State 4-H Representatives Take Trips To Washington

By Judy Musgrave

Joyce McCullough and Paul Derico were two of the four 4-H members selected from West Virginia to attend the 34th National 4-H Conference in Washington D.C. April 17-24.

State Extension Directors in each state were responsible for choosing delegates who were selected on the basis of their 4-H achievement, citizenship, and leadership.

"Our Heritage - Foundation for the Future" was the theme of the Conference.

During their all-expenses-paid stay in Washington, delegates had an opportunity to tour meaningful memorials, cultural and historical locations in the nearby Washington area, including the gravesite of the late President John F. Kennedy.

The 4-Hers visited the National Gallery of Art, where they ate dinner and toured the Wax Museum. Also on their schedule was a tour through the White House conducted by President Johnson.

Many of the sessions at the Conference were spent in discussing national policies and events. Such noted figures as under secretary of agriculture, and Dean Rusk, Secretary of State, were heard at the Conference.

A "Clover Cotillion," held in the Diplomatic Reception Area, Department of State, breakfast with Congressmen at the International Inn, and an international party for 4-H members throughout the world were highlights of the week's activities.

The National 4-H Conference will come to an end this Friday with a steamer trip up the Potomac River on a pilgrimage to George Washington's home, Mt. Vernon.

Miss McCullough has been a 4-H member for eleven years. In 1962, she was one of the two exchange delegates from West Virginia to the Pennsylvania 4-H Conference.

During the summers of 1962 and 1963, she worked as a club agent at large in county 4-H camps throughout West Virginia. She has been in the top ten of the State 4-H Style Review two different years.

COURT BALL IS SET FOR MAY 2

The annual Holy Roller Court Ball is set for May 2 from 8 to 12 p.m. Theme of the Ball is "Emeralds to Diamonds." This theme is symbolic of the change taking place within the Holy Roller Court itself. This year marks the affiliation of the Holy Roller Court with Tau Kappa Epsilon, a national group.

Music for the dance will be provided by the "Emeralds," a group from Charleston. The band has appeared at dances sponsored by other campus organizations. The group consists of seven musicians and three vocalists, two male and one female.

Miss Cynthia Bennon, who was recently elected as sweetheart of Holy Roller Court will reign as queen of the Ball.

Assisting with the arrangements for the Ball are 36 new pledges. These future members pledged the Court on April 6. At present time, pledge activities are scheduled to end on May 11.

William Sheets, newly installed Judge, has stated that tickets for the dance will cost $2.50 and that the dance will be a formal one.

Holy Roller Court Ball is the last dance to be sponsored by a campus group this spring.

Scott Will Go To Pavilion at Fair

Mr. Charles C. Scott, assistant professor of art, has recently been commissioned to participate as a crafts demonstrator in the West Virginia Pavilion at the New York's World Fair.

Mr. Scott will be demonstrating the making of pottery from July 29 through August 12, 1964. The actual hours that Mr. Scott will be demonstrating will be set when he arrives in New York.

All of the expenses for the trip including the fare to and from New York, the shipment of materials to New York, and room and board will be assumed by the West Virginia Pavilion.

Briscoe, Lustig Elected To Student Council Posts

The student body chose Patrick Briscoe, John Lustig, Patsy Conley, Robert "Butch" Hays, and Verle David Westfall to serve as president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and sergeant-at-arms of the Student Council.

Patrick Briscoe, president-elect, is a junior from Ridgely, Maryland. Briscoe is majoring in physical education and social studies. He is a member of the Holy Roller Court, the G-Club, and the wrestling team. He is also a participant in MAA activity.

John Lustig, newly elected vice president, is a resident of Barberton, Ohio. He is a physical education and mathematics student, a member of Theta Xi Fraternity, and a participant in intramural activity.

Patsy Gail Conley, who was appointed to the office of secretary as a replacement for Lois Friel, is a junior from Whitesville. She has a major in elementary education and is a member of Delta Zeta sorority.

