James Robinson Withdraws From Re-election Campaign In Astonishing Development

By Jack D. Cawthon

From present indications, this year's Student Council election will be one of the most hotly contested options held in recent years on this college campus.

With rumors of crooked politics and machine voting, and statements of "no comment," this reporter feels almost as if he were covering some national probe.

This is the first in a series of stories to be run by the Mercury in order to present the issues at hand and give the students a better understanding of their campus government.

This week we polled the members of the present Council who are qualified for re-election and got assortment of statements.

The following are remarks of the non-sealer members of the Council:

Ed Tekieli—"I am planning on running for an office in the coming Student Council election."

"I feel that my experience to date with working in the Council, has provided me with an adequate background for work for the benefit of the students."

"I enjoy working on the Council immensely, because I feel that I am accomplishing something for the students."

Steve Rohr—"I shall be a candidate for a Student Council post. I am undecided as to what office it will be."

"Two of the points of my platform will be to utilize the facilities of the new gym more fully, and strive to better conditions at the Union."

Marvin Stewart—"I have no comment at the present time."

John Lazear—"I am not prepared to make a statement at the present time."

One of the surprising turn of events came with the announcement by James Robinson that he would definitely not be a candidate for reelection.

Robinson has long been considered a major vote-getter and his withdrawal from competition may have considerable influence upon the outcome of the election.

Robinson's official statement is as follows:

"No, I will not be a candidate this year. I know my responsibilities as editor of the Mercury have been hampered by my being a member of the Council this year. There were several matters brought up in Council meetings which I, as editor, thought the students ought to know, but as a councilman I thought it best if they did not appear in print. This situation will be alleviated next year when I exercise the right of every student to sit in on Council meetings, yet I will feel free to report on each situation objectively."

Studio Guild Exhibit Placed in Library

Another Studio Guild exhibit will be on display in the college library until Feb. 22. This group of pictures contains twenty water colors, valued from $50 to $100, by Myrie Kelly, who is professor of art at Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Okla. Most of the paintings are landscapes and western mountain scenes.

Following the close of the water color show, a group of student oil paintings from the beginning painting class will be exhibited in the library.

Oil paintings will be exhibited by these students: Charles Casto, "Still Life with Coffee Grinder," "Old West Main," and "Lights Ablaze;" Grace McKissic, "The Church;" "Still Life on Pink Table Cloth," and "The White House;" Jean J. Flesher, "Churches," "Tree and House," and "Remainder of the Past;" Helen Exline, "Wanda," "Flowers," and "Winter;" and Barbara Brannon, "Beyond the Bridge," and "Still Life."

WVIC Tourney Drawings

Glenville's Pioneers will oppose West Liberty next Tuesday evening in the opening round of the 17th annual WVIC tourney at Buckhannon.

The Gee Men, who have won four previous tourney crowns and have a tournament record of 25 victories and 10 defeats, split their home and home series with West Liberty during the 1953-54 season.

The Gee Men won the opener at Glenville 67-55 but lost at West Liberty 68-57.

Drawings were made Sunday afternoon in the office of William B. Hicks, Jr., tournament director, at Fairmont State. Present for the drawings were Rex Pyle, Alderson-Broadbudd, and Squibb Wilson, Fairmont State, both members of the tournament committee; Hugh Bosley, West Virginia Tech, Ralph Brown, Jr., Glenville State, and Sports Writers Bill Evans and Emil Thomas, both of Fairmont.

Beckley and Bethany each drew first-round byes.

The four seeded teams in the Conference include West Virginia Tech, 16-3; Concord, 10-4; Salem, 13-6, and Alderson-Broadbudd, 15-7.

DRAWINGS:

TUESDAY—West Virginia Tech—Shepherd State, 7 p.m.; West Liberty—Glenville State, 8:40 p.m.; Beckley—Bye.

WEDNESDAY—Davis-Elkins—Salem, 1:30 p.m.; Concord—Wesleyan, 3:30 p.m.; Morris-Harvey—Fairmont State, 7 p.m.; Bethany—Bye; Potomac State—Alderson-Broadbudd, 8:40 p.m.

THURSDAY—Quarter-finals will be played off Thursday with sessions at 1:30 p.m.; 3:10 p.m.; 7 p.m. and 8:40 p.m.

