Queen Leona Reigns Over All Activities

Miss Leona Hampton, recently named Queen by the Glenville State College student body, will reign over the 25th annual Homecoming October 11. Other members of the royal court include Senior Princess Sue Click, Junior Princess Mary Jo Chisler, Sophomore Princess Mary Frances Rollyson, and Freshman princess Shelia Wilmoth.

Queen Leona I is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hampton of Richwood. She is an elementary education major, and serves as secretary to the registrar. Miss Hampton will be escorted in the coronation ceremony by Ray Ellis president of the Student Council.

Escorts Named

Senior Princess Miss Sue Click is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Click of Evans. Princess Sue is a social studies and physical education major. She is a member of Kappa Chi Kappa, Women's Athletic Association, and is president of Kanawha Hall. Miss Click will be escorted by Pat Lawson, vice president of the senior class.

Miss Mary Jo Chisler, junior princess, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Chisler of Lost Creek. She is an elementary education major and is a member of Xi Beta Tau. Princess Mary Jo will be escorted by Charles Watt, president of the junior class.

Sophomore Princess Mary Frances Rollyson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rollyson of Bridgeport. Miss Rollyson is a business education major, a member of Xi Beta Tau, and a twirler in the Campus, Community Prepare for Event

Once again all roads lead home as GSC alumni far and wide wend their way to the campus 'mong the Maples for the annual college Homecoming. The campus is alive with excitement as students and faculty alike welcome the returning Pioneers and invite them to inspect the recent additions and renovations on the campus where they once wore Freshman beanies, crammed for exams, and played football.

The town of Glenville will come alive with Homecoming activities with a snake dance Friday night, beginning in front of Verona Maple Hall and winding through town to Rohrbough Field where a Pep Rally and bonfire will be held.

Football team, Pioneer, and cheer leaders will lead this activity. Sounds of hammering, sawing, and pounding will drift through the streets Friday night as floats for the parade receive last-minute touches.

Miss Bell, Parade Marshal Saturday activities open with a parade down College Street and Main Street; parade will start at 10:00 a. m. Miss Bessie B. Bell, retired GSC history professor, will be parade marshal. Color guard will be furnished by Battery C, 263rd. Field Artillery Battalion, from the Grantsville Reserve training post.

According to David Wallace, assistant professor of music who is in charge of bands for the parade, Weston, Sutton, Jane Lew, Gilmer, county, Richwood and Glenville State bands will take part in

Seven New Faculty Members Take Positions on GSC College Campus

Keeping pace with the recent additions and renovations on campus, GSC administrators have added seven new members to the teaching staff. Beginning their first fall term on campus are Miss Roberta Williams, John David Robinson, Dr. O. A. Brown, Judge Watson, Paul Caltrider, John R. Cooley, and Charles D. Patterson.

Paul Caltrider, instructor in biology, is filling the position left vacant by Dr. Max Ward who has been granted a leave to do research work at Harvard. Caltrider received his B. S. Degree from Glenville State in 1956. From 1956 to 1958 he was a graduate assistant at West Virginia University in the Plant Pathology Department. He received his M.S. Degree from that school in 1958.

Cooley Is From Indiana
Replacing Richard Robinson in the art department is John Robert Cooley, New Albany, Ind. Cooley, who has previously taught in junior high and high school, holds the B.F.A. and M.A.E. Degrees, the first from John Herron Art School, the latter from the same school for work done at Indiana University.

Instructor in social studies, this year, to fill the vacancy left by Dr. Joan Doyle, is Judge Watson of Ashland, Ky. Watson, holder of an A.B. Degree from Asbury College and a M.A. Degree from Indiana University, previously taught in an Extension School of the University of Kentucky. His major teaching fields are American and Medieval History.

Miss Roberta Williams, English instructor, is a native of Farmville, Va. She received the B.A. Degree from Longwood College in 1957 and will receive a M.A. Degree from

Fifteen Students Begin Teaching In Local Schools

Fifteen students are now doing directed teaching according to Dr. Delmer K. Somerville, chairman of education department.

