Lyceum Features Marjorie Mitchell In Glenville Auditorium Nov. 17th

A second lyceum program, featuring Marjorie Mitchell at the piano, will be presented in the college auditorium Nov. 17 at 8 p.m.

This program will replace the Barter Threater which have cancelled the entire tour this season. They have lost the backing of two national foundations that were subsidizing the tours.

Marjorie Mitchell, a young Virginia pianist, combines the characteristics of a dedicated musician with those of the average American girl.

A graduate of the Juilliard Graduate School of Music, she made her European debut in 1953 in Oslo where she studied for one year under a Fulbright grant. She has spent the past four years continuing her studies and giving concerts in Europe, where she is acclaimed one of the foremost pianists.

Her Carnegie Hall debut in November, 1956, marked a triumphant return to the United States.

The next lyceum program will be March 1, featuring the Eastman String Quartet. Thaddeus Hayes, modern and classical dancer, will appear on the GSC stage April 7.

Methodists Lead Religious Survey

Rev. Lawrence Sherwood, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church has announced the tabulation of religious preference of the students of Glenville State College. This survey was based upon the students' notations on their registration cards.

Methodists are represented with the largest number of students, 332. Baptists are second with 173. Third is the Evangelistic United Brethren with 37.

Other denominations include Presbyterian 34, Roman Catholic 22, Church of Christ 20, Advent Christian 7, Lutheran 5, Episcopal 3, and Mormon 2.

Denominations which are represented by one student are Assembly of God, Congregational, Greek Orthodox, and Holiness.

Thirty-one students placed Protestant on their cards and 39 indicated no preference.

William S. E. Coleman, associate professor of speech at Glenville State College, will serve as book reviewer for "Players Magazine" this year. Coleman is also serving as president of the West Virginia Intercollegiate Speech Association and Chairman of Drama for the state.

Dear Eligible Males and Females,

The time has again arrived, Nov. 14, when all unhitched females are out to catch them a feller. This time is known to all Dogpatchers as Sadie Hawkins Day. It is set aside for gals what can't catch a man no other way.

Gallery Exhibits Students' Works

Thirty-five water colors done by the beginning and advanced water color classes are being exhibited in the art gallery in Room 207 in the Administration Building.

These paintings consist of abstract, non-objective, and paintings from nature. Since these class periods are too short for the painters to go elsewhere to paint, all the nature paintings were made on or near the campus.

Water color is one of the most difficult of the painting mediums. The work must be done quickly and accurately, for since it is transparent, it is not possible to correct errors as it is with oil, casein, or tempera paintings. The artist must endeavor to make use of all accidents for effect in the painting. Proficiency in treatment of errors determines his status as a watercolorist.

Japanese Prints Shown

For its first exhibit, the GSC art gallery showed 65 Japanese prints from the art dealer, T. T. Kitagawa, who is located in Minneapolis.

This shindig will officially begin at 1:15 p.m. with a proclamation by the honorable Mayor of Dogpatch himself, Wayne Hardman. The mayor will be speakin' from Verona Maple lawn.

Figurin' as how everybody ought to know everybody else, the dignitaries from Dogpatch will be entertained. Present will be Mammy Yokum (Norma Curry), Pappy Yokum (Dave Hamilton), Marylin Sam (Ray Brown), Moonbeam McSwine (Martha Lee Hall), Wolf Gal (Judy Miller), and Hopeful (Lu Royster).

Other dignitaries present will be Cousin Weakeyes (Phil Clarke), Tiny (Ed Rock), Old Man Mose (Harry Hull), Lonesome Polecat (Tim Carney), the Skunk Hollar Boys (Ray Boggs, Walter Shupe), and the Scragg Boys (Paul Cochran, Jack Phillips).

Ifin' all you eligible males have long laigs, you hain't got nothing to worry about. But, ifin' you got short laigs you is doomed! For the furst and biggest event of the day is a race whar all you fellars line-up at the startin' post in front of Verona Maple Hall at 1:15 p.m. and the gals chase you. Assembly Is Set For November 12

There will not be an assembly tomorrow because of the term examinations.

Next Thursday, Nov. 12, there will be a program presented by three campus departments. This program will be a celebration of American Education Week and Veteran's Day.

The local SNSEA organization will present the first part; the music and drama departments second part; Education Department third part.

The freshman class assembly scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 28, was cancelled at 9 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 27. Wayne McCray, freshman president, indicated that there were not enough freshman who would present acts for a thirty-minute entertainment.

