Boiler Bursts, Men Find New Rooming Places

"Fire burn, and boiler burst; Move the third instead of first."

Moving day for the College became November 3rd rather than the universal May 1st when a boiler in Verona Mapel Hall burst after an automatic water pump failed to function. Smoke in the halls and steam pouring from the furnace room about 9 o'clock Monday morning caused occupants of the hall to notify Doy Fitzpatrick, superintendent of buildings and grounds. The building quickly cooled and the occupants were more promptly chilled.

In called conferences, authorities planned and temporarily moved the girls to the first three sections of Louis Bennett Hall and the men to the third floor of Kanawha Hall, the gymnasium, and Robert F. Kidd Library.

The men's hall was vacated by Wednesday noon; women moved in that afternoon. Excitement and a spirit of industry prevailed as rooms were cleaned and girls, singly and in groups, wore smooth the path and walk between the two dormitories as they transferred belongings from one building to the other.

The rooms in Kanawha Hall are heated individually by gas stoves since the furnace there

Arlan W. Berry, Alumnus, Is Assistant Prosecutor, Member House of Delegates

Atty. Arlan W. Berry, A. B. '34, a former part-time instructor in the College, has been named assistant prosecuting attorney for Gilmer County to succeed during the absence of H. H. Boggs, who was granted a leave of absence to accept federal employment.

Mr. Berry, who also was elected Gilmer County member of the House of Delegates the past week, is a graduate of the School of Law, West Virginia University, and has been a practicing attorney here for about four years. While a student at Glenville, he served as a postal clerk and for a time was assistant postmaster. Following his graduation here, he taught school in Flatwoods and in Sutton before matriculating at the University.

Since locating in Glenville, he has on at least two occasions taught special courses in the College; and his wife, Mrs. Susan Waugh Berry, of Wellsburg, is now serving as College instructor in women's physical education. Mr. Berry's three sisters are former College students.

Methodist College Students Will Plan Conference For Feb. 19-21

Frances Myers, senior, was appointed publicity chairman for the Methodist Student Movement in West Virginia at a retreat at Wesleyan College, Saturday.

A conference, open to all Methodist college students in the State, was planned to be held on the Wesleyan campus on the probable dates of February 19 through 21. "Practical Religion on the Campus" will be the theme.

E. G. Rohrbough, Glenville's President Emeritus, Wins Seat In U. S. Congress

College students the past week took an after-dinner hour to stage a pep meeting and enthusiastic rally for a veteran Pioneer — Glenville's president emeritus, E. G. Rohrbough, who scored a more than 4000-vote lead in his race for Congress, Third (W. Va.) District, comprised of the eleven counties of Gilmer, Calhoun, Clay, Fayette, Ritchie, Doddridge, Harrison, Upshur, Lewis, Braxton, Harrison and Nicholas. His opponent was Congressman Andrew Edmiston, of Weston.

Immediately after dinner Wednesday, students filed out of the Kanawha Hall dining room, organized their forces and went to Mr. Rohrbough's residence on College street, cheered and were greeted with an appreciative response by the man who retired from the active presidency of the College only last August 1.

Mr. Rohrbough, who will take the oath of office of a congressman early in January, came to Glenville in 1901 as a teacher in the Normal school, and, except for one year at Fairmont State and two years on leave of absence to do graduate work at Harvard and Chicago universities, he served continuously as principal, later as president until his retirement in 1942, when he was succeeded by Dr. D. L.

College Play To Be Given Dec. 20

The complete cast for "Letters to Lucerne," the Alpha Psi Omega — Ohnimgohow Players' fall production has been announced by Miss Kathleen Robertson. The play will be presented on Friday, December 20.

The cast includes Olga Kirinski, the Polish girl, Carolyn Sims; Erna Schmidt, the German girl, Janie Bingman; Miss Linder, school mistress, Velda Betts; Hans, Erna's brother, William Kafer; Margarethe, the cook, Anna Mary Mearns; Caroline Hunter, the school matron, Helen Taylor; Bingo Hill, Eunice Wilfong; Felice, the French girl, Elsie Moore; Sally, Estella Bonner; Koppler, policeman, David Fitzpatrick. Cornelius Williams has replaced John McCutcheon who withdrew, as Gustave, an old Frenchman.

Regular rehearsals started the past Tuesday night.

Enrollment In Extension Listed

Enrollment figures for extension courses were announced recently by Dr. R. T. Crawford, dean.

