

Marvin Stewart Announces Candidacy for Council Prexy

Sissonville Junior First to Enter Race For Coveted Office

By JACK D. CAWTHON
Marvin Stewart made the expected announcement this week that he would be seeking the top political office on the campus in the coming Student Council election. Stewart is the first to announce candidacy for the post of president.

In a lengthy statement to this newspaper, Stewart stressed the following points of his platform:

"I have made an extensive study of college unions in West Virginia and Ohio with respect to such facilities as space and activities. I am in the process of formulating a plan to be presented to Dr. Harry B. Heflin for approval. This will be a long range plan, and most of the details have been worked out.

"I also attended a conference at Buckhannon on administration and organization of student unions. Further details of this study will be presented at a later date.

"Union facilities at the present are not large enough to accommodate all of the students of the College.

"Glenville has been termed a 'suit case' college. My experience has been that Glenville offers no facilities other than the physical education building for entertainment. A new student union would solve this problem.

"I have plans for a commuter's room in the Union which will help alleviate present difficulty.

"I will announce more plans and ideas at a later date."

Marvin Stewart is a Marsh scholarship winner from Sissonville high school. While in high school he was active in student politics and scholastic sports. Stewart served as president of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, and as president of the student council his senior year.

While in high school, Stewart, who lettered in baseball, basketball, and football, was awarded two sportsmanship awards—the Tinney trophy for outstanding sportsmanship in football and the Babe Ruth trophy for superior sportsmanship in baseball.

He was also a representative to Boy's State camp in 1950.

Marvin Stewart's political career started early at Glenville State. His freshman year he became a member of the Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity and was a candidate for treasurer of the Student Council.

Stewart lettered in college football but was forced out of play from injuries received in the Homecoming game of 1952. He is now serving as secretary of the G-club, a post he has held for two years.

Marvin acted as president of the sophomore and junior classes and was chosen on the Who's Who list this year. Stewart was a candidate

Faculty Party Held In Honor of GSC Anniversary Feb. 18

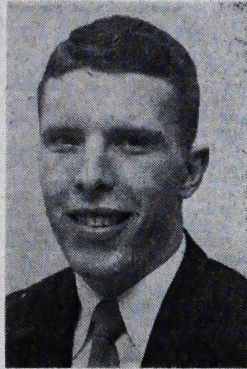

Faculty members celebrated a party in honor of the anniversary of Glenville State College in the Louis Bennett lounge Feb. 18.

Pictures of the early college history, and baby pictures of faculty members were shown.

Prof. Helen Brammer, the high pointer of canasta, won a plate that was decorated with the tower of the college. Mrs. Lorena Arbuckle, winner of bridge, won a similar plate. Since Lloyd Jones was the champion of answering the most questions about the history of the college, he also won a plate.

Refreshments consisted of cake, ice cream, coffee, and tea. The anniversary cake was in the shape of an anniversary book decorated with writings of Glenville State college.

Hostesses were Mrs. Stanley Hall, Prof. Lillian Chaddock, Mrs. H. Y. Clark, Prof. Bessie B. Bell, Mrs. Harry B. Heflin, and Mrs. Carlos Rathiff.

Student Christians Set All-School Mix For Saturday Night

The SCA is sponsoring an all-school mix on Saturday, March 6. "Old MacDonald" William Friend sends the following dispatch:

"Me and my family are a'holdin' a farm-yard frolic at our place (old gym) this comin' Saturday evenin' from 7.30 to 10.30. Everybody can come who has a hankerin' to. We would like for you all to bring one sharpened pencil; this will be sent to a mission later.

"We're plannin' on an entire evenin' of games, stunts, entertainment, group singing, and refreshments. 'Farmers' H. Y. Clark and Charles Martin will set in on the goin's. Student farmers keepin' an eye on the kids are Leonard Tyree and Janet Conley."

Friend is general chairman for the mix.

Kanawhachen Staff Meets Jan. Deadline

Sally Waggoner, editor of the Kanawhachen, announced that the third deadline was met, and that the copy has been mailed to the American Yearbook company.