Robert Butch Hays is a sophomore from Arnoldsburg. His major fields of study are social studies and speech. Hays is a member of the Holy Roller Court and is presently serving as SGA treasurer.

Mathematics and business are the fields of study for Verle David Westfall, newly elected sergeant-at-arms. Westfall is a sophomore, from Evans and is a member of the Holy Roller Court.

All elected candidates presented platforms to the student body. In these platforms, all candidates who were elected promised to carry out their duties to the best of their abilities.

They also promised to encourage better student-faculty relationships, and to do everything possible to serve the student body.

Another pledge made by the candidates was the support for the incorporation of a yearbook into the student activity fee. This was also a part of the previous campaign.

Freshman rules which are more rigid and more carefully enforced and longer hours for women students were also primary parts of the platforms.

This year's campaign and election differed from those of recent years. There were no write-in candidates for any Student Council office.

At the present time the officers of the Student Council include Darrel Messenger, Patsy Conley, and Robert "Butch" Hays. Mr. Stanley Hall is faculty advisor to the SGA.

Folk Festival Singers Will Use Ancient Psaltery In Performing

One of the main attractions of this year's West Virginia Folk Festival to be held here in June will be the folk singers Evelynne and Robert Beers of New York City. A unique feature of the Beers' performances will be their use of the psaltery, which is a keyless prototype of the spinet and harpsichord.

Psalteries have been used from Biblical times down to the present. Frequent references to the psaltery in the Bible have led to the valid conclusion that it was an ancient instrument known as far back as the reign of Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. Later, the instrument was mentioned by Chaucer in his works.

Originally conceived by the Arabic people, the greatest development in this instrument was made by the Greeks, who devised complex bridges, added strings, and developed a "consonant" tuning system. Metal strings were developed in 1340 A.D.

A psaltery consists of a series of strings stretched over, and parallel to a horizontal sound chamber. The strings of a harp, on the other hand, proceed vertically over a sound chamber.

Psaltery strings project the almost silvery, shimmering quality mentioned in early writings. This is a unique effect among instruments, and is caused by the sympathetic mingling of overtones, cascading throughout the sound chamber. In varying degrees this sound can be unbelievable subtle, Chopinesque, or wildly primitive and exciting.

Poet's Corner

Good People Michael Bush

Good People,
The World's full of them.
You can walk down Elm street
Saturday mornings,
And see them rising to face the day.

You can hear them coming to your back door,
To borrow things they forget to repay.

Good people,
You know what I mean?

They sit in front of you at church on Sunday,
(And they shortchange you the following Monday)

Good People
Your next door neighbor,
The tightwad down the block,
The minister who ran off
with your cousin's wife,
The butcher with his thumb
on the scale,
The clerk with his hand in the till.

Let's stop a minute,
you and I.

Let's stop and bow down and
thank God,
Thank God that we're not ...
Good People.

Who Honors Whom

Who honors whom?

The much discussed honor system sought by students and faculty envision an ideal campus.

To have honor bestowed upon a student or to have a student act with honor is like an equation of "X" equals "X". For one to be honored, he must first have honor.

Honor is a perpetual quality not to be shed when dishonor better suits the purpose. Honor is a requirement for a good student or for a good instructor.

The proverb, "to those much is given, much is expected in return," is an example of honor in action.

To have GSC campus an honor campus is the responsibility of each student—each faculty member. Honor may develop or expand only if students and faculty members are honorable.

OPEN LETTER

Dear Students:

There has been a lack of support for the Theater Underground from students who are always complaining about the need of entertainment on this campus. Unless this condition is remedied, we the staff of Theater Underground will be forced to close the Theater.

Main purpose of the Ohnimgohow Players in organizing and operating Theater Underground is to provide the students of GSC a place to go in order that they may take their minds from their studies and relax.