There are eighteen in each of two classes at Clay, thirty and twenty-eight at Spencer, and fourteen and ten in the Summersville classes, all taught by Carey Woofor, registrar.

There are twenty-one at Grantsville, taught by Dr. J. O. Shreve; ten at Elizabeth, taught by Mr. H. Y. Clark; twenty at Sutton taught by Miss Goldie C. James; and sixteen in Dean R. T. Crawford's class at Sutton.

Total number of students cannot be computed from these figures because several persons are enrolled in more than one class.

Gross residence enrollment in the College is 197.

MRS. AREHART TEACHES FOR MISS LUCY WOLFE

Mrs. C. Lloyd Arehart has been employed to teach the Glenville second grade while Miss Lucy Wolfe, teacher, A. B. '34, is ill of scarlet fever. Having been temporarily excused Monday, November 2, the second grade resumed their class work Friday.

State blackout comes tonight.

Activities Numerous On Campus This Week

Taking a realistic view of what's to come of civilians' pleasure trips to and fro, students in twos and fours vacated the campus over the week-end for brief respites with parents and friends in nearby and distant communities.

WVIP Conference Will Not Be Held

The West Virginia Intercollegiate Press Conference will not be held this year because of transportation difficulties, it was announced by Mrs. E. P. Bengert, adviser of the association, of Concord State Teachers College.

The school of journalism, West Virginia University, and the Athenaeum staff planned to act as hosts to the conference, in Morgantown, November 13-14.

The College probably would have sent delegates to this conference had it been held.

2 Students Listed In Call For U. S. Service Nov. 17

Names of two College students are included in the list of thirty men to be inducted into the military service on Tuesday, Nov. 17, from Gilmer County. They are John Baker Ellis, sophomore; Harold Wilson, freshman, both of Glenville.

Paul H. Woodford, a former student, will go with this group, which is to leave Glenville at 10:40 a. m. by a special Greyhound bus.

Ellis, who recently signed up for a U. S. Reserve program may be deferred, though he will not know until this evening when the local draft board meets to consider his case and to transact other matters.

Mrs. Bonnell Gets Teaching Position

Mrs. Elmer Shaver, former student, who was hired recently to teach in the Normantown grade school, has resigned to rejoin the Monongahela System as cashier of the company's Glenville store, a job which she held before her marriage to Elmer Shaver, local C. & P. Telephone employee. As cashier of The Monongahela System store, Mrs. Shaver will succeed Miss Jean McGee, A. B. '40, who has taken a position in Washington.

Mrs. John Bonnell, A. B. '36, has filled the vacancy made by Mrs. Shaver. Mrs. Bonnell substituted in the College this fall for Miss Margaret Kenney, art instructor, who was ill.

Moore Is Principal At Normantown High

Arthur Moore, A. B. '35, has been appointed principal of Normantown High School to succeed John Willard Shreve, A. B. '36, who has accepted an appointment as an ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve and will report for duty this week. Mr. Moore, brother of Walter L. Moore, a former Gilmer County superintendent, has taught at Normantown several years.

Collecting scrap has been offered as an alternative to walking penalty tours for the cadets at Virginia Military Institute.

But back this week are they in the midst of a busy academic program which calls chiefly for mid-semester tests, reviews and check-ups, with grades to be figured and reported by instructors not later than Monday.

College administrators and professors, too, will find the

Holy Rollers To Complete Scrap Drive Saturday

In a final effort to collect all available scrap metal Holy Roller Court members will make a house to house canvass Saturday morning.

About four tons of scrap have already been sold by the Court, two tons have not yet been sold, and it has been estimated that two more tons will be collected.

Between one and two tons of pipe were recently taken off Tank Hill with the aid of two horses and a wagon, and more sections of an iron fence behind Louis Bennett Hall may be taken down.

Notices

From the office of Dean Robert T. Crawford the past week came these notices:

1. Assembly tomorrow will be devoted mainly to a song period; classes will meet as usual and the day will not be observed as a school holiday (Armistice Day).

2. H. L. White, head of the English department, who was to have addressed an assembly audience the past week, will be the speaker for assembly, Wednesday, Nov. 18.

