Sadie Hawkins Day Begins Saturday

Reception Follows Lyceum Featuring Esther M. Doyle

By KATHRYN PARMER

A reception honoring Esther M. Doyle, a specialist in oral interpretation and lyceum speaker, will be one of the final activities during her visit. The reception will be held in the Louis Bennett lounge immediately following the lyceum program which will be held tomorrow at 8 p. m.

Shirley Cross, Jeanette Prather, and Prof. Joseph Riggs will have charge of the affair. Refreshments will be served by the six ushers who are members of the Ohningohow players.

Meets With Classes

On Thursday morning at 10, Miss Doyle will appear in the assembly program. While here, in addition to her lecture-recital, she will demonstrate methods of interpreting poetry and drama and will discuss speech and drama problems with the students. On Friday she will meet with the Advanced Written and Spoken English and Group Discussion classes at 9 a. m., Voice and Diction at 10, and Shakespeare class at 11 for informal discussions. All students are invited to attend.

Cross and Prather On Lyceum Group

Shirley Cross and Jeanette Prather have been named to the lyceum committee according to Prof. Joseph Riggs, director of the lyceum. Miss Bertha Olsen is also a member of the committee.

Each year a committee is selected to choose and direct the lyceum programs for the following year. The committee is made up of two students and two faculty members, one of which will be the director of the speech department.

'ARSENIC AND OLD LACE'

Success of 1950 Production Recalled by Cast, Students

"Arsenic and Old Lace", the Ohningohow production to be given on Dec. 3, is the same play they gave on Jan. 12, 1950.

From the information received from various people on the campus who were here in 1950, the play was a huge success.

Byron McKnight had the role of Dr. Einstein in 1950. This year he is playing the part of a policeman. Byron said that in 1950 the play received five curtain calls, which up to that time was the most any play had ever received.

Edsel Ford, who was connected with the play in 1950, said that the

LB Residents May Have PA System Soon

Residents of Louis Bennett hall may have the convenience of being called to the telephone by a public address system if plans now under consideration by the Student Council materialize.

On the motion of Daniel Dobbins, the Council is checking with the college maintenance department about the possibility of constructing an enclosed telephone booth for the telephone in Louis Bennett hall. Dobbins also suggested that a public address system be installed to aid in calling the men to the telephone. William Rumbach, president of Louis Bennett hall, is to present these plans to the men at a hall meeting.

Auditing Committee

The Auditing committee, with Gail Lydick as chairman, has been asked by the Council to set a meeting date for this week to decide on policies to be followed in auditing books of campus organizations. Dr. Heflin is to appoint two faculty members to serve on this committee.

Council President Marvin Stewart announced that the telephone

Representatives At State FTA Meet

Janet Conley, Geraldine Groves, Prof. H. Y. Clark, and Prof. Jewell Matthews attended the state Future Teachers of America conference Nov. 5 and 6 at Jackson's Mill.

Members of both high school and college Future Teachers of America clubs attended the meeting. Ways to have better organizations and things to be gained from belonging to FTA were discussed by the group.

Supervisors To Meet Nov. 19

"Exceptional Children" will be the theme of the Central Area Supervisors' association meeting Nov. 19, at Glenville State College. Prof. H. Y. Clark will give the welcome address.

All the high schools in central West Virginia are expected to be represented at the meeting. Final plans for the meeting have not been made yet.

Ceremonies, Races, Feature Afternoon; 'Stomp' from 9 to 12

By SHIRLEY JAMES

At one o'clock DDT (Dogpatch Daylight Time) Saturday, Honorable Edsel Ford, Mayor of Dogpatch, will issue the official "procleemashun" accompanied by a four-gun salute that will begin the exciting events of Sadie Hawkins Day. Immediately following Mayor Ford's "procleemashun" the dignitaries of the day will be introduced. These dignitaries will consist of Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity members and students appointed by the fraternity. Mayor Ford will preside over the activities in the afternoon.

At 1:15 DDT, the official races and contests will begin and will continue until the big event of the afternoon, the annual Sadie Hawkins Day race, in which the girls of the campus will get their big chance to "ketch" some poor unsuspecting male. Marryin' Sam (Don Deal) will be on hand after the race to unite these unhappy, trapped males with the lucky gals of the day in temporary and hilarious wedlock.