This deadline consisted of 32 pages, and included group pictures of the organizations on campus, major social events, special honors, and athletics.

Staff members Sally Waggoner, Elaine Bell, Harold Charles Butcher, Genevieve Humphrey, William Rumbach, Jack Cawthon and Maurice Buck have begun working on the last deadline which consists of 18 pages. This last deadline will include the remainder of athletic events, and the advertisements.

Editor Waggoner stated that if work on the last section goes as smoothly as on previous sections, the yearbook will be received the latter part of May.

140 STUDENTS INTERVIEWED

Poll Stamps Stewart Presidential Favorite

By JIM ROBINSON

Marvin Stewart, political aspirant from Sissonville, has established himself as the pre-election favorite to win the presidency of the Student Council on the basis of a public opinion survey conducted by the Glenville Mercury.

One hundred forty students participated in the survey which is regarded as one of the most extensive polls ever conducted on this campus as it included one-third of the student body.

The students were asked, "Who would you like to see as president of the student body for the 1954-55 school year?" Of the 106 students who made a selection 66, or 61 per cent, thought Stewart would make an ideal president.

William Rumbach of Weston finished a distant second with 13 votes, followed by Ronald Godfrey with nine, Donald Deal with seven, Jack Tennant and James Robinson, each

Johnson Picks Asst. Director

Veteran Performer Wanema D. Hermiz Aides 'Foxes' Staff

By WILLARD SMITH

Wanema Davidson Hermiz has been named assistant director for the Ohningohow production, "The Little Foxes," Prof. Ruth Johnson, director, announced.

Having been very active in play production in the past, Mrs. Hermiz is fondly remembered as Mr. Barry's flighty sister in the comedy, "Mr. Barry's Etchings," and for her excellent portrayal of Myrtle Mae Simmons in the comedy, "Harvey." Mrs. Hermiz is treasurer of the Ohningohow players and a member of Alpha Psi Omega.

Other members of the production staff are: stage manager, Bill Radcliff; technical director, Charles Dorrill; business manager, John Drake; publicity manager, Alpha Coberly; photographer, Jack Cawthon; scenery painters, Shirley Chancey, Jean Ingham, Elaine Bell, and Martha White; house manager, Jean Fore; costumes, Bertha Turner and Betty Simons; make-up, Jean Ingham and Diane Pursley; lights and sound, Rolland Coberly; property, Kay Hamrick.

An intriguing drama of greed and revenge, "Foxes" was written by Lillian Hellman and was voted the best play of the year by the New York Drama Critics' circle. In addition to the main performance Thursday night, March 11, a special performance for the high schools in the county is planned for Wednesday afternoon, March 10.

Besides the rehearsals, which are held five nights a week, much of the time has been spent in painting and assembling the stage scenery.

CHARLESTON EXCURSION

Advanced clothing class 302 toured Charleston Feb. 16 for the purpose of selecting dress material and teaching aids for the textile class.

Those making the trip were Clara Mae Hull, Jacqueline Rastle, Kathleen Quinn, and Genevieve Hinder, accompanied by Professors Helen Brammer and Lillian Chaddock.

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

Students who need vocational guidance or help with their study habits are welcome to call for an interview, according to Prof. Pearl Pickens, dean of women, and Prof. Robert Higgins, dean of men.

RABBI LEVY

Noted Jewish Rabbi Now V. A. Chaplin In Huntington

By KATHRYN FARMER

Rabbi Theodore S. Levy will be the guest speaker at the next assembly which will be given March 12.

Rabbi Levy, who is a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., received his A.B. from the University of Pittsburgh and his master's degree from Temple university in 1952.

Now chaplain for Huntington Veterans' administration hospital, Rabbi Levy has served as a student rabbi. In 1949 he attended the encampment for citizenship and the ethical culture interracial project at Fieldston school in New York. In 1950 he served as a volunteer work camper representing the American Friends service committee in Belgium and France in "Service Civil Volontaire International."

