Voting to Be Held Tomorrow in Student Union

Of the six co-eds pictured above, who were nominated by campus organizations, one will be chosen by student vote tomorrow as Campus Cover Girl at the Student Union from 9 a.m. to d p.m. The six finalists were selected by a panel composed of two faculty members and three stu-dents. The panel consisted of Miss Pearl Pickens, Mr. Carl A. Kerr, Elizabeth McLaughlin, Charles Milhoan and Kenneth Frederick.

PATSY BRAKE is a sophomore home econom-ics student from Canvas. She is secretary of Phi Delta Phi, a MERCURY reporter and was chosen Miss Pioneer of Women's Hall in 1963. Miss Brake is sponsored by the Wesley Foundation.

SHARON BUMGARNER, southomore English and speech student, is from Elizabeth. She had the female lead role in "Send Me No Flowers." In 1963 she was the Wirt County Centennial Queen nominee. Miss Bumgarner is sponsored by Alpha Pei Omera Psi Omega.

JOHANNA COLEMAN, from Parkersburg, is a sophomore English social studies student. She is secretary of Phi Mu Gamma. Miss Coleman was first runner-up in the 1962 W. Va. Junior Miss Contest, a semi-finalist in the 1963 Miss W. Va. Pageant, and is presently "Miss Parkersburg." She is sponsored by Phi Mu Gamma.

SUE EDDY is a sophomore from St. Marys. A music student, she is endowment chairman of Delta Zeta, a member of MENC and participates in the band and choir. Miss Eddy is sponsored by MENC.

SANDRA SALYERS is a freshman home ec-onomics student from Vienna. Miss Salyers, spon-sored by Women's Hall, is a graduate of Parkersburg High School.

SHELVA SCOTT is a senior physical education and English student from Jackson County. She is president of Majors' Club, secretary of Verona Maple Hall, and a GSC varsity cheerleader. She is sponsored by WAA.

This is the tenth consecutive year that the MERCURY has sponsored the contest for the Pittsburgh Press. Numerous colleges in the area of the Pittsburgh Press will enter candidates for Campus Cover Girl. On March 15, a picture of the finalist from each college will appear in the finalist from eac "Roto" Magazine.

The judges of the Press will meet the follow-ing week to choose the five finalists from all the candidates who have appeared in the "Roto."

These five finalists will attend a dinner and show on Friday, March 27, and a luncheon on Saturday as guests of the Press, and at this time they will meet and talk with the judges who will choose one of them as the "Roto" Campus Cover Girl.

No prizes will be awarded.

Winner of the MERCURY Campus Cover Girl Contest last year was Dianna White.

Dilley Leads Offense In Recent Pioneer Play

BY BOB SMITH

Since the last basketball games were reported in the MERCURY, the Pioneers have won two and lost six. One of the biggest wins of the year was recorded when Glenville downed the W.Va. Wes-leyan Bobcats on their floor; Wheeling was the other victim of the G-men.

Losses were administered by Alderson-Broaddus, Morris Har-vey, Fairmont, Concord, W.Va. Tech and W.Va. Wesleyan, All of losses, except Alderson-lus, were to some of the these los Broaddus, toughest competition in the con-ference.

Through these eight games, Clark Dilley, sophomore from Charleston High School, has led the Glenville offense averaging the 24.1 points.

ses the last term. Included in this exhibition are various gesture drawings, draw-ings of the human skeleton, de-signs drawn from objects of na-ture in an abstracted form, and designs creating optical illusions. The purpose of this exhibition is to acquaint viewers with the designs in nature which surround them yet which are not consider-ed by most people as works of art. The possibilities of variety, interest, and unity in nature are portrayed through forms, shapes, colors, lines, sizes, directions, and textures.
