GSC Science Graduates Given Doctorate Degrees

Recently, two Glenville State College alumni have experienced some success in the scientific fields of pharmacology and microbiology.

Robert Craig, a former resident of Ireland and a graduate of Walkersville High School, has recently completed the requirements for a doctorate degree in pharmacology at the University of Wisconsin.

Extension Set For Dormitory

President Harry B. Heflin announced that Grafey and Hohlitzel, architects, have been hired to make drawings and specifications for construction of an extension to Louis Bennett Hall.

The cost of construction is estimated at $850,000 to be paid from room rentals. This construction will not affect any change in the present room rates.

The extension will add 200 beds to the regular capacity of Louis Bennett Hall and will bring the total number of men housed there to 322.

Construction of the extension is tentatively set to begin in May or June of 1964.

GSC Art Club Plans Exhibition

A dual-art exhibition with West Virginia Wesleyan College is in the planning stage. Anyone wishing to enter works in this spring exhibition should see Mr. Jon D. Wink or Judy Mattson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wink gave a demonstration concerning etching, the different types of printing and the methods of printing at the Art Club meeting Jan. 9 in Room 309.

Staff Additions For Semester Are Announced

Additions to the GSC instructional staff for the second semester have been announced by President Harry B. Heflin.

Mr. Salah M. Yacoub, a native of Budrus, Jordan, is an instructor in rural sociology and anthropology. Mr. Yacoub is replacing Mr. Andrew Baird who accepted a position at Mississippi State University as assistant project director of the Social Science Research Center and left in January 1963.

Working Toward Doctorate

Mr. Yacoub holds a BS degree from Montana State College and an MA degree from Michigan State University. He has also held a graduate teaching assistantship at Michigan State University and is working toward a doctorate at the University of Kentucky.

Mr. Yacoub came to the United States as a 4-H exchange student and lived in Montana for six months. He is married and the father of one child.

Mrs. Wolfe Returns

Mrs. Eileen Hamrick Wolfe, a former faculty member, will return to the home economics staff. Mrs. Wolfe is a native of Glenville and holds an AB degree from Glenville State College. She joined the GSC faculty in 1957 as an instructor and dietician. In 1962, she left the staff and since that time has served as principal of a Parkersburg elementary school.

Exams Begin Tomorrow, Enrollment Starts Monday

First semester will end Friday; final examinations will be Thursday and Friday. The second semester will begin Monday, Jan. 27, and Tuesday, Jan. 28, with registration beginning on both days at 8 a.m. in the Health and Physical Education Building.

Seniors planning to participate in commencement exercises in May will enroll on Monday, Jan. 27. Juniors will also register for second semester classes on Monday.

Sophomores and freshmen will register on Tuesday, Jan. 28.

Time slips for registering may be drawn at the window of the Registrar's Office on Thursday, Jan. 23, from 1 to 3 p.m. and Friday, Jan. 24, from 9 to 11 a.m.

All students are urged to consult with their advisers before registration day. Students may obtain a schedule card from their adviser and work out a trail schedule with the adviser's approval.

Second semester and third term classes will begin Wednesday, Jan. 29.

Class Directs One-act Plays

The members of the Play Production Class 224 will cast and present one-act plays. Many of these people have already begun work on the plays in Play Production Class 223. Tryouts will be held at the beginning of the next term; the plays will be presented at the end of the third term.

The bill of one-acts will probably include: George Bernard Shaw's "Dark Lady of the Sonnets" directed by Wayman Johnson; Lucille Fletcher's "Sorry Wrong Number" directed by Tom Isenhart; "Red Carnations" by Glen Hughes, directed by Art Coughlin.

"Still Alarm" by George Kaufman, directed by Loretta Dwelle; "Junkmen" written and directed by Jim Bush; and "The Neighbor" by Zona Gale, directed by Randy Dotson.

