STATE Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY TALKS HERE WEDNESDAY

Guest Speaker Says Teachers
Need Sound Religious Philosophy

URGES RIGHT VOCATION

Rev. Arthur Jackson, of Wheeling,
Also Appears on College
Assembly Program

(By Ernest Harrison)

The Rev. Frank Liddle, state secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, with headquarters in Charleston, and the Rev. Arthur Jackson, of Wheeling, were guest speakers at the College assembly exercises Wednesday.

Mr. Liddle, who spoke for about forty minutes, pointed out the need for a sound religious philosophy, the importance of choosing a proper life vocation and "the right mate."

He suggested that often teachers do not have the proper sense of God and that unless they do have they cannot lead youth properly. He said that "our vocational choice often affects our disposition, and that happiness after college days are over will depend upon the selection of the right life work."

In a few observations about the American home the speaker declared, "One home in six goes on the rocks because the right mate was not chosen." Also he added, "From two-thirds to three-fourths of our criminals come from homes which are not properly regulated."

For a solution of the crime problem, Mr. Liddle observed: "We need more religion in the home."

The Rev. Mr. Jackson, who took only a few minutes to comment on phases of Mr. Liddle's talk, summed up motives for wanting a proper relationship with God. He said, "The only satisfying motive there is the motive for helping the other fellow."

REXROADS RUNS INTO UNEXPECTED HONOR AT COLLEGE LIBRARY

Vorley Rexroad, a senior in the College, stumbled into an unexpected honor the past week at the Robert F. Kidd Library.

While doing laboratory work in English 222, Rexroad was assigned to record books in the accession volume. "The Story of the Borgians," by Lucy Collier-Morley, came along and there was nothing unusual about the book apparently except that it happened to be the 15,000th volume to be added to the accession list.

The 15,000 mark is also an attainment for the College, for that is the goal set by the American Association of Teachers Colleges.

Rexroad has not read the "Story of the Borgians," but he says he'll have to now, just to celebrate.

STUDENTS VISIT HOSPITAL

Mr. Grose Pleased With Tour of Weston Institution

E. R. Grose, instructor, and thirty eight of his students in health class visited the Weston State Hospital, Tuesday afternoon. The group observed three departments; the women and children's wards, and one part of the men's wards.

Dr. von Demarcus, physician in the institution, took the group through the departments and explained the different types of cases. "I really learned something," remarked Mr. Grose. "Dr. Demarcus explained every case clearly and interestingly."

Will Tell O'Herry Stories

Ruth Annabel Hull, James C. Musser, Jr., and Tulsa Hinkle will tell stories written by O'Herry at the annual May breakfast of the Canterbury Club which will be held Saturday at "The Beeches."

Connecticut State College co-eds successfully protested the imposing of five cent fines for holes made in walls of their dormitory rooms.

Hollywood cameras are clicking on the Virginia Military Institute campus these days getting "local color" for the film version of "Brother Rat."

Assembly Speaker

The Rev. Frank M. Liddle, above, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., addressed College students and faculty in assembly, Wednesday.

NEW EXPERIMENT IN GOVERNMENT

New York City Students to Study Municipal Affairs
First Hand

NEW YORK CITY (ACP)—A new experiment in municipal government research has been instituted here by Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia in this city's municipal educational institutions.

Under a new plan announced last week, students in the city's colleges will be trained for civil service careers by doing undergraduate research in the various policy-forming departments of the city government.

"These studies and surveys will be a research rather than an investigative nature," the sponsor of the plan announced. "Students of marked ability and interest will be appointed as research associates on the staff of the department of investigation to serve during the duration of their projects as volunteer assistants without compensation, but with full credit for their work by college authorities."

"The purpose of such studies will be framing of constructive recommendations to the various municipal department heads."

TROY WOMAN FINDS LETTERS WRITTEN BY GREAT UNCLE IN 1861

Letters written almost on the eve of West Virginia's birthday have been uncovered over in the Troy section by Mrs. Esta Farnsworth, a former student in the College.

The author of the letters is W. W. Warder, Gilmer County's first representative to the West Virginia constitutional convention at Wheeling. The epistles are directed to his wife, Mrs. Eva Farnsworth Warder, and some of them are dated 1861, others 1862. Several of the letters, although of an informal nature, contain detailed news of the Wheeling convention.

