Onimoghoh Drama Set for Tuesday Night Plans Are Completed for Easter Dance

Skelton, Zakarian Ready Cast For 3-Act Tragedy

By Elaine Bell

"Death Takes a Holiday" a drama in three acts by Alberto Cassella, will be presented Tuesday, March 31 at 8:15 p. m. in the college auditorium. The play, which was rewritten for the American stage by Albert Harris, was highly successful when presented at the Ethel Barrymore theater in New York City. Director of the play is Prof. Marjorie Skelton and assistant director is Charles Zakarian.

This type of play is new on the campus, because it is the first serious play to be attempted for several years.

Members of the cast are: Cora, Betty Jo Simons; Fedele, Clarence Maze; Duke Lambert, James Watson; Alza, Claire Bowles; Dutchess Stephanie, Wanda James; Princess of San Luca, Berte Turner; Baron Cesarea, Hobart Childers; Rhoda Fenton, Patsy Lyons; Eric Fenton, Thomas Reed; Corrado, William Boram; Grazia, Faith Bingham; His Serene Highness, Prince Sirki, Charles Dorrill; Major Whitbread, Frank Fullmeier.

The play is a fantasy drama, dealing with the poetic conception of Death suspending all activities for three days, during which period he falls in love with a lovely young girl, and through her realizes why mortals fear him.

Reserved seats will be on sale March 30. Admission is $.50. Students will be admitted by activity books.

BYF FORMED AT GLENVILLE

Baptist Youth Fellowship, a new campus organization, met March 16 to elect its officers.

Those elected were president, Eula Hypes; vice president, Jolene Jones; secretary-treasurer, Freda Peters. Leonard Tyree will serve as song leader, Sue Davidson as pianist and Jerry Lee Harbour as organist.

Standing committees appointed were program committee—Chairman Maxine Edwards, Albert Burkhardt and Bertha Turner; social committee—Chairman Leona Furr, Barbara Hart, Morrison Becket and Louis Villers.

Louis Villers will be in charge of the membership committee and Victor Gilkenson will handle the publicity.

Plans were made to order BYF pins for the members at the meeting.

Prof. Skelton Will Judge Speech Meet

Prof. Marjorie Skelton will act as judge in the regional contest of the West Virginia Scholastic Forensic league at Ravenswood high school April 7.

Ripley, Ravenswood, and Parkersburg high school will send representatives to the meet.

Debaters Engage Marshall Team in Charleston Meet

The Glenville college debate team traveled to Charleston March 17 to participate in a debate with Marshall college. The debate was held as a demonstration debate before the Morris Harvey debate class. The debate question was, Resolved: "That the Congress of the United States should enact a compulsory fair employment practice law."

Glenville College Budget Is Approved By Legislature

By William Boram

Glenville State budget for the 1953-55 biennium was approved by the West Virginia legislature last week in a move which saw operating budgets of several state departments sliced substantially below Board of Public Works recommendations.

Requested new building, either a men's dormitory or a new teacher training school, was not included in the Glenville State budget, President Harry B. Heflin said.

New buildings were approved for only three schools. West Liberty was granted a new health-physical education building, and West Virginia university and Marshall college were appropriated money for new women's dormitories.

Specific Glenville State allotments are as follows: $329,640 for the first year of the biennium, $329,540 for the second year, and $50,000 capital expenditure for surplus revenue. Last year's total appropriation for the second biennial year was $301,000.

Swimmers Are Polled

Students Tell Why Pool Isn't Used

By ELAINE BELLE

"Why don't we have a swimming pool?" was a favorite refrain of the Glenville State students in the past years. If we just had a pool, we would have something to do with our free time.

We now have on our campus one of the most modern pools in the state, but an average of only approximately 20 people are in the pool each time it is open, and this includes the town people who swim on Friday nights.

Prof. Clarissa Williams says, "I don't know why students don't use the pool more. I guess it must be the time element, and many of the students don't know how to swim."

A poll was taken on campus to see why students don't use the pool more. Here are the results of the survey:

Billy Radcliff—I've been in the pool this year but not as much as last year because I haven't the time. I plan to swim more this spring. One reason why students don't go in is because they are afraid they will get a cold.