Seven of these are doing work in secondary education. Marvin Stemple is teaching physical science at Calhoun High School. Stemple did his student teaching in biology last spring. Dorsey Scott, non-academic physical education, has been placed in the Glenville public school for his directed teaching.

At Glenville High School Lowell Knight is teaching social studies and biology, and Frederick Lawrence Reed is teaching physical science and biology.

Business Students at NHS
At Normantown High School Sue Blagg Mick and Barbara Sue Zinn are doing student teaching in business education. Jean Hogue Cronin is teaching home economics at Doddridge High School.

Elementary student teachers include Betty Tustin and Martha Douglas, teaching in the kindergarten in the morning and first grade in the afternoon.

Doris Rodgers and Nancy Gillispie

Registrar Lists 668 Enrollment

Registrar Brown Trussler has announced that the total college enrollment for this year is 668 students. This number includes 619 full-time campus students.

The freshman class leads in the number of full-time students with an enrollment of 257. Sophomores are next with a total of 147; Juniors have 111 listed; and the senior class include 104.

In addition to regular classes, five campus night classes are being taught first semester, according to Registrar Trussler.

Extension Classes Set

Three extension classes have been organized so far this year. World Geography 303 is taught by Prof. Joe Hall at Clay; History 207 is taught by Dr. James G. Jones at Craigsville; and World Geography 303 is taught by Prof. Nicholas Murin at Elizabeth.

This year's enrollment include students from Delaware, Maryland, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

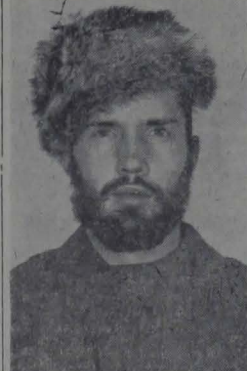

Kappa Sig Members Sell Radio Chances

Chances are now being sold on a Motorola clock radio by the Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity.

The lucky winner will be announced at half time of the homecoming game, Oct. 6.

Chances may be bought from any Kappa Sigma Kappa member. The radio is now on display at the bookstore.

Library Extends Hours of Service

The Robert F. Kidd Library has extended its hours of service to students and faculty to include the lunch hour, thereby enabling library patrons to work uninterrupted through the lunch period.

This announcement was made recently by Charles D. Patterson, College Librarian and assistant professor of library science. The other hours will remain the same.

These are:

8:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m. Monday through Friday
6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday
8:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon Saturday
Closed Friday evening and all day Sunday.

Use of the library has been very good and thus far, 750 books have circulated this term.

Forward Look Favors Future

MANY A BACKWARD LOOK will be taken this week as old grads and former students pour into Glenville for the 25th. Annual Homecoming of Glenville State College. The presence of the 1908 football squad will heighten the "past" flavor of this Homecoming season; memories will fly thick and heavy.

GLENVILLE STATE has progressed far from its meager beginnings in 1872 when classes were held in the old Court House and the two-story frame building known as the Lively House. From the single field offered in 1872, this college has grown until it now offers B.S. and A.B. Degrees, degree in special subjects, two-year courses, pre-professional subjects, and non-academic degrees. The campus library has added many volumes to the 500 titles boasted in 1891.

WE, THE STUDENTS of GSC now, may also look backward. We've seen the completion of a new Student Union-Dining Hall Building; we've seen the renovation and modernization of two units of the Ad Building; we've stepped over ditches and wires a sall wiring on campus was put under ground last year-a definite improvement to the appearance of this campus.

NOW, LET'S LOOK FORWARD a bit. What is left to do for GSC? First in the hearts of students and administration seems to be a new dormitory to house the overflow of students to our campus each fall and to eliminate the fire-trap that is now Kanawha Hall. With a $400,000 appropriation of the legislature and a high place on the priority list of W. Va. school improvements, this dream may become a reality.