Attendance at Theater Underground has been poor. We of Ohnimgohow are doing our best to provide students with good clean fun; however, the students are not taking advantage of this opportunity.

Unless we of Ohnimgohow gain more student support, we will be forced to close our Theater Underground.

SEA Lecturer Is Mrs. Jean Adams

Mrs. Jean Adams, first grade instructor at Glenville Elementary School and a former Glenville graduate, spoke at a recent Student Education Association meeting.

"Teaching Beginners to Read" was Mrs. Adams' topic of discussion. How reading began, the advancement through the ages, and the development of teaching methods in reading were some aspects presented by Mrs. Adams.

The importance of learning to read well was pointed out in her talk. Also presented were some of the experimental techniques being used in the United States and England in teaching beginners to read.

Following Mrs. Adams' lecture was a question and answer period.

Pioneers Split Double Header In First Baseball Encounter

Glenville Pioneers opened the 1964 baseball season by splitting a double header with W. Va. Tech. The Pioneers won the first game 4-3 and then lost the second one 3-1.

Fine pitching of Noel Blankenship was the difference in the first game as he struck out 12 of the Techmen during the six innings he pitched.

Glenville got to Tech early in the game as they scored two runs in the first inning. The runs were scored by Pat Wilfong and Clyde Brewer. The Pioneers got another tally in the fifth inning as Joe Duncan got a base hit, stole second base and raced home on Blankenship's infield out.

Tech did not score until the seventh inning as Blankenship could pitch no more because of a sore arm and Ed Wymer came in to pitch. Wymer managed to retire two of the Techmen but they also scored three runs off of him. Mike Sampson then came in to pitch. He walked the first man but got the next batter to watch a third strike go by him.

W. Va. Tech had four hits and Glenville had seven in the first game.

Paul Taylor and Blankenship both had two hits in three trips to the plate. One of Taylor's hits was a double.

In the second game Glenville managed only one hit off the Tech pitcher. Tech scored three runs in the second inning and this was all but that was enough as the Pioneers only tally came in the sixth inning.

Wilfong scored for Glenville as he got aboard on a walk, took second base on a hit and then scored on an error.

Tech got four hits off the Glenville pitching.

W. VA. WESLEYAN — APRIL 14

The Pioneers lost the second game of the season to W. Va. Wesleyan 7-6.

Wesleyan took an early lead in the game as they scored one run in the second inning and three runs in the fourth inning. The Pioneers countered with one run in the bottom of the fourth.

The Pioneers then exploded in the sixth inning for four runs.

The Bobcats tied the score with a tally in the seventh inning. Then in the top of the ninth inning Jack Johnson parked one for Wesleyan to put them in the lead. The Bobcats also scored one more run before the inning was over.

In the bottom of the ninth the Pioneers scored one run and had the bases loaded when Taylor hit a sharp grounder to the third baseman which he turned into an out to end the game.

Wesleyan had 11 hits and Glenville had six in the game. Blankenship had two hits in three trips to the plate and Joe Duncan had a booming triple for the Pioneers.

Glenville returns to action this weekend with a doubleheader with W. Va. State at home. Salem then comes to town April 29.

Harold Metz, president of the student body in 1961, is presently teaching at school in Parkersburg. He is an instructor in speech and social studies.

James B. Reedy, senior art student from Craigsville, had an art exhibition on display in the Administration Building. Reedy is doing his student teaching at Parkersburg during the fourth term.

Sophomores Win Class Tourneys

The Sophomores won the annual class basketball tournament by defeating the Juniors in the championship game 88-72. In semi-final action the Sophomores ran over the Freshmen 74-48, and the Juniors clawed the Seniors 80-42.

In the championship tussle the Juniors took an early lead and held a one point margin, 35-34, at halftime. In the second half the underclassmen came back strong and out scored the Juniors 54-37 to win by the final margin of 88-72.

