ERCURY USINGS

away from the College-and along with his exhuberance at graning, has his pleasant non-traine the his pleasant non-traine either with hot dagh Conrad's or coke from the Cahim. As he watches the chim faire go past the li-ty he eannot help entertaining that shat he no longer will be a that-such a small privilege, methow so very valuable right.

the rotes stroug summi-arough the mystericus summi-d the old maples, nieets the hgli-oun the electric lamos some-here half way down the rough

EXPRESSIONS OF SYMPATHY The faculty, student hody and the ferenzy staff extend deepost sym-ally in Miss Helen Taylor, senior ass president and editor of the ercury, in her recent bereavement

The hast the weeks of must raying in College IIFs have were trying in view of the fact that her mother, Mrs. Hayward A. Taylor, lay critically ill and died five days before Miss Tay-her was graduated.

trunks. And he remembers some-thing about what happened here and what huppened in that place, as he laughs half under his breatt at a pleasant recollection of some ast indulgence. There are many nemories-most of them happy nes, but of course there were ones, but of course there were a few things akin to heartbreaks. At least they seemed to be as then, but since have grown petty when he remembers. Here and there through his scattered reminis-cences he finds the memory of a joke, a party, a 'crush' that turn-ed out to be only pupy love, a real romance. Strange that he should associate the Campus with bromance. They went to a roast-and it tained. Another couple and they shared a lone umbrells—and got soaking wet, and it was his heat coat, too.

THEN HE TURNS back pages in his book of memories-to the instructor who forgot all about the test he had planned and how the bookiah sophomore let the cat out of the bag . . . of a cramming session the gang had—for a test most of them flunked the next day... the rows of old books in the library... the fresh smell of the lawns after a rain... tennis on n hot day and how good the shower felt... the time the Pio-neers got beat and how the win-min tem backed are bear.

neers got beat and how the win-ning team honked car horns . . . the zoom of the mail plane as it dives at Town Hill . . . lying in hed with the Sunday funnies . . . faculty members the first time they called him by his first name. . . a picture show and the kid hebind that threw popcorn phone call with a familiar party heckling in an assumed voice . . . the might of the play and how the prease paint staid on the shirt for grease paint staid on the shirt for SUDDENLY, HE FEELS half ashamed for his reveries, hurres on. And the sound of the foot-steps can be heard long after the

hoss have died away. ENROLLMENT IN Glenville

ENROLLMENT IN Glenville State College has recently increas-ed by three (already accounted for) new residents on the cam-pus. A family of wild rabbits has taken possession of the grounds of Kanawha and Verona Mapel Halls, and the lawn of the President's home as well. Favorite of the stu-(Continued on page 4) rous situation. He stops to ntimental moment

MOON shines

FULL

THE

The Glenville Mercury SENIOR walks toward the leading down past Kanawha to the street that will lead away from the College-and GLENVILLE STATE COLLEGE Student Newspaper

Volume 14, No. 28.

Glenville, West Virginia, Tuesday, May 30, 1944

CONGRATULATIONS, SENIORS, AND BEST WISHES TO YOU, ALWAYS

Single Copy 5 Cents

Published Weekly

Helen Taylor Has Highest Average In Social Studies

Seniors on the campus this seme ter sang their "swan song" in a sembly Wednesday when they presented a short program, with tella Bonner, vice-president, as an master of caremonics in the E sence of the class president. Heler Taylor: Precceding the program three awards pertaining to the sosist studies department were given Following scripture reading, and a prayer by Pres. D. L. Hought, Min

Bonner introduced the members of the senior class who were seated is a semi-circle on the stage. The class history, propiecy will, copies of which are p with copies of which are primore elsewater in this issue, were reach by Ritamae Fling, Catherino With ers and Madge Ward, respectively Miss Bertha E. O'sen lod group sing ing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "Freewell To Thee," and the program wa closed with the seniors' singing a "I've Been Workin' On The road." purody Rail Awards of books were given An Withers and Jack Rader for making the highest grades on "Time" maga the highest grades on "Time" maga-cine tests in History 207 and 208. Announcement was made that the award, also a book, annually given by the Current Events Club to the senior having the highest scholastic average in social studies, had been won by Helen Taylor.

Students Display Art Work Here In College Hall

Miss Margaret D. Kenny's classe Miss Margaret D. Kenny's classes in Art 101, 102, and 303 are exhibit-ing their work in Administration Hall. The exhibition, representing work done the past semester, con-sists of posters with modern and traditional type lettering, decorative table scarfs in erayon on cloth, line-hare hided write, write colors, and leum block prints, water colors, and originally designed monograms in tempra paints.

tempra paints. Students contributing are: Mary Jo Ellyson, Wanda Strader, Gray Barker. Rita White Hoey, Bobby Jean Coe, Ella Fitzwater, Mary Jo Moran, Isabelle Clark, Helen Cox, Betty Jean Wimer, Esther, Cook, Norita Gallien, Evelyn Finster, Glennis Hudkins, Ora Mae Linger, and Inaceran Wimer.

and Imogene Winer. The exhibition, which started Sat-urday, will end this afternoon at four o'clock, at which time contrib-uting students are requested to call and receive their work.

YW VESPERS HELD ON LAWN, MONDAY EVENING

The lawn in front of the Robert F. Kidd Library was the scene of the final Y. W. C. A. meeting when the members sponsored a Vesper sur-vice for all students and faculty yes-The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group.
 The sulf-intercent of the United State is best served by the group server server with the server server with the server server with server server with the server server with the server server server with the server server with the server server server with server ser

THIRTY-SIX SENIORS GET A. B. DEGREE AT EXERCISES HELD HERE SUNDAY; DR. J. W. ELLIOTT IS SPEAKER AT GRADUATION

. . .

Ð

Dr. John W. Elliott, president of Alderson-Broaddus College, per-formed a double task Sunday when formed a double task Sunday when he delivered an annual Barcelaureate Sermon and graduation address en-titled "Wholesome Laving," at the weretiteth annual commencement in the College auditorium, where frirty-six sentors, representing al most overy section of Central West Virginia, received the Bachelor of Arts derease in advention.