EQUALLY IMPORTANT to Glenville State is the renovation and fireproofing of Unit B of the Ad Building. Recent completion of Units A and C points up the need to extend modernization to the center of the building.

FORWARD LOOKS MIGHT SHOW the increasing need for more parking space for students and faculty vehicles and also the need to expand the Robert F. Kidd Library, already bursting at the seams. Shop expansion to enable courses in farm shop to be given is a future hope, as well as additions to the farm area to provide space for sheep and cattle; this space is needed now.

DURING THIS WEEKEND of backward looks and memories, we urge students and grads alike to look forward; become aware of the needs and future plans of GSC. With united effort we can make this growing campus an even better one to come home to in the years ahead.

"The Second Man" Opens at GSC; Coleman, Kress Direct 3-Act Play

"The Second Man," a three-act play by S. N. Behrman, will open tomorrow night on the Glenville College stage and will be presented again Oct. 14 and 15. "The Second Man" has been labeled by one critic, John Gassner, as "a perfect high comedy."

The small cast for the play was chosen during summer school. Playing the rich widow, Mrs. Frayne, is Beverly McComis; the witty "heel" who is also a writer is Herbert Profit; Austin Lowe, an earnest young scientist, Rodney Busch, and the poor, but attractive young girl, Monica Grey, will be played by Phyllis Harvey.

Profit Returns
Miss Harvey and Profit are appearing for the first time in a school year production. Miss Harvey appeared in "Affairs of State" this past summer. Profit played a leading role in Marshall College's "The Reluctant Debutante."

The play is a witty tale, centering around a "heel" who can not decide whether to marry for love or money. Love is supposed to be all sufficient, but the money certainly looks appealing, making it more difficult for Clark Storey to decide between a life of leisure and a life of love.

Reserved Seats on Sale
Director of the comedy is Professor William S. E. Coleman; assistant director, Gerald Kress. This is to be an arena production, limiting the seating capacity to 70 per

Busch, Dotson Lead GSC Big Blue Band

Glenville State Pioneer band made its fall debut at the Glenville-Potomac State game; undaunted by rain and mud, band members presented a show entitled "The Weather Report."

Rehearsals are now in progress for the Homecoming festivities. The band will march in the parade, play for the coronation, and present a gala half-time show at the GSC-D and E game.

On Oct. 24 the band will go to Salem to march in the Salem College Homecoming parade. Final home appearance will be Nov. 1 at the GSC-Fairmont game.

Rodney Busch, in his second year as drum major, fronts the band. Dressed in new buckskin outfits are the two twirlers, Mary Rollyson and Susan Brown. The twirler positions are the newest additions to the big blue band. Serving her second year in the head majorette position is sophomore Carolyn Dotson.

Majorettes are Sue Criss, Lois Moore, Nancie Boles, Joan Furr, and Brenda Ball.

The Richwood band, as hometown band of the queen, may present a half-time performance during the football game; the GSC band will also present a show at half-time. Other bands have been invited but had not replied at press time.

Freshman Will March
Another unit of the parade will feature the Freshman Class members in their traditional garb of pajamas and short skirts-testimony of their youth and innocence.

Immediately following the parade, the queen, her court, college officials, alumni, students and guests will move to the coronation site in front of the Science Building where Queen Leona I will be crowned by President Harry B. Heflin.

Crownbearer for the Coronation will be Mary Helen Murin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Murin. Louis Bennett Lounge will be open immediately following the coronation for informal alumni gatherings and reminiscences. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Pioneers Meet Senators
Highlight of the afternoon will be the annual Homecoming football game beginning at 2:00 at Rohrbough Field; GSC Pioneers will meet Davis & Elkins Senators. During half-time ceremonies Paul Hughes will receive the Montrose Award; this award is presented annually.

At 5:30 Saturday evening the 1908 football squad will meet at the Colonial Room for dinner. Past football coaches are also invited.