NURSERY SCHOOL BEGINS JAN. 29

The following children will be enrolled in Nursery School for the second semester: Jeanette Cain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cain, Jr.; Kevin Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Rogers; Cathy McCartney, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Loren McCartney.

Mary Esther Watson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Judge Watson; Rea Kay Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson; and Cindy Ann Kelly, daughter of Trooper and Mrs. Kelly. Nursery School meets at the Home Management House under the direction of Miss Elma Jean Woolter.

The Home Management House will be open for residence the third term this year. Six women are scheduled to live there at that time. They are: Karen Hayhurst, a home economics and English student from Whitesville.

Peggy Moffet, home economics and business, Clarksburg; Doris Radabaugh, home economics and business, Glenville; Nancy Rogers, home economics, Parkersburg; and Sue Wray, home economics, Apple Grove.

African Students Leave Campus

Two students from Nyasaland, Africa, Edwin Anock Munyenembe and Ignasio Augusto Nankwenya, who have been on campus this semester to study our program of teacher training, will leave Glenville at the end of this semester.

These young men were selected to study in America by the Agency for International Development in conjunction with the government of Nyasaland. At the end of a 12-month period, they are expected to return to their country.

Mr. Munyenembe has a BA degree from the University of Bombay, India; and Mr. Nankwenya has a BS degree from the University of South Africa, Pretoria, South Africa. Both have taught in Nyasaland and are presently serving as principals of their respective colleges in the area of teacher education.

Their study assignment for the remaining months of their stay in America had not been made when the MERCURY went to press. They expected to go first to Washington, D. C., from Glenville.

GSC ELIGIBLE FOR AAUW

President Harry B. Heflin has recently been notified by the American Association of University Women that Glenville State College "has been placed on the AAUW qualified list."

All women who graduated from GSC with a recognized baccalaureate degree in past years or those who graduate in the future are eligible for AAUW.

The first baccalaureate degree was granted to Miss Floy Allman, a teacher in the Kanawha County Schools, Miss Allman was the only woman in her graduating class of nine. The Bachelor of Arts Class of 1963 was composed of 136 with 69 of them being women.

National recognition by this Association follows accreditation by other groups on a national basis: American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education-1935; North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools-1949 and National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education-1954.

Tryouts Are Set For Three-Act

Tryouts for William Gibson's three-act fantasy "Dinny and the Witches" will be held in the auditorium January 27, 28, and 29 from 6 to 9 p.m. The play has a cast of 13 characters including three witches.

Six women and seven men will be needed to round out the cast. Probable production dates are March 12, 13 and 16 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

Students will be admitted with the activity card; others attending will be charged $1.00.

Play will be directed by Mr. Rodney Busch, instructor in speech and dramatics.

Snow, Snow, Snow And Boots, Boots, Boots

All kinds of boots, Robin Hood, cossack, fur topped lined, un-lined, leather, plastic, corduroy, patent leather, suede, high-heeled, low-heeled boots, have been seen recently on campus. There are boots of many colors: green, red, black, beige, dark brown, white and multi-colors.

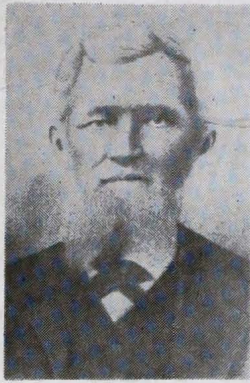

Women students and women faculty members are the chief wearers; however, male students and faculty members have strode forth in more practical ones.

Boots were a necessity on campus and in town the past week to negotiate the snow-covered icy walks and streets. Eighteen inches (unofficial) of snow covered the area by Monday evening, Jan. 13; drifts accounted for even greater depths.

