

Fifty Veterans Are Expected To Enroll

Amateurs Act In Auditorium Friday Night

The Student Council will have charge of the gong instead of traditional Major Bowes when the organization will stage an amateur contest in the Auditorium Friday night at 7:30. Admission will be 20 and 30 cents, tax included.

Although letters were sent to surrounding high schools soliciting acts, Paul Heckert, Council president, said no replies were received, and urged College students to submit as many acts as they wish.

A time limit of five or ten minutes will be set for each act, although the exact time will be posted on the bulletin board this week. Acts may be of almost any type, such as musical acts, skits, imitations, etc.

Prospective contestants must see some member of the council before Thursday to register their acts.

MERCURY MUSINGS

By GRAY BARKER

WELL, WELL! Hello everyone, so glad to be back. Ha Ha! Ha! No this isn't Santa Claus, as you may infer from the cloven hooves and the horns.

SPEAKING OF Saint Nicholas (It's only 344 more shopping days until Christmas), the black-booted commuter's words were garbled in the last effusion from the Mercury Office: the Dec. 18 issue. The printer, taking another swig of Christmas spirit, set the type slugs like this; and we quote from the story, "Santa Claus Visits Mercury Office, etc.":

"TD LIKE to set straight all this propaganda that's a mail order suit and false whenever we gave something to someone at Christmas—is that the face." Makes sense, doesn't it? ... THE EDITOR'S FAULT: In this same issue other editorialists were named but St. Luke got no by-line.

PAUL HECKERT, that Student Counsel prexy, admonishes us to admonish you that all College students are eligible to participate in the big amateur contest to take place 7:30 p.m. Thor's Day. Heckert would like you to see him right away if you plan to enter.

IN "Copernicus and His World," by Herman Kesten, now in the library, the writer remarks how early scientists and thinkers didn't dare noise their great discoveries for fear of being burned alive.

"Nowadays, people are put to death by governments for less important reasons," is added in parentheses.

THE STATE OF the unions: In certain localities and under certain unions painters can use brushes only 4 1/2 inches wide, while the Navy uses six inch brushes. ... On one building job a licensed electrician had to be hired to plug in the welder's

IS COMMENDED FOR WAR WORK

The War Department presented Mrs. Lucille L. Westfall, of Washington, D. C., and a former student of the College, with a Certificate of Commendation for her "meritorious and outstanding services during the war," recently.

The commendation read: "Mrs. Lucille L. Westfall has received official commendation and praise for outstanding performance of duty for services far beyond the regular call of duty and for the exceptional interest, loyalty and zeal in a position of great trust and responsibility, contributing to the outstanding achievements of the Intelligence Division, War Department; for resourcefulness and reliability which have inspired others to improve the quantity and quality of their work with consequent improvement in work performance and esprit de corps."

Mrs. Westfall has been the administrative assistant to Col. H. G. King, chief of the security branch of the Intelligence Division since December, 1943.

Hickman Resumes Local Position

Mr. Linn B. Hickman, former teacher in journalism and faculty adviser of the Mercury, has resumed his former position as associate editor and business manager of the Glenville Democrat, due to a shortage of help at the plant.

He returned in December from completing 15 hours of graduate work at Syracuse University, which will lead to the A.M. degree in journalism. Mr. Hickman was granted a leave of absence from the College faculty to enroll for the work.

Final Rites For

Mr. Ellyson Held

Funeral services were held for Zack Ellyson, of Sinking Creek, in the Glenville Baptist Church the past Wednesday. Mr. Ellyson died Monday at the family home of a heart attack.

Among the survivors are Mary Jo Ellyson and Betty Rose Hardman, students here, and Lucille Hardman, graduate. They are grandchildren.

Wagner Speaks

To Civic Club

A demonstration and a talk on heat and light were given by Mr. John R. Wagner before the Glenville Civic Club at a meeting held in Mr. Wagner's class room in the Science Building Monday, Jan. 7, 1946, at 8 p.m.

Leads Discussion

President Haught led a panel discussion of "Child Discipline" at a meeting of the Glenville P.T.A. Thursday evening, assisted by Miss Lee Myers, Dean Robert T. Crawford, H. Y. Clark and Dr. C. L. Underwood, in the Public School building.

Students from Glenville High School entertained with readings and musical numbers.

One Act Plays Schebuled For Week Jan. 28

Three one-act plays will be presented the first week of next semester included in these are, "Yes Means No"; "When Men Play Cards As Women Do"; "Girl From Nowhere."