Rabbi Levy served as a technician, assisting Dr. Jacob R. Marcus, head of American Jewish Archives at the Hebrew Union college, on the West India Archival expedition. Through

Project Underway For Improved Alumni Directory

A new project concerning the Alumni directory has been started, according to Prof. Bessie B. Bell, chairman of the project.

More than 1,250 questionnaires have been mailed to former Glenville College students who did not graduate.

Files have been completed for former students who were graduated from the Normal school as well as Glenville State college. Lists of the classes are complete. Work is now going on to complete an alphabetical list of the graduates.

This project will make possible the first Alumni directory since 1935.

MENC Will Present 'Finian's Rainbow'

Local chapter of MENC will present a reproduction of the Broadway show, "Finian's Rainbow," sometime in May. Prof. Harold Orndorff, of the music department, has announced that the MENC will finance the show, but the speech and physical education departments will assist in the production. Try-outs for the presentation will be held later, and any student of the college may try out for a part at the scheduled time.

"Finian's Rainbow", a fantasy, concerns a search by Finian and his daughter for a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. His search is complicated, adding many romantic and comical episodes to the story.

Ruth Ramsey Gives Demonstration of Stenograph to ADE

Mrs. Ruth Ramsey, former business college teacher, demonstrated the operation of the new stenograph machine to members of the Alpha Delta Epsilon last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Ramsey has recently learned to operate the new machine. At the present time Mrs. Ramsey is a teacher of business education at Jaie Lew high school. Also she is taking extension courses in business education at Glenville State College.

During the demonstration, Mrs. Ramsey presented the advantages of using this machine. She stated, "Stenotypy offers to the beginner a better and more easily mastered method of recording speech than the old-fashioned pencil shorthand, and to the experienced stenographer a means to advance rapidly to the highest types of secretarial and reporting work."

"Since the stenograph has a unique key arrangement, the speed possibilities are greater than those of speech itself," declared Mrs. Ramsey. She said that the highest record of speed obtained on the stenograph was 383 words a minute, which took a very fast talker.

Child Development Class Holds Party For Kindergarten

Prof. Helen Brammer's child development class gave a party for the kindergarten class recently in the home economics department. This group has been studying the kindergarten children since the beginning of this term five weeks ago. At the party, games and records were played. Stories were read to the group by members of the home economics class. Party hats were made for the children, and refreshments were served during the party.

The activities in which the children participate are used as a readiness for their reading in the first grade. Recently, this group of children constructed a store in their room. They made an excursion trip to a local store to study the way the store was managed.

Many other activities of this type are planned for the group before the end of the school year.

Men Without a Country

Why? That is the question millions of Americans have been asking since 21 American prisoners of the Korean war refused repatriation from the Chinese Reds, with a small "r".

It has been one of the foremost topics of conversation during the past few months, and we are sure a large portion of our readers have given serious thought to the problem.

There seems to be two schools of thought in regard to these red converts. One segment is little concerned and is certain that there has been too much publicity to the group who "probably were bad apples anyway."

The life history of these GI's does not substantiate this thinking, however. While most of these POW's did come from broken homes and families of low income groups, few had experienced previous trouble with society. Quite the contrary, most were introverts and kept to themselves as a rule. Some came from well-to-do families and were quite popular in their social circles. One in particular, Corporal John Dunn of Baltimore, Md., was one of the more well-known students in his graduation class at Baltimore City college where he was preparing for the ministry.

The 21 soldiers represent contrasts that are typically American. Every section of the nation is represented. Minnesota, Texas (three times, of course), Mississippi, Florida, Oklahoma, Maryland, California, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Rhode Island were the home states of these men; there was even a displaced person, Sgt. Albert C. Belhomme, from Belgium.

Sociologists can not even pin-point the trouble to religion, race, or color; all creeds and colors are represented in the ranks of the resistant GI's. Age is another factor to be considered. The majority were under 25, but so were most of the servicemen in the KoWar. Two POW's were older, World War II vets who were recalled to the colors following the outbreak of hostilities in Korea.

