Dr. Riggleman Will Deliver Senior Sermon

Many Activities Are Planned For Annual Alumni Day

Golf Tournament, Lunch, Swimming, Banquet Are Scheduled For Old Grads

A day-long program of activities has been planned for the alumni of Glenville State college who will return for the celebration of Alumni Day, Saturday, May 23. According to Fred H. Barnett of Parkersburg, president of the association, every effort is being put forth to make this a pleasant and long remembered day; and, although extensive plans have been made for activities, the theme of the reunion will be complete freedom on the part of the alumni to enjoy themselves as they wish.

Louis Bennett lounge will be open from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., and during that time coffee, tea, sandwiches and other delicacies will be served. All alumni on arrival will report to the Lounge where they will be greeted warmly and supplied with a schedule of the day's activities.

A golf tournament will be held commencing at 10 a. m. and ending at 4 p. m. The Callaway handicapping system will be employed in scoring the cards, thus affording every participant an equal chance to win the prize which will be awarded the winners.

Lunch will be served at 12:15 p. m. at Kanawha hall for the alumni who wish to dine on the campus.

In the afternoon those wishing to play tennis will find the courts in playing condition and those desiring to swim in the pool in the new Health and Physical Education building will be able to do so from 2:30-4 p. m.

Guides will be provided for those who wish to make a tour of the campus, and chairs and tables will be placed at spots about the campus to allow groups desiring to get together to talk in comfortable section.

The banquet will be held in Kanawha hall at 6:30 p. m. At the banquet the classes of 1917, 1918, 1919 will be accorded special honors.

Richard Hoover Is New Wesley Leader

Richard Hoover was elected president of the Wesley Foundation at a meeting May 3. He is a junior elementary education major from Crawford.

Other officers elected were: vice-president, Inez Connelly; secretary, Genevieve Hunter; treasurer, Rose Marie Rogers; song leader, John Cutlip.

Jane Myers announced that the meeting hour had been changed. It will be from seven to eight o'clock on Sunday nights.

Any person who wishes to attend the conference youth picnic which is sponsored by the West Virginia conference of the Methodist Youth Fellowship at the Tennen-Grove at Buckhannon on Saturday, May 30, at two o'clock is asked to contact Richard Hoover or Jane Myers.

Correction

A news story in the April 8 issue of the Mercury stated that names of Standard Normal and A. B. graduates are wanted for the alumni directory. It was unintentionally omitted that names are wanted also of persons who received Short Normal and Junior College certificates.

Program Given To High School

Donald Arbogast, Kent Duffield, William Waldeck, Lonnie Miller, Mary Faith Holbert, Carl Galgani, and Prof. Harold Orendorff went to Belington high school May 8 to present a program similar to that which the Pioneer team presented to high schools in central West Virginia.

The College Collegians presented "One O'clock Jump" by Basie, "Early Autumn" by Herman, "When the Saints Go Marching In" arranged by D'Avilla, "Why Don't You Believe Me" by Douglas, and "Tailgate" by Walters.

The dance band presented "Harlem Nocturne" by Hogen.

Lanham Is Elected Verona Mapel Prexy

Dorothy Lanham was elected president of Verona Mapel hall at the monthly meeting May 5. Dorothy is a sophomore physical education major from Bristol, a member of the college choir, Pioneer 4-H club, college cheerleader, WAA, and Kappa Chi Kappa sorority.

Betty Joyce Cooper is the new vice-president. Betty Joyce, a sophomore elementary major from Harman, is a member of the college choir, WAA, and chaplain of Xi Beta Tau sorority.

Mary Faith Holbert, a sophomore music major from Webster Springs, was elected secretary-treasurer. Mary Faith is a member of the college choir, band, and orchestra, MENC, WAA, and vice-president of Xi Beta Tau sorority.

The new house rules for the coming year were discussed at the meeting also.

93 Students Are Treated by Nurse

Ninety-three students made a total of 131 visits to the nurse's office during the month of April. Mrs. Theresa Strothers reported.

Fifty-three reported for upper respiratory infections; three reported for intestinal disorders; six for injuries; and three for mumps. Five students stayed in the infirmary for a total of 22 days.