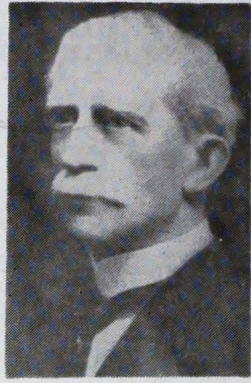

Brightly colored boots and the "boyish" look became the fashion. Climbing the hill became a little less hazardous, and the whole "ordeal" of snow and winter appeared to be a little more bearable with boots.

We Are Proud

IN THE OCT. 23 MERCURY (immediately following the first lyceum program: Three in Concert) two students, a certain Music Student and 234-72-7412, in "Letters to the Editor," expressed concern for student appearance and conduct at lyceum programs.

IN THE NOV. 20 MERCURY (shortly before the second lyceum program: the Markowski-Cedrone Concert) Mr. Carl A. Kerr, chairman of the Lyceum Committee, in "Common Courtesy and Polite Behavior" set forth some suggestions for acceptable conduct and dress for those attending lyceum programs.

THOSE STUDENTS attending the Markowski-Cedrone Concert displayed common courtesy and polite behavior. Not only others present, but also Frank and Victoria Cedrone, the performers, were aware of this proper behavior.

IN A LETTER to Mr. Kerr, Mr. Cedrone said: "Allow me to repeat what I said the evening of our concert there . . . the conduct, response, receptivity, and concert manners of the student body were FIRST CLASS. You should be very proud of them."

WE ARE.

Do You Care?

THE FIRST SENTENCE in the Dec. 11 MERCURY editorial was, "The lack of student-faculty understanding is considered by many students to be a serious problem." The editorial stated further that a recent meeting was held on campus in an attempt to clarify both student and faculty positions.

SOME FACULTY MEMBERS and student leaders suggested that students be given an opportunity to express whether they wished similar meetings to continue. Immediately below the editorial a "Student-Faculty Forum" ballot was placed.

ONLY TWO STUDENTS were interested enough to read, clip out, mark and place the form in the "Suggestion Box" in the Student Union. Apparently students did not think that such meetings are valuable and would not attend such meetings if they were continued.

A SECOND MEETING has been planned, however, even though students demonstrated little interest. It is hoped that some answers to questions raised at the last meeting will be found and that students are interested in their own problems.

Literary Society Discusses

'To Kill A Mockingbird'

By WILMA STANLEY

"To Kill A Mockingbird" by Harper Lee, the story of the opening of a child's eyes to the dreary facts of prejudice against Negroes, was discussed at the Jan. 12 meeting of the Literary Society. The novel, Pulitzer Prize winner in 1961, was also selected by the Literary Guild, British Book Society, and Reader's Digest Condensed Books.

"To Kill A Mockingbird" has received both positive and negative reviews. The story is told in adult language from the point of view of a six-year old girl Scout Finch.

Atticus Finch, a lawyer and the father of Scout and Jem, tells his son: "It's a sin to kill a mockingbird." The mockingbird is symbolic of Tom Robinson, the falsely accused Negro, whom Atticus, the symbol of democracy, unsuccessfully defends. Tom, like the mockingbird did not harm anyone, and when society caused his death, it committed a sin.

Not only does Harper Lee present segregation, but she presents segregation in reverse when Calpurnia, the Negro nurse, takes Jem and Scout to church with her. Some Negroes criticize their attendance just as some white people wish to forbid Negro attendance in their church.

A striking parallel exists between Harper Lee's "To Kill A Mockingbird" and Mark Twain's "Huckleberry Finn". Both authors deal with injustice toward the Negro and with folk superstition, and both present their tales with warmth and humor.

"To Kill A Mockingbird" is a persuasive plea for racial justice. This novel should be read by every American.

Sorority Notes

DELTA ZETA

Delta Zeta Sorority is organizing a Senior Board consisting of a group of senior members who will advise the other members on traditions and rituals of the sorority.

The sorority sat as a group at the Davis-Elkins basketball game on Jan. 15 wearing their new DZ blouses and black skirts.

After the regular meeting Jan. 13, Mrs. William Douglas conducted a Standards Program on personality improvement.