Weekend activities will close with the Homecoming Dance honoring the Queen and Pioneer which will be held in the college gymnasium from 9-12. Leonard Hannigan Orchestra of Clarksburg will play for the dance. Tickets for the formal dance will be $1.50 per person. General Chairman for the 25th Annual Homecoming is Stanley Hall.

Returning Grads, Do You Rember? Present Students, Can You Imagine?

Dr. M. Ward Gets Foundation Grant

The National Science Foundation announced in Washington Sept. 18 that Dr. Max Ward, chairman of the division of science and mathematics at Glenville State College, has been awarded a research grant for a year of work at Harvard University.

Dr. Ward is the author of three articles published in national and international botanical journals in connections with previous work at Harvard.

The new research will be related to this former work and will be concerned with tissue culture of very young embryos of ferns and mosses to determine certain effects of genetic and environmental factors with reference to growth, development, and differentiation.

Professor Here Since '48
Dr. Ward is a graduate of Glenville (A. B. 1940) and holds M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from Harvard. He has taught here since 1948.

Dr. Ward has just completed a three year term as secretary of the West Virginia Academy of Science. He is a member of the Botanical Society of America, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the New England Botanical Club, the Southern Appalachian Botanical Club, and the International Society of Plant Morphologists.

Dr. Ward and family left Glenville for Cambridge Sept. 21.

Home Ec. Classes Feature Figures

"Faces, Figures, Fashions, and Fundamentals — Especially for you" is the subject being used by the Home Economics Adult Education Class. The first class was held October 2 and the remaining classes will be presented Oct. 9, 16, and 23.

Marie Reese and Pat Scott taught the first class; they discussed the "Figure and Your Fashion Future."

In later sessions Ruth Creasy and Flora Dyer will discuss the color, hair styles, and necklines that are best. Selection of accessories will be the topic for discussion when Arlene Hinterer and Roberta Starcher have charge of the class. Louise Byrd and Aleta Strader will aid in the Planning of the wardrobe and the care of clothing.

Classes will be held under the direction of Mrs. Lillian Chadcock.

I am the voice of today, the herald of tomorrow... I am the leader army that conquers the world — I am TYPE.

—The Type Speaks

In 1896 a group of students were reprimanded for engaging in the ungentlemanly act of playing baseball.

A near-scandal broke in 1900 when some students were found to be contemplating a school dance.

The clock-tower was judged unsafe in 1903 and was torn-down and rebuilt; an Annual Chemistry Day held that same year was a huge success.

In 1908, during the first half of the first basketball game, there was a conflict in the rules of two teams. Investigation showed that Glenville had been using a book of girls' rules.

Note Curfew

Also in 1908, there was a rule in effect providing that students should not be on the streets after 7 o'clock weekday evenings except to go to the Literary Society meeting or to church.

The first Pioneer for the Homecoming activities was elected in 1933.

Please note: In October, 1935, members of the Freshman Class voted to adopt a standard class insignia—the boys were to wear blue and white caps, the girls blue and white berets.

Freshman rules were ineffective for one year — 1946.

"Salute to Glenville" was written in 1949 by H. Laban White, music by Helen Wright.

The first Sadie Hawkins Chase, sponsored by the Kappa Sigma Kappa fraternity, was held in 1947.

In 1948 the college bought two quonset huts to be erected at the college farm.

All-conquering Pioneers of 1951 walked off with the fourteenth annual West Virginia intercollegiate basketball tournament. Line-up sounded like this:

Bobby Hardman, Tex Gainer, Sid Adelsberg, Carlton Gandee, Red Edwards, Bob Turner, Harry Smith, Dick Barrett, Glennard Vannoy, and Gene White.

Louree Skeen To Head ADE Group

Louree Skeen, senior, was elected the new president of Alpha Delta Epsilon at a regular meeting of the business fraternity. Miss Skeen replaces Miriam Butcher Dyer, who did not return to campus.

Other officers are Jacqueline Millard, vice president; Leama Garten, recording secretary; Margaret Spicer, corresponding secretary; Barbara Sue Zinn, treasurer; Thelda Strader, reporter; Arlene Hinterer, historian; and Paul Girod, sergeant at-arms.