"Weddins" Performed

Two-bit, four-bit, six-bit, and eight-bit "weddins" will be performed, depending on the amount of money available, and the amount of entertainment desired during the

3 Faculty Continue College Visitations

Several northern West Virginia schools will be visited this month in connection with the college visitation program. Prof. H. Y. Clark will go to Williamstown and St. Marys Nov. 15 and to Harrisville Nov. 16.

Prof. Denver Arnett will go to Middlebourne, Sistersville, and Paducah City, Nov. 17. Prof. Asa Anderson will go to New Martinsville and Pine Grove Nov. 18.

16 Named to Minstrel Choir; Individual Acts are Selected

Members of the chorus for the G-Club minstrel have been chosen, according to Mary Faith Holbert, musical director.

Those selected were: Mary Jean Martin, Sue Leech, Delores Black, Lyla Jean Stump, Doris Marks, Mary Dyer, Yvonne Hart, Janice Arnold, William Deel, Thomas Reed, Thomas Howard, Dennon Carr, Jack Kaufman, Thomas Helner, Basil Mullens, and Paul Love.

The chorus consists of eight men and eight women's parts. The group has already started rehearsals.

Several individual acts have been slated, with several more being tentatively scheduled. Among those who will perform will be Rita Pickens, Larry Sergeant, Fred Batten, David Arbogast, and Hong Shik Min.

"The rehearsals are shaping up very nicely," stated Prof. Joseph Riggs, co-director of the minstrel.

Day of Dedication

Tomorrow, without ceremony, the first Veteran's Day will come and pass the Glenville scene without respectful dedication; without so much as a moment's prayer for our forgotten heroes.

Such will not be the case elsewhere in the United States, however, nor even in foreign lands will the occasion go unmarked. How ironic it is that the thousands of U. S. cemeteries in Europe will be well-visited tomorrow while in Glenville, West Virginia, U. S. A., many do not even know the significance of this, a day set aside in honor of our modern crusaders.

Veterans who are saddened and somewhat disillusioned by this apathy, think not of themselves, but of their wartime buddies who gave their lives for their country, only to be forgotten a few, short years later. Our memories must, indeed, be very short.

But citizens of war-ravaged Europe have not forgotten the American GI who left his home to liberate the Continent twice within a span of 25 years. Their respect is deep and eternal; years can never erase that feeling, their political leaders, notwithstanding.

Nor do the ones who sacrificed the most, their sons, forget what a price we have paid to defend this world against tyranny. While most of us suffered only minor inconveniences during the wars, others remember more than rationing, standing in line for cigarettes, and getting "A" coupons for a dollar apiece.

Uncle Sam took good care of the GI's who did get back. Most of them were well-paid for their sacrifices in the form of educational benefits, home loans, on-the-job training, and what have you. Of course, they couldn't give them back the years that they were separated from their loved ones, or the broken homes that resulted; they could give a wooden leg for the one that was lost along the way, but there are some things nothing can restore. But, at least Uncle Sam helped them in every way possible, and he never forgot the fine job his nephews did.

Then, there were the men, mostly below voting age, who never got to use that GI Bill. To them, particularly, Veteran's Day is dedicated. To the forgotten heroes of all our wars, the nation—part of it—takes time out from their busy routine to pay their respects to the men whose sacrifices have made this way of life possible.

To the men of Concord and Lexington, sailors of that ancient wind-jammer, the Constitution, Pershing's AEF, the Marines of Wake Island, and the dog faces who spent a winter in North Korea, this day is dedicated.

On this first Veteran's Day, 1954, we do pay homage to our fallen heroes of ALL our conflicts. We say their sacrifices were not in vain, because our American ideals are still prevalent all around us. The poor kid still gets a chance to go to college, a mill hand owns his own home, people still go to the church of their choosing, and the Republicans do elect a president now and then. There are so many other things, too, still a part of our way of living because thousands fought, and many died to preserve it.

At 11 a. m. tomorrow, the world honors the American GI for his role in history. Their part has been an important one; one that has shaped the destinies of the entire world.

We dedicate this day, November 11, 1954, to you, the American Veteran, defenders of international freedom ever since 1776. JIM

Speakers Visit Retailing Classes

Mrs. Lillian Chaddock, Joseph Riggs, and Robert Hall have been guest speakers for the retailing class during the past nine week term.