3. Instructors are asked to report mid-semester grades to the Registrar by November 16.

4. There will be a meeting of the Faculty in Room 101 on Tuesday, Nov. 17, at 5:10 p. m.

College Students Enjoy Church Supper

BUT IT COULD BE

Have we ever thought of our College as "those ivy-covered walls, tucked off in a corner of the world, where peace abides and learning permeates the atmosphere; where words of faculty members are golden treasures always to be cherished; where students are deep as the most profound thought they have discovered, and conversation is saturated with ideas of eternal worth?"

Of course we haven't, because it isn't. But it could be.

Glenville State Teachers College is what we make it. We are excluded from the world to the extent that we can build our own pattern of life. Glenville is a peaceful town, and the learning is here to "permeate the atmosphere" if students would only let it. Instructors do say much that is worth remembering, and students are deeper than they allow their conversation to show.

If each student would formulate and write down his conception of "The Ideal College" and then work to accomplish it, the ideal would be a reality within an amazingly short time.—Frances Myers.

A JOB WELL DONE

A very successful season. This sums up what the Pioneers did on the gridiron this fall.

It might be said that the Pioneers and our Coach A. F. Rohrbough did the unexpected this season. Even some of the players did not expect to do as well as they did, but with a small squad, Coach turned out one of the best G. S. T. C. teams, one of the best eleven in the state.

Seniors on the squad were seen in action probably for the last time in organized football at Morris Harvey. These men—William Whetsell, William Kafer, Billy Karantonis, Warren Lamb, Waltman Bailes, and Earle Spencer—turned in one of their best seasons of their four years at Glenville. Steryl Brown, senior manager, and his assistants deserve some of the credit for this fine season.

This week-end students will be given a chance to express their appreciation to the team and the coach. A dance is to be given in the gymnasium for the benefit of the coach and the squad. Let us attend this dance, show our appreciation for a job well done.—Clifford Stalnaker.

ON BEING A 'BIG BROTHER'

There is need here for a better cooperative spirit among upper-classesmen and freshmen if we are to realize the greatest benefits from a progressive educational institution.

In order to have this cooperative spirit, we should adopt the orthodox "big brother" and "big sister" plans, take more interest in freshmen, offer helpful suggestions as to ways and means of improving educationally, socially.

If we think back over the years we will recall times when we would have appreciated a helping hand from one "who knew the ropes." Maybe we could have become better adjusted had we been offered a guiding hand. Freshmen never forget those who show interest in them. In years to come they will remember those upper-classesmen who showed them around, guided, counseled, helped them.

To become a "big brother" or a "big sister" is to assume an attitude of service. The little deeds of kindness we do here will carry over; they'll live on long after we have become G. S. T. C. Alumni.—William Whetsell.

AMERICA HAS CHANGED

America has changed. Yesterday, Mr. America was free to drink as much coffee as he wished before jumping into his car and speeding to work, all by himself, at the rate of fifty miles an hour. Yesterday, Mrs. America could make a cake any day she so desired, no matter how much sugar the recipe designated.

Yesterday, Miss America could snag a pair of Nylon hose without worry concerning the source of replacements. Yesterday, Master America could collect pipe lengths and roll old tires without depriving the nation of material vital to defense. Yesterday, the whole American family could go where it pleased, come when it pleased, burn lights all it pleased, and produce no disturbing consequences.

But changes in America have gone deeper than the mere hindrance of activities. The American is no longer carefree. He can no longer live in a little world of work, home, and recreation, exclusive of undesirable outside influences.

NOTES FROM

The Robert F. Kidd Library

By Eunice Wilfong

Since we are now observing National Education Week it seems fitting and proper to emphasize that in addition to the well-known fiction and fashion magazines the library also gets some 65 education magazines, according to a bibliography compiled by Miss Willema White, librarian. In addition to these we get almost all the publications of the Office of Education. This is a hint to the wise for those special reports in education courses.

The October issue of "Educational Method" is entirely on the school in war, featuring such articles as "Shall I Continue to Teach?" and "Total War and the School."

Education for war and peace is discussed in the October issue of "Progressive Education."

The October issue of "Education" is devoted to the teaching of aeronautics in elementary and high schools.

"The Horn Book," a little magazine on children's literature, proved one of the most pleasant discoveries I've made in a long time. Anyone planning to teach in elementary schools would do well to get acquainted with it, for it recommends new children's books and carries clever articles on proper teaching methods and sometimes histories of books and illustrators.

Verona Maple Hall girls had an opportunity to catch up on their reading in the library Monday night because their rooms were too cold for "house sessions."