Virginia, received the Backelor of Arts degree in education. The move to combine the two exer-clies, held separately in past years, was made because of the transporta-tion hardships the two events would have imposed on those living away

"You are stepping out into one of the greatest periods of time," Dr. Elliott told the graduating class, after being introduced by President D. L. Haught. "And," he said, "you must realize that there is a great must realize that there is a great danger of losing sight of the individ-ual . . There is no such thing as the United States of America aside from the individthe individuals that comprise it . . . Unless we have healthy individuals, we cannot have a healthy nation

Unless we have healthy individuals, we cannot have a healthy nation and wholesome living." Dr. Ellioit, grey haired, short in stature, punctuated his address with cleverly related anecdotes, never ob-trusive to his serious tone and illus-trating the points he stressed. He was specific in emphasizing three things which he termed "ab-solutely basic for wholesome living." "First," he said, "you must master the means of communication"; and he told the class that for the past sixhe told the class that for the past sixhe told the class that for the past six-teen years they had been going to school attempting to acquire that power. The second he listed as "mas-tering the means of making a liveli-hood," and said that if an adult makes his own living he must utilize all his God-given talents and ener-gies to the utmost. His has point listed was its he the gives to the utmost. His last point listed was "to be the master of the means of meaning." "Unless we can find meaning in life," he said, "our lives can never be full... The best way we can find it it by reading and meditating on the teachings of Jesus." Janette Cunningham, president of the junior class, led the academic procession, which formed at the College gymnasium and proceeded past the science building to the auditorlege gymnastum and to the auditor-the science building to the auditor-ium in Administration Hall. The processional was played by Miss Bertha E. Olsen, who also directed the College chorus in two numbers, "My Heart Ever Faithful," by J. S. Bach, and Franz Schubert's "Screnade," for which Mrs. John E. Arbuckle was accompanist. The sudience partici-pated in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner" and "America, the Beauti-ful."

The scripture, John 10:1-18, was read by the Rev. Mr. Gilbert B. Moore, pastor of the Baptist Church, who also gave the invocation. Ser-vices in the local churches were dis-missed so that members would be able to attend the commence Dean R. T. Crawford presented bean n. t. Crawlord presented the class, after which Dr. D. L. Haught, president of the College conferred the degrees, and, in the absence of a member of the State Board of Education, Mrs. Mary Hart

Davisson, who was unable to attend, personally awarded the diplomas. The benediction was pronounced by the Ber. Mr. Grover J. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist Church in (Continued on page 4)

Numerous extra and unforescen problems have come th two College exiministrative leads, pictured above, Pres. D. L. Haught, left, and Dean Robert T. Crawford, right, as they guided a student body and fneulty through another year of teaching and learning during a time when a world at war took its toll on the battle front and activities on the home a world at war took its toll on the battle front and activities on the nome front called for constant change and bolstering of morale in order to keep the supply lines intact. But in spite of the war era's attendant difficulties, Gianville State College this year moved ahead and already plana are in ef-fect for a successful summer school, with two five weeks sessions, and a vanisty of work to eacet the two of many persons who have returned to the teaching field in order to help out until times again return to normal.

Their Job Hasn't Been An Easy One

Final Rites Held Friday at Weston For Mother of Helen Taylor, College Senior

Funeral services were held Friday at the Stalnaker Funeral House in Weston for Mrs. Okareds Kee Tay-lor, wite of Hayward A. Taylor and mother of Helen Taylor, senior-class president and Mercury editor, who president ann amercity contor, wo died at 11:40 p. m. May 23, in a Weston hospital after an ilness of several months, Dr. K. W. Robbins, minister of the First Methodist Church of Weston, officiated and interment was in the Miller cemetery near Horner. Mrs. Taylor, 48 years old, was th

Mrs. Taylor, 48 years old, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John W. B. Kee, of Parsons and a member of the First Methodist Church. She participated and held offices in the Weston Garden Club, Federated Woman's Club, American Invice Anofface and Methodist Legion Auxilliary and Church Circle. Methodist

Other survivors include a son. Phillip Hayward, at home: three is-ters, Miss Fay Kae and Mrs. Lily Greenlief, of Passes and Mrs. Al-hert Walson, of Booth; one brother, James Kee, of Parsons; two hall sisters, Mrs. Will Duckworth, o Porterwood and Mrs. Ida Pittman half

Eight pledges became members of the local Theta Alpha chapter of the Alpha Psi Omega, honorary dramat-ic fraternity, when initiation cere-monies were given by Charles Mc-Intosh, Gray Barker, Agres Wright, members, and Miss Kathleen Robertson, faculty adviser. ertson, Jaculty adviser. The new members, Homer Paul Heekert, Et-ta Jane Judge, Evelyn Finster, Zet-ta Jean Williams, Elsie Moore, Gro-ver Weaver, Mary Jo Moran, and The new ver Weaver, Mary Jo Mora Estella Bonner, were chosen on point basis for their work in matic activities on the campus. dra

Preceding the formal initiation, a critten test was given in Miss Rob-rtson's class room; then pledges ent to the auditorium for the final

Following the initiation the me Restaurant, where officers were elected for the coming year. Gray Barker was elected Cast Director, Homer Paul Heckert, Stage Mana-rer; and Mary Jo Moran, Business Manager.

Agnes Wright, former student and member of the local cast, was pres-ent during installation ceremonies and the banquet.

Presenger automobiles in the U. S. are being scrapped or stored at the rate of 1,500,000 per year, the Office of Defense Transportation

Mercury-440530-1.jpg

The Glenville Mercury

Published each Tuesday during the school year by the classes in journalism. Entered at the post office as second class mail. Subscription price for the year is $1.00; for the semester, 50c. Address all communications to: The Glen-ville Mercury, Glenville, West Virginia.