Oliver Hunt is now in the infirmary with mumps.

Mrs. Erma Damewood, the county health nurse, gave 24 students of the college smallpox vaccinations. Several have also gone to the county nurse's office for typhoid fever vaccines.

Mercury Staff Visits Press

Ten members of the high school newspaper and the advanced reporting and editing classes toured the Pittsburgh Press May 4 in Pittsburgh. Prof. and Mrs. E. B. Elder and Prof. Stanley Hall accompanied the group.

Members who toured the press are: Juanita Green, Elaine Bell, Maurice Buck, Joseph Riddle, Patty Sumpter, Sally Waggoner, William Boram, Mary Helen Somerville, James Scott, and Carl Galgani.

These classes had formerly toured the presses of the Glenville Democrat, the Republican Delta at Buckhannon, and the Clarksburg Exponent.

While in Pittsburgh, the group attended a baseball game between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals. The group also toured the Carnegie Museum.

Oningohows Choose Dodrill President

Charles Dodrill was elected president of the Oningohows at their regular meeting April 30. Charles is a junior social science major, who has taken an active part in dramatics.

Other officers elected were: vice president, Betty Jo Simons; secretary, Bonel Poling; and treasurer, Wanema Davidson. These officers will take over next year.

A social hour was held by the Oningohows in the recreation room of the Health and Physical Education building May 7.

Senior Class Sets Picnic for May 15

The senior class will sponsor a picnic Friday night, May 15 at the Gilmer County Recreation Center from 8 until 10:30 with all students invited to attend.

Two committee chairmen have been appointed. Ruby Cromwell is chairman of the refreshment committee, and Paul Hunt is chairman of the wood gathering crew.

There will be folk games and dances. President Billy Lilly asks that anyone who is willing to use his car for transportation to and from the picnic to contact him.

Mercury Leaders Depart

Editor and Business Manager End Duties

CARL GALGANI

Mercury student leaders William Boram and Carl Galgani, serving as editor and business manager of the Glenville State college student newspaper, will finish three year's duties when the last issue of The Mercury rolls off the presses this spring.

Boram, a senior from Weston, will graduate with fields in English and speech. He first joined The Mercury staff in 1950, working the first year as reporter. When senior editor William Harper transferred to Marshall college, Boram was appointed to his post, which he has held during his junior and senior years.

Dr. Leonard Riggleman, president of Morris Harvey college, will deliver the annual Glenville State college baccalaureate sermon to be held May 24, at 10 a. m. in the college auditorium.

Dr. Riggleman, a native of Blue Spring, holds the degrees of Bachelor of Arts from Morris Harvey college, Master of Arts from Southern Methodist University, Doctor of Divinity from Kentucky Wesleyan college and Doctor of Law from Davis and Elkins and West Virginia Wesleyan college.

Dr. Riggleman was ordained a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, in 1924, and from that year to 1928 served as pastor of the Methodist church at Milton, W. Va., and as part-time instructor in history at Morris Harvey college. He became a rural life specialist with the agricultural extension division of West Virginia in 1928 and worked in that capacity until 1930, when he began his college career as vice-president and head of the department of religious education of Morris Harvey college.

The educator is a member of the Morris Harvey College Board of trustees, member of the West Virginia Safety Council, and a member of the Board of Directors of the Charleston YMCA, and the Kanawha County Library board. He was recently elected president of the Charleston Area Council of Churches.

He served as a member of the general board of Christian education and as president of the college social educational council of the Board of Christian Education of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, 1938.

Dr. Riggleman has held the chairmanship of the Charleston chapter of the United National Association for peace, and the presidency of the State Ministers' Conference for West Virginia. He also has been a member of the West Virginia Farm Tenant Rehabilitation commission, president of the Charleston Executives' club, president of the Association of Church-Related Colleges of West Virginia, and a member of the committee on support of churches in spiritual aims for Kiwanis International, the general conference of the former Methodist Episcopal church, South, the North-eastern jurisdictional conference of the Methodist church, and the general conference of the Methodist church.