Formal initiation of new members of the fraternity was held Oct. 6 at 8:00 p.m. in Louis Bennett Lounge.

Pioneers Face D-E Senators In Contest Saturday

Conquer Concord In 1957 Battle

Coach Nicholas Murin's Glenville State Pioneers are looking forward with anticipation to the 25th annual Homecoming football game against the Davis and Elkins Senators Saturday afternoon at 2:00. The Pioneers will attempt to make this the third consecutive win in Homecoming play.

Davis and Elkins was the 1956 victim as the Gee-Men trampled the Senators 33-6. Concord fell in the 1957 tilt when a freshman-studded GSC team raced to a 14-13 victory.

Glenville won their last three games of the 1957 season and got off to a roaring 13-0 victory over West Liberty at the beginning of this season. In a mud fracas on Rohrbough Field Sept. 27, the Potomac Catamounts held them to a 0-0 tie. Third game of the current season was played on Oct. 4 at Concord; MERCURY went to press before the results of this game were available.

Coach Murin is relying heavily upon freshmen for both offensive and defensive play. Several freshmen have drawn starting assignments. Outstanding among these are 240 pounder center Blaine Turner; end Bill Adams and guard Paul Fischer. Turner is from Spring Hill, Adams from Summersville and Fischer from Wooster, Ohio.

Starting for the Pioneers at quarterback will be Jack Campbell, senior from Ripley. Campbell has seen consistent action on the GSC squad for the last three years.

Halfback slots will be held by Paul McKown, senior from Lookout; and Junior Wilson, sophomore.

Jean Cronin Leads Home Ec. Club

At the recent officer installation held in the Home Management House, Mrs. Jean Hogue Cronin was installed as Home Economics Club president. Other officers were Marie Reese, first vice president; Ruth Creasy, second vice president; Carolyn Ranson, secretary; Ramona Stout, treasurer; Pat Scott, historian; Arlene Hinterer, song leader.

According to Mrs. Lillian Chad-dock, club adviser, meetings will be on the first and third Thursdays at 6:30 p.m.

Gee Men Will Meet W. Va. Wesleyan Under Lights at Weston High Field

Glenville College football fans are going to see the Pioneers in action at three locations in the central West Virginia area in the coming weeks.

The Murinmen are host to the West Virginia Wesleyan Bobcats on the Weston High School athletic field Thursday Oct. 16. The game, sponsored by the Weston Little League, was originally scheduled for Oct. 18 but due to a conflict with other activities, was moved to the Thursday date.

Glenville did not play the Bobcats last year because of adverse weather conditions.

Meet Salem at Doddridge

West Union's high school athletic field is the scene of an Oct. 25 clash between the Pioneers and the Salem Tigers. This contest will be played under the lights.

Salem fell prey to the Gee-Men last year in a mud battle at Rohrbough Field as the Pioneers out-scored the Tigers 28-6.

Fairmont comes to Glenville for the GSC finale on Nov. 1 at Rohrbough Field. The Falcons humiliated the Pioneers last season as they romped to a 32-13 WVIAC victory.

Tie Potomac State

Before meeting the Bobcats at Weston, the Gee-Men will have played four games. Glenville's opener gave the locals a 13-0 smash over the West Liberty Hilltoppers, the second game of the season ended at a 0-0 count with Potomac State the opposition.

The outcome of the Concord game was not available when the MERCURY went to press and the Davis-Elkins clash is scheduled for Saturday.

Pioneer Bob will take an active part in the homecoming parade and will also appear at the ballgame in the afternoon.

Fifteen Students

Barker are doing student teaching in the fifth and sixth grades; Helen Marie Summers and Jo Ann Swisher in fourth and fifth grades; and Wilbur Maras and Dorothy Peterson in second and third grades at Glenville elementary school.

Imitation is the sincerest flattery.