By Gray Barker

By Cray Barker June will be an interesting month for the formaddict, for then ham, horse opera and quality stuff will bloom in profusion. Flickers scheduled for the Pictureland we think you'll like are: "What a Woman," starring Rosalind Russell, Brian Aherne; "DuBarry Was a Lady," technicolor M. G. Magnificance with Red Skel-ton doing the clowning; "Old Acquaintance," a starring Bette Davis, "Frontier Badmen," a horse opera, but acceptable; "So Proudly We Hai," with Colbert, Lake, and Goddard, a super tear-jerker; "Swingshift Maisie," a "B" bit charm; "Ridin' High," technicolor with Dick Powel, Mary Martin furnishing the vo-cals; "Hostages," with William Bendix; "Best fool version of the Broadway hit, Lastly we will please see even if you go at no other time. Claudette Colbert and Free McMuray are in this show which the writer gives a Mercury atel. The pictures are listed in the order they are booked at the Pictureland. Well, friends, Romans and fellow students, are booked at the Pictureland. Well, friends, Romans and fellow students, we've at last come to our long row of corn and as we shed crocodil tears over our typewriter keys at parting, we prophesy. We hope the next time this column appears it will be in the New York Times and at that time all the mem-bers of the Alpha Psi Omega and the Ohnim-gohow players will be either in Hollywood looking into the cameras or in New York look-ing into the footlights. The ads in the NEW YORKER will read "Miss Kathleen Robertson presents— "Prince Albert Road," which is ri-valing the astounding record of its predecessor. valing the astounding record of its predecessor, "Tobacco Road," in length of run. Miss Mar-garet Kenny will be in Hollywood designing sets, Jack Rader will be Movietone's sports re-viewer, Catherine Withers will be an exotic dancer, handsome Henrietta, earning ten thousviewer, Catherine Withers will be an exotic dancer, handsome Henrietta, earning ten thous-and dollars each day in the new movie "Frank-estein, Dracula, Wolf Man, Spider Woman, Meet the Mad Ghoul," filmed in technicolor, supersound and natural smell. Hunter Whiting will be a linguist in charge of recording for-eign sound tracks for films to be distributed abroad. Mr. H. L. White will be producing a March of Time entitled "The Estophians and Their Problems." At the end of the reel a voice will cty, "White marches on!" Countess Alma Arbuckle, (she's married an English Count), will take time from her duties as Librarian of Congress to attend a preview of "The Life and Letters of Bessie Boyd Bell." taken from the book of the same name by a noted biographer. The newsreels will feature Mr. John R. Wag-ner's rocket trip to the moon. Grey-haired Lowell Thomas will ask him in the introduction. "To what do you attribute your success?" The answer, "To my tractor experiments while teaching in Glenville State College ... And of course, when the lion growls at the beginning of features, the title will say, "A Metro-Gold-wyn-Barker Production."

Good-bye dear sweet movie column and loy-al readers. "Post hic enouzphexiu fenawanun ars gratis diminindinunio."

- On THE CAMPUS

By Catherine Withers

By Catherine Withers As the school year draws to a close, many important events are brought to the limelight, such as the amazing fact that Charley McIn-tosh has gained twenty pounds since College began last fall. "Fat Boy" attributes the addi-tional avoirdupois to right living and Kanawha Hall diet. How about that pitcher of milk at each meal? . . . Bobby Jean Coe had plenty of help searching for a lost wallet and keys at the wiener roast Friday noche—but still no luck. . . . Edith Hinterer, Evelyn Finster, Mrs. Nora V. Roberts and other V. M. H. residents drag-ged forth mops and buckets to stop the flood of a baby Niagara when pipes gave way in a bath-room of said Hall . . TYPICAL COLLICH HUMOR: Gray Barker: "Know the latest fireburg in Hollywood?" In-nocent Bystander: "Nope." G. B.: "Arson" Wells . . Ha, Ha.

nocent Bystander: "Nope." G. B.: "Arson" Wells...Ha, Ha, ADDITIONAL COLLICH HUMOR: Scene, Mr. H. L. White's English 202 class. Mr. W.: "What is a bureaucracy, Miss Hupp?" Va. Hupp: "I'm not sure." Mr. W.: "Look it up in the dictionary." Va. Hupp: (Reading from Webster) "A bureaucracy is a government run by a group of select people." Mr. W.: "Very well, then what is a bureau?" Nell Reed: (Quickly) "A bureau is a select group of drawers!" drawers

Group singing by the "Curbstone Gals" was very much appreciated by townfolk (they hope) last Friday night—especially their ren-dition of GOOD NIGHT LADIES.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It is a brisk autumn day in October, 1959, and we walk down Col-lege Street, lined on either side with cars of visitors from all parts of the nation, here to witness the most gala Homecoming in the history of Glen-ville State College. One car in particular catches our eye-a beautiful cream convertible with bright red upholstery. Upon inquiring as to who the owner of the car was, we were told that it belonged to the former Edith Hinterer, now wife of an auto mobile manufacturer. Both are na-tives of Doddridge County. Edith is at present principal of Doddridge County High School and head of the biology department of that institu tion.

Wait a minute, the lady coming toward us down the street looks fa miliar- Why, of course, it's Rita-mae Fling, now Mrs. Kermit Stal-naker, who tells us that her experience as a teacher for two years in Tanner High School following her graduation in 1944 from Glenville State College has been of assistance

Ward has assumed her maiden nam again, following a divorce from her second husband, an Admiral in the S. Navy. U.

We stroll off the campus and down Court House Hill to look at all the display windows of the local stores. One window in particular catches our eye—a shoe store (specializing in saddle shoes now that the College Court of the store (specializing) enrollment is more than 500). The huge neon sign states that the er is Hayward Groves.

Ruby Messenger Burke, wife of a California orange grower, is scarce-ly recognizable since she now weighs a measley 200 pounds. Ruby is the publisher of REFORM SCHOOL TEACHERS MAGAZINE.

