Is It Your Deal Or Mine?

GSC STUDENTS ARE SUFFERING from a disease not incurable, but seemingly contagious. The disease has a widespread and devastating effect, but the term cannot be found in any medical dictionary. It is defined by psychologists as negativism.

THOSE AFFLICTED with the disease are called "negatives." The word negative implies "one who is without affirmative character, characterized by resistance or retreat to suggestion or stimulus, one who denies reality." The symptoms of the disease are lethargy and laziness. The victims are narrow-minded and ultra-conservative. They are strict conformists. To what, they don't know, but they conform. The disease is usually accompanied by an extreme unwillingness on the part of the student to think.

ONE OF THE FIRST SYMPTOMS of negativism is non-constructive criticism. The student usually spends hours each day in the Student Union, verbally attacking everyone and everything, and most of all attacking the institution which he adopted as his own. In the advanced stages of the disease the "negative" starts with the president of the college, and works his way through the administration and faculty.

HE THEN STARTS ON POLICY. After approximately 15 minutes he has exhausted his repertoire of curse-words and expended what little vocabulary he has; he then takes a rest until the next day, when the tirade begins anew.

HAVE YOU ever tried to circulate a worth-while petition on campus?

HAVE YOU ever advocated cultural advancement at GSC?

IF SO, YOU KNOW what negativism is. You have been beating your head against the brick wall of ignorance and idiocy, which are side-effects of the disease that have a lasting, sometimes permanent effect upon the mind of the student.

NEGATIVISM IS LIKE radiation fallout. It spreads rapidly. It has, in fact, spread to many students on campus.

THE STUDENT WHO has contracted negativism will not commit himself to any cause except one, that of maintaining his own anonymity. He mistrusts his fellow "negatives." He may quite possibly mistrust himself.

HOW CAN YOU SPOT SOMEONE who is suffering from negativism? "Negatives" may be spotted very easily. Listen for a few key phrases, which, in the main, compromise the vocabulary.

Music, Speech Departments Schedule Four Appearances on WJPB, Weston

Glenville State College speech and music departments are alternating in the presentation of "live" television programs on Channel 5, WJPB, Weston.

Friday, Jan. 27, the College Varsity Quartet presented an hour of entertainment from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Technical production was under the direction of Mr. William S. E. Coleman, Patty Horner, floor manager; James Booth, timer; and James Troy, announcer for the program.

Earlier this fall, after the speech department's presentation of an original play, Station President J. Patrick Beacom, offered the college dramatics groups a free hour of television time each month for a play.

This was too large an undertaking for the one group, so the time will be split between the music and speech departments on an alternate basis.

On Feb. 24, the speech department will produce an hour version of Moliere's great classic comedy, "School for Wives." The play is in the spirit of last year's all-time box office champion, "Physician in Spite of Himself" which was written by the same author. Play is being adapted and directed by James Buck, with supervision by Mr. Coleman.

Play will be done in costume with

Frederick Joins MERCURY Staff

Kenneth Frederick, chemistry student from Smithville, is now serving as MERCURY photographer. Frederick, a freshman, replaces Bill Dixon.

Dixon, an art and speech senior from Vienna, is doing student teaching at Parkersburg High School.

GSC Stage Band Plays in Assembly

The GSC stage band will make its second appearance on the local stage at the assembly tomorrow. First appearance made by the group was at the G-Club Talent Show before Thanksgiving. Band has also performed in a stage-band clinic held in South Charleston during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Band will play "Disk Jockey Jump," "Moonlight in Vermont," "Virginia Creeper," an original arrangement by Bob Seibert of Dallas, Texas; "Bernie's Tune," and "Embraceable You."

Also appearing in the assembly will be the newly organized brass choir. This group will play at the MENC state convention to be held Feb. 15-18 at Morgantown. Members of the brass choir are Clarence James, Dan Allman, trumpet; Kay Strossner, horn; John McLaughlin and Dr. Robert Campbell, trombone.

Perform at State Meet

Elaine Allison and Clarence James will also appear at the MENC meeting. Miss Allison will play the second movement of "Mozart's Concerto" for clarinet; she will be accompanied by Miss Bertha Olson. James will play the first and second movements from "Sonata for Trumpet and Piano" by Kent Kennan, a composer from the University of Kentucky.

Work on the new women's dormitory is now one fourth completed, and according to Lloyd M. Jones, Business Manager, contractors for the job have been paid 23%.

Progress has not been up to expectations because of the extremely cold weather, but when the weather conditions permit, 25 brick layers will be employed and the work will progress rapidly.