He was president of the Huntington Kiwanis club in 1935, and was district governor of the West Virginia district of Kiwanis International in 1939.

Plans for the awards assembly were discussed by the fraternity. Clarence Maze, president, appointed Elaine Bell as chairman of the committee to select candidates having the qualifications to receive recognition for the business department. She chose as her assistants, Patty Sumpter, Frank Fultineer, Beulah Beckner, and Jack Tennant.

Seven New Members Will Be Taken Into Alpha Psi

Seven new members will be initiated into the Alpha Psi Omega fraternity May 14.

These pledges are Claire Bowles, Betty Jo Simons, Clarence Maze, Frank Fultineer, Bonel Poling, Wanema Davidson, and Bertha Turner.

Alpha Psi Omega is a national honorary drama fraternity. Membership is based on a point system. Points are given for participation in acting and production aspects.

SYMPATHY EXPRESSED

The Glenville Mercury, on behalf of the faculty and student body, wishes to express its deepest sympathy to Dr. Michael Josephs on the death of his mother-in-law, and to Jack Cawthon on the death of his father.

Some Congratulations

With no congratulations offered in last week's Mercury, recognition of worthwhile achievement this week would seem to be an appropriate gesture.

First group to get the nod would have to be the faculty and administrative group that provided what was probably the most entertaining assembly program viewed here in several years. From start to finish the assembly was top-notch entertainment, enjoyed by a large group of students. The short skit, "Low Justice For The Exalted Student," especially was a big hit with the audience. Looks like campus student groups can learn from the faculty performance, as has been evidenced in the lack of response in sponsoring programs this year.

Another group which deserves a word of commendation is the host of school representatives who have been honored by being elected to various state, regional, and national offices during the past few weeks. We can't recall all of them offhand, but a few who come to mind are: Hodge Hissam, elected president of the Kappa Sigma Kappa eastern province; Richard Hoover, named secretary of the State Methodist Student Movement; William Waldeck, elected secretary of the state Alpha Psi Omega organization; Robert Milligan elected treasurer of the state student council; John Loyd and James Hardman, named president and secretary respectively of the State Academy of Science. There are several others, including some faculty and administrative members who have been awarded state posts for next year. These people deserve a lot of credit for their achievement in helping to focus the spotlight on their school by assuming responsibility and demonstrating their leadership abilities in state organizations.—WAB.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

In November, 1952, Alpha Delta Epsilon business fraternity, a newly organized group of business education majors and minors, saw the need for the establishment of an assembly program at which various awards could be presented before the entire student body. They proceeded to make their plans with what they then thought to be the blessing of the college administration.

The plan of the fraternity was to bring together the annual awards to be presented to students, by both departments and organizations, into one program which would be presented at the regular assembly period on Thursday morning. Some of the awards that would have been presented are: Athletic award certificates, the annual International Relations club award, the newly established Frank Montrose award for the outstanding senior athlete. Who's Who certificates, and any other established annual awards.

In an effort to create new interest in the assembly, and with the goal of making it an annual affair, Alpha Delta Epsilon sent out letters to all of the organizations and departments of the school. This was merely an invitation to recognize some outstanding student; it was not an edict stating that any department was directed to create some fantastic award in order to compete against some fantastic award created by some other department. It was only a gesture on the part of ADE to permit any group to commend its outstanding members with an award that had not already been established.

Somerville, Beckner Initiated Into ADE

Beulah Beckner and Mary Helen Somerville became members of the Alpha Delta Epsilon business fraternity at a formal initiation ceremony April 20 in Louis Bennett lounge. Taking an active part in the ceremonies were James Scott, Frank Fultineer, Ruby Ann Cromwell, and Clarence Maze.

Charles Ray, chairman of the entertainment committee, read a poem "The Morning After"; Vanda Bird, a poem "Sand Will Do It"; Prof. Genevieve Butcher played two numbers on the piano; Jean

It appears that some persons became somewhat panicky with the thought that they must dream up some award and provide a token of esteem. This was not what the ADE had in mind at all. After some of these people had taken their troubles to the administration, a great commotion arose, like Shakespeare's "Tale Told by an Idiot," it was "full of sound and fury, signifying nothing." A meeting of the college council issued, at which the members of the council handed down a list of eight suggestions for ADE to follow in its planning. The council had no way of knowing exactly what the plans of the fraternity were, since the written word is sometimes less informative than the spoken word.