"Yes Means No" is under the direction of Kathryn Hall and Blondina Fitzpatrick. The cast is as follows: Teddy Lawson, Ray King; William Lawson, Bill Rexroad; Edith Merrill, Helen Cox; T. J. Morgan, Charles McIntosh; Miss Collins, Ada Wilson.

"When Men Play Cards As Women Do" will be directed by Hanna Lou Garrett, Helen Marks and Robert Marshall. The cast is as follows: Bob, Bob Galford; John, Gray Barker; Marc, Grover Weaver; George, Billy Burke.

"Girl From Nowhere," which will be directed by Mary K. Shumate and Joanne Gawthrop, has the following cast: Edith, Marie Furr; Joyce, Forman; Gloria, Kathryn Elliott; Mrs. Adams, Isabelle Clark; Mrs. Perkins, Opal Tharp.

These plays were to be given before the Christmas holidays but were delayed because of illness.

CAMPUS BITS

It seems that many students must have made this New Year's Resolution: "I resolve to study more for the remainder of this semester." At least one instructor was heard expressing this idea, and reports from V.M.H. and L.B.H. indicate that never have such early hours been kept nor so much studying been done by both boys and girls. We wonder, though—could it be that some of us are doing a little "apple polishing," or are we making a last desperate attempt to reach the goal line?

Looking into the future, we see—weddings. June weddings? Anyway, some of our girls became engaged over the holidays.

Willis Summers '45, who is now a student in Westminster Theological Seminary, called at the Mercury office when visiting on the campus last Monday.

Two girls were hospitalized during the Christmas vacation. Ruth Groves had a tonsilectomy, and Ruth Brady an appendectomy. Ruth Brady was not able to be back in school last week.

It is reported that among the boys who will soon leave school for the armed forces are: Billy Facemire, Jimmy Anderson, and Edsel Moss. We'll miss them when they're gone, and we hope they'll hurry back! Lyrical, aren't we?

HAUGHT IN CHARLESTON

Dr. D. L. Haught appeared before the Interim Committee of the State Legislature at Charleston, Jan. 8 and 9, in the interest of the College.

NO PLANS

As the Mercury goes to press the plans for next week's convocation are incomplete.

McWilliams And Fluharty to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pearcy have announced the engagement of their niece, Miss Juanita McWilliams, to Charles Fluharty. Miss McWilliams, of Stumptown, is a former student now teaching at Normantown, and Mr. Fluharty, of Hastings, is a sophomore here. A date for the wedding has not been set.

Through The Files

One Year Ago

January, 1945—An extended rain during the New Year week-end removed most of the snow and again threatened Glenville and other areas with a flood. Because transportation was suspended, classes were cancelled Tuesday, but resumed Wednesday when most students were able to return to Glenville.

The Little Kanawha River lifted its boundaries and spread over highways, especially at Stout's Mills and Sand Fork, where at the latter place the water was up to 30 inches on Route 35. At Glenville the river reached a height of 26 feet. A cold wave arrived in time to stop the rise Tuesday, and by Wednesday most streams were back to their normal levels.

Two Years Ago

January, 1944—College students returned to classes after a two weeks holiday on January 3 despite the fact that Gilmer County schools and those in a nearby county were closed because of the flu epidemic.

Three Years Ago

January, 1943 — "When Christ comes to occupy first place in your heart and life, the cheap, gaudy things will come down and out," said the Rev. Carl Looney, of Grundy, Va., to College students in assembly the past Wednesday.

Four Years Ago

January, 1942—Everyone on and off the campus talked about the weather the past week but no one did anything about the four sub-zero days and nights that broke the all-time record here in Glenville and sent the mercury down to the regions in the thermometer where it hadn't been for a long, long time.

Five Years Ago

January, 1941 — Glenville High School was closed at the dismissal of Monday's classes because of the influenza epidemic in and around Glenville. This was announced yesterday by Principal Earl R. Boggs, who said classes would convene January 20, pending seriousness of the epidemic at that time.

Six Years Ago

January, 1940 — Glenville Pioneers remained undefeated for the 1939-40 season as they added two hard-earned victories from Alderson-Broadus 53-52 and Salem Tigers 55-37.

Seven Years Ago

January, 1939—A deed or gift for $500 to establish the George Firestone Loan Fund was provided for in the will of the late George Firestone.

Dean Thinks Senior Class May Double

At least fifty war veterans will enroll in the College at the beginning of the second semester, which, along with other enrollment gains, will swell the enrollment to over 200, Dean Crawford has stated.

It is expected that the number of new non-veteran students enrolling will be larger than the number of present students leaving the College when this semester ends, he said.