A rush school was conducted by Penny Myers, vice president of rushing, on Jan. 11. This school was to advise the members of the plans for rush week.

On Jan. 7 the sorority members attended a party given by the Holy Roller Court at the Conrad Hotel.

PHI MU GAMMA

Mrs. Leland Byrd honored the Sigma Chapter of Phi Mu Gamma in her home with an informal meeting and party Monday, Jan. 20.

Mrs. James Mosby, National President of Phi Mu Gamma, and Mrs. Pauline Caudill visited the Sigma Chapter Jan. 21 for a formal dinner and meeting. Program plans were made for the coming rush season.

Phi Mu Gamma will sponsor the annual Sweetheart Ball, Saturday, Feb. 15. Music will be furnished by the Royallones; admission $2.50 for couple.

An added attraction for the dance will be the revealing of the Sweethearts-of-the-Year. Sweethearts will be chosen by popular vote, five cent nomination and penny a vote in the Student Union Feb. 13 and 14. Voting will become secret after 6 p.m. Friday, Feb. 14.

GSC Will Enter Drama Festival

The Glenville State College entry in the West Virginia Collegiate Drama Festival this spring will be "The American Dream" by Edward Albee who currently has a play on Broadway, "Who's Afraid of Virginia Wolfe?"

Tryouts for this play will be held immediately following performance of "Dinny and the Witches". Glenville's entry in the Festival last year was George Bernard Shaw's "In Good King Charles Golden Days" featuring Margaret Hofmann, Cheryl Fisher, Jack Brown, Larry Wolfe, James Booth and William Spelbring. Spelbring was chosen a member of the 'all-state cast'.

Louis Bennett Hall Lounge is the location of pictures of Glenville State College presidents from the past to the present.

Mr. Lloyd Jones, business manager at GSC, initiated the project of collecting pictures of GSC presidents when the pictures of the first president, T. M. Marshall, was found in a store room in a basement of a campus building a few years ago.

The pictures of the other presidents were obtained from yearbooks, from contacting Miss Bessie B. Bell, Mr. Hunter Whiting and others. Three of the presidents are still living. They are President Harry Heflin, present president of GSC; D. L. Haight, 1942-47; Robert T. Crawford, 1947. Mrs. S. O. Bond provided a picture of her husband, S. O. Bond, president 1914-15.

Pictures of Dr. E. G. Rohrbough, Mr. Louis Bennett, and Dr. Harry Heflin were in the Lounge of Louis Bennett Hall. (Dr. Heflin's picture was presented by West Virginia Attendance Directors.) Since these pictures were already in the Lounge and since the Lounge is used for faculty meetings it was decided to place the other pictures here.

Several pictures were enlarged from small prints, and eventually all of the pictures were fitted in identical frames. Lettering for the pictures was done by Mr. Charles Scott, assistant professor of art. The GSC Maintenance crew hung the pictures.

Three pictures are needed to complete the collection. They are S. P. Lazear, 1881-82; R. W. Tapp, 1890-91; M. D. Helmick, 1892-95.

Mr. Jones has written to Dr. Perry Gresham, President of Bethany College, seeking a source of a picture of Mr. Lazear. He has also written Mr. Charles D. Patterson at West Virginia University concerning a picture of Mr. Robert W. Tapp.

Three campus buildings bear the names of GSC presidents. Verona Mapel Hall was named in honor of Miss Verona Mapel, acting principal of Glenville Normal School. Louis Bennett Hall was named in honor of Mr. Louis Bennett, 1873-75. Robert F. Kidd Library was named in honor of President Kidd, 1882-84.

Rohrbough Stadium was named in honor of President Rohrbough, 1908-14; 1915-1942.

The John C. Shaw scholarship bears the name of President Shaw, 1901-08.

