Youth Is Invited

"... the people of a college community have a role to play and a responsibility to assume in determining the functions and services of the college that serves them; this, coupled with the belief that the people will respond and will find ways of giving the kinds of help needed when given suitable opportunity" is the essence of what has become known as the Glenville State College Rural Development Conference.

H. Cliff Hamilton, supervisinstruction for the State Depart-ment of Education, has in the above words summed up the mean-ing behind the conference, which will be held April 15 in Louis Ben Written by George Bernard Shaw this play is a mad-cap comedy about an erratic family, the Tarletons, whose household is in a con-tinual uproar. Life is further complicated by the arrival of a would-be assassin, a young aviator whose plane crashes into the Tarleton's greenhouse, and a Polish lady acrobat who is his passenger.

The six men pursue one or the other of the two young ladies pres-ent for the weekend; and, accord-ing to Shaw, the men pursue until women catch the men they really want.

Student Government Fiasco

Since the students of Glenville are no longer interested in governing themselves; since they no longer care under what heads in the sands of unconcern insofar as college government is concerned; and since not one student has shown concern enough to file for office (note the white space on page one) certain VIPS on campus have met, conferred, arrived at a decision, and have asked the MERCURY to reveal this decision.

THEY HAVE DECIDED TO ABOLISH THE STUDIAGE MEMORY AND ORGANIZATION. type of government they live; since they can sit in their political FUNCTIONING ON THIS CAMPUS SINCE 1935.

No longer will students have any say in how the activity fees are allocated; no longer will students be appointed to work with the faculty on social committees, athletic committees, dining hall committees, etc. We have now laid our destiny and the destiny of students for years to come in the hands of an autocracy, a dictatorship in which the adminstration is the ruler and we are the ruled

AND WE WILL TAKE IT SITTING DOWN!

The tragedy of this situation is not that we are no longer to have a Student Council, but the tragedy is that the students won't care much one way or another. Little will be said in Verona Mapel Hall about the abolishment of the student governing organization, but if someone were to take away one of the girls' ten o'clock privileges, the dorm would be in mass hysteria.

Louis Bennett Hall will little note this action, but if the administration would suddenly decide to abolish cars on campus, our Pioneers would picket, strike, and possibly withdraw.

This writer is certain that some will note this announcement. The students who in 1935 worked diligently to set up the Council; the Pioneers who organized the band-playing, parade-giving, hand-shaking, speech-making campaigns that have long since been forsaken in preparation for the Student Council elections will feel a deep regret for the death of their work-laden project. But let them mourn alone,

FOR THE STUDENTS HERE JUST DON'T CARE!

(Were this editorial true, would it affect the students as the writer says it would -- would they adopt the same indifferent attitude that is now present regarding the Student Council election? Or would they finally appreciate their self-governing agency, after it were abolished?)