There is another opinion on the subject, to which relatives and friends of the POW's adhere. This group believes that the men were doped and easily succumbed to the communist doctrine. If there is anything these 21 men have in common it is their parents' testimony that they were all easily led. These parents regard the men as unfortunate victims of a war of men's minds as well as their guns.

We can not form a clear opinion on just where the trouble lies; we can only feel remorse, regret, and pity for these men and their families. While thousands of American prisoners resisted torture and temptation hurled by the communists, 21 fell before the "brain wash" and became active "pro-gressives."

Probably the most infuriating event came on the last day the GI's could have returned to the fold without the usual desertion penalty. American loud speakers were beamed into the American compound in a final, last minute appeal to the GI's to reconsider their decisions.

When the National Anthem was played, 18 Americans hooted and hollered and sang communist songs in Chinese to drown out the song that thousands had fought and died for. Three men took no part in the demonstration but walked slowly to their huts. What were the thoughts of those men at that moment?

Americans will discuss this for a long, long time. How could anyone turn his back on such a great nation as this? Although it does arouse one's curiosity, all Democracy is not lost because 21 Americans refused to come home from foreign prison camps. There were thousands who gleefully accepted the opportunity to return to their homeland. These GI's were subjected to the same tortures and humiliations, but they never forgot the ideal they were sent to Korea to protect, Democracy.

These thousands are the ones we must remember from the KoWar, not the unfortunate 21 who did not return. Who is to judge them? Certainly not we. They will suffer greater penance as "men without a country."

Elmer Takash Assumes Job As Student Union "Manager"

By Yvonne Hart

Elmer Takach, freshman, has been appointed manager of the student union at a recent meeting of the Student Council. Maurice Buck, former manager who resigned, was replaced by Stephen Rohr as temporary manager until the Student Council could appoint one.

Elmer, who enrolled here this semester, is from Welch in McDowell county. He is a veteran, having served four years with the United States Air Force. He is a member of the Veteran's club and is majoring in electrical engineering.

Takach has announced that the union will be open on Saturdays from 7 p. m. until 11 p. m., and on Sundays at 2 p. m. until 4 p. m., and 7 p. m. to 10 p. m.

Credit will be extended only to those students who keep their bills paid monthly.

There will be no major changes as to helpers, as the same students will continue to be employed. Takach took over his duties Thursday, Feb. 18. He has expressed the desire for helpful suggestions for ways to improve any unpleasant conditions in the union. He said, "It's your union; feel free to offer suggestions as to how it is to be operated."

Frat Chat

By JOHN CUTLIP

KAPPA SIGMA KAPPA: President Hissam reported that 33 active members have paid their national dues into the national office.

Fourteen men received fraternity T-shirts, some also ordered souvenirs for the Easter dance which will be held April 12.

Hissam also stated that sandwiches weren't sold last Tuesday night because of the tournament.

A letter was received from the national office stating that a competitive test would be given to all chapters in the national organization and the one getting the highest score would receive a trophy. The test for the local will be given sometime in April.

Plans for the fraternity party were delayed indefinitely.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA: Formal initiation was held for the new members, according to President Milligan. Charles Mayo, who withdrew from school at the semester, made a special trip from Ripley to attend the initiation.

The final report was made of the movie held February 20.

HOLY ROLLER COURT: Judge Don Merriman announced that Eddie Miller and Joe Bokovitz had been selected as officials for the class tournament.

Avis Partain's dog, "Old Blue," was brought in as an honorary member of the Court.

The men who had ordered jackets received them at the meeting.

FULLER FETED AT RECEPTION

A reception was held in the honor of Dr. Edward C. Fuller, lyceum speaker, after his lecture March 1. Faculty and their families were guests at the reception.

Science department was in charge of the arrangements for the reception. Cookies, coffee, and tea were served. The cookies were prepared by the nutrition class.

Sorority Simmerings

By ELAINE BELL

Kappa Chi Kappa

Kappa Chi Kappa sorority met in the Administration building Monday, Feb. 22, for their regular meeting.