CAPITAL & CAMPUS

A. Q. P.'s Correspondent Reports from Washington

Old economic garb no longer fits the shape of things. As the war so glaringly demonstrates, money is beside the point when it comes to mobilizing the real wealth of a country to fight a war. Take the case of the gold miners who were recently removed from their jobs by the WPB to be placed in zinc, copper, and other mines.

And take that abused phrase, "but what about the public debt?" We have come to recognize that "public debt" is not necessarily a "bad" phrase. For a public debt is not only a debt (bad word) but an investment (good word). And a big national debt isn't something we owe outsiders; it's in the family, a part of a government which is the people themselves.

From the trend of thinking among Washington economists, it's a good bet that during the war and the post-war period, the national budget will be used as a balance-wheel for the nation. When times are good, the debt will be whittled down through taxation; when they are bad, taxes will be reduced and money taken from the treasury to get us out of our doldrums. Which is nothing unusual. It's only that we've taken it so hard in the past.

According to these same Washington economists, we may expect a period of one or two years immediately after the war when inflation pressure will be terrific. As one of them put it, "We'll be swimming in a tremendous lot of cash," i. e., the money we're laying by now.

To arrest this expected boom, the government will hold down buying power, through taxation and by withholding some of the war bonds we're buying so furiously now.

Because people will have a lot of money to spend in the post-war period, there will be a big boom in heavy industry. It has been estimated, for example, that there will be an immediate market for 9,000,000 automobiles, which manufacturers have said they can turn out inside a year.

The Bethany Bisons upset Fairmont State 14 to 6 Saturday for their first victory in two years.

What Other Colleges Are Doing

A midsize edition of the Michigan Daily, complete in concentrated form, is now printed on the back page of the daily paper. Students are asked to clip the four-column "V Newspaper" and send it to a University of Michigan man in the armed forces.

University of Michigan Manpower Corps, a student organization, will supply workers for every war job on the campus and in the community that needs to be done, such as harvesting beet crops, chopping wood, collecting scrap, and working for the Red Cross.

The University of California's annual freshman-sophomore brawl was converted into a harvesting contest when 1500 students turned out to help local farmers. . . . Cakes, cookies, and pies have been ruled out of the wartime diet at Simmons College. . . . Dartmouth College now goes meatless one day a week.

Collegians Might Be Interested

A call for old silk and nylon stockings has been issued by the government. Collection will begin November 16 at the hosiery counters of retail stores. The silk and nylon collected will go into powder bags and other war material.

Six months amateur experience or successful completion of a college photography course constitutes eligibility for Civil Service jobs with salaries from $1260 to $2000 a year. No written test will be given.

Proper Attitude Is Important

In the ACP's "Parade of Opinion," University of Michigan male students, after being subjected to the institution's compulsory "hardening course" for one term, have improved their physical fitness by at least 20 per cent.

A check on attitudes of the various students throughout the term showed that never less than 70 per cent liked the course; 16 per cent disliked it, with those disliking it making only 18.2 per cent as much progress as those who enjoyed the program. This indicates that proper attitude is important in producing results.

The football game Friday night at Charleston may be the last for the Pioneers for the duration. . . . Good luck, fellows, and may you deal with the Japs and Nazis as well as you dealt with more friendly foes.

Men move out of Louis Bennett Hall; girls move in for a period of five weeks or more, depending on the time needed to repair the furnace in Verona Maple Hall. . . . There was a scramble for rooms, and the men, in some instances, besides moving their own belongings, offered girls assistance.

Velda Betts moved into the 300 section of Louis Bennett Hall and took over as "house mother." . . . Men are interested in finding out how to go about getting a date at the girls' hall. . . . Any one receiving information on this subject, please spread the word.

Miss Grace Lorentz tries to keep the new roomers of Kanawha Hall in check, but finds it a job. Men should show other occupants of the Hall due respect. . . . Give them cooperation.

The "razor crew" sharpened up the past week and opened up on the freshmen. . . . Ray Watson put up a battle, but was finally subdued. . . . Kafer and Bailes led the party.

If you hear the boys yelling "Hi, Roomie!" quite frequently, don't be alarmed, it will only last "for the emergency."

In order to catch the spirit of army habits, campus males have suggested getting a bugler to play taps and reveille. . . . It might be a good suggestion, but should pertain to the girls as well as the men. . . . We all need a taste of army life to make us a little more war conscious.

Students are looking forward to the first scheduled vacation of the present semester. . . . It must be a yearning for some of "Mother's home cooking."