Wanema Davidson—I've haven't been in the pool this year. I have a night class on Wednesday night so I can't go in then, and since I do not live on campus, I am home on Friday and Saturday. I think the pool is very nice and I think the swimming classes on campus are adequate for the needs of the campus. It would be nice if the pool were open all the time so students could go swimming when they have free time.

Charles Mayo—It is a good swimming pool outside of the diving board which is dangerous. I don't think the pool is open enough. One reason for lack of interest may be that some students don't think there is any reason to learn to swim as they might never use the knowledge. The swimming classes here aren't designed to meet the needs of the students. The classes should be regulated to the needs of the students.

Patsy Lyons—I've been in the pool several times this year. I think it is a nice pool, but I think it should be opened at a different time because freshmen have to take their ten when they go in. One of the

Dean Adkins Is Guest Speaker

Dean Edwin P. Adkins spoke March 20 at a Social Studies Conference at Berkeley Springs in Morgan county on "A Look at Our Social Studies".

Morgan County Education association sponsored the program as a part of their spring conference. The program was devoted to a study of the social studies curriculum.

March 26 Dr. Delmer K. Somerville, Registrar Denver P. Arnett and Dean Adkins will visit Jackson county high schools. Following the visit in Jackson county, Dean Adkins will address the Ravenswood Lion's club.

Dean Adkins and Registrar Arnett will represent the college at the West Virginia Secondary Principals' Meeting in Charleston April 9 and 10.

Superintendents To Conduct Interviews

Harry Straley, superintendent of the Nicholas county schools and Oakford Deets, assistant superintendent of the Nicholas county school will be on campus April 14.

They are interested in interviewing prospective teachers in the elementary and secondary fields.

All students interested in being interviewed are asked to report to Dr. Eddie Kennedy to arrange for a time for the interview.

Dr. Heflin Is Discussion Leader at YMCA Meeting

President Harry B. Heflin acted as discussion leader for a state YMCA meeting at Jackson's Mill last Saturday made up of Hi-Y and Tri Hi-Y members.

Dr. Heflin spoke before the group which included approximately 350 high school students leading a panel discussion on vocations.

Extensive plans have been made for the seventh annual Easter Dance sponsored by Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity. The semi-formal affair will be held this Saturday night from 9-12 p. m. in the old gymnasium.

Jimmy Groves's five-piece orchestra, well known in the Ohio valley section, will make its first appearance on the campus.

Chairman of the advertising committee, Harold Butcher reported that posters advertising the dance have been circulated. Kappa Sig pledges, Ed Doimnall, Albert Wash, Gail Boggs, and Paul Caltrider, are wearing signs to advertise the dance.

Easter fantasies will adorn the gym in the gold and purple colors of the fraternity.

Plans have been made to sell refreshments in the gym for the dance.

Tickets are now on sale for $2 and can be purchased from any Kappa Sigma Kappa member.

375 PRESENT FOR FHA MEET

Three hundred seventy five high school girls were on the campus Saturday, March 14, for the annual Western regional conference of the Future Homemakers of America. Miss Pauline Stout, state supervisor of home economic education, was present at this meeting.

Representatives from 30 high schools attended the meeting. The girls had luncheon at the Gilmer County recreation center, Glenville Methodist Church, Conrad Hotel, and Blue Ribbon restaurant. Home economic students who served as luncheon hostesses were Dorothy Lantham, Kathleen Quinn, and (Continued on Page 4)

Contagious Disease Makes Rounds With Measles, Mumps

Glenville State college campus has had its share of contagious diseases recently. Students have had chicken pox, influenza, mumps, and measles.

Mary Jones, Delores Black, and Esther Smythe, daughter of Mrs. Olive Smythe who is the house-mother of Verona Mapel hall, are the most recent victims of measles.

Both Doris Spicer and Kay Hamrick were in the infirmary. Doris Spicer had a recurrence of influenza; Kay Hamrick stayed overnight for observation to see if she too would have the measles.

Journalism Classes Visit Paper Office

Prof. E. B. Elder's News Reporting and Editing Class visited the Glenville Democrat Printing office March 17.

Different steps in printing a paper were explained the class by Eugene Stanley and James Hawkins. Loretta Poling demonstrated the linotype.

Those visiting the office were: William A. Boram, Elaine Bell, Maurice Buck, Mary Helen Somerville, Patty Sumpter and Sally Waggoner.

Other trips are being planned by the class to see different types of printing equipment.