Mr. Warder is a great, great uncle of Beulah Farnsworth, a freshman in the College.

CLUB ELECTS PRESIDENT

Dorothy McClung Will Lead Current Events Group Next Year

Members of the Current Events Club elected officers for the coming year and heard a discussion of the topic, "Mr. Roosevelt's Little Navy," at their meeting Wednesday evening.

Elected to the presidency was Miss Dorothy McClung of Summersville. The new secretary-treasurer is Miss Olive Myers, freshman and a niece of Miss Ivy Lee Myers, of Glenville.

Miss Bessie Boyd Bell, founder of club, will continue as its sponsor.

REGISTRATION MADE EASY

Michigan State Students Hear
Enrollment Data Via Radio

EAST LANSING, MICH., (ACP)—Next fall's Michigan State College freshmen will arrive on campus all ready oriented to the early part of college life—at least they will be if they listen to a new series of radio programs the college is sponsoring.

The programs broadcast over WKAR this month will tell them all about registration, payment of fees and other formalities necessary for enrollment in the class of '42. This is believed to be the first time radio has been used to instruct freshmen before they arrive on the campus.

MISS WHITE IS GUEST VIOLINIST

College Student Plays at Annual Banquet of Honorary
German Fraternity

Honored at Morgantown over the week-end was Miss Eleanor C. White, who, on Sunday night, was guest violinist at the annual banquet of Delta Phi Alpha, national honorary German fraternity, in the ballroom of the Morgan Hotel.

Miss White, a graduate of the University school of music, was accompanied at the piano by a former classmate, Miss Elizabeth Summersfield, who will be graduated this spring.

Three German exchange students also appeared on the program and addressed the audience in both German and English. Approximately fifty persons attended the banquet which was planned under the direction of Miss Lydia Roesch, sponsor of the University's Delta Phi Alpha chapter and a professor of German.

LOCAL PEOPLE AT WIDEN

Three Members of Faculty Attend
Inter-Cities Rotary Dinner

The Rev. J. C. Musser, president-elect of the Rotary Club, H. Y. Clark, president, and Carey Woofor and Linn B. Hickman, members, represented Glenville at an inter-city meeting at Widen, Thursday night.

More than 200 Rotarians and their friends from ten or more clubs were present. Among the group were several College alumni including Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Elliott, Charles Barnett, Fred Smith, Linn Hardman, Mr. and Mrs. Rawley Baker and Mrs. Ruby Westfall Belt.

Both District Governor Roy Waugh and District Governor-elect Ben Gillespie of White Sulphur Springs appeared on the program.

The meeting marked Widen Club's ninth anniversary.

SPEAKS IN HUNTINGTON

Miss Brand Addresses Marshall
College Assembly Audience

Miss Willa Brand, instructor in English and preceptor of Verona Mapel Hall, returned the latter part of the week from Huntington, where on Wednesday she was a guest speaker at the Marshall College assembly exercises. Her subject was "Thomas Hardy and His Wessex."

While in Huntington, Miss Brand was a house guest of the Rev. and Mrs. J. Frank Baxter, former residents of Glenville and the parents of Curtis Baxter, a former instructor in English in the College.

DR. WITHERS IS ROTARY SPEAKER

Local Dentist Favors Program
Of Socialized Medicine;
Perfect Attendance

With the observation that some form of socialized medicine is bound to come in the United States, Dr. H. F. Withers addressed the Rotary Club Thursday at the Whiting Tea Room.

Dr. Withers, who indicated his approval of a program which would bring proper medical and dental attention to all persons in the United States, said that he felt that some system of socialized medicine would come sooner or later, despite organized efforts of strong political and medical groups to defeat any legislation which would set the program into motion.

He said proposals for socialized medicine had occupied attention of state and national dental associations at their meetings of the past few years.

Following Dr. Withers' address, Rotarians joined in an open forum on the subject.

This week Rotarians will hear outlined plans for a celebration which is to be held June 17 to 20 in Greenbrier County, to commemorate 160 years of history making. The speaker will be a representative of the publicity committee of the Greenbrier County celebration.

For the second consecutive week the Club reported a 100 per cent attendance.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS

Will Install New Officers in Assembly
Program Tomorrow

The Student Council last night made final preparations for the annual installation of officers which will take place tomorrow in assembly. Also the Council discussed plans for ordering freshman caps and handbooks for next year.