And for the real romantic side of campus life: Spencer and Redhead Mary K. Mackey are serious. . . . David Fitzpatrick and Betty Atkinson are still in the groove. . . . George Tharp and Gladys Buzzard are together frequently. . . . Sol Levin moons over a Pittsburgh U. sophomore. . . . Winston Shelton and Alice Lee Marple are 'that way'. . . . Seldon Riggs finds a certain Fitzpatrick lassie. . . . Ray Watson gives Ruth Allen a 'break'. . . . Billy Karantonis eyes 'em all. . . . Mary K. Smith looks often for Cornelius Williams. . . . And Peggy Gainer holds out the torch for Joe Rodriguez.

Pioneers Lose To Morris Harvey 14-0

By John McCutcheon, Mercury Sports Editor

CHARLESTON, Nov. 6.—Glenville's bid for conference leadership was plummeted to earth tonight as Morris Harvey intercepted a Glenville pass in the first period and came through in the second with a touchdown pass to clinch the game, 14-0 at Laidley Field.

The Pioneers outweighed, not outplayed, smashed many M-H plays before they started. Four times an Eagle passer was caught behind the line for losses. The Pioneers were 30 pounds lighter to the man and were hindered severely by the lack of substitutes. The Eagles had more men on the bench than Glenville had in the entire squad.

Glenville's gridders made their greatest touchdown bid on the last play of the game when Luzader, substitute back, skirted left end for 22 yards and carried the ball to the Eagle 20.

Glenville was on the short side of a 9-4 first-down count and completed 4 of 13 passes; the Eagles completed 4 of 9. M-H was penalized 95 yards; Glenville 45.

Dick Young, M-H quarterback, intercepted a Glenville pass on the Pioneer 35 in the first quarter and scampered unimpeded for a touchdown. Roussos converted for the extra point.

Striking again in the second stanza, the Eagles drove from the Glenville 43 to the 20, from where Stec passed to Roussos, who snatched the ball and took two steps to score. Roussos place-kicked the extra.

Glenville threatened seriously when Whetsell kicked behind the M-H goal line and Stec was downed on the 3. Stec's punt carried only to the 30, but the Pioneers could not penetrate the Eagles' heavy line. The lineups:

Glenville (0)	Pos.	M-H (14)
Fitzpatrick	LE	Roussos
Watson	LT	Kovack
Kafer	LG	Adams
Lamb	C	Jones
Tharp	RG	Patton
Wheeler	RT	Fuehr
Lilly	RE	Straight
Bailes	QB	Young
Whetsell	LH	Kulnis
Rodriguez	RH	Pugh
Karanionis	FB	Stec

Score by quarters:
Morris Hrvy 7 7 0 0—14

Scoring touchdowns: Morris Harvey, Young, Roussos; extra points, Roussos 2, by placements; substitutes, Glenville, Spencer, Williams, Wilson, Shelton, Luzader; Morris Harvey, Zinck, Gleasner, Brown, Barker, Moats, Kennison, Caldwell, Legg, Davis, Truman.

Pioneer Backs Get Bids From Pro Organization

Offers to play with the Philadelphia Eagles, national professional football league team, have been received by three of Glenville's varsity football men, Billy Karantonis of Colcord; Waitman Bailes of Summersville, and William Whetsell of Kingwood. All are seniors and are backfield men who have been regulars this and other seasons. Karantonis was an all-conference back the past year.

The invitations, received the past week, carried with them requests for information on the players' military status, football experience and intentions to play.

It is doubtful whether any of the three men will sign with the Eagles because they are all enlisted in some U. S. reserve program and probably will enter service immediately after graduation.

Former Pioneers In The Service

Looking at a picture of the past year's football squad one sees many faces missing.

Frank Bowles, Robert Bolster, Beecher Reed, Ruble Clevenger, Arthur Short, Brooks Golden, and Joe Marra are in the army; the Naval Air Corps has Robert Fidler; the fleet got Brent Brown; the Marines, G. Jordan.

Joe Radcliff is shooting a house stick in a Weston pool-room while waiting for a card from the draft board; Clarence Hinkle is toting a billy-club and wearing a silver badge in Richmond; and Pell McCartney transferred to the University for military training.

Glenville's Football Season A Success; 4 Games Won, 2 Lost; Total Scored, 94

Glenville's football season was a success, and here's the proof: Games won 4, games lost 2; total points scored 94, total scored by opponents 46; Glenville's average per game 15 2-3, opponents' 7 2-3.