Ground was broken in late July of 1960 for this modern, four-story, L-shaped dormitory, and, according to Mr. Jones, it is expected to be completed on schedule by Sept. 1961. The new dormitory will have a sufficient foundation which will allow for building two additional stories when funds are available.

The State Legislature has appropriated $450,000 as a budget for the dormitory; this amount for building and moveable equipment. In addition to this amount, the Federal Government has approved a loan for $415,000 to cover purchase of land and construction. The $450,000 in state money will come from the registration reserve set-up by the Legislature at the 1959 session.

Revenue bonds specify that all dormitories must be filled before any students can room in town. These specifications were set forth by the government before it would lend the money.

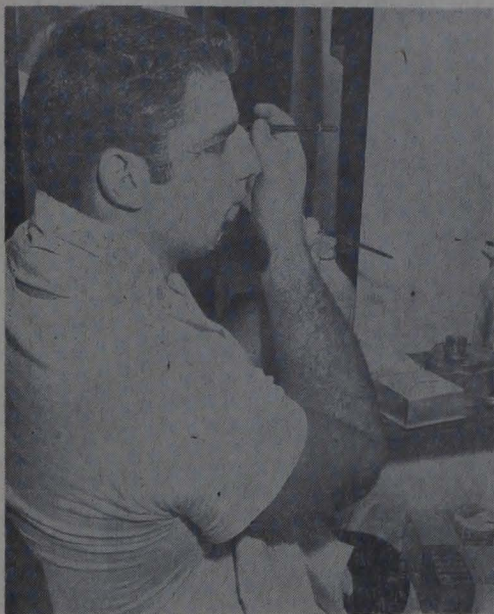

Each room in the new dormitory will contain two beds; duet desk; two chairs, chest of drawers; a lounge chair; table; built-in-bookcases, six feet by eight inches with adjustable shelves; and walk-in-closets. Other features of the building.

Work Continues on Women's Dormitory

Sororities Plan Events For Pledges; Formal Initiation Is February 21, 23

Kappa Chi and Xi Beta Tau Sororities began their rushing season Jan. 26 when all girls interested in sororities met in the auditorium. Miss Pearl Pickens, dean of women, was in charge of the meeting. On Friday, Jan. 27, the girls interested in pledging signed their names in Miss Pickens' office.

Monday, Jan. 30, the two sororities held a joint party for all interested girls in Louis Bennett Lounge.

Jan. 31 was the date of the Xi Beta Tau "Heaven and Hell" party. This was the first individual party held by the sororities. It was an informal party and the girls attending were taken through hell on their way to the Xi Beta Tau heaven.

Thursday, Feb. 2, Kappa Chi Kappa will hold its informal party — a "Traveling Party."

Mix Set For Feb. 3

The two sororities will hold a joint mix Friday, Feb. 3, in the Student Union. This party will give the sororities a chance to observe

Student Teachers Begin Assignments

Forty-nine students are doing directed teaching during the third term, according to Dean Delmar K. Somerville, chairman of the education department.

Eight of this number are teaching in the Glenville Elementary School. Placed in the Glenville Public School are Esther Marie Chapman, Paul Cochrane, Dorcelene Cottrill, Myrna Camille Goff, Martha Lee Hall, Wyonna Mason, Cecelia Royster, and Wanda Mearl Stump.

ASSIGNED TO SUTTON HIGH School are Nella Jean Bess, home economics; Loye L. Burner, business education; James Dotson, English and speech; Robert Garner, speech and social studies; Michael Morrison, English and social studies.

Stephen Posey, social studies and physical education; Jane Ruckman, English and speech; Jane School-lary of the "negative." Some of these phrases are:

1. "I hate Glenville."
2. "There is absolutely nothing to do around this place."
3. "I had an 'A' average in the class but he gave me a 'C.'"
4. "Who cares about culture?"
5. "Is it your deal, or mine?"

ARMED WITH the knowledge of these few simple phrases, you may easily recognize the "negative." Commit the phrases to memory, so that you will be able to communicate with your fellow students. Then look for someone suffering with negativism. You shouldn't have to look too far.

'61 Summer Session Will Open June 5

Dr. Delmar K. Somerville, Dean of Instruction and Director of Summer Sessions at Glenville State College, has released the 1961 summer schedule.

The first six-weeks term will begin on Monday, June 5, and continue until Friday, July 14. There will be a one-week vacation between the closing of the spring term on May 26 and the opening of the first summer session.

Second term of summer school will begin on Monday, July 17, and continue until Friday, August 25.

Summer sessions will consist of six weeks each, with classes meeting five days a week.

Dixon Exhibits Art In GSC Gallery

William Dixon, senior art and speech student from Vienna, recently exhibited a one-man art show in the Glenville State College Art Gallery in the Administration Building.

