115 Seniors Will Receive Degrees In Graduation Exercises

IN A SCENE FROM the final three-act production of this season Rodney Busch, as Signor Ponzia, passionately declares himself while the impressionable Dina, Jane Ruckman, looks on. Signora Frola, played by Patsy Lyon, is the supposedly insane mother of Ponzia's first wife. The skeptical Laudisi, Trent Busch, appears uninterested in the proceedings. All these characters will be seen in the arena-production of "Right You Are" coming soon.

Busch, Lyon Star in 'Right You Are'; Mystery Drama Is Fantastic Finale

A mystery-drama, "Right You Are If You Think You Are," be presented arena-style on the Glenville State stage at 8 p.m. on Friday, May 16, and Monday and Tuesday May 19, and 20. This will be the last three-act production of the spring dramatic season at the college.

The play itself revolves about the mysterious household of Signor Ponzia, Rodney Busch, who is a government official in a small Italian town. The plot turns are startling and fantastic. Insanity and violence mingle amidst humor and eccentricity. It is revealed that Ponzia's wife is locked alone in a third floor apartment.

Signora Frola, Patsy Lyon, is kept a prisoner in the downstairs apartment. Ponzia claims that Signora Frola is the insane mother of his first wife who is dead. Signora Frola claims that Ponzia is mad and that the third floor prisoner is her daughter, still very much alive. The inquisitive townspeople attempt to unravel the mystery.

Signor Agazzi, John Boggs, and his wife, Pat Starky Smith, lend to the investigation. Egging them on is Agazzi's brother Laudisi, Trent Busch. Involved also in the mysterious goings on are Dina, Jane Ruckman; the Sirelli's, Mark Stewart and Gall Ratliff; Signora Cini, Norma Currey; Signora Nenni, Beverly Rogers; Centuri, Jim Marteney; the governor, Eddie McKown; and the butler, Jim Jones.

As head of the music department, Dr. Orendorff will supervise 250 music students. There are 16 faculty members in this department, and a million dollar music building is now under construction.

Before coming to Glenville in 1948 Orendorff had taught in Cowiche and Yakima, Wash.; and Newark, N.J. In 1939 he received his B.A. Degree in Education from Central Washington College of Education; in 1947 he earned his M.A. Degree from Columbia University and in 1954 the same university conferred the Ed.D. Degree upon him.

Commenting upon his leaving Orendorff said, "I meet the challenge with mixed emotions. I've grown very attached to the people here and yet I can't turn down professional advancement."

A Multitude of Little Things

IT IS INDEED embarrassing to bring a visitor into the Student Union, and while you extoll the virtues of the magnificent structure, loudly declaring the advantages of its existence, your guest looks about and asks simply, "But is it always this dirty?"

A GOOD QUESTION indeed. The floor could easily be mistaken for one huge ashtray, judging by the cigarette butts, ashes, matches and paper dropped on it. The coffee tables in the TV room and Lounge section have been used for foot stools — witness: the amount of black heel-marks on them. The curtain sticks have been removed and used for canes and/or batons.

ACCORDING TO Silas Hicks, manager, actual vandalism has been slight. Three chairs have had to be removed from the Union, one with a broken arm, one with a broken back, and the other with a cigarette burn in the seat.

THE UNION is swept once a day, and if necessary, twice a day. Great care is taken to keep the dance floor in good condition, but spilling coke on it is not part of the "keeping up" process. Instead of being stacked in rest rooms or in windows, lunches, books, and sweaters may be deposited in the 80 lockers provided for this purpose in the Union Building.

IT ISN'T THE BIG THINGS that are so important in the appearance of the Union; it is the multitude of little things, most of which are scattered on the floor. We are adults; we know when we have a good thing; we know how to take care of it; when shall we start?

Another Service of CSC

A NUMBER OF SERVICES offered by Glenville State College, other than those of an entirely academic nature, were recently manifested in the meetings of the Rural Development Conference; however, one service that is little publicized, but is of extreme importance to the college is the vocational guidance service that is available to those whom the college serves.

UNDER THE DIRECTION of Robert Higgins, Dean of Men and Director of Guidance, the service carries out a series of testing programs each year, and maintains various kinds of tests that may be administered to students and other individuals upon request. Dr. Higgins is in charge of the college freshman testing program, and it is his responsibility to administer tests for guidance purposes.

THE COLLEGE IS NOW in the process of testing state high school juniors, cooperating with all other state colleges in carrying out the program. Seniors of thirty-eight of our own area high schools have already been tested under the college program, and scholastic aptitude tests have been administered to eight high schools. The latter tests may be given upon request of the high school.

THE CURRENT TESTING PROGRAM also offers to the college service area the G.E.D. test to enable non-high school graduates to obtain equivalent high school diplomas.

A SERVICE SUCH AS THIS should not be overlooked or taken lightly by those to whom it is offered. It is evident that all types of problems are always present, whether they may be vocational, emotional, or social, etc., but expert testing and guidance is yours if you will avail yourself.

Professors Leave GSC

has accepted the position of Chief Reference Librarian at West Virginia University. He will begin his work there July 1.

Miller, associate professor of library science, has been at Glenville State since 1949. Previous to this he had been Junior Reference Librarian at Cleveland Public Library; librarian for the U. S. Army, and County Extension Librarian, Warren Public Library.

Originally from Findlay, Ohio, Miller attended high school there and in 1938 received his A.B. Degree from Findlay College. He then attended Western Reserve University, School of Library Science, and received the B.S. Degree in Library Science from that school in 1940 and in 1954 a Master's Degree in Library Science was conferred upon him by the University of Illinois.