Who did the scoring? Karantonis led off with 6 touchdowns; Whetsell got 2, Lilly 2, and Rodriguez, Williams, Luzader, Fitzpatrick and Bailes 1 each.

Coach A. F. Rohrbough opened the season with 22 men, finished with 18. Two left College, 2 dropped football—and not a single man was injured seriously.

With only 9 practice sessions behind them, the Pioneers went to Potomac State for their first game, won 7 to 0. Next week-end they whipped Bethany 37 to 0. For their Home-coming game the Pioneers dropped one to West Liberty, 20 to 13, and the next week-end trounced West Virginia Tech at Montgomery, 12 to 6. In their second home game of the year, Glenville surprised Fairmont, won 25 to 6. In the final contest the Pioneers dropped a listless game to Morris Harvey, 14 to 0.

Discussing the Morris Harvey-Marshall game, Dick Hudson, Daily Mail sports writer, typed: "If the Eagles can't beat an undermanned Glenville squad more than 14-0, they don't belong in the field with Marshall. The game really was a victory for Glenville, considering the size and abundance of freshmen and sophomores." Glenville played 5 sophomores, 1 freshman against M-H.

The season's record:

Glenville 7	Potomac 0
Glenville 37	Bethany 0
Glenville 13	West Liberty 20
Glenville 12	W. Va. Tech 6
Glenville 25	Fairmont 6
Glenville 0	Morris Harvey 14

Betty Arthur discussed the German point of view, Helen Fleming the Japanese, and Edith Lockard the American on the question "No Kidding, What's It All About?" yesterday at a Current Events Club meeting. The Club will meet again November 23, at 5 o'clock in Room 106.

Canterbury Members to Hear Southern Stories

Stories by writers from the South will be told at a meeting of the Canterbury Club tomorrow evening. Eunice Wilfong will tell "Marse Chan" by Thomas Nelson Page; Carolyn Sims will relate "Municipal Report" by O. Henry, and Velda Betts will give Joel Chandler Harris' "The Hard-Headed Woman."

Chemistry Club Initiates 5 Pledges

Five pledges initiated into the Chemistry Club the past week were Ruby Gard, Grace Murphy, Estella Bonner, George Adams, and Charles McIntosh. In addition to initiation activities—testing taste, hearing, smell, and feeling—pledges were required to wear unmatched socks, fingernails painted different colors and a red C painted on each leg.

ARLAN W. BERRY

Mr. Berry, a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Berry, of Flatwoods, is president of the College Alumni Association, treasurer of the County Red Cross chapter, town attorney, and County chairman of the U. S. defense bond and stamp sales.

Mr. Boggs, who left the past Tuesday and will be located in Akron for a few weeks, has served as prosecuting attorney for ten years. During his absence, his family will live at the home of Mrs. Boggs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Larkey, Brooklyn Addition. The Boggs' residence is occupied by the R. T. Crawfords.

State blackout comes tonight.

New 'Lip-Impression' Cards Carry Imprints From Campus 'Sweeties'

An insignia of rank, the "lip-impression," has been adopted by the "home guard" (girls on the campus).

This fad, put to use by several girls in the College, consists of placing on the backs of the envelopes of out-going mail to men in service a rosy imprint of lips. Often the imprint is accompanied by notes such as: "More when you come home!" or "This is my impression of you."

Five and ten cent stores now sell stationery with the lip imprint on it; also birthday, Christmas, and greeting cards. The owner of a local department store says he has had good sale for this type of card. He first offered them for sale on Saturday, Oct. 24, and now they are almost gone.

STUDENTS ASKED TO CLOSE WINDOWS

Doy Fitzpatrick, superintendent of buildings and grounds, asks that all dormitory students on leaving their rooms close their windows and keep them closed in the early morning. This will help to keep the rooms warm and to cut down on the fuel. He hopes all students will be willing to cooperate.

COLLEGE NURSE ADVISES DAILY THROAT GARGLE

Because of a recent case of scarlet fever in the College Training school, the College nurse, Miss Margaret Prunty, has advised students to gargle their throats daily and to report to her immediately any illnesses. Miss Prunty lives in Louis Bennett Hall, but may be found during the day at her county health office on Church Street, opposite the Presbyterian Church.