FRIDAY—Sessions for the semi-finals have been set at 7 p.m. and 8:40 p.m. unless Salem college qualifies. In this event one (Continued on Page 4)

Lyceum to Present Dr. Edward C. Fuller On March 1 Program

Dr. Edward C. Fuller, lecturer on natural science and human value, will be the speaker at the next lyceum program at 8 p.m. March 1.

A former administrative aide in the Manhattan district atomic bomb project, Dr. Fuller is adequately fitted to discuss the good and the destruction within every invention. He believes that education of the powers and limitations of the new conditions of life created by science and technology is an immediate and vital need of all students today.

Dr. Fuller, a former president of Bard college, is now a member on the faculty at Beloit college.

Remaining in the series of lyceum programs at Glenville State are William and Emily, famous sculptor and painter, coming April 1, and on Friday, April 9, will be the Virginia Symphony orchestra.

CAMPAIGN HI-LITES

Directed Teachers to Give Tests to Area High Schools

Students who are now taking directed teaching and a faculty advisor will visit the various schools of the state and give the psychological examination which is prepared by the American Council on Education. Billy Radcliff and Ray Rardin will also help give the test since they have had experience with this type of work before.

Professors Robert Higgins and H. D. Clark will be working with these students to help get the testing schedule under way. Members of the class, Psychology 317, were to give the tests, but since this class is not being offered this term a substitution has been made to administer the tests.

On Jan. 8 this test was given to the seniors at Normantown high school. The remainder of the schedule is as follows: Feb. 8 the test will be given at Troy; Feb. 9 at Glenville; Feb. 10 at Sand Fork; Feb. 11 at Tanner; Feb. 17 at Sutton, Gassaway, Burnsville; Feb. 18 at Jane Lew and Weston; Feb. 22 at Clay and Widen; and on Feb. 23 at Sistersville, St. Marys, and Middlebourne.

On March 2 the test will be given at Harrisville, Cairo, and Pennsylvania; March 8 at Doddridge; March 9 at Calhoun county and Wirt County; March 11 at Ravenswood, Gilmore, and Ripley; March 15 at Spencer, Walton, Richwood, and Nicholas county; March 17 at Rupert and Crichton; March 18 at Webster Springs, Cowen, and Walkersville; March 22 at Greenbank, Marlinton, and Hillsboro.

No date has been set for the Williamsstown and the Sissionville schools.

STUDENTS APPLY FOR VACATED UNION POST

Student Council President Paul Lanham has announced that the Council is now accepting applications for the vacant post of manager in the Student Union.

Councilman Steve Rohr has been assuming the duties of manager since last Friday and will continue until this Friday, at which time the Council will appoint a new manager for the rest of the school year.

ROOM, BOARD PAYMENT

Final second semester room and board payment in the amount of $77.22 will be due and payable not later than Monday, March 22, according to Lloyd Jones, financial secretary. Payment may be made any time before that date.

Selected Ensemble Gives Five Numbers At Grantsville Club

A selected ensemble of seven voices from the college choir appeared at the Women's club meeting Tuesday, Feb. 16, at the sanctuary of the Grantsville Methodist church of Grantsville. Prof. Harold Orendorff accompanied the group.

Five numbers were offered by the group. The ensemble includes Alpha Lee Coberly, Ella Mary Hamrick, Mary Faith Holbert, sopranos; Yvonne Hart, Wanema Hermiz, altos; and Thomas Reed, Virgil Greenleaf, tenors.

Professor Orendorff sang six solos. Among these were: "The Lord's Prayer," "The Blind Ploughman," and "Christ Went up into the Hills." He was accompanied by Mary Faith Holbert at the piano.

Magazine Collection Sponsored by FTA

A magazine drive is being sponsored by the Future Teachers club. The magazines collected will be distributed to the rural schools in this area to be used in connection with their school work, according to a statement made by the president of the club, Norene Westfall.

At a recent meeting held in room 201 of the Administration building the following program was presented: "A Message to You—Beginning Teachers," Jean Reeder; "Do Teachers lead Happy Lives?" Eunice Beamer; and "You and Your Community," Barbara Marley.

The meetings of the club are held every first and third Thursday. Membership in the FTA is open to all students at any time during the school year.