Mr. Jones and Mr. Leland Byrd are collecting and preparing athletic pictures to be placed in the hallway of the Health and Physical Education Building. The pictures are to be laminated. Mr. Jones said that he and Mr. Carlos Ratcliff really began the project, and he and Mr. Byrd are continuing it. So far nearly all pictures of GSC coaches have been obtained.

VMH Plans Open House

Open house will be observed at Verona Mapel Hall, Feb. 12 from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday. The theme for the decorations will be Valentine's Day.

Committees for the open house are: Jane Dean, Christine Ware, Judy Mattson decorations; Carol Hickman, Gracie Metheny, Karen Hayhurst, Sharon O'Dell food; Mary Henderson, Barbara Woodford, Katie Frazer clean-up; Elizabeth McLaughlin, Janet Long, Barbara Young publicity.

Women living in the dormitory will act as guides for the guests who attend the open house.

Plans are also being made for Verona Mapel Hall's participation in the Phi Mu Gamma Mother's Day Sing. The dormitory plans to have group singing.

G-Men Win 4, Lose 3 In Basketball Play

Dec. 13, Concord

The Pioneers broke the century mark for the first time this season against the Concord Mountain Lions, the G-Men, playing their finest game of the year to date, out ran the quintet from southern West Virginia 107-84.

During the first 10 minutes of action, both teams were shooting well and it looked as though the game would be close all the way. With about eight minutes gone in the game Concord opened up a six-point margin, their biggest of the evening. But the G-men came back to tie up the score. At the end of the first 10 minutes the Pioneers led 20-19.

At the start of the second 10 minutes Glenville again fell behind, this time by four points. Chuck Eddy evened the score at 26-26 as he sank two foul shots.

From this point on the Pioneers were never headed as they took a 47-36 lead to the dressing room with them at half time.

During this first half, Glenville shot a respectable 51% from the floor.

The Pioneers started the second half by making three field goals before Concord could score. At the three-quarter mark Glenville held a commanding 76-58 lead.

Glenville had the biggest lead of the evening at 92-60 with 7:16 left in the contest. Clyde Brewer scored the 100th point for the G-men on a driving lay-up with 3:30 left in the game. During this second half, Glenville shot a phenomenal 62% from the floor and wound up with a 55% average.

Clark Dilley led all scorers with 28 points, 24 of which were scored in the second half. Others in double figures for the Pioneers were Eddy 20, Brewer 18, Mike Reed 17, and Bob Minnieweather 12. Minnieweather also grabbed 12 stray rebounds.

Dec. 17, W. Va. Tech

The high flying Golden Bears from W. Va. Tech made their annual appearance at Glenville and they defeated the Pioneers 101-65.

The Pioneers had trouble finding the range in the early part of the game as they did not score a field goal until almost five minutes were gone in the game. Meanwhile Tech was shooting well and at the end of the first 10 minutes of play the G-men were behind 22-9.

At the beginning of the second quarter of action, one of Tech's starters was injured and had to leave the game, but even this did not slow the Golden Bears down as they ran to a 51-31 lead at half-time. During this half, Tech shot a tremendous 72% from the field.

The last half was much like the first as Tech led 72-48 at the three-quarter mark and won going away as they scored 29 points in the final 10 minutes of the game.

Clark Dilley was high man for Glenville and also took game scoring honors with 27 points. The only other Pioneer in double figures was Bob Maxwell with 10 points.

Dec. 19, Fairmont

The Pioneers braved the elements to travel to Fairmont to battle the Falcons, but found that all the snow had not cooled the Falcons any as they blistered the nets for a 108-98 victory.

Glenville shot well in the first half but could not keep up with the running Fairmont quintet. Miller and Shingleton for Fairmont scored 12 points each in this first half of action, while Clark Dilley was the only Pioneer to hit consistently from the floor. At the intermission the Falcons took a 50-37 lead to the dressing room.

Shingleton added 18 points to the Fairmont cause in the second half. He was also getting ample help from Conway and Darcus during this half.