So far housing has not been a problem, with four sections of Louis Bennett hall available for men. One section will be set aside for married veterans without children, while single men are expected to overflow from Section 4, now filled to half its capacity, into another section which will be opened.

Although the Dean has not classified those who will enroll, he mentioned that about twelve freshmen will be included and that the Senior Class (Campus residents) will be doubled in size.

Pre-professional courses seem to be the most popular for those enrolling here for the first time, though most of those re-enrolling will continue with courses they were taking before the war. Some formerly doing work in elementary education will also complete requirements in the secondary teaching field, he stated.

R. M. HALL DIES AT GRANTSVILLE

Roy M. Hall, 66, for many years a merchant at Hurst, Lewis county, died at 7 p.m. Friday, Dec. 28, at Grantsville where he made his home with a daughter, Miss Edna Hall. He was ill a week.

He was born May 23, 1879, in Lewis county, a son of W. H. and Mary Ellen Ervin Hall. On April 24, 1900, he married Sophia Rattle, who died five years ago. Surviving are four children, Mrs. Marie Gibson, William Hall, and Stanley Hall, principal of Glenville high school, all of Glenville, and Edna, with whom he resided in Grantsville. Two brothers, James H. Hall, of Glenville, and Guy Hall, of Auburn, and a sister, Mrs. A. D. Dent, of Huntington, also survive.

Mr. Hall was a merchant at Auburn, Ritchie county, for ten years prior to the time he operated a store at Hurst. He retired a few years ago.

Lee Jack Dies

At Home Here

W. Lee Jack, grandfather of the Misses Margy Jack, Patricia Jack, Mary Jane Jack, and Robert Lee Jack, former students, died at 3:20 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 9, at his home in Glenville, following an illness of about two years.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

A Year of Challenges

January 1 brought with it a new year of hope and challenges.
December 31 had ended a year of war and victory and may be thought of as ending a longer dark period that began just as a December in 1941 was ending.

What this year, 1946, brings may be a preview of what future years offer for a long time, from the world down to our separate lives.
It will be a long hard one.

For the College it will see the climb back to normal times, and perhaps better, if we try hard enough to make the grade. Indications are that the new semester will see a surprising number of war veterans enrolling and re-enrolling, although prospects for more regular students cannot be determined now. Since pre-war days the College plant has been expanded, with facilities for higher enrollments than ever before, and the return of faculty members on leaves together with new appointments will offer opportunities for wide curricula.

One of the greatest challenges facing our administration is the report of the Strayer Committee, and the new year will also see its results, whether good or bad.

But with the combined efforts of students, student organizations, faculty and administration, 1946
may not be a bad year for G.S.C.
—Gray Barker.

The Strayer Report

The Strayer Report has caused much alarm on the campus because the recommendation was made that the school cease con-fering degrees in Liberal Arts and Secondary Education and grant only degrees in Elementary Education which would tend to reduce the enrollment far below the standard. Usually women students only are interested in teaching in the lower grades and the classes which would be given would have no appeal to many male students. This would eliminate, also, many of the extra-curricular activities such as basketball, football and baseball, which are very valuable to the students and the school.

Pioneers Announce Basketball Schedule

A group of Glenville State College men students, with the help of William O. Whetsell, student coach-manager, discharged from the Army Air Forces, is beginning to whip into shape a basketball squad for the 1945-46 season.

The Pioneers already have eight games scheduled, four at home and four away, and Coach Whetsell said he has about five or six other games pending.

The schedule as announced to date is as follows: Jan. 17, Salem college here; Jan. 19, Davis and Elkins college here; Jan. 29, Alderson-Broadus college here; and Feb. 18, West Virginia Institute of Technology here.

Jan. 14, West Virginia Tech, at Montgomery; Feb. 26 (pending), Alderson-Broadus at Philippi; Feb. 21, Salem college at Salem; and Feb. 28, Davis and Elkins at Elkins. Proceeds from the Jan. 20 game will be for the benefit of the March of Dimes Infantile Paralysis fund.

The Pioneer quintet includes several former students, recently released from duty with the nation's armed forces. Among them are Joe Marra, Nick Murin, David "Jake" Fitzpatrick, Bennett Stump, Bob Whiting, Goff Summers, and Paul Siegrist.

Other men out for practice include: Billy Burk, Jimmy Reed, Edsel Moss, Robert Marshall, Raymond Taylor, Freddie Boggs, Ray King, and Charles Furr.