Glenville State College will mark its eighty-second year of serving the needs of central West Virginia, Friday, February 19. Although no formal celebration is planned for the day, a faculty party tomorrow night in Louis Bennett lounge will commemorate the founding of the school.

Table decorations, tallies, and prizes will carry out the theme of the school's anniversary. Bridge and canasta will be played, and a quiz will be given on the various events of the school through the years. Mrs. Stanley Hall is chairman for the party, and Miss Bessie Bell, Mrs. Howard Chadock, Mrs. Carlos Raliff, and Mrs. H. Y. Clark will assist.

Eighty-two years ago, Feb. 19, 1872, an act was passed by the Legislature of West Virginia providing for the establishment, at Glenville of a normal school branch of Marshall, on the condition that the citizens of the town furnish buildings without expense to the state.

Opened In 1873

Glenville Normal school was formally opened Jan. 14, 1873, under the direction of T. M. Marshall, acting principal. Mr. Marshall was then 26 years old, and attending Marshall college. He was appointed to take charge of Glenville Normal school, but was not given the title of principal because of his youth.

First appointed principal of the school was the Hon. Louis Bennett, who took charge of the normal school at the beginning of the spring term, April 1873.

In 1885 the Legislature appropriated $5,000 for building purposes, at which time the old portion of the present administration building was built. In 1903 the newer portion of the building was added.

Men Live In Kanawha

Kanawha hall was opened to women students in 1916, and was used by them until 1926 when Verona Mabel hall was built. Verona Mabel hall was intended for a men's dormitory, but the demand for rooms was greater, so Verona (Continued on page 3)

Poultry Class Visits Hatchery Tomorrow

The poultry class will take a field trip to the Hathaway hatchery, Ellenboro, tomorrow, according to Professor Warden Lane. While there the class will observe the egg from the time it is brought into the hatchery until it is hatched. They will see the processes involved in grading, candling, setting incubators, and the hatching of the egg.

Professor Lane said that the Hathaway hatchery is the largest in the state located under one roof. It is the only hatchery in the state which has first generation Nichols broilers chicks. This breed, according to Lane, is the most popular breed of broiler chicks among producers today.

Donnellan Elected V. P. by Sophomores

Michael (Ed) Donnellan, physical education major from Lost Creek, was elected vice-president of the sophomore class in a meeting held Feb. 9.

A former member of the Lost Creek Long Horn basketball squad, Donnellan now plays ball for the Glenville varsity team.

He is a member of the Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity and has made several vocal appearances.

Donnellan replaces James Watson, a ministerial student who transferred to Morris Harvey the second semester.

"Without Fear or Favor"

Scanning the pages of past Mercurys, we find that little space was devoted to Student Council elections of previous years. That is, there was little attention paid to the campaigning done prior to the election. We hope to enlarge our coverage of Glenville's most important campus event, the election of our governing officers.

This election has taken on added importance the last few years. Campaigns have been spirited and heated. The student body has found a new awareness of the responsibilities that are assumed by the Council.

In order to make certain the student body comprehends the issues involved, the Mercury has assigned Jack Cawthon to devote his fullest attention to the impending campaign. We are striving to bring to our readers every possible detail that may have a bearing on their vote.

Cawthon's reports will be straight news assignments; the Mercury has a cardinal rule outlawing editorializing in a news story. The paper's policies and opinions will be found on these editorial pages, only Cawthon's reports will, however, contain all the information we can obtain from caucus and "back room" meetings. These reports will be "straight", untainted, and without favoritism.

This correspondent has concluded that he will not be a candidate for the Student Council this year. This decision comes with much consideration and regret. Although we have always been keenly interested in student government, have found that our obligations to our reading public have been hampered by our membership in the council.

As a reporter for the Mercury, we feel it is our duty to the student body to relay ALL the news that is of interest to the college. As a member of the Student Council this year, we failed to live up to these responsibilities. There were many controversial items considered and discussed by the council this year. By their nature, we felt bound to hold them in the strictest confidence in accordance with Student Council policy; but as a reporter, we felt the students should know these astonishing developments that shaped the lives of everyone on campus during the 1953-54 school year.