Mrs. Chaddock, who is home economic instructor here, spoke to the class on problems concerning buying and the training and qualifications they should possess.

Prof. Riggs, director of the speech department, delivered a talk concerning the use of voice in helping to succeed in business.

Robert Hall, zone manager of the Investors Diversified Service, Inc., was top salesman for the years 1953 and 1954. He recently visited Washington, D. C. as a result of his salesmanship ability. On October 19, he spoke on the art of selling.

These series of speakers were so arranged by Prof. Genevieve Butcher that they would co-incide with the material the class is studying.

OHNINGOHOW INITIATION

Ohningohow formal initiation was held last Thursday in the recreation room of the physical education building. This initiation was held by candlelight in the presence of the old members.

Kappa Chi Kappa

Xi Beta Tau

Wanda Milligan presided at the meeting. Yvonne Hart and Betty Cooper will sell hot dogs this week. The financial report was given and all members are reminded that dues are due.

Frat Chat

By JOHN CUTLIP

HOLY ROLLER COURT: Judge Richard Barrett announced that the Court discussed plans for a turkey raffle but nothing definite was decided.

Plans for ordering pins for the old members was also discussed. Judge Barrett instructed those wanting pins to get the money in for them. Dues are to be paid this month.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA: President James Mullins stated that the Sigma Taus are raffling off a turkey which will be given away November 23 in the college dining hall at the noon meal. The lucky winner will have his choice between a turkey or a ten dollar bill. Tickets may be secured from any member or pledge.

President Mullins also said that the fraternity is going to hold a turkey shooting match sometime before Thanksgiving.

The pledge party was held last night in Louis Bennett lounge. The pledges were in charge of the entertainment with Robert Gainer and Larry Sergeant serving as masters of ceremonies. At the party, the pledges were given the opportunity to present their paddles back to their "big brothers."

Pioneers Lose Final Contest to W-L, 19-0

FRANK VINCENT, SAM BALLATO, J. TENNANT, SHINE IN DEFEAT

West Liberty's Hilltoppers, playing before a large homecoming crowd at Bridgewater, Ohio, struck for two second period touchdowns and another in the final quarter to notch their fourth win of the 1954 season at the expense of Glenville, 19-0.

West Liberty broke a scoreless deadlock early in the second period by driving 60 yards for the first score of the game with Steve Burda capping the drive with a burst from the one-yard line.

The Hilltoppers added another just before the half ended with another sustained 60 yard drive sparked by Paul Reger's passing and the running of Burda. Cross performed the honors this time, scoring from the two-yard line to provide West Liberty with a 13-0 half time margin.

After a scoreless third period, the Hilltoppers recovered a fumble on the Glenville 38 yard line and scored six plays later with Bland going over from the seven yard mark.

Time Runs Out

The Pioneer attack, which sputtered throughout most of the game, had its big opportunity late in the game when the Gee Men recovered a Hilltopper fumble on the two yard line, but time ran out and the Pioneers were shut out for the second time this season.

On the offense, the visitors were completely stymied as the alert Hilltopper defense was well informed on Glenville's most effective means of attack—the Tennant to Tekell pass combination. West Liberty covered Tekell like a tent all afternoon, sometimes assigning two and three men to watch the conference's leading pass snarer.

Vincent, Ballato Great

While the Hilltoppers moved the ball almost at will, the play of Frank Vincent and Sam Ballato was one of the game's highlights. Both Pioneer linemen came through with yeoman performances, and had they not been on the field, the score would have undoubtedly been much greater. It is no coincidence that both Vincent and Ballato are strong candidates for All-Conference honors this year. Their play against West Liberty was merely a repetition of the many fine performances they have given all season long.

Tennant Handicapped

While handicapped by the hard-charging West Liberty line, Jack Tennant played his final game as a Pioneer in fine style. In addition to turning in Glenville's longest run, the Glenville quarterback proved to be Glenville's biggest offensive threat, and kept the Hilltopper defense on its toes until he left the game late in the final period.