Dixon's art show consisted of a number of oil mediums, watercolor paintings, charcoal mediums, and ceramic pieces. Some of the oil paintings are entitled, "Portrait of Janet Hall," "Portrait of Harry Hull," and "Unfinished Portrait."

Also on display was an Ostwald Color Wheel which contained forty-seven different colors.

Dixon's oil mediums included realistic, impressionistic, abstract, and non-objective paintings.

Dixon is a graduate of Parkersburg High School.

Quartet Travels, Performs on TV

Varsity Quartet, composed of Bill Biggers, Harold Metz, Paul Wigal and Waymuel McCray, have been active recently filling singing engagements throughout the central West Virginia area.

On Friday night, Jan. 27, on WJPB - Channel 5 - Weston, the group entertained the regional viewing area with an hour show from 7 to 8. They demonstrated the different types of quartets, the history of quartets, how to form a quartet and the different styles of music that can be used.

Members of the quartet, along with Mr. Alexander Zerbán who has assisted them, had only one week's notice of the TV show and worked every free minute in preparing an entertaining and interesting program.

On Saturday, Jan. 28, the quartet appeared in Clarksburg before three hundred participants of the Annual Farming for Better Living Regional Roundup at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel.

The quartet sang a variety of songs at the Rock Grove Baptist Church, Linn, on Sunday night, Jan. 29.

Glenechoes Record

Another group of campus musicians who have been working hard is the Glenechoes. On Sunday afternoon the octet held a recording session; they recorded two one-hour tapes which will be sent to fulfill requests for performances.

Group decided that recordings would prove valuable because members can not possibly appear everywhere they are asked. Members of the Glenechoes are Shirley Conrad, first soprano; Martha Lee Hall, second soprano; Elaine Allison, first alto; Patty Dent, second alto; Paul Wigal, first tenor; Mr. Zerbán, second tenor; Edward McKown, baritone; and Bill Spelbring, bass.

Wesley Foundation Presents Programs

Series of Sunday evening services at Wesley Foundation on "Basic Information about Alcohol" will continue through Sunday, Feb. 5. A number of fact-filled films on "Alcohol and the Human Body," "Alcohol and Personality," and "Alcohol and Christian Responsibility" have been presented. Service Sunday night will begin at 6:45.

"Basic Christian Beliefs" will begin the series for the Sunday evening programs starting Feb. 12. This series will be open to students and all others who are interested. Time has been changed to 7:30 so that additional persons may attend. Study booklets will be available and there will be a discussion period on Christian beliefs.

Mr. Lawrence Sherwood, pastor-director of the Wesley Foundation, 102 College Street, reminds students who need materials for their files that they are invited to look over magazines and other items at Wesley House.

Several people in Glenville have given stacks of "Time" and "Life" and home-making magazines and other periodicals for student use. Students may extract portions from these magazines.

Long ago, about 1919, a favorite spot of many GSC couples was a flight of steps with an arch overhead. Here, under a dim gas light many couples loitered. It was a cherished spot.

The steps are located between the Dr. Wendell Hardway house and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Butcher, connecting Beall View Drive and College Street. Steps were owned by Mr. J. N. Shackelford.

When Mr. Shackelford died, it was rumored by some residents of Glenville and many college students that he had willed these steps to the college so that the couples could go on enjoying them.

Through a little research, this reporter exploded this GSC-owner-ship myth. Upon visiting the Gilmer County Court House and reading the will of Mr. Shackelford, we found that this property does not belong to the college at all. Mr. Shackelford's will stated that his home and the lot upon which it stands, together with the furniture, be left to Mr. Thad Byrne.

The romantic steps and arch overhead still stand on College Street. Since the steps do not belong to the college, students should heed an unofficial, unwritten sign of the rightful owner — "NO SPARKING."

Former Teacher Receives Honors In San Salvador

Miss Evalena McCutcheon, former critic teacher here, was recently honored at a Baptist College in San Salvador, upon her retirement from professional life, after completing 36 years of service in educational centers.

Miss McCutcheon received her Ph.D. degree from Denison University in 1925 and in January, 1926, began teaching in the Baptist College in San Salvador.

A group of alumni planned and prepared "The Ceremonies of Respect" which were held on Jan. 7. Tribute of respect for "Senorita Evalena McCutcheon in recognition of her outstanding labor in education as Directress of our College, on occasion of her return to her native country" was held on the College campus.

Miss McCutcheon, a native of Summersville, and her sister Miss Vada McCutcheon were graduated from Glenville State Normal School in the Whiting Class of 1919. Miss Vada McCutcheon received her AB degree from GSC in 1936.