Several members of next year's council were present and heard Densel Garrett, retiring president, speak briefly concerning an activities program for the 1938-'39 school year.

Underwoods Have Week-End Guests

Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Underwood had as their guests Thursday Lee Richardson, of Sistersville, Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. James C. McKel, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Underwood were in Glenville and stayed until Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Underwood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Berry, of Morgantown, who came Sunday were visiting here until today when they went home.

FACULTY PERSONNEL FOR NINE WEEKS' SUMMER SCHOOL ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY BY H. L. WHITE, DEAN AND DIRECTOR

Miss Margaret D. Kenney to Replace Mrs. Williams in Art Department

MISS JAMES TO RETURN

School Will Open on Monday, June
6, and Continue Until Saturday, August 6

A faculty for the nine weeks' summer session was announced yesterday by H. L. White, director.

Included on the list are names of two instructors who have never taught here before, names of five who have taught here in previous summer schools, and one instructor who has been on leave of absence this semester.

The school will open on Monday, June 6, and continue until Saturday, August 6.

Miss Margaret D. Kenney, a graduate of Columbia University, will replace Mrs. Margaret Christie Williams in the art department. Miss Kenney has been employed in the office of the commissioner of education in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Williams, whose marriage was announced this year, will retire from the teaching profession and will join her husband, Frank Williams, a private architect in Fairmont.

D. E. Dean, A. M., will replace E. Freed in the history department. Mr. Dean is principal of Richwood High School. Mr. Freed plans to do twelve weeks work in sociology at West Virginia University and will return this fall to resume his duties here.

Miss Lillie Mae Bauer, A. M., Northwestern University, will replace Miss Kathleen Robertson in the speech department. Miss Bauer has taught here the past summer and is now an instructor in Washington Irving High School. Miss Robertson will enroll in Northwestern University for the summer.

Miss Katherine A. Moore, E. Mus., will replace Miss Bertha E. Olsen as instructor in music. Miss Moore also has taught here in former summer terms. Miss Olsen plans to study for six weeks at the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston.

Wade O. Stalnaker, A. M., principal of Roanoke-Wilson High School, will replace Mr. C. W. Post in the geography department. Mr. Post plans to travel in West Virginia and probably will spend much time visiting Maryland and Virginia. Mr. Stalnaker also has taught here before.

Miss Hazel Fisher, A. B., '37, will teach library science in the absence of Miss Laura Ann Miles, who will study German at a nine weeks' summer school at Marshall College.

Miss Goldie Clara James, who has been on leave of absence to study at Columbia University this semester, will return in time to resume her duties here for the summer school.

Earl R. Boggs, A. B., '32, will again act as principal of the Col-Training School.

The rest of the faculty personnel remains the same.

Autumn Amos Directs Band Concert

Autumn Amos, former student in the College, directed a band concert at Burnsville, Thursday night. Eva Amos, a freshman, and Rena Mick, A. B., '30, appeared on the program.

The University of Newark, organized in July 1934, is believed to be the youngest university in the United States.

The Weather

Tomorrow, misty; Thursday, damp; Friday, damp; Saturday, cloudy; Sunday, warm; Monday, unsettled; Tuesday, sultry.

Tomorrow the sun rises at 4:45 and sets at 7:08.

WILMA BRANSFORD CROWNED G CLUB QUEEN AT CORONATION

WALTON GIRL REIGNS OVER LETTERMEN'S TENTH ANNUAL HOP

(By John Rogers)

Two events stand out from the gay and sparkling G Club tenth annual athletic hop and second coronation Friday night—the crowning of Miss Wilma Bransford, Walton, as Queen of the Pioneers, and the naming of co-captains for next season's football and basketball teams. Jack Watkins and his orchestra, of Parkersburg, provided the sophisticated swing from 10 to 2 in the picturesque gymnasium.

The coronation had the pomp and ceremony befitting royalty and beauty. The procession, accompanied by well-known college songs, marched onto the floor from the south corner of the gymnasium.

First came members of the G Club, who formed an aisle the length of the floor in front of the throne. Then came Anna Lou Luzader, the flower girl, who scattered rose petals before the princesses; Miss Josephine Riffe, Weston; Miss Geneva Spiker, Oxford; Miss Mary Leone West and Miss Susan Summers, both of Glenville. They stood on either side of the silver throne and amid the applause of the spectators, Miss Bransford, her dark hair contrasting with a white gown, marveled solemnly toward the throne between the double ranks of the Club members. Behind her came the crown bearers, Guy Bennett, president of the Club, and Evert Howes, vice-president.