Glenville tried to make a game of it, but could not pull it out of the fire and wound up on the short end 108-98.

Clark Dilley took game scoring honors with 36 points. Other Pioneers in double figures were Bob Minnieweather, 22, Bob Maxwell, 14, and Mike Reed 11.

Jan. 7, Salem

The Pioneers gained revenge for their first loss to the Tigers from Salem as they led all the way to win 82-71.

As the game opened, Glenville showed a good offense and defense and managed a seven-point lead at the end of the first 10 minutes of play.

The G-Men extended this lead to 37-27 at half-time.

The Pioneers were still hot as the second half started and scored 28 points in the first 10 minutes.

Glenville held the biggest lead of the evening with 1:57 left in the game, 80-60; the G-men closed out with an 82-71 victory.

The key to this win was balanced scoring as Glenville had six men in double figures.

Chuck Eddy led the scoring with 16, followed by Mike Reed 15, Bob Minnieweather 14, Clyde Brewer 14, Bob Maxwell 13, and Clark Dilley 10.

Jan. 10, W. Va. State

The Pioneers squeezed by W. Va. State 81-80 at Institute to record their second win over the Yellow Jackets this season.

State, with Armstrong leading the way with 13 points, held a one-point advantage 38-37 at half-time.

But Glenville came back strong in the second half as Clark Dilley and Chuck Eddy scored 14 and 13 points respectively, to put (Continued on Page 4)

FOOTBALL

Team Members Receive Honors

Three members of the 1963 Pioneer Football team, Tom Gunnoe, Bill Kinzer and Harold Erwin were named to the WVIAC All-Conference first team. Gunnoe and Kinzer are seniors; Erwin is a junior.

Three members were also selected to the second team. They are Pat Briscoe, junior, Jim Kiser, senior and Ernie Moore, senior.

Gunnoe was selected to both the offensive and the defensive teams and on this basis was picked as the captain of the mythical team. Gunnoe is from East Bank High School and is a physical education and speech student. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thomas of Marmet.

Kinzer was selected as one of the defensive tackles. He is a graduate of Unidis High School. Physical science and physical education are his fields of study.

Erwin was selected to one of the offensive guard post. He is a graduate of Buffalo of Putman High School and is studying physical education and social studies. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Erwin.

All the members of the second team were on the defensive squad. Briscoe was selected as tackle, Kiser as a linebacker and Moore as a linebacker.

The next basketball game is with W. Va. Wesleyan, there, Saturday night, January 25. Next home game for the Pioneers is Monday night, January 27, against Morris Harvey. On Tuesday night, January 28, they host Fairmont State.

Grapplers Lose Second Match To Fairmont

The Pioneer wrestling squad lost the second match of the season to a strong Fairmont team, 33-5 on Jan. 11.

Walt Dietz was the only Glenville wrestler to score a point as he pinned his man in the first period. John Lustig, team captain, was pinned for the first time in his varsity career.

Pat Briscoe was also the victim of a pin. Bob Chisler, Bob Marshall, Fred Halbert and Steve Kee all lost by a fall.

Oron Mersing lost on a decision.

The Glenville team wrestled the Marshall varsity the past Saturday. The results were not available at press time.

The next home match will be Jan. 28 when the Fairmont Falcons return here to engage the Pioneers again. The match will be a preliminary to the Glenville-Fairmont basketball game.

Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio. He is currently completing a doctorate degree in microbiology.

Hunt's research is conducted at the Charles V. Chapin Hospital in Providence, R.I., with the aid of a special research fellowship sponsored by the hospital. Previous to his work at the hospital, Hunt was employed by the American Cyanamid Company at Pearl River, N.Y. He has also served as an instructor at a teachers' college in Rockland, N.Y.

Pioneers Lose Ky. Tourney

The Pioneers lost both games of the Williamson Kiwanis Tournament, while making their first appearance in the tournament, Dec. 27 and 28.

