manufactured workmen, living automats, lacking souls, desires and feelings, but complete with the ability to work.

Coach Carlos Ratliff Served GSC 15 Years

By Keith Smith

Funeral services were held the past Thursday for Mr. Carlos Clayton Ratliff, Director of Athletics and Baseball Coach. Coach Ratliff died early Tuesday morning, Oct. 3, in the West Virginia Medical Center, Morgantown, at the age of 50. The body lay in state in the College Gymnasium Thursday morning, Oct. 5.

Services were held Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Glenville Presbyterian Church. Burial was in the Masonic Cemetery at Weston.

Mr. Ratliff is survived by his wife, the former Miss Margaret Tate of Weston; two daughters, Mrs. Ronald E. Dickerson of Springfield, Mass., and Ann Ryling, a senior here; seven sisters, Mrs. Garland Abbott, High Point, N. C.; Mrs. Harry O'Dell and Mrs. Eleanor Simmons both of Ronceverte; Mrs. Marie Fellum of Beckley; Mrs. Richard Wazell of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Lauvill Reese, Winston-Salem, N. C.; and Miss Thelma Ratliff of California; two brothers, Leslie of Hinton and Harry of Beckley; and two grandchildren, Michael Ronald and Melissa Jane Dickerson.

Coach Ratliff was born in Hinton, Oct. 18, 1910. He attended elementary and secondary schools there. He received his AB degree at Glenville and MS degree at West Virginia University. He did graduate study at the University of Pittsburgh and New York University.

Coach Ratliff's entire life was dedicated to education and athletics and especially education and athletics at Glenville State College. He was a devoted teacher-coach for 24 years. He first came to Glenville Normal School in 1929. That year he set a scoring record in football of 72 points. In the two following years, he attended WVU and Duke. He returned to Glenville in 1932 where he remained to graduate in 1934.

In 1932-33,34, Mr. Ratliff made the football, basketball and baseball squads. He was a football and baseball player of exceptional ability. In football he was an elusive half-back and in baseball an outstanding shortstop and a keen-eyed batter.

Following his graduation, he took a teaching-coaching position in Clay County High School (1934-1936); then Hinton High School (1936-1937); Northfork High School (1937-1942), and Williamson High School (1942-43).

During the time he was teaching in the southern part of the state, he was also playing and coaching professional baseball in the old Mountain State League. He both coached and played for Bluefield and Welch teams. He later played for the last Weston Independent baseball team.

Coach Ratliff served in the Navy from 1943-46. Most of his naval career was spent at Des Moines, Iowa, at the naval pre-flight base. While there he coached the baseball team. He met and in some cases became close friends with nationally known coaches and athletes.

Upon discharge from the Navy, Coach Ratliff returned to Glenville where he carried a full teaching schedule, was director of Louis Bennett Hall, and coach of all three sports for four years.

Fall of 1950 Coach Ratliff suffered his first serious heart-attack. It occurred at Charles Town only minutes before the team was to leave to play Shepherd. A heart specialist pronounced his condition as "serious, but improving." The athletic teams continued under the charge of Michael Joseph and Stanley Hall.

In the years that followed Coach Ratliff coached only baseball, the

Voice of the Students

The MERCURY is your newspaper! It is published every other Wednesday during the regular school year by the journalism classes.

PERHAPS the most important element involved in presenting stories and pictures is that of time. Engravings are completed in Buckhannon and printing is done in Clay.

PICTURES are taken by our photographer—the latest possible time being Wednesday night—and developed that night or early Thursday morning. Outlines are then written and the pictures must be mailed to West Virginia Photo & Engraving Service in Buckhannon by 3:00 P.M. Thursday.

THE ENGRAVER, in turn, completes his work and meets his mailing deadline on Saturday afternoon. The engravings must arrive in Clay by Monday morning so that the Elk Printing Company can complete the printing of the MERCURY and mail it to us for delivery on Wednesday.

LETTERS to the Editors are welcomed at any time. It has always been the policy of the MERCURY in the past to publish letters to the editor if they are sensibly-written and well-thought out. This policy is still continued.