Coming to the front of the throne, Miss Bransford knelt on a white pillow, as the Club members moved up to form a V with the throne as the apex.

Mr. Bennett introduced President E. G. Rohrbough, who placed the

Crowned Queen

Miss Wilma Bransford, of Walton, was crowned "Miss G Club the II, Queen of the Pioneers," at the tenth annual athletic hop Friday night. Miss Bransford is a freshman in the College.

Crown on Miss Bransford's head with the words, "By virtue of your having been chosen by popular acclaim, I crown you Miss G Club II, Queen of the Pioneers. It is yours to rule with dignity, grace and charm over this G Club Ball. Long live the Queen." Miss G Club II then mounted the throne to begin her reign.

The Club members withdrew to leave the Queen on the throne, with two princesses at either side, to receive the acclaim of the spectators. The orchestra played a number in her honor.

Later in the evening A. F. Rohrbough announced the co-captains of next season's Pioneer football and basketball teams. Russell Poterfield, Richmond and Earle Bickle, Webster Springs, are to be co-captains of the football squad, and Robert Davies, Homestead, Pa., and Albert Lilley, Chambersburg, Pa., will lead the basketball team. Both Coach Rohrbough and the co-captains expressed their desire to repeat the championship records of the past season.

The dance took place in a colorful gymnasium, decorated by Yette Beall. The theme of the decorations was the front lawn of a red brick house which stood at the east end of the gymnasium. Under the windows were flower boxes. Around the front door was a lawn complete with lily pond, bird bath, rose arbor, fence and summer furniture. At the other end of the floor was the handstand at the sides of which were green boughs. The overhead lights were wrapped in yellow, green, red and blue paper. At the sides of the floor was blue netting with white G's. On either side of the netting were white fences entwined with green leaves.

Another attraction of the evening was a tap dance by Harvey Beall, of Glenville.

Patrons and patronesses for the evening were President and Mrs. E. G. Rohrbough, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rohrbough and Mr. and Mrs. Linn B. Hickman.

Tickets were sold by Jarrett Jones, while at the gate were Harold Scott, J. Arthur Butcher, Edward Williams and Ralph Cox.

LOOK AT WEST VIRGINIA

An automobile trip down through central West Virginia to southern part of the state does much to arouse one's "state" patriotism—providing one uses the opportunity to look at the abundance of scenery which such a trip affords.

Stand, for instance, at Hawk's Nest, in Fayette County and watch the New River flowing northward—a greenish-blue, placid stream. Change the point of view to scenic view, a few miles away, and see the same river dashing over huge boulders and roaring so that the noise comes to one's ears as he stands at the edge of the road far above New River canyon. Or, view from one of the hillsides in Gauley Bridge—the Gauley and New Rivers meeting, flowing side by side, until their waters are mingled as they go over a small falls. There they lose their separate identities and go on as the Great Kanawha River. And ever present are the towering, rugged, densely wooded hills. One feels akin to that writer of old who penned "I will lift up mine eyes to the hills."

Life in this state may be simple and to some people's eyes even crude. But the Creator certainly spread out a beneficent hand to us when He gave us West Virginia—Lela Susan Wright.

IN PRAISE OF ROTARIANS

Again the Glenville Rotary Club comes to the support of the College with a spirit of cooperation that deserves no little praise. Collaborating with the College in carrying out its commencement day program, the club will sponsor a luncheon May 31 for alumni and visiting civic club members who will be here to attend the commencement exercises.

This gesture of cooperation by members of the club deserves the greatest commendation. Since its organization, the local club has been liberal in its support of programs which have added to the steady progress of the College. As students in the College we cannot help feeling a warm regard for a club that is so conscientious in its efforts to contribute to the progress of the College and to the furtherance of its programs.

Those who are to be commencement day guests may have reasons to feel appreciative of attention and courtesies paid them by students and members of the faculty, but certainly the Rotary Club of Glenville will have a great part in causing commencement day guests to return home filled with pleasant regard for Glenville and the College.—Jarrett Jones.