Superior Opportunity

Segregation in education is today one of the most unjust and irrational conditions that prevails in the United States, and one of the most by-passed and lightly regarded situations in the country's educational system.

Cases which point to the absurdity and uselessness of educational segregation arise every day, but still little is done to correct this slighting of the Negro members of American society.

The fourteenth amendment to the constitution guarantees equal protection of the law to everyone. Those who would advocate separate schools for Negroes to get around this amendment fail to take into consideration the fact that less value is attached in the eyes of the community to degrees from strictly negro institutions—what few of them there are—than to large white universities. There is no way to get around it; the only method for insuring complete equality of education for all is to open wide the doors of all schools—elementary, secondary, undergraduate, and graduate—to persons of all races and religions.

Some revealing facts show the following: of the states maintaining separate schools by law, 17 have colleges offering the Master's degree to white students; eight have schools offering this degree to Negro students, twelve have colleges which grant PhD's to white students, but only recently have a few offered this degree to the colored student.

In summing up his opinions of the Negro-white problem in the country today, a speaker at the Mississippi Press Association convention said, "Now, with all this talk about re-dedication and getting back to sweat of the brow and own two feet stuff, how about re-dedicating ourselves to the spirit of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. They indicate that we the people believe everyone is entitled to his opportunity."

The problem of educational segregation today is one that is more troubling than in the past, what with all our so-called advances in living and our alleged progress. Facts prove that while we may have moved forward in some cases, we definitely haven't gone ahead in providing education for the Negro. Facts show that there is no superior race, only superior race, only superior opportunity.—WAB

Galgani, Riddell, Terrill Are Nominating Committee

Carl Galgani, Joseph Riddell, and Dorothy Terrill have been appointed to the Student Council nominating committee. This committee, appointed by Student Council president Frank Fullinier, will nominate one or more candidates for each office in the coming Student Council election.

While it is the duty of the committee to choose eligible, suitable candidates, the election is not closed to their choices. Any student may nominate a "dark horse" or "write in" candidate if that person meets the requirements.

President Fullinier's committee is composed of three members who have greatly diversified fields of study, and who have a great interest in college life. Carl Galgani is a senior from Parkersburg, majoring in social studies and business. Galgani is president of the Louis Bennett hall, Judge of the Holy Roller Court, a member of the business fraternity, business manager of the Kanawhachen and The Mercury, and plays in Prof. Harold Orendorf's "collegian" dance band.

Riddell is a senior from Grantsville, majoring in physical education and English. Riddell is a member of the Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity, secretary of the G-Club, a member of the Pioneer football and baseball teams, Co-editor of the Kanawhachen, and is co-sports editor of The Mercury.

Riddell is an honor student and has applied for a government scholarship to study abroad.

Dorothy Terrill is a senior from St. Mary's studying for a B. S. degree in biology and chemistry. Dorothy is president of Verona Maple hall, a member of the Kappa Chi Kappa sorority, co-editor of the Kanawhachen, member of the SCA, and served as Homecoming Queen this year.

The choices of this Committee will appear in The Mercury next week.

HOLY ROLLER COURT

Plans for Fun Night were discussed and a committee was appointed to work on this event. A discussion was held on obtaining a band for the Court Dance.

It was decided that the Court would not sponsor a mix this year. The following Court members will receive pins this month: Dick Sattestield, Martin Snyder, Maurice Buck, Oliver Hunt, Bill Rumbach, Ervin Hull, and John Brisendine.

KAPPA SIGMA KAPPA

Plans for the Easter dance have been completed except for decorating. A pledge period has begun for the following neophytes: Gail Boggs, Edward Donnellan, Paul Caltrider, and Albert Wachs.

Harold Hissam, Harold Butcher, and James Robinson will represent the fraternity at the Easter conclave April 11 at Waynesburg, Pa.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

The annual spring outing was discussed at the last Sig Tau meeting. Robert Milligan, William Radcliff, and Charles Dordill are to serve on the planning committee. It was also decided that the April party will be held at the Glenville Recreation center.

President William Waldeck reported that the annual Easter Province conclave will be held sometime in April. Several members are planning to attend.

The executive committee reported that several changes have been made in the local constitution and they will be put into effect immediately.