LETTERS do not necessarily have to be signed but both the adviser and the editors must know who wrote them. The letters should be in the MERCURY office by Tuesday of the week before the paper appears on campus. The letter should be on a timely matter since the paper appears on campus almost a week after we receive the letter.

WE TRULY want the MERCURY to be the "voice of the students." Contributions can be given to any staff member, left in the MERCURY office, or placed in the small slot in the door of the MERCURY office.

ALTHOUGH some observers believe that a newspaper should have no editorial policy, we firmly believe that a publication should aid in the formulation of opinions and back these opinions on certain issues.

IT IS TRUE that news itself often has a great effect on public opinion, but the MERCURY also believes that the duty of a newspaper is to help form opinion through the editorial page.

THIS NEWSPAPER has an will try to continue to pursue an editorial policy of objectivity. We will try to approach every subject with no intent of partiality, and we will weigh the facts at hand and present them fairly, as we see them.

HOWEVER, we make no pretense of being infallible. Therefore, if any reader thinks our weighing of the facts is wrong, he is at complete liberty to express his opinion through the editorial page of the MERCURY.

IF SPACE should prohibit our printing your contribution, try again! We welcome your letters, articles, or features. Without help from you, the MERCURY cannot be.

—Patricia Mullins

Furniture Arrives For Women's Hall

Part of the furniture for Mrs. Flora Pribble's apartment and for the main lounge of the new women's dormitory has arrived, according to Miss Pearl Pickens, dean of women.

Not very much of the office furniture, none of the furniture for the TV room nor visiting parlor and no lamps have been received yet.

Miss Pickens says, "We hope to have the curtains and drapes by this week-end and all of the furniture should be here by Thanksgiving." She adds that the mail-boxes and the buzzer system will probably be installed soon.

LETTER TO EDITORS

Editors, THE MERCURY,

It does REALLY pay to advertise. Last week I ran an advertisement in THE MERCURY concerning a fountain pen that I had misplaced. The paper came out Wednesday morning and that afternoon a student told me that he knew where my pen could be found. The next morning at nine o'clock the fountain pen was returned to me.

Not only am I grateful to the student who was so honest as to return the misplaced fountain pen, but I am quite enthusiastic about the speedy and efficient results I received from my advertisement in THE MERCURY. I recommend your advertising columns to others who may have something to sell or who may wish to advertise something.

Pioneers Win Homecoming Clash
By Downing Concord Lions 20-14

Coch Carlos Ratliff

game he loved and played so well. All the while he refused to give up any of his duties. He persisted in carrying his full schedule of classes and duties as Director of Athletics. He also served as Chairman of District 28 for the NAIA and annually made the trip to Kansas City, Mo., for the basketball tournament there.

Coch Ratliff remained active as Director of Athletics until his death. He recently made the trip to Keyser for the GSC-Potomac State football game. Although he was unable to attend the Homecoming game, he was greatly pleased with the victory over Concord. Coach Ratliff was quoted as having said his greatest thrill as a coach came as the result of his first victory over Concord.

Mr. Ratliff was known and respected by many people, great and small. His memory will linger always in the halls of the Health Building of which he and Homer, his dog and constant companion, were an irreplaceable part. He will be remembered, not only as a legendary athlete, but also as a man well worth remembering.

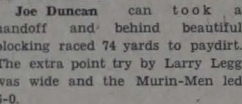

Still around Hinton, on a quiet day, one can hear the echo rolling back of the hill, "Go, Rat, Go!"

Glenville Defense
Stops Final Threat

By Tim Carney

Playing heads-up football and capitalizing on enemy mistakes, the Glenville Pioneers derailed the Concord Mountain Lions 20-14 in the 28th Annual Homecoming game, Sept. 30.

A near record crowd witnessed the hard-fought game which saw each team battle until the final gun. The largest group of freshmen in GSC history had no more than reached their seats when Glenville half-back Joe Duncan took a handoff and behind beautiful blocking raced 74 yards to paydirt. The extra point try by Larry Legg was wide and the Murin-Men led 6-0.

After an exchange of the ball the Mountain Lions started a drive which ended with the quarterback Steve Londer slipping over from the three. Big Phil Marshall split the uprights with the conversion and Concord led 7-6.