MAYBE I'M WRONG, BUT

(By Marjorie Barnett)
Wilma and her princesses all "tripped it on the light fantastic" at the dance Friday night in white satins and chiffons, except Mary Leone, who wore pale blue. Wilma and Mary Leone wore gardenias, while Josephine and Geneva had corsages of pink roses and red rose buds, respectively. Boleros (for the benefit of the boys—short, loose fitting boxy jackets) seemed to be all the rage. Miss Olsen looking as pretty as you please in black with a white bolero of inserted rows of lace. Connie Bumgarner wore yellow chiffon with a yellow lace bolero. Margaret Moss wore white printed taffeta and bleeding hearts in her hair. Neva Eloise suited Johnny in black net with a white yoke and white pleated sleeves. Lela Chapman attended her first formal wearing pink taffeta; she reported a good time. Gwendie Beall was striking in stripes. Fritz White came with her Bridgeport beau, Roy White, wearing a white and blue print. Mary Lusk we thought very charming in a severely cut white satin gown with pale pink rose buds in her hair. Alice charmed Louie in black net with red flowers at her throat. Lulu Brown looked royal in deep purple lace. Elizabeth Lewis enhanced her red hair by wearing a green and white printed chiffon redicote gown. Spyl Keener stood out in red moire. Teresa Butcher wore black net with white rings around the flounce.

CAMPUS FRANTIC ANTICS

The beginning of the end has started. Pre-final tests are in full swing and deadlines for term papers are being stressed. Practice for the opera and senior play are nearing completion. Speaking of the senior play, there seems to be dissatisfaction on the part of the actors because they think the play has been changed in such a way as to deaden it. Discontent bothers students other than actors when students in High School newspaper class discuss college life. Some of the conclusions of that group would startle the universe. No matter who is to blame for undesirable conditions, the kind which instigates a reform and remains loyal to it, is lacking. ASSEMBLY NOTES: The answer to Mr. Liddle's question of "What do you want?" are, according to this writer's opinion, the keys to a happy and successful life. General comment says the speech is one of the best given here in years. Leaving the serious aspects of campus life, we find the social butterflies still flitting. Willis and Edna start a shy relationship. Cliff Lamp looks back and hopes to recapture a part of the past. CORONATION NOTES: Charles and Robert pair off with the Wright sisters. Martha Jean imports one of the cream of the crop in Gassaway. Jarvis draws from Weston, as does Bill and Bob. Miss Olsen appears with an escort. Brisky Barnett recalls Helen. Buzzy brings in home-town flame. QUESTION: Why doesn't someone write a song entitled, "Hang in There Pioneers." Who put the curtains on the outside of the decorative house in the gym? Woofert still has his blonde, but he raves at her when the dance is ended. Joe Smith swings Jean. Martha Lee, well on the road to recovery, comes forth with Bull. Mac and Wilma are the center of attraction. Here it is 3:30 a. m. Let's give the dogs a rest. Goodnight—The Innocent Abroad.

Some Quotable Quotations

Perhaps it would be a good idea, fantastic as it sounds, to muffle every telephone, stop every motor and halt all activity for an hour some day, to give people a chance to ponder for a few minutes on what it is all about, why they are living and what they really want.—James Trustlow Adams.

I have known a vast quantity of nonsense talked about bad men not looking you in the face. Don't trust that idea. Dishonesty will stare honesty out of countenance any day in the week, if there is anything to be got by it.—Charles Dickens.

Put fear out of your heart. This nation will survive, this state will prosper, the orderly business of life will go forward if only men can speak in whatever way given them to utter what their hearts hold—by voice, by posted card, by letter or by press. Reason never has failed men. Only force and repression have made wrecks of the world.—William Allen White, editor.

Whoever pleads for justice helps to keep the peace; and whoever tramples upon the plea for justice temperately made in the name of peace kills something fine in the heart of man which God put there when we got manhood. When that is killed, brute meets brute on each side of the line.—William Allen White.

With the College Alumni

Earl W. Field, A. B. '35, assistant superintendent of Kanawha County schools, pronounced words at the annual Southern West Virginia spelling bee in the WCHS broadcasting auditorium at 2 p. m. Saturday.

As Other Editors See It

Argument with a woman is a case of "He came. He saw. He conquered." Some college girls pursue learning, while others learn pursuing.—College Life.

