former Pioneers—C. D. (Red) Wilfong and "Joe" Hall of the Glenville "Red Terrors"; Harold Burke, Tanner; Shirley Westfall, Normantown; Roland Butcher, Sand Fork; Allan Morford, Walton; and Lionel Heron, Spencer. The College tournament is scheduled for Clarksburg, March 9 and 10. Coach Rohrbough is also on the committee for this event, it's second year of play. Dorsey (Shumie) Hines, in our opinion one of the greatest forwards ever to play for the Pioneers, has been appointed referee for the Pennsboro high school sectional tournament. "Shumie" is considered one of the best officials in this section. Howard Lindell, member of the famous Hines-Lindell-Vass combination, has a "power-house" at East Liverpool, O. this season. It is "Lindy's" first year as head coach at the Ohio school. To date he has lost but one game. Rex Pyles, Alderson-Broadbudd coach, will bring a strong team to the college tournament. They gave the Pioneers a scare Wednesday night. "Tom" Pierce, football captain and president of the senior class, is recovering from an appendectomy in an East Liverpool hospital. "Bob" Combs, captain of the 1934-35 Pioneer basketball team, is one of the leading members of the Hazel Atlas team of the Clarksburg Industrial League. (Bud) Shelton, Davis and Elkins coach, attended the Broadbudd-Glenville game. "Bud" must be trying to get a line on his prospective foes in the college tourney. Don't forget, tonight's game with Morris-Harvey will begin at 7 o'clock so that those who care to may see the battle and then attend the play in the College auditorium.

WEST LIBERTY IS DEFEATED, 57-36

Glenville Continues Scoring to Add Tenth Conference Victory

The Pioneers won their tenth conference game Friday, defeating West Liberty, 57-36, after a slow first half which ended 26-11.

Lilley, Martino, and Davies paced the scorers, accounting for forty points between them. Captain Jones proved his ability as the premier foul-tossing artist, sinking five out of six tries. Cottle continued his scoring slump but played his usual smooth floor game. Coach Rohrbough used three full teams. Eight men contributed to the scoring total.

The score was tied three times in the opening minutes of play and it was not until the last six minutes of the opening half that the Pioneers warmed to their task and drew away from the visitors. Martino held Churchman, West Liberty scoring ace, to a zero in the scoring totals. McShane and Vossen were outstanding for the visitors.

Line-up and summary:

PIONEERS MEET EAGLES TONIGHT

Game Will Start at 7 P. M. Instead of 8 P. M.—Westminster Here Saturday

Two basketball games will be played in the College gymnasium this week. Tuesday night at 7 o'clock Coach A. F. Rohrbough will send his Pioneers against Morris Harvey in hopes of adding an eleventh conference victory. Glenville defeated the Eagles earlier in the season, 56-39, in Charleston.

Saturday the Pioneers will tackle one of the East's strongest basketball squads—Westminster—a team which recently doubled the score on Carnegie Tech. leaders of the eastern inter-collegiate conference.

Westminster will bring a team of six-footers with Wes Bennett, high-scoring center, as the king-pin of their attack. Bennett has compiled a great record, scoring more than 1,000 points in four years.

The Titans defeated the Pioneers early in the season by a large score, but Coach Rohrbough has been priming his cagers for the return battle.

he dignity of the spirit, which lately twelt in the lifeless form! There those who paid the last sad honours
o the benefactor of his country, took an impressive farewell view.

On the ornament at the head of

General

George Washington

Departed this life, on the 14th.

December, 1799 A.Et. 68.

Between three and four o'clock,
the sound of artillery from a vessel
in the river, firing minute guns, awoke afresh our solemn sorrow—
the corpse was removed—a band of music with mournful melody melted the souls into all the tenderness of woe.

Order of the Procession

The procession was formed and moved on in the following order:
Cavalry, Infantry, Guards, Music
and Clergy—all with arms reserved;
the General's horse with his saddle
holsters and pistols; pallbearers, Cols. Sims, Ramsay, Payne, Marsteller and Little; Mourners; Masonic Brethren, and Citizens.

When the procession had arrived at the bottom of the elevated lawn, on the banks of the Potomac, where the family vault is placed, the cavalry halted the infantry, marched towards the Mount and formed their lines. The clergy, the Masonic Brethren, and the citizens, descended to the vault, and the funeral service of the Church was performed.

The sun was now setting. Alas!
the song of Glory was set forever.
The name of Washington—the American President and General—will triumph over Death! The unclouded brightness of his Glory will illuminate through future ages.

Lilley Holds Lead Over Davies In Total Points Scored in Floor Games

Albert (Abe) Lilley scored thirty-one points in the two games the Pioneers played last week to boost his season's total to 200. Robert (Red) Davies continues to hold second place with 155 points. Frank (Chi) Chi) Martino, who scored 28 points in the two games, has a 21-point lead over Hillis Cottle. Captain Paul (Babe) Jones continues to hold the best percentage from the foul line.
Jones has tossed in 21 out of 28
chances for a .750 average.

The Pioneers have scored 751 points in fifteen games for an average of more than fifty points per game.

Summary of scoring:

Name	G	F	T
Lilley, c	80	40-67	200
Davies, f	66	23-47	155
Martino, g	47	41-63	135