Such will not be the case during the 1954-55 school year, however. Your reporter will be exercising his prerogative as a student by sitting in on council meetings, obligated only to the students of Glenville State College. The facts will be printed, fall where they may.

The aim of our current campaign is to give the coming elections the biggest coverage in the history of the paper. It is an attempt to aid the student body in electing an efficient, honest governing body. While the final decision rests with the students, the Mercury is obligated to bring all facts to print.

We urge every student to become conscious of the coming election, to enter the campaign with an open mind, and to judge each candidate on his, or her own merits.

It is our opinion to judge each nominee individually, and not be blinded by the fusion tickets which have proved so unsuccessful in the past.

It is within your realm, as a student, to decide the final outcome. The Mercury will contribute to better Student government through its exhilarated news coverage program and printed "without fear or favor." JIM

SIGMA TAU GAMMA: Pres. Robert Milligan reported part of the material for the formal initiation has been received and the rest would be forwarded immediately. He also announced that the formal initiation was held Monday night in Louis Bennett lounge.

Plans were also completed for the movie-mix which will be held Feb. 20 from 9:30 to 12, immediately following the Marietta-Glenville ball game.

President Milligan also read a copy of a letter he had written to the national office. Virgil Greenleaf made the financial report.

HOLY ROLLER COURT: Judge Donald Merriman announced that fraternity pins had been ordered for 12 members of the Court.

Joseph Romano was elected as permanent decoration chairman in charge of decorations for all events.

Plans for the annual "Fun Night" were discussed. Some of the events to be included for entertainment will be a wrestling match between "Grappler" Crum and "Crusher" Hammond. There will also be a trampoline demonstration along with a basketball game between the Court and Kappa Sigs, and also a game between the two sororities, Xi Beta Tau and Kappa Chi Kappa.

Merriman also announced that trophies will be given to the most valuable boy and girl player and the winning teams in the class tournaments, March 2, 4, and 5.

KAPPA SIGMA KAPPA: Pres. Hodge Hissam stated that Danny Hall was congratulated on his marriage to Patricia Hardman in the usual Kappa Sig manner. Also Jerry Glover was accorded honors for undisclosed accomplishments.

Plans were made for a stag party which will be held some time after basketball season. Plans were also discussed for a party in the spring which will be held with the sister sorority, Kappa Chi Kappa.

The fraternity ordered T-shirts

SOPHOMORES DEFENDING CHAMPS

Annual Inter-Class Tournaments Started In 1914 Under Direction of Student Council

The annual class tournament, sponsored by the Holy Roller Court, will be held March 2, 3, and 4 in the old gym. Although officials have not been named yet, Judge Donald Merriman states that he is trying to get officials who are not connected with the school.

Class tournament play dates back to the ancient year of 1914 when it was sponsored by the Student Council. Those were the days when girls were noted for their ruffles and lace, and girls playing basketball (a sport for men only), just wasn't a custom. Therefore, the tournament was held for the boys of the different classes, with the girls furnishing the "ahs" and "sighs" from the sidelines.

The 1914 tournament consisted of a series of games, much on the same principal of the World Series, with the exception that four teams participated. The seniors' record in the tournament was marred by only one disappointing loss to the inspired freshman team. However, in the finale it was the seniors noosing out the Freshmen by a close score.

Tierney Trophy

It was at this tournament that a local druggist, James A. Tierney, introduced the "Tierney Trophy" which was to be passed on to the winning team each year. The trophy was a silver loving cup which exchanged hands for a number of years and then mysteriously disappeared.

In 1915 inter-class play, the highly-experienced sophomore team won the trophy after a swirling victory over the first-year men.

No record can be found of class play from 1915 until 1922, when the seniors carried away the laurels after having downed the mighty junior boys.

In 1923 it was a tight contest all the way with the series ending in a two-way tie between the seniors and juniors. In the tie-breaking game the experienced seniors showed their superiority by downing the faltering juniors.

Again there is no record of further tournament play until 1930 when the style changed from the series of games to the regular three game match of the present time. The sophomores, after a previous win over the seniors, edged out the inexperienced freshmen 36-32.

Seniors Win
In March of 1934 the seniors managed to deflate the juniors 45-39 after having overwhelmed the sophomores in the semi-finals 48-37.