CHALKLINE CHATTER. . . The defeat was tough to take for a great many reasons. . . First of all, we hated to see so many fine ballplayers close out their careers with a defeat, but they will always be winners in our book. . . Then, we would have liked to have seen Coach Murin become the first Pioneer coach to crack the 500 mark since Nate Rohrbaugh pulled the trick in 1942. . . The Gee Men suffered a big loss in the second period when "Iron" Mike Snyder broke his nose and left the game for good. . . Sorry, no statistics available. Your reporter has had to hitchhike to Shepherdstown, Gary, and West Union this year, and Saturday his luck ran out at game time—he was stranded in St. Marys. . . Wish we could be here next year, we'll have a winner for sure with all those fine boys returning. . . All of Weirton must have turned out to see Sam "the Man" Ballato. They weren't disappointed. . . West Newton, Pa. was well represented, too, and Frank Vincent played his usual game—terrific.

Final Selections

It was announced that final selection of members for "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities" has been made. The names of the nominees selected have been sent to the national committee, and the results will be sent to the Mercury in early December.

Ronald Godfrey and Shirley James were appointed to serve as members of the Supreme Court. Dr. Heflin is to appoint two faculty members to this committee at a future date.

Dramatics Director

For several years Miss Doyle has done professional and lecture-recital work for the Royal and Redpath Bureaus in Boston. Her teaching experience includes public schools and private studio work in directed dramatics at summer camps and has done summer theatre work. During the latter part of World War II, Miss Doyle was a member of the recreational staff of the American Red Cross Military Welfare Service.

Now At Juniata College

At present, Miss Doyle is assistant professor of English at Juniata college, Pennsylvania, where she teaches speech and play production and directs all student publications. Her tour, which includes visits to several other outstanding colleges and universities, is arranged by the Arts Program of the Association of American Colleges.

ceremony. The exciting activities of the day will be climaxed with the Skunk Holler Stomp, which will take place in the Old Gym from 9 'til 12 DPT. Girls will pay (a cent per inch of waistline—plus tax) and the guys will play at this riotous affair. Marryin' Sam will be on hand during the evening to perform wedding which were not performed in the afternoon.

Cider Drinkin' Contest

At 10:30 (Dogpatch Time, of course) the "tradishunal cider drinkin' contest" will be held. Last year's champs Mary Lou Clendenin and Marvin Stewart will be on hand to defend their title, so be prepared to do "lots o' cider drinkin'."

Sadie Hawkins Day, created by the imaginative Al Capp, has become an annual affair on many high-school and college campuses. It became an annually celebrated event on Glenville's campus in 1947, when it was first introduced here by the Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity. This fraternity still sponsors Sadie Hawkins Day.

Stewart Chairman

Marvin Stewart, chairman of the general activities committee, says that he believes this will be the funniest and most riotous Sadie Hawkins Day ever celebrated on this campus. Stewart urges the entire student body to participate in all the activities.

MAA ACTION

Cliffdwellers Trounce Cats, Take Second in MAA Play

By JIM HAMRICK

Cline's Cliffdwellers took an undisputed hold on second in men's volleyball last week as they defeated Cogar's Cats in two straight games. The Cliffdwellers won the first game 16-14, and then coasted to a 15-10 victory in the second game.

Miller's Millers knocked Mason's Masons out of a tie for second place by taking two out of three games in a hotly-contested match. The Millers rolled to an impressive 15-1 victory in the first game, only to have the Masons bounce back to a 17-15 win in the second game. In the third, and deciding game, the Millers won by a score of 15-7.

McKnight's Knights managed to stay in tie for third place by defeating the winless Mules of Basil Mullens. The Mules closed fast for their first victory by winning the first game 15-11. The Knights took the second game 15-12, and then they had to go all out to win the third game 16-14.

In the only other action last week the Colts of Paul Caltrider blasted Allman's All-Stars in two straight by the scores of 15-6 and 15-8.

The first place Roosters of Bill Reit and the fifth place Weasels of Don Wedekamm were idle last week.

The standings to date are:

| Captain    | W | L |
|------------|---|---|
| Reit       | 5 | 0 |
| Cline      | 5 | 1 |
| Mason      | 4 | 2 |

Faculty Schedules Monthly Meetings

Faculty meetings have been scheduled for the first Monday in every month, according to Dean Delmer Sommerville, who is in charge of the meetings.

The meetings will start at 3:30 p.m. with an informal social hour. Following this at 4 p.m., the teachers will convene and discuss educational problems.