The council then issued the minutes of the meeting setting forth their suggestions. Unfortunately, they failed to send a member of the council to explain that the recommendations which were issued were not final or dictatorial, but were intended to aid the fraternity in its planning.

When this list of recommendations was read to the ADE, its members were highly incensed at what they thought to be a high-handed attempt to restrict their activities. They immediately voted to drop the assembly, feeling that by the time they had convinced everyone that they had no malicious intent it would be too late to act, and that the recommendations of the council were entirely to restrictive.

Sincerely,
Frank Fultineer,
Vice-President,
Alpha Delta Epsilon

Fore sang "Peggy O'Neil", accompanied on the piano by Clarence Maze; Alice Anna Griffith and Patty Hardman played a piano duet, "Heart and Soul".

Refreshments were served to the following members: Elaine Bell, Betty Sue Sims, Bernard Jolly, Charles Ray, Clarence Maze, James Scott, Ruby Ann Cromwell, Frank Fultineer, Freda Peters, Willadean Clarkson, Alice Ann Griffith, Patty Hardman, Vanda Bird, Jean Fore, Peggy Shores, Billy Radcliff, Beulah Beckner, Mary Helen Somerville, and the sponsor, Professor Butcher.

Holy Roller Court

Officers have been nominated to serve in the Holy Roller Court in the year of 1953-54. Those nominated, to be elected this week, include:

Judge—Richard Barrett, Ronald Butcher, Maurice Buck, Bernard Jolley, and Don Merriman; Clerk—William Rumbach, James Watson; Sheriff—Marlin Snyder, Lewis Hinkle.

Treasurer—Bernard Jolley, Maurice Buck; Defense Attorney—Don Merriman; Prosecuting Attorney—Joe Romano, Raymond Oxier; Custodian—Oliver Hunt, Ervin Hull, and Lewis Hinkle.

Judge Carl Galgani wishes to express his appreciation to all concerned in making this year's Court Dance a success. Galgani wishes, on behalf of the entire Holy Roller Court, to especially thank the girls of the Kappa Chi Kappa and Xi Beta Tau sororities.

Kappa Sigma Kappa
New officers of the Kappa Sigma for the 1953-54 school year took their oaths of office and were formally installed at the last meeting.

A motion was heard and carried to go on the annual picnic with the Holy Roller Court. A committee was named to work out details with a court committee. Special honors were bestowed upon Dan Hall and Bob Duffield.

Sigma Tau Gamma

Final plans are now being made for the annual Sigma Tau Gamma spring picnic to be held at Lake Riley this week-end. President Bob Milligan announced.

Formal installation of new officers was held at the last meeting of the fraternity and the new leaders took over this week.

The fraternity received an announcement of the graduation from Air Force training school from alumni member Charles Marks, a graduate with the class of 1952.

Dr. Turner Attends Audio-Visual Meet

Byron J. Turner, audio-visual instructor, Glenville State College, attended the Fourth Annual Spring Conference of the West Virginia Audio-Visual association at the Lincoln Junior high school in Charleston, Saturday, April 25. The program, arranged by Miss Virginia Kelly, Kanawha county audio-visual director, included discussions and demonstrations of audio-visual materials and techniques.

Membership of the W. Va. Audio-Visual association includes county directors of audio-visual instruction, members of the state department of education, college teachers, public school teachers and administrators, members of the audio-visual distributing companies, and others who are interested in this field.

The next meetings of the association will be held with the West Virginia Education Association regional meetings in Clarksburg, Parkersburg, and Huntington, next fall.

The trip to Sutton on May 7 was canceled.

JOBS ARE OFFERED

Applications for two jobs in the student union are now being taken by the student council, president-elect Paul Lanham announced.

The first position is for manager of the union during the summer months, and the second is union head for the 1953-54 school year. Applications should be handed in to members of next year's student council.