Later in the afternoon at the foot Later in the atternoon at the foot-ball game, we see Helen Radcliffe, seated among her group of Sand Fork High School students waiting for the kick off. Miss Radcliffe has recently organized a boys' softball team in that community.

graduation in 1944 from Glenville State College has been of assistance to her in problems of child psychology.Helen Taylor, disappointed in love, accepted a position as matron of Wardverse matron of
Wardverse matron of
Wardverse matron of
Wardverse matron of Virginia. Seated on the bleachers on either side of Miss Taylor are Janie Bingman and Shirley Spencer
Janie Bingman and Shirley Spencer with whom she is conversing in a ide is a gold-plated monogram, "
Wardverse matron of Jand in Glenville. Painted on its side is a gold-plated monogram," We, Madge Ward,", famous doctor specializing in tropical disesses. MissHelen Taylor, disappointed in love, accepted a position as matron of
Wardverse matron of
Wardverse matron of Wardverse matron of the class of to gather don its decided southern accent.
Wilking along the sidelines in a bright plaid sports jacket, is Gideon Ellyson who is taking a post-gradu-draws to a successful close and the ustate of the class of 1944 promise each other to gather again the following year.
To move an infantry division of 15,000 men and their equipment by rail, 356 passenger cars, 82 baggage cars and 900 freight cars are needed, the Office of Defense Transportation says. Helen Taylor, disappointed in love ate course in the College. Following the ball game (Glen-ville beat Morris Harvey 42-12) the crowd rushes to the Club Continen-tal for refreshments and entertainment by a floor show starring that famous Broadway dancer, "Clar-risse," the former Estella Bonner who made her debut on the stage of

Who made her debut on the stage of Glenville State College in 1944. Upon entering the gymnasium at 9 o'clock that evening, we push through the two hundred couples gliding over the floor to be closer to the all girl orchestra. Catherine the all-girl orchestra. Catherine Withers is standing in the back row playing a bass fiddle and still hitting all discords as she did in College days.

ays. Later in the dance, the former lizabeth Clark and her husband, Elizabeth Clark and who is coach in Nicholas County High School, entered the gymnas-ium. "Red" informs us that they were unable to attend the dance they earlier, since they had to their twin sons were saf at the Conrad Hotel. y had to wait until were safely asleep

At the stroke of 2, the 1959 Glen-ville State College Homecoming draws to a successful close and the various members of the class of

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The class of 1944 entered Glen-ville State Teachers College the fall year were: President, Catherine of 1940, a large group of boys and girls, to be heartily welcomed by naker, Jr.; secretary, Helen Taylor, upper-classmen. This welcome in-treasurer, Sue Brown. The sopho-net Humecoming we school spirit for Glenville State Teachers College.

girls, to be heartily welcomed by upper-classmen. This welcome in-cluded an orientation week which helped freshmen become acquainted with and adjusted to College activi-ties. Setting down to real College activi-life, Garland Adams was elected president; Elizabeth Clark, vice-president; Sue Brown, secretary. By the end of the first year they felt as if they were no longer "freshies" as the upper-classmen called them, but full-fledged Pio-neers, ready to show patriotism ior class rose to the horizon from which they could see picturesque columns of caps and gowns. Class of-ficers elected during the junior year were: Clifford Stalnaker, president; Lorene Wolfe, vice-president; Elma Emrick, secretary; Helen Taylor, treasurer. When the thirty-six seniors hur-dled the last milestone of their car-eer in Glenville State College by graduation Sunday, May 28, they faced an uncertain future, but one

Teachers College. Carl Eismon was elected president later in the year to full the vacancy left by Garland Adams, who resign-ed his position because of illness. Mildred Keener was elected fresh-man princess for Homecoming. In the fall of 1941 they reentered Glenville State Teachers College with the knowledge acquired the previous year, and were ready to do all they could toward the betterment of the

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We the class of 1944 of Glenville fooled faculty members this far State College, Glenville, West Vir-ginia, being of sound mind and in full possession of all memory and To the sophomores we give adunderstanding, do hereby make this, our last will and testament: hereby revoking and making void all former wills made by us, singly or collectively, at any time heretofore.

We wish that we, a class of thir-ty-six, owing to a lightness in the head caused by gradual swelling during the past four years, and a heaviness of heart caused by thoughts of parting, may be mistak-en in this appraisal of our posses-sions: but such as we attribute to our estate we wish to dispose of an our estate, we wish to dispose of as follows:

the faculty, we bequeath the To privileges of using any heretofore unknown tests and examinations. We hereby waive responsibility for any after-effects in the use of said material and are willing to leave its use entirely to the discretion of said exalted group.

To Dr. J. C. Shreve, in trust, for use in the Education department, we leave any brains which aforesaid class has allowed to lie dormant these four years. It is our will and desire that said brains be meted out on the department's wise judgment and re-sponsibility to lower classmen as the need arises.

To Miss Bessie Boyd Bell, in trust, for use in the social science department, we leave all modern dates of social history, of campus variety, to be meted out to students for the next three years at the dis-cretion of said department in co-operation with house governing boards.

For use in 'that there English department,' we ain't got nothin'. To the Science department, we do will and bequeath all catty remarks of aforesaid class; these to be dissected, disposed of and buried—said graves to be decorated with flowers from our botany notebooks, from last year

To the Mathematics department we will and bequeath the infinite number of honor points we have accumulated:

Upon the physical science we po-nent we bestow the vast store of po-Upon the physical science depart tential energy possessed class. To the music and art departments

To the music and art departments we leave best wishes, since we own nothing of value to them. To the physical education depart-ment we leave the abilities of Hay-ward Groves. Gideon Ellyson would-n't part with his. To the class of '45 we leave our

To the class of '45 we leave our million ability to make straight A's and, the Offic second, congratulations for having reports.