Picture of Prof. McCutcheon and story concerning her retirement and "The Ceremonies of Respect" appeared in the San Salvador newspaper El Diario de Hoy, 15 de diciembre, 1960.

J. Chips, Dotson Wilson Receive Football Honors

The 1960 GSC football team received high recognition in the post-season polling for the All-Conference football unit. This team, which is the cream of the conference football crop, is selected by the coaches of member colleges.

Pioneers placed halfback Junior Wilson, tackle Jim Dotson, and guard John Chipps on the All-Conference first squad.

JUNIOR WILSON, from Clay, was a standout runner for Coach Nick Murin's team throughout the season. He was especially adept at ripping off the needed yardage when the Pioneers were in a tight spot. Wilson was also the man who packed the most scoring punch. Wilson, a senior, saw action four years for the Pioneers.

JIM DOTSON was a standout for the Glenville team that sported a strong defensive line; he was the player who anchored the line and stopped the forward rush of many opposing halfbacks and fullbacks with his bone-crushing tackles. Dotson, a senior, has seen action for two years with the White Wave.

JOHN CHIPPS was one of the men who helped the Pioneers go on the ground. Chipps was the type of player who set up the ground attack. He was particularly strong as a blocker and opened the holes for the running backs. Chipps, a senior from St. Marys, has seen three years of action on the GSC team.

Two Glenville men were placed on the All-Conference second team and one player received honorable mention. Those representing the G-Men on the second team were Bob Summers, junior from Parkersburg; and Ellsworth Buck, senior from Richmond. Named on the honorable mention list was Paul Skidmore from Rainelle.

Six Games Remain On GSC Schedule

The Glenville Pioneers have six games remaining on the basketball calendar before they go to compete in the post-season WVIAC tourney.

Three of these six games will be played on the road and three will be on the home hardwood. Two of the three away games will be on a week-end trip. West Liberty will be the opponent on Friday, Feb. 3, and Wheeling the following night, Saturday, Feb. 4. The other away game will be played Feb. 8 against Davis and Elkins.

Three remaining home contests consist of a game Feb. 6 with W. Va. State, one with Concord Feb. 9, and one tonight against a much improved Wesleyan team. In the initial encounter of these two teams this season the Pioneers came away with a 102-79 victory.

Since then however, the Bobcats have come on and taken some of the better teams in the conference. One of these victories was over the Morris Harvey Eagles.

Pioneers have taken all but one of the other teams in their first meeting. State beat the Pioneers by 5 points on their home court.

Byrd-men Beat Hilltoppers, Concord; Lose Two To Tech, One To Tigers

The Glenville Pioneers have won two and lost three in basketball play since the Jan. 18 issue of the MERCURY. Wins were over Concord and West Liberty.

Two of the losses were to W. Va. Tech and the other loss came at the hands of the Salem Tigers.

Salem, Jan. 24

The Glenville Pioneers lost their second game in a row, Jan. 24, as they dropped an 89-77 decision to a sharp-shooting Salem five on the home court.

The first half of play was controlled mainly by the G-Men as they started by taking a 13-8 lead after six minutes of play. The Tigers, however, managed to hang on and come back to within two points of the Pioneers at halftime. Halftime score was 37-35.

The teams played on an even keel for about six minutes after the halftime. With 14:00 showing on the clock, Kaminsky hit on a long one-hander from the corner and put the Tigers out in front to stay.

The Pioneers were led in scoring by Bob Lambert who hit for 22 markers. Tim Carney, who played a fine floor game, came through with 12 points. Russ Shepherd founded out those in the double figures with a 10-point effort.

The Salem team was led in scoring by Dave Christie who hit for 21 points.

W. Va. Tech, Jan. 21

Pioneers suffered their worst loss of the season, Jan. 21, as they were downed by a tough Tech team 118-86. The defeat came at the hands of the same Tech five who eked out an 82-80 victory on Glenville's home court Jan. 16.

The first quarter play was closely contested ending with the Golden Bears leading 18-16.

Second quarter play seemed to be the turning point in the game. The Pioneers made only 12 foul shots in this period while the Tech team hit on 20 fouls.

At halftime the White Wave had dropped behind 58-36. Half of the 40 points scored by the Tech team in the second quarter of play came via the foul-line route.

The Tech team came back after the halftime and kept setting the pace as they hit on 22 fielders and collected 16 more from the foul line to widen their winning margin to 32 points. Pioneers hit on only 34 foul shots while attempting 62.

Once again Bob Lambert was the leading scorer for the White Wave as he for 20 points. He was closely followed by Mike Eberbaugh who had 19. Russ Shepherd chipped in with 15 markers.