POST OFFICE IS CENTER FOR CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS

The Glenville post office has been designated by the Civil Service Commission as a center for stenographic-typist examinations, according to Marguerite Whiting, postmaster, who received notice of such from M. J. Auliffe, regional director of the 4th United States Civil Service District.

STILL TOO MUCH SUGAR

Not more than one per cent of the nation's population can eat their full ration of sugar without harm to their teeth. Dr. Herman Becks, professor of dental medicine at the University of California, states the common belief of dentists that Americans still get too much sugar to prevent harm to their teeth.

EDUCATION SECONDARY TO VICTORY, NOTHING ELSE

Education must support democracy, and at the same time democracy must continue to maintain education. Our first task is to win the war, but the maintenance of educational facilities, while secondary to victory, is secondary to nothing else. Dr. B. F. Pittenger, education dean at the University of Texas, cautions against relegating education to the background because of war.

Janie Bingham and Helen Taylor were week-end visitors in Weston.

BOILER BURSTS

is also out of commission. Athletics were moved into the library and gymnasium, ten in each building.

Though it may take several weeks to get parts and do the repair work, there is a strong possibility that the furnace may be replaced with another one and students will be able to return to their regular rooming places in a very brief time.

ELECTED IN 3RD DIST.

Haught, formerly dean at Concord.

By virtue of his election, Mr. Rohrbough became the first Gilmer County man to win a seat in Congress while still a resident of the county. Also Mr. Rohrbough is the first Republican to carry Gilmer County for a major political office. His majority in the county was 22 votes.

Other winners Tuesday—for U. S. State, District, and Gilmer County offices only—were: For U. S. Senate, long term, Chapman Revercomb; U. S. Senate, short term, Hugh Ike Shott; Congress, Andrew Schiffler, first; Jennings Randolph, second; E. G. Rohrbough, third; Hubert Ellis, fourth; John Kee, fifth; Joe L. Smith, sixth; for attorney general, James K. Thomas; state senate, A. I. Boreman; county commissioner, Earl Hardman; house of delegates, Atty. Arlan W. About Men In The Service

Johnson H. Burke, A. B. '41, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Burke, of Cedarville, and a brother to Pauline Burke, a junior in the College, has been promoted from the rank of 2nd Lieutenant to that of 1st Lieutenant in the Coast Artillery (AA).

Since being inducted into the army on November 18, 1941, at Huntington, Lieut. Burke has traveled through seventeen states and has been in Mexico receiving his training. He spent nine weeks at Fort Curtis, Va., eight weeks at officers' training school at Camp Davis, N. C., and the last eight weeks at Camp Stewart, Ga., where he was advanced to his present rating.

Lieut. Burke expects to spend a short furlough with his parents and friends of Cedarville and Glenville, either Thanksgiving or Christmas.

Brooks Golden, A. B. '42, writes from Camp Stoneman, Pittsburg, Calif.: "I have been getting the Mercury regularly. Thanks a lot. I really enjoy reading it." Pvt. Golden says that Nick Murin, a former student in the College, is located about sixty-five miles from him.

Word was received this week by the Mercury that Earl McDonald, A. B. '41, who has been employed by the Wood County Health Department in Parkersburg, is now in the Army.

From Robert R. Fidler, A. B. '42, and president of the student body the past year, came a card Saturday. Fidler, now an Air Corps cadet at Corpus Christi, Texas, writes: "Please send me the Mercury so that I can keep up on news at the school... I like the Air Corps fine... Ground school is beginning to get a little tough."

Pfc. James Woofler, A. B. '41, left Sunday for Langley Field, Virginia, after spending a 7-day leave here with his parents, Carey Woofler, College registrar, and Mrs. Woofler, of College Street. Woofler is in the communications division of the U. S. Army Air Corps.

John Willard Shreve, A. B. '37, teacher and principal of Normantown High School for the past six years, has been granted a leave of absence to accept an appointment as an ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve. He will leave here Thursday and will be the third member of the Shreve family to enter the service.

He expects to go to the University of Arizona in Tucson for his preliminary training. Mrs. Shreve, formerly Marjorie Barnett, A. B. '40, plans to join her parents in Charleston during her husband's absence.

Two of his younger brothers now serving in the U. S. forces are Lieut. Robert D. Shreve, A. B. '38, of the Air Corps (now in foreign service), and Pvt. Fred D. Shreve, A. B. '41, who joined the Marines the past month and is stationed at Quantico, Va.