Freshman Failure

The editorial below, "The Move Is On", was written Wednesday evening. Thursday morning we were jolted out of our optimism by the sign stating that the Freshman Assembly had been cancelled.

We believe the Freshmen have been given many breaks this year. They were exempt from some of the traditional initiatory activities by the hazing ruling — which they used frequently.

This, however, was overlooked because we, the upperclassmen, felt that they would eventually be caught up in the spirit of enthusiasm that is reigning over our campus this year. However, the cancellation of their assembly indicates they are not helping us build, but rather are hindering our attempts.

We hope that these first year students will soon learn to be reliable, responsible, mature adults. We do not expect them to learn this alone. Remember, faculty and upperclassmen are here to help.

The Move Is On...

Students of Glenville State College are moving from 1959 Nonchalant Street to the corner of 1959-60 Enthusiasm Avenue. This house is owned by an old friend, Mr. GSC Spirit. When the students moved from Mr. Spirit's house several years ago he became lonesome. Of course, they came to visit him occasionally but that wasn't like living with him all the time.

So, Mr. Spirit decided to sell the house on the corner of 1959-60 Enthusiasm Avenue. When the students heard this, they begin to pack up and move rapidly back to the house on Enthusiasm Avenue, and now THE MOVE IS ON.

MONIQUE, the first play this year, was bubbling over with the spirit of the new residence of Enthusiasm Avenue. This play was attended by 398 students.

THE DRAMA DEPARTMENT is doing a good job in helping stir the pot of enthusiasm on our campus. This is appreciated by the students. They appreciate the excellent performance and the extensive advertisement campaign.

ASSEMBLIES have been well attended this year. It is essential that students attend assemblies for it is here that enthusiasm begins and then spreads to all parts of the campus.

LYCEUM this year was attended by 274 students. This is the largest student attendance since the Barter Theater. The next Lyceum is scheduled for Nov. 17. Let's make them open that balcony again.

FOOTBALL Stadium has been filled with the cheers of students, led by the agile cheerleaders. At the West Liberty game there were 327 students attending. At Homecoming 491 students attended; Salem's game had a student attendance of 402.

Mr. GSC Spirit is pleased with his new renters; he is considering making GSC students permanent residents on the corner of 1959-60 Enthusiasm Avenue.

Yearbook Staff Prepares Layout

Preliminary plans and dummy layouts for the first fifty pages of the 1960 KANAWHACHEN have been completed, reports yearbook editor Dorothy Butler. A theme for the annual has been chosen and will be carried throughout the book both in picture page layouts and in copy.

One of the main features of the '60 KANAWHACHEN will be a colored reproduction of a campus scene on the front cover. Another planned feature is personalized ads; each establishment or place of business advertising in the yearbook will have an opportunity to have a group of Glenville State students photographed in their store or building. The advertiser will then be named under the snapshots.

At present there are GSC Alumni Chapters in Kanawha and Randolph counties.

GSC students and faculty have started the third year of broadcasting over WHAW, Weston, at 12:15 a.m. each Saturday.

Barbara Huggins and Glen Martin are planning and managing the programs. On Oct. 31 a short scene from "Macbeth" was read by college students. On Nov. 7, the college choir will present a musical program.

The next three broadcasts will consist of scenes from "Caesar and Cleopatra" and "The Trojan Women."

Any group wishing to take part in a broadcast is asked to contact either W. S. Coleman, associate professor of speech, Barbara Huggins or Glen Martin.

Basketball Opens Nov. 27 At Weston In Tourney Play

Glenville's Pioneers will open their basketball season Nov. 27-28 at Weston, playing in the Weston Invitational Tournament. Last year in the same tournament the White Wave lost in the first round to Alderson-Broadus, but salvaged third place by defeating Fairmont in the consolation.

Basketball practice began Monday, Nov. 2, with Coach Byrd greeting 17 candidates. Numbered among the players are eight lettermen. Leading the returning lettermen will be a 3-year man Charles Watt. Watt sat out most of last year because of an injured knee; he is the only senior on the squad.

Also among the returnees is last year's leading rebounder Bob Lambert. Lambert, a sophomore, averaged 10.9 points per game. Tom Burns, a 2-year letterman, will be returning for his junior year. Burns was the number two scorer on last year's team with 11.6 average.

Bud Minner did not play basketball last year but was a letterman during the '57-'58 season and is among the candidates for this year's squad.

Other returning lettermen are sophomores Larry Gandee, Tim Carney, Fred Smith and George Bailey.

Height and rebounding strength were scarce items on last year's inexperienced squad that ran up a 5-won, 18-loss record in regular season. However, the Pioneers were the Cinderella team of the WVIAC tournament before losing out in the semi-finals.