During the first night of action Glenville lost to a strong Georgetown, Ky., team, 115-89. In the consolation game the following night the Pioneers were downed by Pikeville, Ky., 116-85.

Georgetown won the tournament as they defeated Concord in the championship game, 83-76.

In both of the games, Glenville played a good first half but the superior height of the opposing teams wore them down in the second half.

Georgetown also had two men on their team, Vorres and Tuttle, who were selected to the little All-American team last season.

Against Georgetown, Mike Reed led the scoring with 20 points. He was followed by Bob Maxwell, 19, Clark Dilley, 15, and Jim Markle, 12.

Clyde Brewer led the scoring against Pikeville with 19 points. Others in double figures were Chuck Eddy, 15 and Dilley, 13.

WAA Activity Is Basketball

A large number of women attended the second in a series of intramural basketball games recently. The teams were captained by Linda Jones and Jackie Kafer.

After the final whistle, Jones' team had scored 25 points and the Kafer team had scored 13. High scorer of the game was Patsy Fields who had made 14 points for Jones' team.

Participants in intramural sports include not only women physical education majors but also those women interested in participating in sports. The games are played each Tuesday evening at 6:30. Anyone who is interested may attend.

Waldon Roush Directs GSC Community Center

Since its organization July 1, 1962, the Community Development and Research Center of Glenville State College under the direction of Mr. Waldon P. Roush has been engaged in a number of activities which have been aimed toward the social, cultural, and economic development of the area. General purpose of the Center is to assist the people of the area in their efforts toward community betterment and improvement of the quality of living.

During the first 10 months a great deal of time was spent in meeting with the chairmen of the various committees of the Little Kanawha Resources Study. The Center assembled the material presented by each committee and mimeographed each of the reports. These reports are now available for distribution and include:

Mineral Industries, Business and Industry, Human Resources, Water Resources, Resource Recreation, Agriculture, Land Use, Taxation and Property Values. All these reports are for the Little Kanawha Drainage Basin.

The Center publishes a Newsletter aimed at a unification of effort and the diffusion of new ideas throughout the area. The Newsletter is mailed to approximately 500 community leaders in Central West Virginia as well as area newspapers, radio and TV stations.

The Center has assisted the West Virginia Department of Employment Security in making an economic survey of four-county area.

The Center is working with two state committees on programs which will definitely improve the social and economic conditions of Central West Virginia as well as the entire State. These two committees are the State Travel Clinic held annually at Blackwater Falls during May and the State Craft Fair which will be held for the second time at Cedar Lakes in Jackson County during July.

During the summer and fall of 1962, the Center assisted the Wirt

County Self-Study Self-Help Committee plan a County Youth Study Self-Help program for the Wirt County High School.

The Center has assisted in organizing the Blue and Gray Trail Association, an organization which has as its purpose the improvement of Route 33 from the Ohio River to the Virginia border. A strip map folder is being prepared and will be ready for distribution sometime in the spring of 1964.

The Center is an active member of the Central West Virginia Industrial Development Council. The main purpose of the Council is to promote industrial development programs throughout a 14-county area.

The Center has prepared surveys forms and has assisted one community with two surveys. The students in one of the GSC sociology classes assisted in collecting the data.

The Center has also been working with a county school improvement committee, serving mostly as a consultant.

The Center prepared and submitted an application to ARA for a technical assistance grant for publishing the final report of the Little Kanawha Drainage Basin Resources Study, and to provide technical assistance to the counties of the area in their efforts to improve the social and economic conditions of the region. The application, which requested a grant of $26,575, is still pending.

The Center has also been actively engaged in arranging for conferences and meetings, providing speakers, writing reports, preparing briefs for industrial prospects, and collecting data and writing justification reports for a number of community projects.

The Community Development and Research Center was organized here to serve as a pilot type of organization in its field so that new methods and techniques in community and area improvement would be expected as a major outcome.