To the sophomores we give ad-vice, namely, to follow in the foot-steps of the seniors. Learn to work steps of the seniors. Learn to work if not to win. To the freshmen we leave the pa-pers we have written for Mr. H. L. White's classes to be handed in with slight, if any, revision upon some future date.

Furthermore, we bequeath, gra and bestow: From Ritamae Fling her ability to write chemical reactions to Ho-mer Paul Heckert. From Edith Hinterer her ability to teach biology to Thelma Ryan and

Peggy Sweeny. From Ruby Messenger her baby talk to Shirley Spencer and Janet Boggs. From Helen Taylor her journalis-From Heren Layter der Joernam. tic ability to Janette Cunningham. Elizabeth Clark's ability to get to class on time to Peggy Williams.

Estella Bonner's ability to go to bed early to Ruth Groves. From Helen Radcliff her seat on the bus to Emaline Davis.

the bus to Emaline Davis. From Madge Ward her room to Helen Cox and Evelyn Finster. Catherine Withers' ability to do the Handsome Henry dance to Gray Barker.

And, lastly, all other money stocks, bonds, mental and phy possessions, charm and beauty that we may own, heretofore unmention-ed, to Dean Robert T. Crawford and Pres. David L. Haught.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seal t twenty-fourth day of May, A. nineteen hundred and forty-four. SENIOR CLASS al this A. D.

STUDENTS, FACULTY ENJOY WIENER ROAST, FRIDAY

An old-fashioned game of "Pris-oner's Base" with all guests partici-pating and group singing were feat-ured at a wiener roast given by the Social Committee for College stu-dents, faculty, members and guests, Friday night from 7 to 9:30 at Rohr-baugh Field. Thirty-eight people at-tended. tended.

Miss Bessie Boyd Bell and Dr. John C. Shreve, senior class advis-ers, entertained members of that class at an outdoor supper held Sat-urday evening at Miss Bell's home two miles below Glenville.

The national school bus conserva tion program is saving about 150 million school bus miles annually, the Office of Defense Transportation

*

George D. Widener's 'Who Goes

There' covered the turf in 1:38 to win at Belmont Park in the Withers mile, third major three-year-old stake race of the season. The little bay was ridden by Johnny Longden, who led Count Fleet to the same victory last year.

*

*

*

"Your help really counts

when you're a WAC !"

say America's college girls

*

*

Miss G. C. James On The Land, In the Air, And on The Sea Entertains At With Our Friends In The Service

Sgt. Joe Marra, "somewhere in England," writes: "I well remember the difficulties I had in Miss Brand's the difficulties I had in miss brand s English courses, but I can now ap-preciate what I learned. I have had the pleasure of visiting many of the places she often discussed . . . In my estimation, the English people are the machine the Marchury tops . . . Thanks for the Mercury which is really worthwhile in the po sition I am in at present." Mercury, Jack Stalnaker, A. B. '42, recent-promoted to the rank of Sergeant, ly promoted to the rank of Sergeant, has been awarded the Combat Infan-tryman Badge for exemplary con-duct against the enemy on Bougain ville. Overseas seven months, he has heen on special patrols into enemy territory and is an assistant squad leader in a regiment that saw action or Gondoleanal. on Guadalcanal.

Aviation Cadets Kenneth Mead-ws and John Baker Ellis are midway through a ten-week specialized pre-flight training course at San An-tonio, Texas.

Lieut. Harold Scott of Greenville, hiss, where he is a recreation di-rector, U. S. Army Air Forces, left the past Wednesday after spending a three-day leave at his home at Troy and with friends in Glenville. Scott and a companion Lieut. from Mississippi to Clarksburg and also returned by plane.

The name dents were among those release the Gimer County Draft Board re-cently. Harry Pritt and Max Moore will leave Gleaville June 5 to report to Ft. Thomas, Ky. Boyd Winson Collins and Darrel Woofter are to report for induction into the Navy at Huntington June 6. John Law-rence Wagner, sophomore, will go to Huntington June 3 for his induction examination. Walton, of the WAVES Desimbridge, State The names of four former stu Arlena Walton, of the WAVES and now stationed at Bainbridge, Md., was a recent visitor at her home at Cox's Mills.

William Kellar, naval aviation storekeeper, and Mrs. Kellar, the former Miss Elizabeth Clovis, ar rived in Glenville the past Wednes-day from Quonset Point, R. I. for a seven-day visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Wilson and with Mrs. Kellar's relatives.

Change of address: Pvt. Roland Butcher, 1459th S. C. U. Army, Key West Barracks, Fla.

Whetsell-Burke Wedding to Be Event of June

Announcement has been made of Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Pauline Burke, a former student, of Cedarville, to Aviation Cadet Wil-liam O. Whetsell, also a former stu-dent, U. S. Army Air Corps, Bain-bridge Ge bridge, Ga.

The marriage will be an event of early June, at which time AC Whet-sell will be graduated a lieutenant at Mis the training center there. Miss Burke will be accompanied to Geor-gia by Miss Teresa Butcher, A. B. '41, of Cedarville.

Students Give Recital: Miss Olsen In Charge

Dinner Party Miss Goldie C. James, instructor

at a dinner party, Monday evening, May 22, at Conrad's Restaurant. A patriotic motif was carried out in the decorations, with place cards bearing tiny flags and a group of flags at each end of the table. A centerpiece cf mixed roses and two large blue candles completed the large blue candles completed the decorations. The blue and white color scheme was developed from the College colors. There was no fixed menu, each guest ordering food of his choice.

ling silver in a flower design, was presented to the hostess by her biology majors, after which everyone opened favors personally se-lected by Miss James. Following the dinner, a rose from the centerpiece

Those attending were: Miss Ber-tha E. Olsen, Miss Alma Arbuckle, the hostess.

Zetta Jean Williams; "Menuet," Nina Craigo; "Maryland, My Maryland," Gray Barker; "Nocturne Op. 9, No. 2," Mary Jo Moran, accompanist for the afternoon.