It was decided to change the date of the April Showers dance, which is sponsored by the sorority, to Saturday, April 24 from 8:00-12:00. A band has not yet been selected for the dance.

President Norene Westfall announced that sandwiches would not be sold by the sorority this week, due to the basketball tournament.

Xi Beta Tau

President Nora Ann Kennedy announced that the "Five Knights," dance band will play for the Sock Hop, March 19, which is sponsored by the sorority.

Committees for the Sock Hop were appointed by the president. They are: Wanda James, chairman; Nancy Grose, and Norita Payne; refreshments: Barbara Shimer, chairman, Yvonne Hart, and Muriel Wnaling; advertising: Jean Ingham, chairman, Dorothy Light, and Jean Reese.

Sally Waggoner was appointed captain of the sorority's basketball team which will play the Kappa Chi Kappa sorority on Fun Night, March 18.

US Conservation Offers Summer Jobs to Students

Prof. Warden Lane announced that the United States soil conservation service has openings in Civil Service jobs with GS 2, 3, and 4 ratings. Title of these jobs are student trainee soil conservationist. Salaries for these jobs range from $225 to $275 a month with vacancies in West Virginia and surrounding states.

Students receiving appointments will work during summer months and will be able to secure a leave-of-absence to attend school during the school term. After the student graduates from the college of ag-

From the several loan funds available to the students of Glenville State College during the college year 1952-53, two women and 15 men borrowed money in the total amount of $1,178.86, according to the financial secretary of the college, Lloyd Jones. The loans varied in amount from $25 to $119.62. Counties represented in the loans were Barbour, Braxton, Calhoun, Doddridge, Fayette, Harrison, Nicholas, Ritchie, Tyler, and Upshur. Four loans were made to out-of-state students.

Thus far in the present college year, one woman and 19 men have borrowed from college loan funds in total amount of $1,749.29. The loans have varied in amount from $25 to $150. Counties represented in the 1953-54 loans are Doddridge, Gilmer, Harrison, Lewis, Nicholas, Ohio, Roane, Tyler, Upshur, and Wood. Two loans have been made to out-of-state students.

Loans Based On Need

Names of college loans are: the Honorable Louis Bennett Memorial fund, the Lt. Louis Bennett, Jr. Memorial fund, the Post class loan fund, class of 1926 loan fund, George Firestone loan fund. Total worth of all loans is $5,532.94; of this amount $1,376.24 is now on loan to students.

Loans are made to worthy students on the basis of need, with approved security. Loans, except in rare instances, are not made to freshmen. No loans are made to students who do not have at least a "C" average. Loans generally are on a short term basis and carry interest at the rate of three percent.

In addition to the loan funds already listed, the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of West Virginia has established an educational loan fund from which students at Glenville State college may borrow money for school purposes. Loans from this fund may be repaid over a two-year period after graduation. Loans from this fund carry interest at the rate of five percent. Application forms for Knights Templar loans may be secured from Knights Templar Educational Foundation, Division of the Grand Commandery of West Virginia, post office box 621, Clarksburg.

The Hope Natural Gas company has recently established a loan fund for children of its employees who are attending college. Full information may be secured from the Hope Natural Gas company, Main street, Clarksburg.

Loans from college loan funds are made through the business office by the Loans and Scholarship committee, upon recommendation of the Dean of Men or Dean of Women. As some time is generally required for approval of a loan, students desiring such loans should make plans for such at least two weeks in advance of the time the money is actually needed.

The Honorable Louis Bennett Memorial fund was established in 1921 by Mrs. Sallie M. Bennett in memory of her husband, the first head of Glenville State college. In 1927, Mrs. Sallie M. Bennett also established a loan fund in honor of her son, Lt. Louis Bennett, Jr., who lost his life in France during World War I. The Post class of 1923 made a gift to be used as a loan fund, and the George Firestone loan fund was established in 1938 in honor of George Firestone, who for more than 43 years was janitor at the college. Funds were provided by Mr. Firestone who had made provision for the loan fund before his death.