This year the outlook is much brighter with the return of veterans.

Four Glenville State Pioneers End Collegiate Football In Final Encounter of Season With Fairmont Falcons

By Bob Oliver

Four Pioneers reached the end of their collegiate football trail last Friday at Fairmont. The Pioneers traveled to Fairmont to do battle with the Falcons, needing a victory to end the season with a winning record.

The four seniors have played many important games during their tenure at Glenville but none would mean more to them ending their final year with a winning record. These four men have been the mainstays on a team that was short of depth and experience.

Pisapia Is From Delaware
"Big John" Pisapia hails from Dover, Del. his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carmine Pisapia. Pisapia transferred to Glenville from Westley Junior College in September, 1957. After sitting out a year of ineligibility he took his place at defensive tackle on the state conference championship squad of 1958.

This year Pisapia has anchored the left side of both the offensive and defensive lines. Rumor has it that several professional clubs have been scouting "Big John" during the past season. There are those who believe Pisapia, with his 260 lbs. could hold his own with the huge linemen of the professional football leagues.

During his high school career Pisapia was named to the Delaware All-State eleven. Pisapia is a member of KEE and MAA. He is a physical education and biology student.

Chipps Joins Team

St. Mary's gift to the Pioneer football team is John Chipps. Chipps resides there with his mother Mrs. Sadie Chipps. Chipps is a physical education student who transferred from Marietta College in September, 1957.

Chipps joined the team in 1958 and helped boost it to a conference championship. He played both offensive and defensive guard the past year but because of the lack of tackles this year he made the change. Playing tackle, Chipps usually gives away a few pounds to his opponent but invariably comes through with a fine performance. Chipps is vice president of the G-Club.

Lepley Fills Center Slot

Ben Lepley has for the past two seasons been a fine offensive center and a tremendous defensive linebacker for the Pioneers. He has performed so well that there has been little chance for reserve centers to see much action and get the much-needed experience. His shoes will be hard to fill during the coming years.

Lepley is from Rainelle and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lepley. He is a member of the G-Club, and a physical education and mathematics student.

Quarterback Taylor Injured

Fred Taylor, Glenville's regular QB, came to an abrupt end of his football career when his collarbone was broken during the Salem game. Taylor has guided the Pioneers' offensive machine in fine fashion. Although at 160 pounds he is small for a college player, he has taken the best the opponents had to offer and always bounced back until his unfortunate accident in the Salem encounter.

His presence was missed by the Pioneers in the important Fairmont game. Taylor was the Pioneers leading passer as he did most of their throwing from his T-quarterback slot.

Taylor is a member of KEE and treasurer of the G-Club. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Taylor of Walton, Taylor's field of study is physical education.

Another senior who played football for Glenville but who did not complete the season with the team is Steve Taylor, a social studies, physical education student from Dundee, Mich.

GENE MANN

G. Mann Retires As Head Manager

Gene Mann will retire as head manager for the Pioneers at the end of the first term. Mann spent one semester as assistant manager and two years as head manager. During his time on the job Mann has become the right-hand man of the athletic coaches.

Head manager is not an enviable job, the hours are long, the work

Adult Ed. Class Concludes Work

"Accessories, Table Arrangements, and Lighting" was the theme of the adult education class held on Oct. 27. Students instructors were Gail Ratliff, Phyllis Veith, and Anne Lynne Hickman. This was the final class of a series of four classes.

Individual themes for the separate classes, which have been taught by vocational home economics students were "Textures, Color Schemes, and Finishes", "Room Arrangement and Furniture Selection," and "How to Choose Rugs, Carpets, Draperies, and Shades."

People have attended the classes from Buckhannon, Sand Fork, Troy Cedarville, Normantown, Burnsville, and Glenville. The largest attendance for any one night was 30.

These classes are just one phase of training which goes along with the requirements of home economics classes. Mrs. Lillian Chadock, supervisor of the classes said, "We also feel that these classes further good relationship among school, parents, and community."

landscape together with pictorial proverbs and scenes of Japanese life. Birds and animals were shown in natural settings.

The flat decorative surface treatment of the prints seems strange to the occidental eye, but the muted tones are restful. One can immediately see the construction of design because of its simplicity. Much of modern art has been based on the principles of Japanese art. Beginning with the impressionists, artists have used the flat treatment of surface together with Japanese style line drawing.

In the exhibit, a series of night pictures was popular. The colors were principally monochromatic with effective accents of orange representing light.

Two ink brush drawings of horses attracted a great deal of attention. The action of the animals together with the simplicity of the drawing makes them unique.