Milligan Is Elected State Student Council Treasurer

Ex Libris

By JOSEPHINE FIDLER

Parents and teachers are finding that the study of children is no longer a thing to cause a frown. By experimentation and observation, new methods of gaining knowledge for effective instruction have been obtained.

Several new books discussing child behavior have been added to the library collection. Guide to a Child's World by Isabelle P. Buckley is written for the teacher, as well as for the parent. Mrs. Buckley is the founder of the Buckley Schools of California. She is well aware of practical methods of guiding children "to express themselves through self-discipline."

Mrs. Buckley is not preaching, or does she present a new system in child psychology. "She likes children and children like her." However, she has added much to the field of child study. You will like the incidents Mrs. Buckley presents from actual experiences.

Another book, written by an author who knows children, is Understand Your Child by James L. Hymes, Jr. Mr. Hymes discusses these four ideas that seem true about children: Children grow, there is a plan to the way they grow, children want things out of life, and there is some reason why. Mr. Hymes considers early childhood is a very important period of development in a child's life.

"Angels don't say 'no' or get dirty or talk back or use naughty words. Children do." Children have a reason for their actions. Mr. Hymes discusses this aspect of child development. For a good discussion of children in general, this book will be of value. However, the author has not concerned himself so much with specific types of children. He has given a discussion of all children.

Two other recent publications which may be of interest to the teacher are: Our Children Today, edited by Sidonie Matzner Gruenberg and the Staff of the Child Study Association of America, and The Discipline of Well Adjusted Children by Grace Langdon and Irving W. Stout.

The first writing is a guide to children's needs from infancy through adolescence. The discussions have been written by distinguished specialists from many fields of study. The writers have kept in mind our changing society.

The Discipline of Well-Adjusted Children is a book based on a survey carried on near Milwaukee, Wisconsin; New York City; and rural regions in Illinois. Parents of 414 well-adjusted children told what they had done in training their children. A report was printed on this survey in a recent issue of the Journal of Education Society.

Robert Milligan, junior from Wellsburg, was elected treasurer of the West Virginia Federation of College Students at the state group's spring meeting held March 12-14 at West Virginia Wesleyan college.

At the Buckhannon meeting, the organization, which includes student councils from all West Virginia colleges, decided to hold their fall meeting at Glenville State college. Major item of business at this meeting will be voting upon the proposed new constitution.

Other officers named at the spring meeting were: president, Lewis Tisher, Wesleyan; first vice-president, Garnett Mack, Storer college; second vice-president, Neil Penn, Wesleyan college; and secretary, Ruth Payne, Bluefield State college.

Ten colleges were represented at the meeting, which opened with registration at 2 p. m. March 12. Workshops covering various phases of student government were held the following morning at 10 o'clock. Milligan participated in the Racial Integration workshop while Bill Radcliff, the other Glenville State representative, attended the Student Union session.

Keynote address for the meeting was delivered by Dr. William J. Scarborough, president of Wesleyan college. Other features of the conference were a banquet, coke session, and a business session.

Baseball Team To Begin Field Drills This Week

Eight Lettermen Will Form Nucleus For Pioneer Nine

By Maurice Buck

Baseball practice for the Glenville diamond team will get into full swing this week, weather permitting. Coach Carlos Ratliff has been working with a small group in the gym for the past two weeks. Coach Ratliff's main worry is to find replacements for pitcher-outfielder Cecil Johnson, outfielder Pete Kostyk, and catcher Joe Floyd. These three men were the leading hitters on last year's woefully-weak hitting team.

Returning lettermen are: Ervin Hull, first base .274; Don Merriman, third base .271; Paul Lanham, outfield .268; Dick Barrett, outfield .221; Bill Lilly, infield .161; Joe Riddell, infield, 112, and Bob Poole, a pitcher. Donald Butcher, who did not play last season, batted .333 for the Pioneers in 1951 and will play this year.

Coach Ratliff stated that he expects more men to report for baseball at the end of the third term. The first home game will be April 23, Senior Day, with Wesleyan.

Reeder Wins In WAA Play

Jean Reeder's team won over Ester Freeman's 22-15 in the only W. A. A. basketball game played Monday night, March 16.

Freeman's team out-played Reeder's in the first period, and was leading 8-6. Reeder's team scored six points in the second quarter to put them in the lead for the rest of the game.