Music Students Visit Morgantown To Participate in MENC Meeting

Glenville State College music students visited Morgantown Feb. 17, 20 and took part in the annual state music conference of the West Virginia Music Educators' association. The meeting was held at West Virginia University.

Those who attended from the college were Ella Mary Hamrick, Fred Batton, Kay Mullins, Dolores Black, Mary Faith Holbert, Roland Coberly, Alice McCullough, Karen Kinney, Forrest Cunningham, Doris Marks, Paul Love, and Jack Kaufman. Prof. Bertha Olsen and Prof. Harold Orendorff also attended the conference.

While in Morgantown, the students attended clinic band workshops, a choral workshop, a brass clinic (trumpet, french horn, and trombone), a woodwind clinic, a string clinic, and a percussion clinic.

The clinic band workshops were conducted by Glen Bainum, who was director at Northwestern university for 27 years. This workshop included bands from Morgantown junior high school, and West Virginia university concert band.

The choral workshop was conducted by Don Craig, who will be All-State high school chorus conductor at Fairmont April 7-9. All-State college orchestra was conducted by Mylan Smyers from West Virginia Tech.

The faculty of the University presented a recital Wednesday night. On Thursday, there was an All-State college orchestra concert, in which Karen Kinney, Alice McCullough, Forrest Cunningham, and Kay Mullins participated. A concert by the University music department, which consisted of the University community chorus and orchestra, and the University concert band, climaxed the meeting Friday night.

Class Tourney Semi-Finals Thursday Night

Champs to be Crowned Friday Following Championship Tilt

The annual class tournament, which opened last night, promises some brilliant basketball entertainment with many of the classes sporting star-studded teams. Competitive spirit rages high with every player determined to do his best to win the crown for respective class.

At the end of Friday night's games, the Holy Roller Court will present a trophy to the winning teams, and to the most valuable boy and girl player. Last year the freshmen completely dominated the tourney by winning both the men's and the women's games. Two freshmen were also selected as the most valuable players, Danny Hall and Jackie Rastle, along with six players being placed on the all tournament teams.

Robinson Mentor

The sophomore men's team will be coached by veteran mentor, Jim Robinson, who drilled his charges through a tournament victory last year. Coach Robinson has chosen "Ed" Tekiel to captain his team. Back to try to retain his title as most valuable player is Danny Hall. Other men named on the roster are Eob Weaver, Kenna Rardin, "Ed" Donnellan, Tom Hyer, John Lazier, Bill Crum, and Don Hamon.

The sophomore women will be in charge of player-coach Jackie Rastle. Rastle is expected to give another outstanding performance in trying to retain her "most valuable player" crown. Coach Rastle has named Jane Ratliff captain of the team. Other girls on the roster are Mary Lou Clendenin, Patty Hardman Hall, Kathleen Quinn, Edna "Do-Do" Yoak, Velma Higgins, Phyllis Greenleaf, Patsy Smith, Shock, Bradley Coach

The freshmen have come out with a fine group of players who will be trying to make a name in the tournament records. President

Steve Rohr has named Joe Bradley to coach the boys and John Paul Shock to serve as mentor for the girls.

Coach Shock placed Wyene Bush as captain of the girls. The roster also includes Juanita Radcliff, Jeanne Rardin, Martha White, Connie Marley, Shirley Knicey, Jackie Coe, Shirley Chancey, and Gail Boggs. Tennant, Smith Captains

The juniors will be out to cope the crown after two lean years on the hardwood. Marvin Stewart will hold the coaching reins of the boys, along with Jack Tennant and Harry Smith as co-captains. Other men on the roster are "Ron" Godfrey, Oliver Hunt, Roy Cogar, Don Deal, Gail Lydick, Bill Rhumbach, Jack Sizemore, and Frank Vincent.

