Automobile Driving Courses Are Proving Their Worth

IN THE past four or five years there has been tremendous progress made in a class which was only recently added to our high school curricula.

From the 1200 students who have been graduated from Lane Tech, only two have been before the traffic courts in Chicago.

Part of the state gasoline tax in our state is used for the purpose of building roads.

Secretarial Work Requires Specific Training Today

AN ARTICLE prepared by the Washington School for Secretaries suggests that college graduates mapping out a career should study carefully before deciding on a secretarial field.

Very specific qualifications are required to obtain permanent employment in office work. One must have more than a mere knowledge of shorthand and typing to compete successfully in the business world today.

What the business man asks of a secretary today is specialized knowledge instead of knowledge which has no market value in the secretarial field.

America's Best Policy Is to Remain Neutral

THE ERA of science, ushered in during the last century, has completely changed our customs and ideas as well as the relationships of men and nations.

This view of the present European crisis is upheld by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh in the March issue of The Atlantic Monthly.

The wisest step which Americans can take is not to enter the conflict, but to remain neutral "while the nations of Europe find their own destiny and adjust their changing birth rates and conditions."

Once an idea, a project, is put into words, it is already in the first stage of reality, and has gained a solidity of its own.

On the Shelves At the Robert F. Kidd Library

By Olive Myers

Where ARE the pamphlets? They aren't in evidence, so not many of us know there are any.

For instance: If you want to be amused and entertained, "What's a College For?" by Baldrige (the alumni bulletin of the University of Chicago) is just the thing you want to read.

Also collegiate is "The Crypt of Civilization" put out by Oglethorpe University, Georgia. It is the story of a time capsule prepared and buried by students of the college.

Remember Dr. Rohrbough's talk in assembly about his trip to St. Louis? The music on the program of which he told us is in the library in two pamphlets entitled "On Our Way."

For purposes of contrast, consider "Thrilling Moments in Thrilling Lives" by Lowell Thomas, and "Shakespeare," a Compton article.

Visual education is treated from various viewpoints in three pamphlets put out by the N.E.A.: "Visual Aids in Safety Education," "The Motion Picture in a Changing World" and "Visual Education."

And there are those fields we generally associate with pamphlets: the agricultural, institutional, governmental, and travel elements that abound with useful material for reports and additional reading on subjects.

The LETTER BOX

TO THE EDITORS:

Complying with the state law, the school boards met the Monday and hired the teachers for the coming school year.

CERTAIN to attract attention of dramatic loving souls is the Spring Speech Recital to be given tonight at 8 o'clock.

GRADUATION exercises are nearing and along with them come times of rejoicing and sadness.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S swing session proved a great success despite the disappointment some felt at the absence of Ray Mareell and his band.

IN THE music world we find: Glenn Miller voted the most popular band with America's collegians, scoring 251 votes.

THE purpose of a college education is self-development more than an imposed development; the strengthening of character and the unfolding of the whole personality are more vital than even the training of the mind.

PRESS TRENDS

THE ASSOCIATED COLLEGIATE PRESS looks at the American college publications, sums up, and calls them more conservative than ever, despite their many faults.

One of the most conservative professions in the world is the appellation handed journalism by young newspaper men of Washington and Lee University.

GRADUATES AND JOBS AT LEAST once during the life of students who will be graduated this year, they are told that a college education is worth so much in dollars and cents each day.

COLLEGE CONTRIBUTION IT MAY be difficult to isolate and label the most outstanding gleaming of some four years of collegiate activity, but there are a few things which stand out above others.

PROFESSORS AND MEN ATTENDED A College class without having to the other day. Always it is a pleasure to return to the lecture room of those we have found exceedingly pleasant and profitable.

PIONEERS LOSE TO NEW RIVER

Local Netmen Trail 5-2 In First Intercolligate 1940 Tennis Meet

After many delays because of inclement weather, the Pioneer tennis team opened against New River Saturday at Montgomery when the Golden Bears handed them a 5 to 2 reverse. The match was fought on a very high wind that almost turned to a gale before the contest was completed.

Harold Scott, playing the Number 2 position, was the only Pioneer to win in singles. He defeated Bailey 6-3, 6-6, 14-12. The last set of the match was nothing short of a marathon, Scott taking advantage of the wind to gain the decision.