Helen Bailey Bride

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bailey of Clarksburg are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Neal H. Phillips. The marriage took place at 7 p.m., Dec. 27, in Winchester, Va. The Rev. Robert A. Whitten, pastor of the Christian church, officiated.

Mr. Phillips is a graduate of Glenville State College. She taught school before entering the service of the government as clerk in the quartermaster department.

COUNCIL PINS ARRIVE

Student Council pins have arrived, according to President Paul Heckert. Pins are of the same design as in the past years: in gold and black with "G.S.C." and "Student Council" imprinted.

Anderson's Cagers Win

Jimmy Anderson's hard fighting cagers trounced Ray King's cagers 40-29 in a hard fought game Tuesday night in the College Gym.

The Andersons five got off to a good start with a couple of quick "buckets" by Seigrist and Reed. Anderson's five started off in the lead and never relinquished it. When the first period ended the score stood 15-16 and at half time 25-12.

Reed and Seigrist set the pace for the winners while Boggs and King played a good game for the losers. Reed was high point man for the game with Boggs of the losers following with a total of 14 points.

Charles Furr for the winners and Joe Taylor for the losers played a very good floor game. Minney and Whetsell refereed.

while Bob Galford kept score.

Pioneers Play Salem Jan. 16

Glenville Pioneer followers are looking forward to a thriller when Salem College meets the Pioneers here tomorrow night. The much improved Glenville team, although considered the underdogs, should at least hold the visitors to a very close game.

Salem has been running roughshod over almost every team which they have played. Glenville lost one game to W.V.U., a very superior team. The Pioneers, although beaten badly, at least exhibited a very smooth game. The team, then weakened because of lack of tall players, should do much better now with Whiting and Seigrist on the squad.

Although it should fully be realized that Glenville will not take an easy victory, by all indications the quintet consisting of Whetsell, Whiting, Marra, Fitzpatrick, and Murin should be favored as winners.

The probable lineups for the game will be:

Salem—T. Willis and Swecker, guards; Gum, center; Greer and J. Willis, guards.
Glenville—Whiting and Murin, forwards; Fitzpatrick, center; Whetsell and Marra, guards.

Pioneers Meet D-E In Game Jan. 19

January 19 will witness the second appearance of the Glenville Pioneers on their home floor, when they meet the Davis and Elkins quintet from Elkins, W. Va.

The probable lineups are as follows:

Davis and Elkins—Phillips and Payne, forwards; Mame, center; Toompas and Huffman, guards.
Glenville — Whiting and Murin forwards; Fitzpatrick, center; Whetsell and Marra, guards.

All the proceeds of the game will go to the "March of Dimes" infantile paralysis fund.

NOTICE!

The sticks in the fish pond in front of the Science Building were placed there for a purpose, and you are doing no kindness to the fish, the pool, nor to Miss James, who had them placed there, by removing them. Miss James appreciates your kindness but would like for the tree branch to remain undisturbed during the winter.

It prevents deep freezing, and saves the cement walls of the pool from cracking with the expanding ice, and might also save the fish if the winter should be cold enough to otherwise freeze the pool to the bottom.

HERE WE do a great service to Esquire magazine and reprint part of a publicity blurb we are in receipt of: "Duke Ellington has been chosen for the second consecutive year as the top arranger and his band as the top jazz band in Esquire's 1946 All-American Jazz Selections. . . . And the jazz stylists Benny Goodman, Louis Armstrong, Red Norvo and Coleman Hawkins have been picked for the third consecutive year as the top specialists in the jazz world." Then follows a list of "ranking jazzmen," "as picked by Esquire's nationally known Board of Experts." They won gold "Esqys" which must be the hep cat equivalent of H'wood "Oscars." Other jazzmen were less fortunate, though, and received silver "Esqys" and bronze hardware.

The survey was made during abnormal times when enrollment of the college was greatly reduced because of the war, and many of the instructors were retired and had not been replaced. This fact alone caused many classes to be eliminated from the college schedule.

We quote the editor of the West-ten Democrat, R. H. Pritchard: "Dr. Strayer and his associates may be and probably are able educators, but when they take the position that they know all there is to know about the type of institution needed in every part of West Virginia, then we, and other individuals, clash."

We also present part of an article published in the Glenville Democrat, which C. W. Marsh edits:

"The two institutions which suffered most at the hands of the Strayer investigators are Glenville State College and Bluefield State College, colored. But since the Bluefield College is unrestricted in its activities within its field and the local school is further hampered by imposed limitations, Glenville College, if the Strayer survey is implemented by the coming special or regular session of Legislature, will take its place at the bottom of all the state's sponsored institutions of learning."