Violin Numbers were the Night," Charles McIntosh, and "In a Garden," Evelyn Finster, with Zetta Jean Williams playing the cello.

Course	No.	Descriptive Title	Hours Credit Days	Kind of Credit	Instructor	Roos
		First Pe	riod: 7:40-9:	10
Art	101.	Introduction	2 5	E&P	Kenney	208
Biology	452.	Forestry	36	Any	James	207
Commerce	101.	Beginning Typing	2	Com.	Whitlow 7	H.
Education	101.	Psychology	36	Any	Shreve	204
Education	207.	Prins. & Methods	2	P	Myers
Music	208.	Adv. Pub. Sch. Musi	c 25	E&P	Olsen
		Health Education		E&S	Funk
		.W. Va. Hist., Gov., 6		Any	Clark	200
Sociology	303.	. Rural Sociology	2	Any	Woofter
Speech	101.	Principles		Any	Pickens	202
		Second Pe	eriod: 9:15-10):45
Art	102.	Public School Art .	2	E&P	Kenney	208
Education	218.	Directed Teaching .	1-36	E&P	Myers
	442.	. Directed Teaching .	1-56	S	Boggs
		. Directed Teaching .		E	Clark
English		. Composition		Any	White
		Appr. of Eng. Lit Current World Hist		Any	Whiting	206
and the second second			$ 36	Any	Bell	106
		. World Geog. Problem Practical Arith		E&P	C
Math.	209.	. Introduction	· · · · · Z · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	E&P E&P	Crawford
Phys Ed	412	. Playground & Com. 1	Reg 9 5	Any	Funk
		. Gen. Phys. Science		E&P	Wagner
		Third Per	iod: 10:50-12	:20
Art	303.	Adv. Pub. Sch. Art		E&P	Kenney	208
		. General Biology		Any	James
Economics	316.	. Consumer Problems	36	Any	Whitlow	207
Education	218.	. Directed Teaching .	3 6	E&P	Myers	203
		. Directed Teaching .		S	Boggs	H.
		. Directed Teaching .		E	Clark	200
Education	102.	. Psychology II	36	Any	Shreve	204
Education	. A.	. Work Shop Adv. Composition .	· · · · · 2. · · · · · b	Anv	Crawford
		. American Lit.		Any	White
Math.	201	. Solid Geometry	g 6	Any Any	Whiting Wagner
Phys. Ed.	201	. Games (Men & Wor	nen) 2 5	Any	Funk
Pol. Sci	203.	. National Gov't	36	Any	Bell	106
		Fourth P	eriod: 1:30-3	:00	1.1.1
Education . 22	-336.	.W. Va. Sch, System	2	E&S	Clark	204
Education	331.	Prins, of H. S. Teach	ning 3. 6	S	Boggs
English	412.	Nar. & Description	2 5	Any	Woofter
Music	102.	. Pub. Sch. Music	25	E&P	Olsen	209
		Laboratory	Period: 1:30	-3:30

played "On Parade" and "Legion-

After the program the judges, Miss Goldie C. James, H. Y. Clark,

Miss Margaret Kenny, and Mrs. John

E. Arbuckle, gave participating stu-

*

naires On Parade."

dents a number rating.

* *

★ Corporal Margaret E. Wyant, University of California."My family has three men in the Armed Forces, so I couldn't just wait for the war to end. In the Women's Army Corps, I'm working for vic-tory—and I know it's work that'll help bring our boys home sooner."

* Sergeont Anne MacIntosh, New York University. "My job is one that any college girl would be proud to do-intelligence work at an Army post! With 239 different jobs to choose from, every Wac has a chance to do work she's fitted for and enjoys."

* Private Mary E. Murray, South West Missouri Teachers' College West Missouri Teachers' College. "Being a Wac makes me feel I'm helping my country—while I help myself, too. I'm getting valuable training and experience for a post-war carcer. And I'm all set to go new places". new places.

* Major Cora W. Bass, Mississippi State College. "As a member of the General Staff of the Second Service Command, I see daily the urgent need for more and more Wacs. To every college girl it's a chance to serve her country in a truly important way."

New WAC opportunity for college girls

If you want to finish your college work before starting your Army career, you can enlist now and arrange to be called later-any time within the next 4 months.

The Al	2M4 needs Wacs
	. The WAC needs you!
*MAIL THIS	COUPON FOR INTERESTING FREE BOOKLET
	I should like complete information about the WAC. Name Address
	CityAge State Phone Number

Miss Goldie C. James, instruction in the biology department, enter-tained seventeen persons, including faculty members, students in her advanced classes, and other guests,

A surprise gift, a brooch of sterwas given to each guest.

Miss Margaret D. Kenney, Mr. Hun-ter Whiting, 'Catherine Withers, Anne Withers, Homer Paul Heckert, Anne Withers, Homer Fau. Clarence Underwood, Jr., Margy Jack, Thelma Ryan, Gray Barker, Eling, Estella Bonner, Ritamae Fling, Estella Bonner, Edith Hinterer, Peggy Sweeney, Charlotte Ryan, Madge Ward, and

"All Through

ing to Miss Bertha E. Olsen, who di-rected the program. The program included piano solos: "Valse Bleu," Leona Williams; a march and "Theme In C Major," Ho-mer Paul Heckert; "Scarf Dance,"

THE GLENVILLE MERCURY

FROM THE MERCURY'S FILES

By Thelma Ryan

1932: Frank Cain, a junior in enville State Teachers College, College, Glenville Glenville State Teachers College, passed the physical examination for the Army Air Service at Bolling Field in Washington, D. C. During his stay in Washington, he visited the Naval Air Station and met Rob-ert Whiting, a graduate of the Col-lege. Whiting was an aerogolist. 1933: The forty-one bachelor of arts seniors and President and Mrs. E G Rohrbungh were cruest of the arts seniors and President and Mrs. E. G. Rohrbough were guests of the Alumni Association of the College at its annual reception and dance in the gymnasium. About two hundred fifty persons were present, including many out-of-town alumni and guests. 1934: Otis G. Wilson, head of the education department of the College since 1931, received notice that he had been elected to West Virginia University's chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic frater-

Kappa, national scholastic fraternity

1935: The Pioneer tennis team won their first match of the season here, May 4, from Alderson-Broad-dus College by a score of 9-0.