Dottie Lanham will coach the girls, while Betty Joyce Cooper will serve as captain. The roster also includes Mary Helen Summerville, Joan Dotson, Mary Faith Holbert, Wanda James, Mary Radnabaugh, Mary Ann Judy, Waneama Hermiz, and Mary Jones.

The seniors, rated as underdogs, will try to take home the laurels (Continued on page 4)

GLENVILLE RECORD BEATEN

Battlers Oust Tech, 68-60, for Fifth Crown; Hartman, Rosen Named to All Tourney Team

Alderson-Broadus shattered a Glenville record Saturday evening when they upset Tech's jinxed Golden Bears, 68-60 in the championship battle of the 17th annual WVIAC tournament at Buckhannon. The victory was the fifth tourney crown captured by the Battlers, eclipsing the four won by Glenville.

Although the Battlers were deprived of one of their high-scoring aces, injured Tom Surrent, the Philippi quintet roared back from a third period deadlock to send the Montgomery invaders down to defeat in the tourney that has always proved the Waterloo for other great Tech combines.

Big A-B Margin

The two teams were deadlocked 20-20 after the first ten minutes of play but the Battlers outscored the Techmen 25-16 in the second session to force again 45-36 at the half way mark.

An alert Golden Bear defense held the Battlers to only four points in the third period as the regular season champs rallied to knot the count 49-49 entering the final period.

Hartman, Bush, and Miller found the range again in the final canto and the Battlers coasted home to become the greatest winner in tournament annals, replacing Glenville at the top of the list of all-time champions.

Carl Hartman, the tourney's leading scorer, was the champion's lone representative on the all-tournament team. Dave Rosen, Morris Harvey's great pivotman, was named to the honor squad for the third straight season.

Others named by the selection board were Thompson and Muscareo of Tech, Vandall of Beckley, Witchey from West Liberty, Jack McIntyre of Fairmont, and Dever Lowe from Concord.

The U. S. last year accounted for more than 42% of all electricity generated throughout the world, and coal supplied the power for about half of this enormous generation of 513 billion kwhs.

Pioneers Drop Tourney Opener to West Liberty

Jumping off to an 8-0 lead, West Liberty quickly doused the championship hopes of Glenville's Pioneers Tuesday evening 83-61 in the opening round of play at the 17th annual WVIAC tournament at Buckhannon.

Coach Wisner's charges rallied briefly to close the gap 10-8, but the Hilltoppers started to roll again and quickly stopped the Glenville threat to lead 15-10 at the first period stop.

Koehler's set from the corner made it 16-10 at the outset of the second session, and Reger quickly followed with a two-pointer to widen the Hilltopper margin to 18-10. After Barrett hit on a shot from the keyhole, the West Liberty forces rolled unmoled through the Pioneer defense, outscoring the Gee Men 17-2 over the next four minutes. The streak enabled the Hilltoppers to post a 26-9 margin for the period for a 41-19 half-time lead.

Poor Shooting Average

During the first two periods, the Gee Men scored on only six of their 26 shooting attempts from the floor, and seven of 15 charity throws.

Glenville's play improved considerably in the third session, but the Hilltoppers kept pace and the Gee Men were never able to come closer than 20 points to the Panther quintet. Once again the Wave suffered from their inaccuracy from the floor, hitting on six of their 25 field goal tries.

With their second-stringers seeing much of the action in the final session, the West Liberty crew coasted home although the Pioneers outscored the winners 25-19 for the period.

Witchey The Difference

Myles Witchey, the talented Hilltopper pivotman, was the big difference between the two teams as he scored at random, finishing up the greatest night of his collegiate career with 32 points, 18 coming in the second half.

The sputtering Wave offense hit on 19 of 71 floor attempts and 25 of 38 foul shots. Bill Reit led the Gee Men in scoring with 12 points, followed by Dickie Barrett with 11, and Jack Tennant who was confined to 10 points.

The defeat marked the second successive year the Wave has failed to survive the opening round. Last year the team absorbed an equally humiliating 105-75 setback.