Carolee Singleton Now WAA Leader

At their first meeting of the year, Sept. 16 in the Health Building, the members of the Women's Athletic Association voted to send invitations to other campus organizations, asking each club to participate in WAA sports. Any organization invited, who forms a team of nine members, may play competitive games of volleyball and basketball with the WAA teams.

Sports leaders for this year for basketball and volleyball were also elected. They are Sue Johnson, volleyball; and Dorothy Butler, basketball.

Carolee Singleton, senior from Craigsville, will serve as president of WAA. Iolene Harding, junior from Sissionville is vice-president.

Linda Mayo, sophomore from Williamstown is secretary-treasurer, and Barbara Peaster, junior from Haddon Heights, N. J.; is point-secretary.

Hughes Receives Montrose Award; Robert P. Miller Was '57 Winner

Paul Hughes, a 1958 graduate of Glenville State College student and physical education major, has been awarded the Seventh Annual Frank Montrose Memorial Award. This coveted honor is granted on the basis of scholarship as well as athletics.

Hughes played four years of football for GSC and has won two letters. He was president of the Student Council his senior year. Hughes was also a member of the Holy Roller Court, Alpha Delta Epsilon, and the G Club. He is now teaching at Walton High School.

The Frank Montrose Memorial Award was established by the Student Council in honor of the late Frank Montrose, former Glenville student and athlete. In his one year here, 1939, Montrose established himself as an all time Pioneer great.

In the spring of 1940 the 21-year old Richmond youth went blind and shortly afterward, in June, died in a Baltimore, Md. hospital. Later it was learned that Montrose had been afflicted with nephritis.

Former recipients of the award are Cecil Johnson, 1952; Billy Han-

Head Librarian for the Robert F. Kidd Library is Charles D. Patterson. Patterson has taught at Bemidji College in Minnesota, and the University of Minnesota. He holds the B.S. Degree from Bemidji State College and the M.A. Degree from the University of Minnesota.

Assistant Professor of Music John David Robinson has received the Bachelor and Master of Music Degrees from the University of Michigan. A native of Michigan, Robinson has taught in Dearborn public schools, Indiana University, and public schools in Bloomington, Ind.

Hardway Returns

Dr. Oral A. Brown, Professor of Physics, has previously taught in public schools of West Virginia, at Iowa State College, and in schools in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, North Carolina, and Tennessee. He holds the B.S., E.E. Degree from WVU; M.S. E.E., Iowa State College; Ph.D., Iowa State College.

Back on campus as Assistant Professor of Agriculture after a leave of absence is Wendell Hardway. Also returning to GSC is Hunter Whiting, assistant librarian.

from Clay, Wilson accounted for one Pioneer TD in last years Homecoming tilt. Fullback duties will be held by Bob Crews, senior from Beckley.

Larry "Doc" Stanley, injured in pre-season practice, will see limited action. Stanley will be used only as a spot substitute for punt returns and a limited number of scrimmage plays. Stanley is a two-time All Conference selection.

Under the free substitution rule Coach Murin employs a modified platoon system, with some of his men playing on only offense or defense. Valuable defensive men who will undoubtedly see action are John Pisapia, John Chipps, Fred and Steve Taylor, Ron Stonfer, Ben Leply and Peter Spencer. Ronnie Peters is a consistent entry in the offensive backfield.

Mother of GSC Teacher Expires

Miss Bertha E. Olsen, assistant professor of music here, was called home recently by the unexpected death of her mother, Mrs. Frederick Olsen, of Kittery, Me.

Mrs. Olsen was born in London, England. She and her husband, a Dane, came to this country when Miss Olsen was eight years old. Mr. Olsen, who survives his wife, is a retired Methodist Minister.

The victim of a heart attack Sept. 22, Mrs. Olsen is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters. One son, Dr. Russell Olsen, a teacher at Harvard; the other Christopher, lives in Washington, D. C. Both daughters are teachers, Bertha at GSC, and Miss Winifred Olsen, graduate of Radcliff, teaches near Richmond, Va.