Leona Satterfield topped the scoring by sinking 12 points for the winners, followed by Genevieve Hinder with 6, and Marlene Brown with 4. Connie White scored 11 points and Ester Freeman made two free throws and a field goal, making her total 4 for the losers.

The game scheduled between Doris Spicer's and Joan Dotson's team was forfeited to Dotson because of the absence of several of Spicer's players.

Eddie Solomon Tops Voting On Wave All-Opponent Team

By JIM ROBINSON

Eddie Solomon, West Virginia Tech's sensational center, proved to be the outstanding basketball player to oppose the Glenville team this season according to a recent poll of the Pioneer squad conducted by the MERCURY sports department. Carl Hartman, Dave Rosen, Emil Rubich, and Jack Hawkins were named, along with Solomon, to the 1952-53 Glenville "all-opponent" team.

Solomon and Carl Hartman of Alderson-Broadus emerged as the only unanimous choices of the ten Glenville players interviewed. Solomon was accorded the "outstanding performer" honor by seven of the 10 votes cast, the remaining three going to Hartman.

In establishing a new conference scoring record, the brilliant Solomon scored 64 points against the Pioneers in two games for a 32 point-per-game gait.

Sophomore Carl Hartman of Alderson-Broadus, a resident of Ridgeley, far surpassed his more-publicized teammate, Jack Greynolds, in the opinion of the Pioneer hoopers. Hartman scored 28 and 27 points in his two appearances against the White-Wave.

Conference and tournament champions, Morris Harvey, were represented on the mythical squad by Dave Rosen. The Eagles' main scoring threat throughout the campaign, Rosen added to his laurels by hitting for 46 points in two encounters with Glenville.

Diminutive Emil Rubich, as well as Rosen, garnered 8 of the 10 ballots to nail down a guard position. The smallest man on the "all-opponent" squad, Rubich is known primarily for his fine play-making ability but he is also a serious scoring threat, attested by his 46 points in two games with the Pioneers.

The only close balloting for a spot on the team was for the only remaining guard position. Hawkins of Wesleyan and Wellington from Salem locked in a bitter battle with Hawkins finally winning out, probably as a result of his tremendous tournament showing against the Wave.

Hawkins scored only 4 points in his first effort against the Pioneers but bounced back to score 29 in the final regular season encounter between the two clubs. In the WVVC tourney at Buckhannon, Hawkins was the big thorn in the side of the Pioneer as he led the Wesleyan delegation with 21 points.

Glenville's captain, Carlton Gandee, and their scoring ace, Jack Tennant, were the only ones to complete a perfect score.

Those receiving honorable mention to the team were: Wellington of Salem, Greynolds of A-B, Lowe from Concord, Gibson of Salem, Campalase, from West Liberty, Donovan of West Liberty, Leffard from Wesleyan, and Nicewarner of West Liberty.

The MERCURY wishes to express its gratitude to the Glenville basketball team for its cooperation in this venture. The Pioneer basketballers that were polled: Tekieli, Duffield, Gandee, Tennant, Hull, Merriman, Barrett, Poole, Cooke, and Hall.

Sport Talk

By MAURICE BUCK

Basketball season is far behind now as our thoughts turn to golf, tennis, baseball, softball, swimming and other outdoor interest. But, as a reminder to the "quarterbacks," "scouts," and other interested in next year's basketball season, this area produced several college prospects that should not be over looked.

To name a few in neighboring high schools that might be interested in continuing their education at GSC we should name Kenny Hammond, lanky high scoring ace of Pennsboro, Ruddleson and Burns of Harrisville, Kyer of Wirt, Miller and Hamrick of Sand Fork, Hawkins of Sutton, Brown of Lost Creek, Cooper and Kishbaugh of R-W, Whiteman of Bridgeport, Hogue of Cairo, Cosper of St. Marys, and Bailey of Weston.

Most of these boys excel in other sports, and are good students. Athletic Director Carlos Ratliff and Coach Michael Josephs would be proud of such lads as these if some could find their way to our doors.

Kappa Sigs Down Sig Taus 64-50 As Feature Of Mix

Coach Charles "Chick" Zakarian's Kappa Sigma Kappa basketball team romped to a 64-50 win over the Sigma Tau Gamma as the feature attraction of the Alpha Delta Epsilon Student Mix March 20 in the old gym.