Our sympathy to the man who comes home dog tired, only to find his wife feeling kittenish. A newspaper is a portable screen behind which man hides from the woman who is standing up in a street car. When they kiss and make up, she gets the kiss and he gets the makeup. The first law of repartee—better never than late.

SCREEN SHOWINGS, CURRENT AND COMING

By L. Mason and E. Harrison

MOVIE MOMENTS

Pictures coming this week to the local theatre are: Tonight, and Tomorrow night, "You're Only Young Once!" with Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney and Cecilia Parker; Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "Mann-quin," with Joan Crawford, Spencer Tracy and Alan Curtis; Sunday and Monday, "Checkers" starring Jane Withers.

FILMLAND WHISPERS: Everytime someone says "Your Honor" Lewis Stone jumps. He played judge for weeks and has become bench conscious.

16 year-old Mickey Rooney is a veteran actor with 14 years of experience on stage and screen. He has been in forty-three pictures in the past twenty months.

Spencer Tracy joined the navy at 16 to see the world and the only thing he saw was Norfolk, Va. Joan Crawford has never been up in an airplane.

Deanna Durbin was recently made the world's only girl member of a Boy Scout troop. Adrian had designed a special form-fitting dress for Myrna Loy which is held up by adhesive tape because a button, hook or zipper would ruin the effect.

Gail Patrick bought some hat pins at an auction and wore them in public so the smartest hat shops in Hollywood have had requests for them. Marie Wilson and Jim Cagney have been given the leading roles in "Boy Meets Girl". Hollywood says it's a good test for an actor when he works on the radio with Bob Burns—he never gives the same cue. Best and briefest speech the Academy banquet was supplied by Edgar Bergen's Charlie McCarthy. When Bergen was awarded a miniature statuette he accepted it and Charlie said, "It's damn small."

CAMPUS CHATTER: Jessie and Garrett are tops when it comes to eating popcorn. Someone told us that they ate five bags one night the past week. Bus and Jean skipped play practice and saw "Hollywood Hotel" and Ginny and Earle still go twice a week.

EARL WOLFE'S TEAM DOUBLES SCORE ON HAROLD NOROSKI'S NINE TO WIN FIRST INTRAMURAL LEAGUE CONTEST

Wright's Men Down Opponents 8 to 4; Martino, Marra, Leaders

HAROLD NOBLE BATS .545
Rhoades Team Even With Two Wins and Two Losses; Bohensky Averages .462

Earle Wolfe's nine defeated Noroski's team to win their first game of the season, Thursday, 6 to 3. Noroski's team opened the scoring in the second inning with the aid of a walk, a single by Scott on an error. They scored again in the third when Martino singled and stole second to score on Scott's second hit of the game. Scott also scored when Mace lost the ball in short center-field for a three base error. Wolfe's team tallied all six runs in the fourth on a walk, three singles and the help of three errors to over the game. Edwards pitched rockit ball from the third inning on although Noroski's team threatened to score in the sixth on a walk to Scott and a single by McDonald, but Woofter forced McDonald at second, Maxwell fled out to short and Smith grounded out second to first. Noroski's team completed two double plays but to no avail.

In the other two games played the past week, Wright's team won over Wolfe's, 8 to 4, to tighten their grip on first place, having won three games and lost none, and Noroski's nine smothered Rhoades' team 14 to 5.

G-CLUB DANCE IS GREAT SUCCESS
DAVIES-LILLEY TO LEAD PIONEERS
WESLEYAN NET TEAM HERE TODAY

For the past decade the G Club has been putting on some classy hops in the spring of each school year, but after observing the manner in which this year's affair was carried on last Friday we can readily agree that their '38 ball was a crowning achievement. Most of us will agree that the music was good and the crowning of the queen most effective. Why can't other campus organizations sponsor similar affairs?

As per usual the entire organization will receive the credit for the success of the event, but we know that only a handful of the club's members actually contributed to its success. This corner extends congratulations to one Guy Bennett, Jr., president of the G Club, for the efforts that he and his cohorts exercised in making such an event possible, and asks the members of the club who will be back with us in 1939 to bear this in mind when voting for next year's officers.

The announcement by Coach A. F. Rohrbaugh during the intermission of the dance that Albert Lilley and Robert Davies would be co-captains of Glenville State's 1938-39 basketball team came as no surprise to this department. Both boys have been regular court performers for the Pioneers for the past three years, and have contributed much to the success of the team during that time. Having been well-groomed, these lads are very deserving of the honor, and we are confident that the Pioneers will go places under their captaincy.