RIMMING THE HOOP. . . The gallery was somewhat disappointing, and if it hadn't been for the Glenville followers it would have been close to an empty house, a situation that will be considered when the loop officials sit down to decide the site of the 1955 tourney. . . Rumors about Buckhannon are pretty strong that the field of prospective sites have been narrowed down to Clarksburg's Carmichael auditorium and Morris Harvey's field house. . . Witchey's point total almost equalled the 45 points he scored against the Wave in two regular season tilts. . . A goodly number of faculty members were on hand for the proceedings, Dean Somerville, Registrar Arnett, Professors Joe Hall and Espy Miller were in the "peanut Gallery", and "Flash" Elder was taking pictures from near mid-court. . . Emil Rubich, an all-tourney selection from W-L last season, was on the Hilltopper bench serving as the team's manager.

TITLE TILT

Bullets and Bears to Meet In Final MAA Title Round

Buck and Bokovitz continue to lead the MAA after six rounds of league play. With just one game left in the league, the main attraction will be the head-on clash of Buck's "Bullets" and Bokovitz's "Bears." Each of these teams have gone through the season losing only one game, and both were at the hands of the upset-minded Hissam's "Hoosiers."

In the coming attraction, Buck will be using an offensive powerhouse in trying to down Bokovitz's defensive spread which also boasts some pretty good scoring sprees itself. Besides Captain Buck, the "Bullets" have such fine players as "Jumpin'" Tom Hyer, Oliver Hunt, and Don Wedekman.

Bokovitz's offensive attack is spearheaded by "Lightin'" Danny Hall, along with Milligan and Godfrey. Much of his defensive play is based around Groves and Evans.

The sixth round of league play was marked by low scores, and the upset of the evening was the edging of Hissam's "Hoosiers" by the cellar-dwelling Hamon's "Bulldogs," 29-28. The "Bulldogs" were able to gain a 10-9 point half-time margin and continued to maintain that lead throughout the game. R. Rardin was the big gun for the Hamonmen as he led all scorers with 12 points. Hissam pitched in 11 for the losers, followed by Sizemore with 5.

In other league action, the favored teams won, although not by any exceptionally high scores. Craig's "Quakers" edged Short's "Sho-ster's" 28-23. Caltrider was the sparkplug for the "Quakers" offense as he raked up 12 points while Crum coped 11 in a losing cause.

Bokovitz's "Bears" gained a 2-point half time lead and clung to that lead as they nosed out Davis' "Dare Devils" 37-35. "Lightin'" Danny Hall, who usually is the big fire for the "Bears", was held to 11, while Milligan surged ahead with 12. Barker was the main cog for the "Dare Devils" as he chipped in 12 to share scoring honors with Milligan.

In the high scoring game of the evening the favored "Bullets" took the measure of Simon's "Samples" 42-38. The usually hot Tom Hyer was held to a mere nine points with Hunt, M. Buck, and Holstein all contributing eight points. K. Rardin continued his mastery of the nets as he pitched in 16 for the losers, followed closely by Lazier with 14.

At the end of the season the captains of the respective teams, along with the Mercury sports writer, will select an all-league team composed of eight players.

for vice president of the Student Council last year. He lost to Maurice Buck by a close margin.

Two new entries into the student political field have been announced this week. Mrs. Olga Pashkevich will be a candidate for secretary of the Council. Donald Deal has indicated that he will be a candidate for a student body office but was undecided as to what office it will be.

Mrs. Pashkevich is a transfer student from National Business college in Roanoke, Virginia. She is a junior and is majoring in business education and English.

She is a faculty secretary at the college and is vice president of the Future Teachers of America and the Alpha Delta Epsilon business fraternity.

Selective Service Applicants Warned Of Mar. 8 Deadline

All eligible students who intend to take the Selective Service college qualification test in 1954 should file applications at once for the April 22 administration. Selective Service national headquarters advised today.

An application and a bulletin of information may be obtained at any selective service local board. Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application immediately and mail it in the special envelope provided. Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 8, 1954.

Results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student, according to Educational testing service, which prepares and administers the college qualification test.