At the first meeting, Nov. 1, Prof. H. Y. Clark discussed the work of the State Teachers Education Committee in so far as developing a revised program of teacher-training. Prof. A. H. Anderson reported on attendance at a meeting of higher education association, which met on the Morris Harvey college campus, Oct. 15; and President H. B. Heflin discussed social security and teacher retirement.

Next meeting will be conducted Dec. 6.

CHAMPS AGAIN

Morris Harvey Wins WVIC Flag by Topping Concord

Morris Harvey's Golden Eagles, rumored to be playing their final season in the WVIC, won their fifth conference crown in five seasons last Saturday by knocking their closest rival, Concord, out of the running with a 25-7 setback at Oak Hill.

The win enabled the Eagles to close out their conference season with a perfect record of four wins in as many efforts. Concord's defeat was only their second in seven league starts for the Mountain Lions, who nailed down the runner-up spot behind Morris Harvey.

Shepherd finished its finest season in many years by blasting Salem 32-6 for their second league conquest and at least a tie for third spot in the final WVIC standings.

Potomac Surprises

Potomac, the surprise team of the conference this season, won their third in league play Saturday by topping Wesleyan 20-0. A Potomac victory over Fairmont next week would enable the Catamounts to deadlock Shepherd for third place on a percentage basis.

Tech finished in conference season Saturday by winning over Fairmont 41-14 in the Montgomery homecoming attraction. The Golden Bears nailed down fourth place by finishing the league season with three wins and two defeats.

W-L Climbs

West Liberty climbed to the 500 mark by blanking Glenville 19-0 for their third win in six league outings. The Hilltoppers will have an opportunity to better their victory total Saturday when they end their season against Wesleyan.

Two conference games are on tap this week with the Potomac-Fairmont game being the feature attraction. West Liberty and Wesleyan also meet in the final WVIC clash of the 1954 season.

Bow Bid for M-H?

Newly-crowned champion Morris Harvey invades Kentucky this week to tangle with out-of-state Morehead. The Eagles, in the running for a post season bowl bid, have won seven out of eight this season. Concord goes to Tennessee to play Maryville in a game that will mark the final appearance of the "Concord Express." Danny Crane, one of the greatest halfbacks ever to play in the WVIC, Crane is holder of many of the loop's offensive records. The Mountain Lions have won five, lost two and tied one.

Tech plays powerful Emory & Henry in their final 1954 game Saturday in hopes of bettering their season slate which now stands at four wins and four defeats.

The standings:

|               | W | L | T | For | Op. |
|---------------|---|---|---|-----|-----|
| Morris Harvey | 4 | 0 | 0 | 124 | 19  |

Judy and Hart Lead WAA Aerial Darts

WAA aerial darts competition began Tuesday night, October 26. Sports Leader Kathleen Quinn has announced that Judy and Hart won 2 games each, while Cooper, Jackson and Lewis lost. Judy's team defeated Jackson by a score of 29-24 and Cooper by a 35-27 margin. Hart's team triumphed over Lewis by a 48-3 margin, and over Jackson by a 40-27 edge.

High scorers for the night were: Barbara Wright, Bonnie Correll, Shirley Chancey, Genevieve Hunter, and Ada Cox.

Officials were: Connie Marley, Jackie Cox, Wyne Bush, Juanita Radcliff, and Martha White.

Phyllis Given, WAA ping-pong sports leader, has announced that ping pong is still in season. On Wednesday, November 2, Patsy Greene and Joyce Bourne won two games, and Jackie Rastle and Martha White won one game. There was a forfeit to Jackie Cox and Connie Marley, and to Genevieve Hunter and Jean Loyd from Eleanor Jacobson and Alice McCullough.

In the first games, Greene-Bourne defeated Barbara Taylor and Barbara Blackhurst by scores of 21-3 and 21-19. They also, with much difficulty, topped Hunter and Loyd with scores of 21-19 and 21-18. J. Rastle and White easily triumphed over Marilyn Rastle and Ada Cox by scores of 21-2 and 21-5.

Group Meets In Charleston

Dean Delmer Sommerville has been notified that the first meeting of the W.V.E.A. School Board Relations Committee will be conducted in Charleston Nov. 22. Sommerville is chairman of the committee.