1936: Sadie Harless, Leah Stal-naker, James Musser, Jr., and Del-mar Dye were voted the most out-standing freshmen on the campus at a meeting of the Student Council.

1937: Winifred White, a sopho-more in the College, who was named "Miss Gilmer County" in a recent class of ninety-five.

amateur contest held here, went to Weston to participate in the state-wide contest for the selection of "Miss West Virgnin of 1937." 1938: Woodrow Showen, a junior, 1938: woodrow showen, a junior, of Spencer, was elected president of the -Chemistry (Club to succeed Ione Brown, senior, of Glenville, Frederick Bell, a sophomore, of Princeton, was named vice-president. Wilma Bradsford, freshman, of Walton, recording secretary; Rhoda Ann Bell, junior, of Palestine, cor-

Ann Bell, junior, of Palestine, cor-responding secretary. 1939: A hard line drive into cen-ter field by Ralph Mendenhall en-abled the seniors to defeat the jun-iors and win the class softball tour-nament in a closely played contest at Rohrbough Studium. The final score wos 6-5. 1940: C. Vernon Thomas, of Bal-imare and of the nublic relations timere and of the public relations department of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, was the principal speaker at the Mercury staff's first annual press banquet. Mr. Thomas annual press banquet. Mr. Thomas also spoke at the press conference here in December. 1941: Cadet Homer L Moore, a former student in the College, re-ceived a commission as Lieutenant in the United States Army Air Corps in the graduating exercises at Kaye Field. Mr. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore, of Glenville, was graduated with honors in a

College Offers 2 Five-Weeks Summer Terms

The 1944 summer session to star The 1944 summer session to start June 5 will present a variety of courses, according to Dean R. T. Crawford, who states that this year the term will consist of two five-week sessions with classes meeting siz days each week. Three hour courses are to meet six days and two hour courses only five. Registration for the first session will be held on June 5, and class work will begin the folwing day. With the exception of Miss Kath leen Robertson, all the members of the current faculty will be present during the first session. The training school will operate under the direct tion of Mr. Earl R. Boggs, who also will teach one class, "Principles of High School Teaching" (Education 331), and supervise two classes in directed teaching. Miss Pearl Pick-ens, instructor in the Glenville High Sch ol, will teach Speech 101.

First period classes will meet 7:40-9:10 a. m., second period 9:15-10:45 a. m., third period 10:50-12:20 a. m. Classes will meet for one period after lunch, at 1:30-3:00. Tuition will be $23.00 for each ses-sion, or $30.00 for the two terms. Room and board will cost $27.50 and $30.00 per month for women and men respectively, with a consu-mer's sales tax of two per cent added

A complete schedule of the first session appears elsewhere in this is-sue, however, the College reserver the right to add or omit certair courses according to the demand for them. A final schedule for the second session will be completed after stg. dent desires and requirements ascertained.

Classes, Clubs Elect Officers For Coming Year

Notes From The Robert F. Kidd Library

By Janette Cunningham Given to the Library by Mis. Mar-garet Prunty Smith, College nurse, Catherine Drinkers Brown's YAN-KEE FROM OLYMPUS is the story of a great man's (Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes) life and also the story of one of the oldest and m prominent families in Ameri Americ Holmes' ancestral background is in brief form, of course, and, not be-ing overloaded with detail, the book easy reading and "chuck-full" of the incidents that make it enjoyof ittle able from cover to cover.

Daughter of an ex-president of Lehigh University, Catherine Driak Lengh University, Catherine Drink-er Brown possessed a love of music which led her to writing biographics of Tchaikowsky and the brothers Rubenstein, for which she spent nuch time in research in European libraries. Wanting an American for her next attempt, she chose the her next attempt, she chose the most famous American jurist of our time. Incidentally, YANKEE FROM OLYMPUS is condensed in the new (June) issue of the READER'S DI-GEST.

In January 1942, Howard Vincent O'Brien, columnist for the Chicago Daily News, wrote a simple story of now a father feels as his son goes t war. Newspapers, magazines, and radio took the "So Long, Son" to other fathers all over America. Through it, scores of people felt that they knew the son to whom it was addressed and who, not long ago, was reported "missing in action" af-ter a#bombing raid over Germany. Upon receiving the War Department telegram, Columnist O'Brien GEST saw fit to reprint what he wrote. DON'T MISS the first article in the n west issue of that magazine

Mercury Musings .

(Continued from page 1) dents is the "wee wabbit," which is about the size of a kitten but much harder to catch! Ask Etta Jane Judge, Jack Harrison or C. L. Underwood, Jr.! PERHAPS THE Senior Class

PERHAPS THE Senior Class theme song, which was introduced to the student b dy Wednesday in assembly, should be learned by the "ambitious" knowledge follow-ers on the campus. Seniors joined their beautiful soprano and contraile voices (one teror) to give the faculty and fellow students the parody of "I've Been Work-ing On the Railroad." Quote: "I've ing on the Railroad." Quote: "Twe been working on my lessons, all the live-long day, I've been work-ing on my lessons, just to pass!" ---Unquote!

Evelyn Finster, freshman from Weston, was elected president of the Ohnimgohow Players at a meeting Wednesday in the auditorium. Other officers elected were: vice-president, Homer Paul Heckert; secretarytreasurer, Gray Barker.

Thirty-Six Seniors Get A. B. Degree

(Continued from page 1)

Glenville. Of the thirty-six graduates, Of the thirty-six graduates, one, Evelyn Grace Wagner, was graduat-ed with honors of Summa Cum Laude, and Catherine Estelle With-ers, Lucy Myers Carroll, Madge Ward, Ora Bennett Brannon, Helen Gould Taylor, Patrick A. Brown, and Flora More Frame were gradu-ated Cum Laude.