Glenville's second point of the match came when Robert Armstrong and Jack Miles defeated Erwin and McClung, 4-6, 7-5, 6-4 in the last match of the afternoon.

Complete results are as follows: In the singles O'Neal (NR) defeated Johnson 6-3, 6-0; McClung (NR) defeated Armstrong 6-4, 6-3. In the doubles Young and O'Neal (NR) defeated Scott and Shreve 6-1, 6-1; Armstrong and Miles (G) defeated Erwin and McClung 4-6, 7-5, 6-4.

YEARBOOK OUT AT SAND FORK

School Publishes 40-Page Book Dedicated to Marvin Cooper, College Alumnus

Distributed the past week at Sand Fork High School, of which Roland Butcher, A.B. '34, is principal, were copies of the school's 1939-1940 yearbook, "The Beacon."

The book, consisting of forty pages of mimeographed copy, not including the front and back cover pages of heavy grade yellow paper, is dedicated to Marvin Cooper, alumnus of the College and the superintendent of Glenville County schools.

Included in the contents of the book, published under auspices of the senior class, are names of the board of education, the school principal and faculty, school motto, creed, song, colors. Also given prominent position are the school history, song hymn, prayer, assembly dedication, class officers in grades seven to twelve, class poems and class sponsors.

In the senior section are the class song, prophecy, will, accomplishments, privileges and personality sketches. Complete details of commencement week activities, senior control day, and resume of the year's activities in athletics make up another section of the book.

In the back of the publication is an alumni directory covering the years 1936, 1937, 1938 and 1939 and a list of alumni officers for these respective years.

Teachers who assisted in publishing the book are Grace Summers, Genevieve Manning, Mary Louise Lewis, Nelson Wells, Eustace Pickens and Royce Snodgrass. All but one are alumni of the College.

Coming to Local Theaters . . .

By Fred Garrett "Straight Shooters" will furnish the entertainment at the Pictureland tonight, followed May 15 and 16 by the best of the Blondie series, "Blondie On A Budget," a story telling how a woman goes about economizing in order to buy starring Richard Greene as Robert Fulton, and Alice Faye as a girl from the water front who fights the whole city to aid Fulton launch his first boat without sails, comes May 17 and 18.

"Scar Face" starring Paul Muni and George Raft, comes to the Lyric tonight and tomorrow night. Muni, whom everybody is admiring, fights the odds to high success only to fall again to the bottom when he comes between a boy and a girl in love. "Flight Of Midnight" is full of thrills and spills, but there will be plenty of music and song to ease the tension of crashes and daring which accompany the picture. "City of the Flying U" will be shown Saturday followed by "Ma, He's Making Eyes At Me," Sunday and Monday. The two best shows of the week are, in my opinion, "Scar Face" and "Little Old New York."

Marjorie Harden spent Saturday and Sunday at Seneca. Rose Hanna spent the week-end at Bergamo.

RELIGIOUS YOUTH CAMP TO BE HELD MAY 30 TO JUNE 6

County-Wide Camp to Be Held At The High School At Tanner

Also whatever recreational and musical instrument you may desire.

West Virginia University will have 21 visiting instructors from as many colleges at its summer session.

SPORTS CHATTER

By A Cub Columnist Earl McDonald

AFTER HAVING one match canceled, the Pioneer tennis team got off to a start Saturday afternoon at Montgomery against New River. A week before the Glenville-Wesleyan set-off, scheduled for the Buckhannon courts, was called off because of unfavorable weather.

Over at the Upshur County school they are making attempts to promote a fall program in the net game which would undoubtedly have its advantages. A spring season hardly gets a good start in collegiate circles before commencement cuts it short.

SPEAKING OF TENNIS, Bob Shreve, former No. 1 man on the Pioneer team, is now receiving a few professional instructions from William Hines at a Charleston club. Bob is a brother of Fred, who is at the present the big gun for the Pioneer team.

MORRIS HARVEY'S addition to the Pioneer football schedule for 1940 makes an attractive card for the local gridirers next fall. It was earlier reported that the Eagles were moving into faster company, but we imagine that when that happens the Pioneers will be there to greet them. If local officials are successful in landing Alfred Holbrook for the September 21 engagement at Weston, the card will be one of the best.