Pickens Gets Office At English Meeting

Professor Pearl Pickens was elected treasurer at the annual meeting of the West Virginia Association of College English Teachers held October 29-30 at Jackson's Mill.

Other officers elected were Dr. Kenneth G. Weihe, Fairmont State College, president, and T. J. Kalsen, West Virginia University, vice-president.

Presiding over the meeting was Prof. Espy Miller, outgoing president. Problems relating to the teaching of composition, grammar, and literature were discussed in an endeavor to improve English teachers' training.

Other members of Glenville's faculty attending the meeting were Prof. E. B. Elder, and Prof. Carl A. Kerr.

the former Daisy Mae and L'il Abner couples are now married. The first Daisy Mae and L'il Abner were Alfreda Taylor, from Richmond and Dan Rengers, from Portsmouth, Ohio. They are now married and are living in Ohio.

Eugene Lee, Oak Hill and Mary Bagwell, Sand Fork, were Daisy

Mae and L'il Abner in 1948. They are now married and are teaching in Virginia.

In 1949, Alfreda Taylor and Dan Rengers were again chosen by the student body. Robert Motice, Canton, Ohio and Rhonda Ellis, Spencer, won the election in 1950. In 1951, Gerald Cress, Parkersburg and Claudette Hefner, Burnsville, were Daisy Mae and L'il Abner.

Elaine Bell, from Huttonsville and now a senior here, and Charles Ray, from Richwood, were elected in 1952. Patricia Sumpter and Dan Dobbins were chosen by the student body last year. Patricia is now a senior and Dan is a sophomore.

When asked how it feels to be chosen L'il Abner, McKown replied, "It sho' is excitin'". Lorene added that she thought so, too.

Sadie Hawkins Day Begins Saturday

Reception Follows Lyceum Featuring Esther M. Doyle

By KATHRYN FARMER

A reception honoring Esther M. Doyle, a specialist in oral interpretation and lyceum speaker, will be one of the final activities during her visit. The reception will be held in the Louis Bennett lounge immediately following the lyceum program which will be held tomorrow at 8 p. m.

Shirley Cross, Jeanette Prather, and Prof. Joseph Riggs will have charge of the affair. Refreshments will be served by the six ushers who are members of the Ohningohow players.

Meets With Classes

On Thursday morning at 10, Miss Doyle will appear in the assembly program. While here, in addition to her lecture-recital, she will demonstrate methods of interpreting poetry and drama and will discuss speech and drama problems with the students. On Friday she will meet with the Advanced Written and Spoken English and Group Discussion classes at 9 a. m., Voice and Diction at 10, and Shakespeare class at 11 for informal discussions. All students are invited to attend.

Studied Abroad

Cross and Prather On Lyceum Group

Shirley Cross and Jeanette Prather have been named to the lyceum committee according to Prof. Joseph Riggs, director of the lyceum. Miss Bertha Olsen is also a member of the committee.

Each year a committee is selected to choose and direct the lyceum programs for the following year. The committee is made up of two students and two faculty members, one of which will be the director of the speech department.

LB Residents May Have PA System Soon

Residents of Louis Bennett hall may have the convenience of being called to the telephone by a public address system if plans now under consideration by the Student Council materialize.

On the motion of Daniel Dobbins, the Council is checking with the college maintenance department about the possibility of constructing an enclosed telephone booth for the telephone in Louis Bennett hall. Dobbins also suggested that a public address system be installed to aid in calling the men to the telephone. William Rumbach, president of Louis Bennett hall, is to present these plans to the men at a hall meeting.

Auditing Committee

The Auditing committee, with Gail Lydick as chairman, has been asked by the Council to set a meeting date for this week to decide on policies to be followed in auditing books of campus organizations. Dr. Heflin is to appoint two faculty members to serve on this committee.

Council President Marvin Stewart announced that the telephone

PAUL MCKOWN AND LORENE ELLYSON

Ellyson, McKown to Act As Daisy Mae, L'l Abner

By SHIRLEY JAMES

Lorene Ellyson and Paul McKown were chosen Daisy Mae and L'l Abner, respectively, in a hotly-contested election held Monday and Tuesday, of last week at the Student Union. They will be the principal dignitaries at the annual Sadie Hawkins Day celebration, which will be held this Saturday.