Glenville State Commuters Form Campus Organization

Commuters of Glenville State college are organizing a club, having submitted their constitution to the student council for approval in voting to be held this week.

The organization is being started for the purpose of promoting a better feeling between students living on campus and the commuters. Another purpose of the club is to provide a social life for the off-campus students.

Officers of the club are Jack Cawthon, president; Bill Stanley, vice-president; Josephine Fidler, secretary; William Boggs, treasurer; and Elton Woofler, parliamentarian.

Of the 109 commuters enrolled at Glenville State, 34 are members of the club. Several other students have expressed a desire to join.

In speaking of the Commuters club, Jack Cawthon said, "It will give the commuting students a better chance to be in campus affairs." He also said that it would be an active club when it is fully organized.

Dr. Byron Turner Will Teach New Courses in Summer Term

Science 321, Science for Teachers, and Education 338, Audio-Visual Education, will be given during the first summer term at Glenville State college this year. Credit in these courses may be applied toward a degree or for renewal of certification.

Science for Teachers is a non-technical course and is designed to help elementary teachers learn how they can teach science in the elementary schools. This is an elective course in science which supplements the regular courses in general biological and general physical science.

Audio-Visual Education is an introductory course in the use of Audio-visual aids to learning. Practice in the use of different audio-visual techniques and in the use of audio-visual equipment will be included in this course.

Dr. Byron J. Turner will be the instructor for both courses.

Bob Hardman Is Highest Scorer in Wave History

Hooks' 1894 Points Give Former Pioneer Tops Total

Bob "Hooks" Hardman, the brilliant-shooting forward who led Glenville to their last conference title in 1951, is the highest scoring basketball in Pioneer history according to the recent research program carried out by the Mercury sports department.

Hardman scored 1,552 conference points during his four year stay at Glenville, 230 points in tourney play and a career total of 1,894 points, all being tops in their respective departments.

"Hooks" averaged 20.8 points per game during his junior and senior years and scored 110 points in playoff competition in 1951 which is also an all-time Glenville record.

Only four other Glenville athletes boast a career total of at least a thousand points. Al Lilley (1936-39) had 1,366, Lennie Spencer (1940-43) scored 1,259, Jess Lilly (1942-48) posted 1,166, and Bob Davies (1936-39) just cleared the mark with 1,073. Jack Tennant, Glenville's most recent basketball luminary, is certain to go over the thousand point mark early in the 1953-54 campaign. "Dynamite" Jack has scored 977 points during his first two seasons as a Pioneer.

Hardman has scored the greatest number of points ever scored by a Glenville man in a single game with his sparkling 45 point total against Morris Harvey on January 30, 1951. "Hooks" also holds the second highest total, also scored at the expense of the Eagles, with 40 points in the 1949 tournament at Buckhannon. Tennant's 39 points against Beckley on January 10 of this year is the third highest number of points scored in a single contest.

The fantastic Hardman holds the highest total points for two, three, and four consecutive games. His two game total is 69 points, 97 points for three games, and 121 points for four consecutive titles, all of these records established during his greatest scoring season, 1951.

Tennant has equalled Hardman's elusive marks in two departments, consecutive games scoring 20 or more points, and consecutive games scoring in double figures. Tennant scored at least 20 points in 6 straight encounters in 1953, duplicating the feat established by Hardman in 1951. Tennant scored in double figures in 19 consecutive games, covering the 1952 and 1953 campaigns, matching the figure set by Hardman during the 1948 and 1949 seasons.

Tennant erased two marks previously held by Hardman during the 1952-53 season by scoring 471 points in conference play and an over-all total of 516 points.

Lennie Spencer, one of Nate Rohrbough's greatest, averaged 25.2 points per contest during the abbreviated 1943 season to hold the standard in that department. It is an oddity that in 1943 Spencer became the first Glenville player to average over 20 points for a season.