COACH BILL KERN, W.V.U.'s new football mentor, is certainly sparing no efforts in getting his Mountaineer eleven in shape for the big test next fall. Last Friday he closed an extensive six-week spring training period.

When the Mountaineers open next fall with Westminster, the long-awaited answer will come to the query, "Does it pay to get a big name coach?"

Student Body President Will Be Among Group to Get A. B. Degree on May 29

Munhall, Pa., A Athlete Has Been Popular Member of Student Body

When members of the 1940 class receive the Bachelor of Arts degree, Wednesday, May 29, Harold Noroski, from Munhall, Pa., came this popular, dark-haired athlete to the campus four Pioneer athlete and student government head, will take part in his final activity at Glenville State Teachers College.

years ago, and he has been an outstanding leader ever since. Noroski was quite a basketball player at Munhall High School, where he was coached by Robert Markowitz, a former Pioneer. It was in high school that Noroski acquired that familiar title, "Dink."

A mellow baritone voice has earned Noroski much recognition during his four years on the campus. In two operettas he had led roles and has kept several G Club minstrels alive with his popular songs.

Noroski did almost the impossible when he broke into the first-string basketball team as a freshman. As a sophomore he and Louie Romano waged a hot battle for divided honors on the court squad and the starting assignments.

He entered student government last year as Junior class president. This year he was student body president, president of the G Club, and a member of the Holy Roller Court.

Last Friday evening Noroski directed the activities at the annual G Club ball, the season's social highlight.

With majors in English and physical education, Noroski plans to go back to his native Keystone state, Pennsylvania, to teach and coach.

the Pioneers have had in years.

WATCHING the Yankees trail along in last place in the American League race is like watching a Pioneer basketball team get beat. It's unbelievable. East Bank's High School basketball team has won 35 consecutive games. Louie Romano's picture will be listed along with the All-American basketball team in the official basketball guide. Pioneer gridirers will make advance enrollments next fall, since the opening game at Bristol, Tenn., with King's College on September 14, will be played before school begins.

Clendenin High School Ultra Modern, Says Glenville Pioneer Week Speaker

Down at Clendenin in Kanawha County there is an ultra modern high school, and it is rapidly developing into one of the state's outstanding units of secondary education. The school has just been remodeled in the past year and a new wing added to the old building. Some of the more outstanding features of the school are: The modern facilities in the industrial arts department, gymnasium, library, locker equipment and the educational advisory department. Discipline is exceptionally good and very effective student democracy is maintained.

A weekly social hour, for dancing and games, is provided regularly and the students themselves direct these activities.

On the faculty at Clendenin are several College graduates and former students. To see this modern educational plant recently was the pleasure of three members of the Pioneer Week team, H. Y. Clark, instructor, and Marjorie Barnett and Cliff Lamp, students, who spoke to a class of sixty-three seniors.

COLLEGIANS TAKE RED CAPS 8 TO 7

Rhoades Goes To Bat Three Times And Gets Three Runs; Hits 9 And 5

The Glenville Collegians, after trailing along for most of the game, put on an eighth inning scoring spree and pulled ahead of the Stumptown Red Caps, 8 to 7, Saturday afternoon in Rohrbaugh Stadium.

Junior Rhoades went to bat three times and made each count for a run. Nicholas Murin got two runs in three times at bat; Sexton Wright, Joe Marra and Patsy Palumbo got one run each.

Hits favored the Red Caps, who got nine in 32 times to the plate. The Collegians in 34 times up got 5 hits and made 4 errors.

College men tend to marry earlier and in larger proportion than college women, according to a survey.
Women teachers in New York schools are absent twice as often as men teachers, a study shows.
"American Civilization" is the title of a new major field for study at Weston College, Norton, Mass.

Of the 2000 or more College alumni the addresses of those listed below have not been secured, says Dr. C. P. Harper, instructor in political science and economics, who is compiling a College history. Students, teachers or other persons who know the addresses of these persons are asked to give the information to guidance advisors tomorrow or send the information direct to Dr. Harper.
Space does not permit publishing all the names in this issue. The rest of the names, addresses for which are needed, will appear in next week's issue, as will also names of alumni who have died since the last Alumni Directory was published in 1934.