Miss Ellyson, a freshman, is majoring in business. She is from Glenville.

McKown, a sophomore from Lookout, is majoring in physical education. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Ceremonies, Races, Feature Afternoon; 'Stomp' from 9 to 12

By SHIRLEY JAMES

At one o'clock DDT (Dogpatch Daylight Time) Saturday, Honorable Edsel Ford, Mayor of Dogpatch, will issue the official "procleemashun" accompanied by a four-gun salute that will begin the exciting events of Sadie Hawkins Day. Immediately following Mayor Ford's "procleemashun" the dignitaries of the day will be introduced. These dignitaries will consist of Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity members and students appointed by the fraternity. Mayor Ford will preside over the activities in the afternoon.

At 1:15 DDT, the official races and contests will begin and will continue until the big event of the afternoon, the annual Sadie Hawkins Day race, in which the girls of the campus will get their big chance to "ketch" some poor unsuspecting male. Marryin' Sam (Don Deal) will be on hand after the race to unite these unhappy, trapped males with the lucky gals of the day in temporary and hilarious wedlock.

"Weddings" Performed

Two-bit, four-bit, six-bit, and eight-bit "weddings" will be performed, depending on the amount of money available, and the amount of entertainment desired during the

3 Faculty Continue College Visitations

Several northern West Virginia schools will be visited this month in connection with the college visitation program. Prof. H. Y. Clark will go to Williamstown and St. Marys Nov. 15 and to Harrisville Nov. 16.

Prof. Denver Arnett will go to Middlebourne, Sistersville, and Paducah City, Nov. 17. Prof. Asa Anderson will go to New Martinsville and Pine Grove Nov. 18.

'ARSENIC AND OLD LACE'

Success of 1950 Production Recalled by Cast, Students

"Arsenic and Old Lace", the Ohningohow production to be given on Dec. 3, is the same play they gave on Jan. 12, 1950.

From the information received from various people on the campus who were here in 1950, the play was a huge success.

Byron McKnight had the role of Dr. Einstein in 1950. This year he is playing the part of a policeman. Byron said that in 1950 the play received five curtain calls, which up to that time was the most any play had ever received.

Edsel Ford, who was connected with the play in 1950, said that the insane nephew was the outstanding character in the play.

Bonell Polling said she enjoyed the play immensely in 1950. She also commented on the acting of Harold Sullivan who played the insane nephew, Teddy. Bonell said he suited the part perfectly.

Julie Stalnaker, who was on campus last week, said it was one of the best plays that she had ever seen here, and that the character, Teddy, was terrific.

Some of the cast in 1950 were Barbara Fuls, Harold Sullivan, Eileen White, Payne Tharp, Lloyd Jordan, and Byron McKnight.

Representatives At State FTA Meet

Janet Conley, Geraldine Groves, Prof. H. Y. Clark, and Prof. Jewell Matthews attended the state Future Teachers of America conference Nov. 5 and 6 at Jackson's Mill.

Members of both high school and college Future Teachers of America clubs attended the meeting. Ways to have better organizations and things to be gained from belonging to FTA were discussed by the group.

Supervisors To Meet Nov. 19

"Exceptional Children" will be the theme of the Central Area Supervisors' association meeting Nov. 19, at Glenville State College. Prof. H. Y. Clark will give the welcome address.

All the high schools in central West Virginia are expected to be represented at the meeting. Final plans for the meeting have not been made yet.

16 Named to Minstrel Choir; Individual Acts are Selected

Members of the chorus for the G-Club minstrel have been chosen, according to Mary Faith Holbert, musical director.

Those selected were: Mary Jean Martin, Sue Leach, Delores Black, Lyla Jean Stump, Doris Marks, Mary Dyer, Yvonne Hart, Janice Arnold, William Deel, Thomas Reed, Thomas Howard, Dennon Carr, Jack Kaufman, Thomas Hefner, Basil Mullens, and Paul Love.

The chorus consists of eight men and eight women's parts. The group has already started rehearsals.

Several individual acts have been slated, with several more being tentatively scheduled. Among those who will perform will be Rita Pickens, Larry Sergeant, Fred Batten, David Arbogast, and Hong Shik Min.

"The rehearsals are shaping up very nicely," stated Prof. Joseph Riggs, co-director of the minstrel.