Harold Butcher set the pattern of the game when he sent the Kappa Sigs ahead 2-0 with a 20-foot set shot. The Kappa Sigs were never headed although the Sigma Taus threatened throughout the first period. But, with Vincent and Godfrey showing the way, the Kappa Sigma Kappa led, 18-13 at the period.

In the second period the Kappa Sigs began to pull away. With Miller and Butcher taking up the scoring load, the winners increased their margin to a convincing 39-25 at half time. In the third period the "Golden Boys" completed the rout as they dropped in 14 more scores while holding the rattled Sigma Taus to a mere five.

Harold Butcher, little known for his athletic ability, astounded everyone as he romped through the Sigma Taus for four field goals in this period. Rugged Frank Vincent added the other six points during the hectic third canto. Going in to the final period, with the score 53-30 against them, the scrappy Sigma Taus attempted to rally.

Led by Jim Smith and Bob Milligan the losers managed to push in 20 points while holding the coasting Kappa Sigs to 11. However, the inspired gold-clad victors had picked up enough lead to win easily.

Burly Frank Vincent and Fleet Harold Butcher led the victors with 21 and 17 points while teammate Ron Godfrey had 12. For the Sigma Taus Jim Smith and Bob Milligan garnered 13 each.

Lonnie Miller and Mike Popp stood out on defense for the winners while Bill Radcliff and Don Arbogast played a good floor game for the losers.

Bowles' Cagers Take Wins Over Reeder And Datson To Gain Tie For WAA Lead

By Mary Helen Somerville

Claire Bowles' basketball team claimed Jean Reeder's 26-17 in WAA action Thursday, March 19. Bowles team took the lead in the first quarter 11-2 and remained well in the lead by adding another 6 points in the second period, 4 and 5 points in the third and fourth quarters respectively. However, Reeder out-scored Bowles in the third period by sinking 8 points to their 4.

Jackie Rastie paced the scoring for the winners with 16 points followed by Claire Bowles with 100. Sally Waggoner and Leona Satterfield got 8 and 7 points respectively for Reeder's team.

In the next game Bowles triumphed again by edging Joan Dotson's team 18-16 to tie for first place with Doris Spicer's in the W. A. A. tournament.

Dotson's team was leading by two points at half time 10-8, but was scoreless in the third quarter while Bowles took the lead by gaining 8 points. Claire Bowles and Jackie Rastie each scored 9 points for the victors, Patty Hardman sank 10 points for the losers.

Doris Spicer's team routed Wanda James' 37-27 for a two-way tie for first place. With a 21-13 score at half time Spicer's team continued to rack up the points by adding 12 more in the third period and 6 in the fourth.

Betty Joyce Cooper took top scoring honors of the game with 20 points for the losers. Jane Ratliff contributed 17 points to Spicer's team followed by Mary Lou Cledennin and Nancy Harris with 11 each.

The game between Wanda James and Esther Freeman's teams was forfeited to James because several of Freeman's players were unable to be present.

MODEL MEETS MODEL—A not-so-plain model makes the acquaintance of a model plane at the National Hobby Industry show in Chicago, Ill. Dorothy Johnson, model, learns about the miniature planes from Lew Mahieu of Compton, Cal. He has 14 international model-plane records to his credit, hopes to recapture with the above plane, honors lost to Russian model-makers. It's easy to see Miss Johnson is impressed by the plane.

Kappa Sig Athlete Is Subject of Latest Chesterfield Guessing Contest by Galgani

Rugged Glenville State athlete posed in the uniform of the Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity basketball team is the subject of campus agent Carl P. Galgani's latest Chesterfield contest.

Rules of this contest are similar to others conducted by Galgani in the past. Entries must be made on the back of a Chesterfield cigarette wrapper and handed in to Galgani. First person to correctly identify the headless cage star will be awarded a free carton of Chesterfields.

In giving some clue to the identity of the pictured male, Galgani said, "This fellow is a fiery competitor, known for his athletic achievements not only at Glenville State college but also in various other parts of West Virginia, other states, and even in Japan. He is the ideal athlete, strong, speedy, and cool thinking. He wears the colors of the Kappa Sig above, but his achievements have been made in playing for a variety of teams.