Thirteen counties were represent ed by the thirty-six graduates of the class of 1944. Of the total number, thirty were women and six men. Twelve of them were on the campus this semester.

Ten of the total number were Ten of the total number were from Gilmer, the largest number from any county. Nicholas, far in the lead for second place, was the home of six, while there were three from Wood, Calhoun, Braxton, and Lewis counties. Roane, McDowell, Clay, Ritchie, Harrison and Dod-dridge were represented by one crach

Following are names and address Following are names and address-es of those graduated here Sunday: Geraldine Arnold, Orma; Joy Bailes, Gassaway; Estella Bonner, Lockney; Ora Bennett Brannon, Charleston; Patrick A. Brown. Craigsville; Mrs. Irene Rishel Car-penter, Reedy; Mrs. Lucy Myers Carroll, Tioga; Elizabeth Clark, Hor-ner; Mrs. Nancy Callaghan Collins; Richwood: Kathryn Beverley Elner; Mrs. Nancy Callaghan Collins, Richwood; Kathryn Beverley El-liot, Keystone; Gideon L. Ellyson, Cox's Mills; Elma Elizabeth Emrick, Washington Lock 19; Geneva Queen Farnsworth, Linn; Ritamae Fling, Tanner; Flora Moore Frame, Nor-mantown; Mabel Elizabeth Given, Strange Creek; Hayward George Groves, Mt. Clare; Oral Jackson Heckler, Cairo; Ila Hendershot, Vienna. Vienna.

Vienna. Mrs. Lota Carnifax Hill, La Frank; Edith Katherine Hinterer, New Milton; Mrš. Reta Mearns Hoo-ver, Tioga; Ruby Ladare Messenger, Baldwin; Mrs. Myrtle McCracken Mollohan, Ivydale; Helen Bernice Radcliffe, Linn; Lynn Riffle, Orlan-do; Olive H. Shreve, Glenville; Frank Stoneking, Roanoke; Helen Gould Taylor, Weston; Madge Ward, Mt. Zion; Evelyn Grace Wagner, Glenville; Eunice Olga Walkup, Per-

singer. Catherine Estelle Withers, Glen-ville; Elva Yoak, Grantsville; Frema Catherine Young, Queen Shoales Margaret Bell Zinn, Parkersburg. Pres. and Mrs. Haught Entertain the Seniors Pres. and Mrs. D. L. Haught en

rees, and ars. D. L. haught en-tertained seniors and other guests at the College residence Wednesday from 8:00 to 10 p. m. at an infor-mal party. The decorations were red, white and blue with table arrangements of red roses and candles Ice cream, cake and punch were served. Special music was played by Janette Cunningham and Mary Alice Wagner.

Eleven seniors and their advisers, Miss Bessie Boyd Bell and Dr. J. C. Miss Dessie Bossie Boya Bell and Dr. J. C. Shreve were present with other guests as follows: Dean and Mrs Robert T. Crawford, Miss Alma Ar-buckle, Miss Erma Edwards, Miss Maxine Wright and Pres. and Mrs Haught's daughter and grand-daugh continued the past week when Charles McIntosh, of Walkersville and David Tewell, of Davis, were chosen presidents of the Chemistry Club and senior class, respectively, Club and student committees were ch by ballot in a student body election held Wednesday. Other Chemistry Club officers are Janette Cunningham, vice-president, and Mary Alice Wagner, secretarytreasurer.

Wanda Strader was chosen vice-president of the Senior Class and Juanita Westfall, secretary-treas

Following are the results of the committee election: Lyceum com-mittee, Margaret Sweeney, and Gray Barker and Charles McIntosh (tie); Social Committee, Lyda Farnsworth, and Thelma Ryan and Evelyn Finster (tie); Chapel Con-itter Lach Hornicar Lucelle Hard. mittee, Jack Harrison, Lucille Hardman, and Edna Ruth Ellyson; Ath-letic committee, Homer Paul Heck-ert, John L. Wagner, and Mary Alice Wagner.

Miss Bollinger, Mr. Halliday Married

Miss Maxine Bollinger, specialist first class, WAVES, and John Halli-day, specialist first class, USN, were married Sunday, May 21, in the chapel at the naval base in Wash-ington, D. C., where both are now stationed. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bollinger, of Broad Street, Weston, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Heater, also of Weston, attended the ceremony.

the ceremony. Miss Helen Heater, of the WAVES, now stationed at Quonset Point, Rhode Island, attended the bride as maid of honor. Mrs. Halliday is a graduate of Weston High School and Glenville State College and attended West Virginia Wesleyan.

Mercury-440530-4.jpg

Class and club re-organizations

"... THE THOUGHTS OF YOUTH ARE LONG, LONG THOUGHTS"

To the class of 1944 we extend sincere congratulations and our wish that all your dreams of youth will become realities.

THE GRILL

THOMPSON'S REXALL STORE McCULLOUGH'S DEPT. STORE GLENVILLE MIDLAND CO. R. B. STORE LOG CABIN RESTAURANT CRYSTAL RESTAURANT GLENVLLE BANKING & TRUST CO. KANAWHA UNION BANK PICTURELAND THEATRE

Mercuryite Of the Week

G-oofy is his favorite screen a tor (although he will take supermouse!) -eally swell to know!

O-ften seen with McIntosh and Harrison. -acation for summer-more school!

school!
 E--ntertains fellow L. B. H. boys by telling "tall" stories!
 R--eads pamphlets on "How to be a Detective" quite fre-tic.

W-as initiated into Alpha Psi

Omega Thursday evening. -nded! His initiation into the Holy Roller Court. -ttended Spencer High School before coming to Glenville checker games! ectrical engineering takes his fancy. R—ates being in the College or-

Buy war bonds and stamps.

most of his quently!

last fall. V—ictorious in

chestra

E-

A-