Several prints were sold. There was no profit made from these sales. The exhibit was loaned to the art department free-of-charge.

The faculty and student body showed much interest in this first exhibit. Arrangements are now being made to present a traveling exhibition of the Ford Times water color in mid-winter. The Kodak Company prize-winning photos will also be shown.

The gallery is located on the first floor of the Administration Building (Room 207) and is open during school hours until 4:30 p.m. and from 7-9:30 on Wednesday evenings.

G. Mann Retires

hard, and there is little reward. Some of the duties of the job are washing uniforms, lining the field, and playing nursemaid to the players.

After dinner when most people are relaxing or studying Mann can usually be found in the college wash room washing towels and uniforms for the next day's practice session. Few people notice a manager at a football or basketball game or give him credit for the work he does.

An important duty of a manager is to keep the players happy. He must spend much of his time taking care of the players' minor injuries and listening to their troubles. To be a successful manager one must like athletics and athletes well enough to want to spend his spare time working with them.

Mann also is an athlete in his own right as he has been on the college baseball squad for the past three years. Mann's home town is Charleston, where he lives with his parents Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Mann. Mann is active in the Holy Roller Court, the G-Club, was president of Louis Bennett Hall governing board during his junior year, and is senior class president this year.

has started to run that's no tellin' exactly what them gals will do to ketch a man. And Fellers, once you've bin ketched you have to attend all the events of the day alongside her.

Marryin' Sam will be waitin' to perform the hitchin' ceremony after you return to the finishin' line. Thar's goin' be three kinds of weddings. Thar's the one fer fifty cents which hain't vury fancy, but it surves the purpose. Then thar's the one for seven-fifty which is purty fancy. Ifin' the gal can afford it, thar's a fanciest weddin' fer only a dollar. (Fellers, its ackshully legal to smooch yer gal, too!)

Thar's goin' be all sorts of races durin' the day. Thar's a race where you chase this here pig and one where you clime a greased pole to git a dollar bill that's a top it. Ifin' you ain't to worn out thar's a sack race, three legged race and an egg throwin' contest.

Figurin' as how all Dogpatchers like to eat, thar's goin' to be a turnip-eatin' contest. It's goin' to be a feastin' time fer all good Dogpatchers.

After all this doins the biggest shindig of all will start in the Student Union at nine o'clock. There will be held the famed Skunk Hollar Stomp. Thar' will be dancin' and prancin' till twelve.

The fellers what the gals do ketch they take to the dancin'. Gals, to get into this shindig you haft to pay a penny fer each pound yer fellar weighs and a penny fer each inch 'round the waist you are.

As a last piece of advice: Gals, ifin' you hain't got no eligible man in mind you had better git busy. Fer, the number is dwindlin' down. Fellers, accept the first offer you git.

Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner will be choosed by the pupils in the college. This here election will take place in the Student Union from Tuesday 9:00 a.m. (Nov. 9) to 11:00 p.m. Friday (Nov. 13).

A picture of Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner won't appear in the MERCURY until Dec. 9 'cause the paper goes to the pressmen Thursday befor Sadie Hawkins Day.

Sincerely Yurs,
Dogpatch Dignitaries

Clubs Sponsor Dance No Admission Charge

A dance which will have no admission fee is being sponsored by the Holy Roller Court and other campus organizations, states Harry Holbert, court judge.

Campus organizations plan to give approximately $20 each to pay for decorations and well known rock-and-roll dance band.

Holbert states that this is the first time the Court has sponsored such a dance. He further stated that the campus organizations are sponsoring the dance because they want one big dance this year which all students may attend and be under no financial obligations.

This semi-formal dance will be held in the Student Union the Friday before Thanksgiving (Nov. 20) from 9:00-12:00 p.m.

DELMAR, the company which will publish the '60 annual, will take individual pictures of campus students for the yearbook in December. Picture schedules will be announced and published in the MERCURY. Anyone wishing to purchase a yearbook should see a member of the staff or an Alpha Delta Epsilon member.

Patty Mace and Wayne Hardman have volunteered to help sell advertisements. Miss Mace, a member of the staff last year is a junior elementary major. Hardman is a sophomore business student.

Things I Learned

your trousers pressed is to hang them from the bureau drawer ... It is not necessarily effeminate to drink tea ... The chances are that you will never fill an inside straight.

SENIOR YEAR

A dinner coat looks better than full dress ... There is as yet no law determining what constitutes trespass in an airplane ... Six hours of sleep are not necessary ... Flowers may be charged ... May is the shortest month in the year.