Miller belongs to the W. Va. Library Association, the American Library Association, the W. Va. Education Association, and the Gilmer County Historical Society. He was president of the W. Va. Library Association in 1955-56, and vice-president in 1954-55. Miller is also a member of Beta Phi Mu Fraternity.

Dr. Elisabeth Joan Doyle has resigned her position here to accept the position of Assistant Professor of History at Wheeling College, a new liberal arts school. Dr. Doyle will move to Wheeling immediately following this school term and will begin her teaching duties there in September.

Dr. Doyle, who has been at GSC since the '56 fall term, had previously worked in the Manuscripts Division of the Library of Congress; had been editor-in-chief of the Louisiana State University Press and had worked as historian at Langley Air Force Base. She had also been employed for a time by Coronet Magazine.

Holding B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees, Dr. Doyle received the first two from Indiana University and the third one from Louisiana State University.

Bell Is Selected As Noted Alumna

Miss Bessie Boyd Bell, former professor of history, has been named the "Alumna of the Year," according to Dr. Harry B. Heflin.

The former instructor has been actively associated with Glenville State College either as a student or instructor for half a century, and her contributions are too constant and extensive to enumerate.

She was graduated from Glenville Normal School with a Standard Normal in 1908 and with the academic certificate in 1909. She obtained an A.B. degree from West Virginia University in 1913 and an M.A. degree from the University of Chicago in 1922. Additional graduate study was taken at the University of Texas and Duke University. Her most recent academic credit was earned on a tour of Europe during the summer of 1954.

Was IRC Sponsor

Teaching experience includes a short period in the public schools of West Virginia, almost 40 years as professor of history at Glenville State, and summer sessions at West Virginia University. Many prominent people were brought to the Glenville campus through her sponsorship of the International Relations Club.

Miss Bell served many years as secretary and treasurer of the Higher Education division of the West Virginia Education Association. She also found time to represent the college at many historical association meetings on both the local and national level. Her interest has stimulated much research concerning West Virginia history.

Glenville Golfers Finish Play May 8

Glenville State College golfers saw plenty of action on April 25 and 26 as they played six teams.

The Pioneers journeyed to Fairmont on April 25 for matches with Fairmont, W. Va. Tech, and California (Pa.) State Teachers College.

Fairmont held the Gee Men to a 15-0 shut out; Tech outplayed the Pioneers 12-1/2 to 2-1/2; and California throttled a 14-1/2-1/2 victory.

Coach Robert Higgins returned his golfers to Glenville for the April 26 match. In Glenville for the day were golf teams from Davis Elkins, Tech, and Wesleyan.

On the home course, the Pioneers made a much better showing as they fought Davis Elkins and Wesleyan to 7-1/2-7-1/2 ties. Tech proved too much as they garnered a 9-6 victory over the White Wave.

May 3 saw the scheduled date for matches with Fairmont and Davis Elkins on the Glenville course.

Barring a schedule change, the Pioneers finish the regular season tomorrow against Wesleyan and Davis Elkins on the Wesleyan course.

GSC Pioneers Play W.Va. State Jackets Here Tomorrow

Glenville State faces the West Virginia State Yellow Jackets tomorrow at Rohrbough Field. This is the first meeting for the two teams this season. No return game with the Jackets is scheduled.

Fairmont College hosts the Pioneers on May 10. Glenville met the Falcons yesterday at Rohrbough Field but results were not available when the MERCURY went to press.

Coach Carlos Ratliff takes his baseball aggregation to Phillippi on May 14 to meet the Alderson Broadus Battlers. An earlier contest with the Battlers was postponed because of bad weather.

Salem College invades Rohrbough Field on May 16 for a rescheduled game moved up from April 18.

Davis Elkins hosts the Pioneers on May 17 and West Liberty is the GSC opponent for May 24.

Three games which were postponed have not been rescheduled. However, the games will be played on the first convenient date for both the Pioneers and their opponents.

Baseball Nine Downs Visiting Eagles; Takes Victory from Mountain Lions

Glenville State College fell prey to the West Virginia Wesleyan Bobcats 6-1 in a game played at Buckhannon on April 25.

Both teams scored in the first inning with the Bobcats besting the Pioneers 3-1. The score remained as such until the sixth when the Cats sent a run across the plate.

Again in the bottom of the eighth, Wesleyan sent two more runs across the plate to clinch the victory.

Kenny Wright went the distance for the Pioneers and was credited with the loss. West took the win for the Bobcats.

The GeeMen were held to only three hits. Cook connected for a single in the first, Mace rapped a single in the sixth and Schell made contact for a single in the fifth. Wright allowed the Cats ten hits.

Glenville traveled to Athens on April 26 to play the Concord Mountain Lions. The Lions allowed the Pioneers their first win of the young 1958 season as The Ratliff men romped to 16-4 rout.

After being set down 1-2-3 in the first, the Glenville men opened up in the second and sent seven runs romping across the plate. GSC failed to score in the third but caught fire in the fourth to send four runs across the plate.

Concord retaliated in the bottom of the fourth to score three runs. Glenville added five more runs in the fifth and sixth while holding the Mountain Lions to one run.

Paul McKown, who took the win for the Pioneers, gave up only eight hits and issued five free tickets. McKown struck out six.

The Pioneers won their second game in a row by clouting the Morris Harvey Golden Eagles 15-9 before a crowd of visiting high school seniors on May 1.

Dwain Wilcox started on the mound for the Ratliffmen and gave up seven hits. Wilcox struck out six batters and gave up three free passes. Roger Hall relieved Wilcox in the seventh and retired the Eagles allowing no hits.

Morris Harvey called on three moundsmen with Derrick starting, Scott relieving in the third and Tyree coming on in the fourth and