Textile Class Visits Parkersburg Stores

Prof. Lillian Chaddock and her textile class went to Parkersburg Wednesday, March 18. They visited all the stores which handle fabrics, and looked at the materials. They also visited the dress departments and compared the prices of ready made clothing and what it would take to make a similar dress from that kind of material.

They viewed the new styles for this spring, and some of the girls selected patterns for their own use.

Those who went on the trip were Professor Chaddock, Betty Sue Sims, Peggy Shores, Mrs. Eileen Wolf, Virginia Johnson, Eileen Fisher, Beth Huddkins, Leta Gregory, and Genevieve Hinder.

Phys. Ed Class Sees Hospital

Prof. Clarissa Williams and members of the corrective therapy class visited the Veterans hospital, March 16, at Clarksburg.

The students visited the physical therapy ward where the physical therapist demonstrated the different corrective exercises given for amputations, back strains, arthritis, polio, and gun shot wounds. He also demonstrated the use of the moist heat table, electric muscle stimulator, infra-red light rays, and whirlpools.

Songs, Comedy Acts Feature G-Club Show

Songs, dances, and comedy reigned supreme as the G-Club presented their annual minstrel March 17 in the auditorium. Specialty acts, chorus singing, and comic end men gave the audience an entertaining performance.

Acts received with unusual enthusiasm were guest performer John Cashlon's version of "Mammy," Caroline Boyd's "Blues-in-the-Night," Kathleen Quinn's "Basin Street Blues," and Harold Hissam's "Pray For The Lights To Go Out."

End men Richard Barrett, Edsl Robinson, Harold Hissam and Donald Merriman received much laughter from their remarks. Donald Weaver and Dorothy Lanham, a dance team, were well received.

Mrs. Olga Pashkevitch has taken over duties as faculty secretary. She is responsible to the chairman, division of education and psychology. Her duties consist of: Handle correspondence for chairman, division of education, and for all faculty in so far as time permits; type faculty reports that are requested by the president, dean, associations, or other outside agencies; keep a record of work done for faculty members and a schedule so that each person will know when work will be completed; keep mimeograph room neat and the mimeograph machine clean; and mimeograph syllabi, study sheets, and report forms for the faculty if time permits.

Medical College Admission Test Will Be Given in May

Candidates for admission to medical school in the fall of 1954 are advised to take the Medical College Admission Test in May, it was announced today by Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the test for the Association of American Medical Colleges. These tests, required of applicants by almost every medical college throughout the country, will be given twice during the current calendar year. Candidates taking the May test, however, will be able to furnish scores to institutions in early fall, when many medical colleges begin

* Community Nutrition class is helping to conduct a survey on misinformation of food and nutrition. This project is a nationwide project conducted by the American Dietetic association. They are trying to combat spread of misinformation about certain food and its utilization in the body.

Members of the class are questioning students on the campus as well as the adults in the community to find what are some of the prevalent ideas the people of this area have about foods.

After the material is compiled a general bibliography will be made that will help to refute some of these fallacies. Members of the class will also make suggestions on how authentic information can be given to the public concerning food, its preparation and utilization.

Members of the class that are helping in this survey are Iva Davidson, Delores Lynch, James Butcher, Dorothy Lanham, Virginia Johnson, Mary Rastle, Barbara Brannon, Leonard Tyree, Marlene Brown, Peggy Shores, Clara Mae Hull, Susan Armentrout, and Genevieve Hinder.

A panel discussion will be presented by the community nutrition and child development classes Tuesday, March 31 to the mothers study group. This group is made up of the mothers of the kindergarten children.

Topic of the discussion will be feeding problems of the preschool child. Those students taking part in the discussion will be Susan Armentrout, moderator, Peggy Shores, Clara Mae Hull, James Butcher, and Robert Mullins.

the selection of their next entering class.

Candidates may take the MCAT on Saturday, May 9 or on Monday, November 2, at administrations to be held at more than 300 local centers in all parts of the country. The Association of American Medical Colleges recommends that candidates for admission to classes starting in the fall of 1954 take the May test.

The MCAT consists of tests of general scholastic ability, a test on understanding of modern society, and an achievement test in science. According to ETS, no special preparation other than a review of science subjects is necessary. All questions are of the objective type.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information, which gives details of registration and administration, as well as sample questions, are available from pre-medical advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Completed applications must reach the ETS office by April 25 and October 19, respectively, for the May 9 and November 2 administrations.