Since 1914, Glenville basketball units have won 412 games and lost 191, and this includes state and national tournament competition. In strictly conference play, the Pioneers have won 285 games against 121 setbacks for a .688 percentage. At the state tourney in Buckhannon, the White Wave has won 25, as against 10 defeats, and at the national play-offs in Kansas City, the G-Men have emerged victorious five times in eight outings, high-point coming in 1939 when the Pioneers won four out of five for third place honors.

Only one conference team, West Virginia Tech, holds a series edge over Glenville. The Golden Bears boast a 17-11 margin in a series originating in 1925. Against all other state teams the Pioneers show a definite margin. Against Alderson-Broaddus, the Wave holds a 32-15 edge, 9-3 over Beckley, 25-14 against Concord, 20-8 with Davis & Elkins, 28-15 over Fairmont, 30-10 with Morris Harvey, 14-4 with Potomac, 29-13 against Salem, 4-0 over Shepherd, 28-19 in competition with Wesleyan, and 27-6 over West Liberty.

Nationally, the G-Men have faced some of the toughest competition in the tri-state area, the most publicized series being played against the powerful Duquesne University five. The Ducks were one of the nation's "big-time" court powers when they played the Glenville team in 1941 and 1942. In '41, the Pennsylvania quintet

By MAURICE BUCK

Rain continues to drown the chances of the Pioneer baseball team, with double headers continuing to pile up, making it impossible for Coach Carlos Ratliff to get maximum use out of his stalwart right hander, Bob Poole.

Poole has had an impressive start this year. The sophomore hurler has a 2-0 mark, having pitched 19 innings, given up 4 hits, one run and 3 bases on balls while striking out 27. No pitcher in the conference can boast such a record. The big lad has pitched the only shut-out in the conference this far, a 10-0 whitewashing of Salem.

Behind Poole the G-Men have played fine baseball, both at the plate and in the field. Leading hitters have been Paul Lanham, Ed Tekieli, Dan Hall, Joe Riddell, and Poole himself.

In the field, except for the Fairmont game, the Pioneer work has been tops. The infield of George Cook, Ronald Butcher, Joe Riddell, Don Mettraman, and Dan Hall has been air tight behind Poole. Only two harmless errors have been committed with Bob on the mound.

George Cook, freshman catcher, has sparked the infield with his hustle and rifle-like throws to second. George has cut down 5 men attempting to steal so far this year.

Spring sports in general have suffered heavily at GSC. The MAA softball league has been able to get in one game. The WAA league continues to batter around in the gym, an unlikely setting for softball, even of the distaff variety.

was hard pressed to score a thrilling 47-41 win over the G-Men, and in 1942 the Rohrbough-coached five played its way into the national limelight by holding the vaunted Ducks to a 38-37 margin.

Other nationally-known teams that were on the Glenville schedule in the "golden era" were Akron University, Detroit University, Ohio University, Rio Grande, Toledo University, Westminster, Washington & Lee, St. Vincent, Slippery Rock, Waynesburg, and the University of Michigan.

The Pioneers have won three state tournaments, in 1937, 1938, and 1951. In 1939 and 1940, the Glenville team was conceded the state championship and by-passed the annual state classic to go directly to Kansas City for the NAIB play-off.

Diamondmen Will Encounter Bobcats in Return Contest

Simons Beats Brammer, 23-6

Betty Jo Simons' team took a 23-6 victory from Helen Brammer's team in a W.A.A. softball game played in the gym Tuesday night, May 5.

Simons' team took the lead in the first inning by scoring 9 runs. Brammer's team started a rally in the third inning but was stopped after they had scored 5 runs. Simons' team scored 6 more runs in the second and another 9 in the third to lead by a 17 point margin. The game was called after the top of the fourth inning.

Jane Ratliff was the losing pitcher, while Jackie Rastle was credited with the victory.

In the second game, Leona Satterfield pitched Kathleen Quinn's team to a 17-6 win over Virginia Harris' team. Betty Sims was the leading batter for the victors with four runs from four trips to the plate. Sally Waggoner lead the losers with 2 runs. Claire Bowles was the losing pitcher.