In the 1936 tournament the fighting sophomores, after taking the seniors 42-21, engaged the frosh in the finals. Jumping off to a fast start, the second year men were able to hold the freshmen scoreless the first quarter, enabling them to take the game 38-33.

In tournament play the following year we find the girls coming upon the sports scene and demanding equal suffrage for themselves. However we still find some dissension in the line-ups as freshmen girls won over the sophomores by a default as a result of an ineligible player. At the same time the frosh boys made a clean slate by downing the juniors.

Girls Idle

The girls were so disappointed over the ineligible ruling that they didn't return to the "hardwood tournament" until 1946. In the meantime the seniors overcame the juniors 66-58 in 1938.

The freshmen edged out the older seniors in 1940, 61-50.

Tournament play was discontinued during the war years but came back strong in 1946. For the second time the girls gained enough courage, by combing classes, to engage in cage play. The frosh-soph girls ganged up on the Jun-sen team and went on to victory, 25-8. In other action, we find the second year men taking the classy seniors 54-35.

The girls thought it more romantic to cheer their favorite boys to victory than to perform in 1947. The juniors edged out the first

Campus Friendliness Same As 1949 Says Dean Higgins

DEAN ROBERT HIGGINS

By Freda Peters

"While attending Glenville State College, I thought it was the friendliest campus in the state" declared Professor Robert Higgins, new Dean of Men. "As a teacher of Glenville State College, I still feel the same way."

Dean Higgins has replaced Prof. Gordon Kingsley, who left during the summer of 1953. Since Prof. Higgins did not arrive until February 1, Prof. Stanley Hall assumed the duties of Dean of Men during the first semester.

Professor Higgins was graduated from Glenville State College in 1949, with an A. B. degree; from George Peabody college for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn., in 1950; and he was working on his Ed.D at the Indiana university before returning to Glenville.

When Dean Higgins writes his thesis, he will have completed his work for his Ed.D. His major fields of preparation were English, social studies, guidance, and psychology.

After graduating from Glenville State College, he taught English and social studies at Smithfield school, Wetzel county. For two years he was assistant professor of psychology and director of testing at Westminster college, New Wilmington, Penn. At Indiana university, he was a teaching associate.

Prof. Higgins is a member of two national fraternities: Phi Delta Kappa and Kappa Delta Pi, both honorary educational fraternities.

"Several changes have been made in the physical plant of Glenville State College," stated Dean Higgins when asked about the improvements of the college. "The new health building is a wonderful improvement. Also, the renovated auditorium is a great change. When I attended the college, the offices were used for class rooms."

Members of the faculty who taught Prof. Higgins when he attended Glenville State College are Professors Bessie B. Bell, Hunter Whiting, Stanley Hall, Espy Miller, Byron, Turner, James Jones, and H. Y. Clark.

He was asked to read the constitution after the reading.

Marietta Ends Home Season Here Saturday

G-Men End League Campaign Friday Against Senators

Marietta's power-laden Pioneers move into Glenville Saturday evening to ring down the curtain of the 1953-54 basketball season before what promises to be the largest gathering of the year.

The Marietta quintet, currently leading the Ohio conference, has won their last 13 games at this writing and have a 14-1 season mark. Coached by a former Glenville athlete, Bill Whetzel, the Ohio Pioneers are regarded in some circles as the finest quintet in the Tri-state area. Sparked by fabulous Mark "Buzzy" Davis, Marietta has scored over a hundred points three times this season and have a seasonal game average of better than 85 points.

Ohio Gunner

Davis is one of the leading scorers in small-college circles, averaging almost 25 points a game. Aiding Davis are Tom Green and Nick Dan, both averaging over 14 points per contest.

Last season the Ohioans overpowered the Gee Men 68-63 in a game played at Marietta.

Prior to the Marietta tilt, the Gee Men will play Davis Elkins Friday night at Elkins in the final league encounter for both teams.

The Senators, lightly-regarded as the season began, have been a big surprise in their drive for a seeded berth in the conference play-off at, Buchanan.

Gee Men Hit Stride

The Elkins five outlasted the Wave in an earlier encounter at Glenville 65-61 in a contest the Gee Men wanted to win very badly. Following the clash with D & E, the Pioneers hit their stride and have won six of the 11 games they have played since then.