Glenville's 1938 football team will also have co-captains, Russell

Porterfield, fullback, and Earle Bickel, center, having been named by Coach Rohrbaugh some time ago. These boys are three year lettermen and well-qualified to lead the Pioneers in their gridiron warfare this Fall.

To Glenville's retiring captains, Hillis Cottle and Frank Martino in basketball and Lee Summers in football, we extend our sincere best wishes. We regret that you will not see new ventures will be illumined with success. Here's hoping that Glenville's 1938-39 athletic units will live up to your expectations.

John ("Plug") Marra of Pioneer basketball prominence and known to the boys of the third section of the dorm as the "stooge of stooges") is getting quite a reputation in the intramural baseball league as a heavy hitter. Having greeted Woody Maxwell's offerings last week with three homers and a double in four trips to the plate. Strange as it may seem, however, this same gentleman, appearing in the capacity of a backstop two days later, whiffed twice and popped up his third attempt.

Wesleyan's highly-touted tennis team, featuring the renowned David Grey, will oppose Glenville's racquet-ers on the local courts today. To date the Bobcats are undefeated and will be a strong pre-match favorite, especially with Robert Shreve, Pioneer's No. 1 man, out of the lineup. However, the Pioneers, after their crushing triumph over Morris-Harvey last week, are determined to snap the visitors' winning streak.

John Phillips Marquand's 'The Late George Apley' Pulitzer Prize Novel

A North Dakota newspaper, with the president on February 27, 1937.

Other prizes awarded for various contributions were announced as follows:

The Elmont Journal, a Canadian weekly, for the best defense of the freedom of the press.

W. W. Waymack for the most outstanding editorial writing of the year.

The best cartoon of the year was done by Vaughn Shoemaker in his drawing "The Road Back."

"Our Town," by Thornton Wilder, was judged 1937's best play.

Marquis James and Odell Sheppard shared the prize for most distinguished American Biography.

John Phillips Marquand wrote the best American novel, "The Late George Apley," and Paul Buck was awarded the prize for the best American history.

Marya Zaturensky, poetry, and Norman Thomas, art scholarship, complete the winners who were recommended by the advisory board provided under the will of Joseph Pulitzer, who established a fund to perpetuate the awards.

A previous Pulitzer prize winner, Arthur Krock, of the New York Times, was cited for services as a foreign or Washington correspondent and awarded the prize again for his exclusive, authorized interview

PIONEERS MEET WESLEYAN TODAY

Tennis Team Will Play Sixth Match of the Season; Robert Shreve Out

The Pioneer tennis team, minus services of Robert Shreve, will meet the Wesleyan netmen here this afternoon in the sixth match of the season. To date Glenville has two wins and three losses in five starts.

Robert Shreve, No. 1 man, will be out of today's line-up. Probable starters are: singles, Fred Shreve, Earl Wolfe, Andrew Edwards, John Barnett, Harold Scott, Albert Lilley, Doubles, Fred Shreve and E. Wolfe, H. Scott and A. Edwards, Barnett and Lilley.

The Collegiate World

United States colleges and university commencements cost about twenty million dollars a year . . .

College students are taller and heavier than they were twenty years ago . . . The average college student spends five hours a week in bull sessions . . . American colleges give away approximately $30,000,000 a year in scholarships . . . And in the U. HIGH SCHOOL CHORETTA PRESENTED IN AUDITORIUM
Glenville High School presented the operetta "Daniel Boone" last night in the College auditorium. The operetta by Geoffrey Morgan and Samuel Gaines was historical in character with an added touch of romantic element.

The setting was the stockade at Boonesborough, Ky., and the leading characters were: Daniel Boone, Warren Lamb; Cornstalk, chief of the Shawnees, Clarence Underwood. Sexton Wright, sophomore in the College, called the figures for an old fashioned square dance which was a special feature of the dance.

Anthony Leber, A. B. '33; Fred Smith, A. B. '36; Ralph Barnett, S. N. '37; and James Boggs, S. N. '37, were some of the Glenville graduates who were in town for the G Club dance.

The University of New Hampshire next fall will inaugurate a new four-year course of hotel administration.