Lions Strike

The Mountain Lions struck again shortly before the half when Londer teamed with speedster end Tom Mensey on a 27-yard scoring play. Again the extra point found the mark and the Pioneers trailed 14-6.

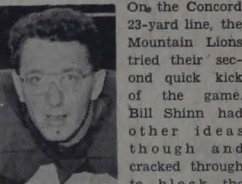

After Don Yontz had intercepted a third-quarter Bob Easso pass on the Concord seven, the men from Athens were forced to punt. Yontz, the league's leading booter, momentarily bobbled the snap and big Phil Clarke smothered him in the end zone for a safety, running the count to 14-8 in favor of Concord.

The White Wave then took the ensuing Concord kick and moved it steadily downfield with Duncan clipping off 25 yards in one gallop to bring the ball to the Concord 7. Three plays later the G-Men had moved the ball just one yard. On fourth and 6 Duncan, back to pass, found a gaping hole in the Lion defensive wall and raced in for the score. Larry Legg's vital extra point try was wide but the score was deadlocked 14-14.

Clarke Scores

Midway in the fourth quarter the Pioneers got the break they needed.

On the Concord 23-yard line, the Mountain Lions tried their second quick kick of the game. Bill Shinn had other ideas though and cracked through to block the punt and Phil (on the spot) Clarke picked up the loose pigskin and lugged it over the touchdown. Concord blocked the conversion attempt but the Pioneers led 20-14.

The Mountain Lions mounted one last threat but the strong defensive Glenville line led by Bill Shinn, Pete Spencer, Vince Post and half-back Ed Drake stopped the rally short on the GSC four-yard line.

Offensively Joe Duncan carried nine times for 137 yards and Phil Clarke carried twice for 21 yards. Defensive stalwarts were Shinn, Post, Keith Smith, Glen Proctor, Larry Legg, and John Quintrell.

The Pioneers led in rushing yardage 192 to 148, Concord led in first downs 9-6 and passing yardage 35 to -1 for the White Wave.

Pioneer-Davis & Elkins game results were not available when the MERCURY went to press.

Will Battle Wesleyan

Next Glenville game will be Oct. 14 with the strong West Virginia Wesleyan Bobcats at Buckhannon. The Pioneers have one remaining home game. This tilt is with the Salem Tigers Friday afternoon, Oct. 20, at Rhrorough Field. The Pioneers then close out the season with the Falcons at Fairmont on Oct. 28.

White Wave Whips Potomac State;
Clarke Leads GSC Rushing Attack

The Glenville State College Pioneers trimmed the Potomac State Catamounts 39-20 Sept. 23 at Keyser.

Bob Basso again led the White-Wave attack as he threw for three touchdowns, one an eleven yarder to Joe Duncan with three seconds left in the first half, breaking a 14-14 tie.

The Glenville eleven which was held at bay in its opener with West Liberty erupted forcefully and evened its mark at 1-1.

Potomac State scored first as Chuck Giger hit Bill Kennedy with a 77-yard touchdown pass. Bob Farr kicked the extra point and Potomac State led 7-0.

Basso Connects

Pioneers then convinced the partisan crowd that they, too, could throw the pigskin as Basso hit Romeo Williams with a 76-yard pass. Larry Legg converted and the first quarter ended 7-7.

Phi Mu Gamma
Is Float Winner

First place honors for the winning floats in the Homecoming Parade went to Phi Mu Gamma. Theme of the float was "We have a purple passion to crush Concord." Decorations were of purple and white centered on a grape arbor and huge bunches of grapes. Three members of the sorority, dressed in various shades of purple gowns, rode on the float.

Second place winner was Xi Beta Tau. Theme of the float was "The Apple of My Eye," and decorations centered on a huge red "conquered" (Concord) apple. Small papier-mache footballs, each bearing a Pioneer's name surrounded the apple.

Holy Roller Court took third place in the judging with their huge papier-mache figures of a Pioneer riding a Mountain Lion.

Mr. Lloyd M. Jones, business manager, reports that the attendance at the 1961 Homecoming game was the largest attendance, 2229, at a Homecoming game here. The largest previous crowds were 2113 at the 1960 Homecoming game and 2039 in 1958.