"Dynamite" Jack Tennant continues his great comeback after a slow start. Over the last seven encounters, Glenville has won four of them. Tennant has tallied 150 points, close to 22 points a game. More astounding is the fact that Tennant has shot only 108 times from the floor, hitting on 48 for a fabulous 44 per cent. Tennant, who many people still hope will crack Hardman's career total of 1,894 points, has scored on 83 per cent of his attempts from the charity line in the last seven games. Tennant's seasonal total is now 369 points, an average of 17.6 per game. "Dynamite" Jack's career total is now 1,346 points, an average of 17.5 for the 77 games he has played as a Pioneer. Tennant is just 20 points short of the 1,366 points scored by Al Lilley, Glenville's second ranking all-time scorer.

Freshman Find

Bill Reit, Glenville's freshman find, ranks second in the Pioneer scoring parade with 224 points, an average of 10.7 points a game. Reit is tied with Don Merriman for the team leadership in field goal percentage with 59. Reit leads in foul shooting, connecting on 77 per cent of his attempts.

Harry Smith continues his domination of the field in the rebounding department with 127, averaging six per contest. Don Merriman is second with 83.

Tournament play in 1948 found the girls returning to the cage game to stay (apparently). The frosh girls were crowned champions of the women's division by outclassing the juniors 36-24. In the men's division, a high-geared sophomore team outshot a scrappy frosh five 53-45. At this meeting of inter-class play, the sportswriters selected an all-tournament team for both boys and girls.

In 1953 the frosh made a clean sweep of tourney play. The girls exploded in the fourth period to down a confident junior team 26-21. The boys, after being tied up at 53-53 with five minutes of playing time remaining, rose brilliantly to the occasion and defeated a powerful sophomore five 66-59.

The Frosh also dominated all-tournament selections as they gained six berths on the honorary team, and also had two selected as the most valuable players—Danny Hall and Jackie Rastle.

Fighting from behind a 17 point deficit at the halftime, Glenville's upset-minded Pioneers staged a whirlwind finish at Philippi Saturday night only to bow out in the final seconds 88-83 to third-place Alderson-Broadus in one of the most controversial games of the season.

Bill Reit, Harry Smith, and Don Merriman fouled out in the contest that saw the visiting Pioneer five charged with 35 personal fouls, many of them hotly-disputed. Despite the obstacles, the dead-game Gee Men ran roughshod over the Battlers during the final two sessions, outscoring the Philippi crew, 48-36.

Fouls Decide Issue

The game marked the second time this season that the Gee Men have outscored A-B from the floor. In the first encounter at Glenville, the Wishermen scored 22 times from the floor to the Battlers' 21 two-pointers. A-B's 80-68 margin was gained at the foul line where they countered on 38 of 51 attempts. Glenville has 37 personal foul infractions called on them, high for the season.

Saturday was much the same story as the Wave tallied 29 field goals to A-B's 26. Once again the winning margin was made from the free-throw line where the Battlers hit on 36 of 56 attempts.

Glenville Comeback

Trailing 52-35 at the half, the Pioneers completely dominated the play the remainder of the game, outscoring the highly-touted home forces 23-20 in the third session and 25-16 in the final canto.

Over the final ten minutes the Battlers scored the grand total of three field goals, two of them by Carl Hartman who led both teams in scoring with 32 points, 12 from the free-throw line.

"Dynamite" Jack Tennant led the Pioneer scoring parade with 22 points raising his season's total to 369 points. The "Fairview Flash" hit on six of only 13 field goal attempts and 10 out of 13 from the free-throw line.

Billy Reit pushed home seven of his 13 field goal tries and four foul shots for 13 points. Pivotman Harry Smith was the only other Glenville man to hit double figures, scoring 11.

As a team, the Gee Men scored on 29 of their 61 attempts from the floor and had 25 out of 37 foul tries.

College Founded

Mapel was given over for women and the men lived in Kanawha hall. In 1937 Louis Bennett hall was opened. Since then men have resided there, and Verona Mapel and Kanawha hall have been used by women.

In 1921 the old gym was built; 1927 the President's home; 1942 the Science hall; 1951 the Health and Physical Education building was dedicated.