Concord, Jan. 20

The Glenville Pioneers upped their conference mark to an 8-4 standing as they outscrapped the Concord Mountain Lions 96-90 on the Mountain Lions home court, Jan. 20.

First half of play was nip-and-tuck as the teams fought to a 50-50 halftime deadlock. A look at the halftime statistics gives one an idea of how well the two teams were equally balanced. At this stage of the game both teams had 20 fielders and each team also had hit on 10 occasions from the foul stripe.

Both teams hit on an identical 14 field goals during the second half of play. The Pioneers managed to get the winning six point edge at the foul line where they hit for 18 points in the second half as compared to Concord's 12.

The Byrd-Men were led in scoring by Bob Lambert. Of his 23 points, 12 came in the crucial second half of play. Fred Smith who has been turning in some good games hit for 19 points. Russ Shepherd followed with 14.

W. Va. Tech, Jan. 16

The G-Men lost a hard-fought battle on the home hardwood as they were defeated by the Tech Golden Bears 82-80, on Jan. 16.

The G-Men started slowly but managed to keep ahead of the Golden Bears for most of the first half of play. With 17 seconds remaining before halftime Tech pulled in front 43-42.

Glenville kept up a persistent attack after the half. The score never varied over three or four points until eight minutes of remaining play. At this stage Mel McNeer of Tech hit on a fielder and put the Golden Bears ahead to stay.

Tech then ran up an 80-70 lead with 3:35 showing on the clock. The Pioneers poured on the steam as they came bounding back. Russ Shepherd hit from the floor with 5 seconds of play remaining but the Pioneers came up two points short as they were handed the 82-80 loss.

Bob Lambert led the Pioneers in scoring with 23 markers. He also played a good defensive game. Russ Shepherd scored 12.

West Liberty, Jan. 14

The Byrd-Men showed some terrific scoring punch in the closing minutes of play as they downed a stubborn West Liberty quintet 87-82 on the home court Jan. 14.

The Glenville five set the pace in the opening minutes of play and the first half ended with the Pioneers commanding a slim margin.

The White Wave came back in the second half of play and remained ahead most of the time. With four seconds of play remaining, Glenville's lead was cut to 70-69. At this time Dick Pannett of West Liberty was awarded a two shot foul. Pannett made the first to tie the score 70-70 but missed the second attempt.

The clock then ran out as Glenville gained control and attempted one last shot.

The overtime began slowly for the Byrd-Men as West Liberty pulled out to a quick 74-70 lead. Glenville started moving and swamped the Hilltoppers as Lambert cashed in for seven, and Russ Shepherd was 4 for 4 at the foul line. This coupled with the six more points scored in the overtime gave the Pioneers an 87-82 victory.

Big Bob Lambert was high for the Glenville squad as he dumped in 22 points. He was followed in the scoring by Tim Carney who garnered 17 points.

New Room Is Used By Art Department

A new art room is now in use on the campus. It was made from two garage stalls at Firestone Lodge. The room is 20 by 22 feet and is being used by Mr. Scott's ceramic classes.

The new room contains a small gas-fired kiln, a large gas-fired kiln, a small electric kiln, potters' wheels and new shelving. The maintenance department developed a special type drainage sink for the room.

A new fire box was purchased from Mrs. Thelma Swearingen, a student at Glenville State College.

A large window is in the front of the room so students may display their work.

Simplicity Company Presents Fashions

A whole new fashion perspective for the college girl who sews will be presented by Miss Helen Wright, Special Field Representative of the Simplicity Pattern Company of New York City, on Feb. 14 on campus. Miss Wright will bring to life her talk on the news in color and fabrics with a fashion wardrobe of the latest spring pattern styles.

The "Spring Panorama" presentation captures the flavor of campus and weekend wear. It spotlights thirteen outfits in a maze of colors ranging from shades of medium intensity to those which shock — in prints, stripes, solids, and textured fabrics.

The spring silhouette is relaxed, clean-cut, and hints of elegant ease. Contrast is important fashion news as shown in bias trims, vivid stripes, mix and match costumes, and in the choice of accessories.

GSC girls will also be given suggestion about planning a well-organized wardrobe for their many activities. Miss Wright will emphasize construction techniques to give a garment a professional finish, and how to accent an outfit with the proper accessories.

In addition, Miss Wright will talk on "Home Economics Careers in Business", giving information on the wide variety of interesting and exciting career opportunities available to girls with home economics degrees. Her presentation on the "Effective Use of Visual Aids" is aimed at teachers in training and contains many ideas for using visual aids in teaching home economics.