Mrs. Betty Richmond is the secretary for the Center.

The Operation of the Center is made possible through the cooperative efforts of the State of West Virginia and the West Virginia Board of Education and the Benedum Foundation.

Memorial Funds Are Established

Memorial funds—the Miss Wilia Brand fund and the Mr. Carlos Ratliff fund—have been established by the Alumni Association. The income from these funds will be used for work in the fields for which these people were noted—Miss Brand in English and Mr. Ratliff in physical education.

Miss Brand was head of the English department at Glenville State College for 22 years. She died in Morgantown May 4, 1962.

Mr. Ratliff was a member of the GSC staff from 1946-1961. He taught classes in physical education and health, coached baseball, football and basketball and was Director of Athletics at the time of his death, Oct. 3, 1961.

Anyone may make a recommendation for expenditure of the funds to the directors of the Alumni Foundation, but the final decision will rest with the directors.

Officers of the Alumni Foundation are Mr. George McQuain, president; Mr. John E. Arbuckle, vice president; Mr. John V. White, secretary-treasurer. Other members of the Foundation are Dr. Harry B. Heflin, Mr. Lloyd Jones and Mr. Luther Berry.

Special letters will be mailed or have been mailed to each person who had a class with Miss Brand or Mr. Ratliff. Others who have had associations with either will receive communications. Those interested in establishing these funds, in most cases, are former students.

Mr. White, alumni secretary, reported recently that approximately $400 has been received for the Miss Brand fund and more than $225 for the Mr. Ratliff fund.

Glenville State College students will, at some time, profit from these funds. Objectives for each fund are, "The promotion of programs in the field of literature and fine arts" and, "The promotion of programs in the field of health, physical education and recreation."

The funds may be used to promote a lecture by an outstanding person, a dramatic production, a demonstration or exhibition in some phase of physical education or a movie of interest to student or faculty groups.

Funds may also be used to pay expenses of selected people to a play, coaching clinic, national meeting, to publish a worthy work by either student or

Glenville in the win column for the fifth time this season.

Dilley was the high point man for the Pioneers as he tallied 18 points. Others in double figures were Eddy, 16, Clyde Brewer, 16, and Bob Minnieweather, 15.

Jan. 11, Morris Harvey

The Pioneers' successful invasion of the South ended at the Charleston Civic Center as Morris Harvey downed Glenville, 113-86.

Morris Harvey, with the starters leading the way rolled to a 47-38 lead at halftime.

Glenville came out the second half determined to cut away the nine-point deficit. But Morris Harvey was not to be denied as Moore tallied 24 points in the second half of action. Moore got plenty of help from Hart, a freshman who scored 15 points during the last 20 minutes.

Once again Clark Dilley led the Glenville scoring with 26 points. Others in double figures were Chuck Eddy, 18, Bob Maxwell 14, and Clyde Brewer 12.

Jan. 15, Davis and Elkins

In a fast and sometimes erratic ballgame, the Pioneers rolled over the Senators from Davis and Elkins, 91-71.

The Senators started the game as though they were going to upset the G-men as they led 20-12 set the G-men as they lead 20-12 with eight minutes gone in the game. Then Davis and Elkins went for eight minutes before they scored another field goal. Pioneers tied the score at 21-21 and were never behind again. At half time Glenville led 39-29.

The Senators threatened again late in the game as they pulled to within three points at 66-63. Then the G-Men reeled off seven straight points to put the game out of reach.

Clark Dilley, Bob Minnieweather, Chuck Eddy and Bob Maxwell all scored in double figures with 19, 17, 13 and 10 points respectively.

President Harry B. Heflin and Mr. Walden Roush visited St. Mary's High School the past Thursday to check on students wishing to attend GSC.

President Harry B. Heflin attended a meeting of the Little Kanawha River Council in Parkersburg Jan. 18.