March 4, 1931, marks the date when the name of the school was changed by the Legislature to Glenville State Teachers College. The college became a four year school.

Hoosiers, Bears, Bullets Tied for Lead in MAA

By JOHN CUTLIP

The rebounding Hissam's "Hoosiers" knocked Bokovitz's "Bears" out of the unbeaten ranks in the Feb. 4 meeting of the MAA hardwood teams. The "Hoosiers" were just able to squeeze by the hard-pressed "Bears" 32-31. The "Hoosiers" depended on a tight defense to stop the sharp-shooting "Bears." Hissam had big Don Deal in the game who garnered nine points with "Jumpin' Jack" Sizemore hot on his heels with eight. The losers were paced by Danny (Lightin') Hall who poured in 11 points.

In the high scoring game for the evening, Simon's "Samples" took the measure of Short's "Shoosters" 58-35. The highly-inspired "Samples" held the hapless Short men to a mere 11-point second half while burning the bucket with 22 points for their effort. The "Samples" held a 12-point margin at half time and gained 11 more in the second frame. Copley and K. Rardin were the big guns for Simon as they poured in 22 and 21 points respectively. Lazier also came through with 13 for the winners while Short was high man for the losers with 10 followed by Crum's nine.

Hyer Attacks

Buck's "Bullets" put on a second half spree to nose out Davis' "Dare Devils" 33-32. The "Dare Devils" held the "Bullets" to 15 points the first half while gaining 22 for their own. But the determined "Bullets" were not to be denied, and came jumping back into the second half, netting 18 points while, with great defensive skill, they held the Davis-men to 10. The "Bullets" were led to victory on the scorching of the hoop by "Jumpin'" Tom Hyer who tossed in 15 points. Scoring for the "Dare Devils" was pretty evenly spread with Barker spearheading with eight followed by Davis with seven.

Quakers Rally

Hamon's "Bulldogs" gained a 2 point half time advantage but could not hold out as the Craig "Quakers" came striking back to win the decision 33-30. Rhumbach proved to be the undoings of the Hamonmen as he led the scoring parade with 17, which was more than the rest of his teammates scored. The "Bulldogs'" scoring threat was well balanced, but their defense was no match for the onsurging "Quakers." Stewart was high for the Hamonmen with nine while R. Rardin rang the bell for seven.

BOKOVITZ	3	1
HISSAM	3	1
SIMON	2	2
CRAIG	2	2
DAVIS	1	3
HAMON	1	3
SHORT	1	3

At the beginning of the season it looked as if the two teams to look at in the final game would be BOKOVITZ and BUCK; however, the rejuvenated HISSAM team has won over both of these teams by small margins. With 3 games left to play in league action the HISSAM men will be meeting second place CRAIG and cellar dwellers, HAMON and SHORT. HISSAM has lost only to the hot and cold SIMON team early in the season.

SATURDAY — Championship game at 8 p. m.

Seven schools have yet to win their first tournament title. They are West Virginia Tech, Salem, Concord, all seeded teams this year, Beckley, Potomac State, Bethany and Shepherd State.

Tournament Director Hicks said that no books of tickets would be sold this year for the WVIAC tourney, only individual sessions.

Officials for the tournament will be Sigmund "Red" Mihaleck, of Ford City, Pa., who made a big hit with the crowd last year; Cliff Van Roby and Robert Pence, both of Cumberland, Md., and Paul Vennari, of Beckley.

High School Srs. Invited to Attend Basketball Games

Seniors from Harrisville, Walton, and Doddridge county high schools have been invited to be guests at the Glenville-Marietta basketball game Saturday, Feb. 20. The guests will be seated on sections of the folding bleachers facing the student body.

President Harry B. Heflin has announced that seniors from other schools in this area have attended previous home basketball games.

On Jan. 30, Calhoun county high school seniors attended the Morris Harvey-Glenville game. Representatives from Glenville high school and Troy high school watched the Pioneers defeat Potomac State team on Feb. 3.

Seniors from Sommersville, Weston, Jane Lew and Walkersville high schools were present Tuesday, Feb. 9, during the game between Fairmont-Glenville.

Burnsville, Gassaway, and Sutton representatives were guests during the Salem-Glenville game Tuesday, Feb. 16.