Faith Bingman Weds Brent McClung

Miss Faith Bingman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bingman of Creston, became the bride of Brenton McClung, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McClung of Spencer, Thursday evening, April 4, at St. Paul's Methodist church on Market Street in Parkersburg. The church pastor, the Reverend Jennings Fast, officiated at the marriage service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace dress over pink brocade satin. Her hat and gloves were of matching material, and her bridal bouquet was of white orchids.

Mrs. Tony Leon, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street length dress of blue marquisette, pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Harold B. Bingman, Jr., brother of the bride, was the best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bingman, Jr. Mrs. McClung graduated from Wirt county high school and attended West Virginia university. She will be graduated from Glenville State college this spring. She is president of Xi Beta Tau sorority.

McClung graduated from Spencer high school and attended West Virginia university. He is a student at Glenville State college.

All-State Candidate Bob Poole Expected To Stretch Undefeated Record Today

Glenville's oft rained-out Pioneers are slated to journey to Buckhannon today for a return match with the Wesleyan Bobcats. In the first game, played here, the Pioneers, behind Poole's 2-hit pitching, clipped the Bobcats 3-1.

Following this venture the G-Men are slated to entertain the in-and-out Davis and Elkins Senators. Last season the Pioneers and Senators split, D & E winning here, 13-10, and Glenville winning there 9-7.

On Monday the Ratliff nine is scheduled to move over to Fairmont for a game with the Falcons. The Pioneers will be out to avenge an earlier 21-6 mauling meted out by the hard-hitting Fairmonters. The Pioneers, although hampered by rain, have shown flashes of good baseball in former games.

If Coach Ratliff could find a hurler to go with Bob Poole, the G-Men have a chance at the state title, something no Pioneer baseball club has ever won.

Bus. Ed. Students Complete Survey Of Glenville Stores

Members of Prof. Genevieve Butcher's retail merchandising class recently conducted a survey of the stores in Glenville.

Many questions were answered for students by the merchants. All of the students commented on the co-operative spirit of the business people in town.

A complete survey of each store was taken and a layout of the business was drawn by individual students.

The number of employees, best selling seasons, number of markets purchased from, number and types of customers, expenses of operating a business, books kept by the business and advertising were some of the topics discussed with each merchant.

Ratliff's Class Work in Crafts Still Underway

Coach Carlos Ratliff's camp administration and counseling class has been working on crafts for the past few weeks.

The first project was soap carving, with each member of the class doing one carving. Some of the figures carved were ducks, horses, cows, airplanes, rabbits, squirrels, dogs, thunderbirds, penguins, and birds.

After finishing their project in soap carving, members of the class are now engaged in such crafts as paper mache, knot tying, wood carving, and tinclandcraft. Some of the projects the students are making are ash trays, snowmen, clocks, animal figures, spoons, and masks.

The next project to be done is that of measuring trees, buildings, and distances without the use of instruments.

Student's Survey Reveals Library Not Used Enough

In a recent survey made on this campus to discover the effectiveness of training in library use, it was found that a closer relationship should exist between students, instructors, and the library. There is a need for more use of integrated library instruction in the classroom. A library handbook for freshmen would make the use of the library more efficient.

The above needs were discussed by Ruby Cromwell, Jean Fore, Josephine Fidler, and Mrs. Floyd Miller. Jean Fore and Josephine Fidler were asked to give a report on the survey at the Library Section Meeting of the West Virginia Higher Education Meeting at Institute, in April. Prof. Floyd Miller was chairman of the library meeting.

"Training in Utilization of Bibliographic Apparatus and Libraries" was the topic for discussion by the Librarians. Miss Fidler presented the strengths of our present system of library training. Freshman Week Instruction and instruction given as a part of the General Orientation Class gives the students a general understanding of the library. However, it was discovered that students who had taken the Library Science 101 or 221 could and do make more use of the library. They are able to work without much help from the librarians.

Miss Fore presented the weaknesses of our library training. Many students have only a vague idea of the resources available in the library. They do not know where materials are located or how to use the tools of the library. They do not use the library unless definite assignments are made. Too few students enroll for formal classes in library science.

In the conclusion of the evaluation it was stated that when the instructors become more conscious of the students' need for functional training and use more integrated instruction with subject matter, our training will be more adequate.