Clark Dilley led the Sophomores with 33 points. Jim Shear added 20 points and Dave Crow contributed 10 markers. For the Juniors, Mike Blake took scoring honors with 18 points. Bob Maxwell added 17 points for the third-year men.

In the semi-final game between the Sophomores and the Freshmen, Dilley once again had the hot hand as he hit for 28 points. Gary Blake and Shear each had 13 points in the game. For the Freshmen, Bob Minnieweather was the only player in double figures as he had 12 markers.

In the other semifinal game Clyde Brewer led his team with 23 points. Other Juniors in double figures were Dave Graham 16, Phil Ramsey 15, and Mike Blake 13.

Ken Vance was the only Senior in double figures. He scored 17 markers.

With completion of the addition to the men's dormitory, housing for 328 male students will then be available. Present facilities in Louis Bennett Hall can accommodate 132 men.

Features of the projected addition to Louis Bennett Hall include a new, enlarged lounge, a new lobby, additional storage and luggage rooms. A hydraulic elevator that is electrically operated will be installed in the new building. An incinerator is included in plans for the dormitory addition.

Plans call for an apartment for the director and his family in the four-floor addition.

Tentative date of completion and occupancy of the dormitory addition is set for September, 1965. Mr. Jones informed THE MERCURY that construction will begin soon after June 1, following sale of bonds by the West Virginia Board of Education.

Do You Munch Or Bubble In Public

Some future editor of ENCYCLOPEDIA AMERICANA probably will say that one significant contribution to world culture by Americans is that anomaly of civilization, the chewer of chewing gum.

This future encyclopedia editor may say that gum chewers are classified as the "contented cow" cud type, the nervous tense chewer, the subtle muncher, and the vociferous, bubble gum type. Which type are you?

ART STUDENT HAS SHOWING

Miss Carolyn Jewell, a senior art major from Parkersburg, is now having her senior art exhibition in the Administration Building.

Carolyn has been interested in art since grade school and has gradually turned from the realistic to the abstract.

The one-man show consists of twenty-one pieces of work including oil paintings, water colors, ceramics, graphic arts, and sculpture. Perhaps one of her most impressive pieces of work that is on exhibition is "Torreadoro," an oil painting employing the use of oils and bee's wax to obtain a rough texture.

The painting has vivid tones of orange, brown and green. It was purchased by the Home Management House and hangs in the "modern room."

honor a W.Va. 4-H member may receive.

She is a junior home economics and math student from Mountain, and serves as president of Phi Delta Phi and secretary of the Student Union Board.

Paul Derico, an eight-year 4-H member, has won four other trips besides being chosen to attend the Washington Conference as a delegate from West Virginia.

He was awarded two trips to Pittsburgh for having the largest strawberry production output per plant in Upshur County in 1958 and 1962. Another excursion to Pittsburgh was awarded because Derico was on the state champion strawberry judging team which was from Upshur County.

In 1962, as a project Derico raised ten varieties of strawberries and wrote a paper on the results of the variety trial which was submitted to West Virginia University to be evaluated.

After the paper was evaluated and horticulturists viewed his strawberry experiment, he was chosen as state winner in the variety trials. The prize for the state winner was a trip to Miami, Fla.

The paper was then entered in northeastern United States competition in which he also took first place.

Derico, a freshman social studies and business education student from Buckhannon, is a member of S.E.A., and is chairman of the membership committee for the Newman Club.

Peterson Library Award Commemorates Librarian

Mr. Dale E. Shaffer, librarian, has announced that a Peterson Library Award Fund has been established to commemorate the memory of the late Mrs. Dorothy Peterson. At the present time, there is $1,000 in the fund.

Mrs. Peterson served in the capacity of assistant librarian from November, 1961, until her death November 24, 1963, in an automobile accident. Prior to that time, she was an instructor in the business education department.

Obtaining her undergraduate degree from Glenville, she was awarded the master of arts degree in business education from West Virginia University. At the time of her death, Mrs. Peterson had completed approximately half the course work leading to a masters degree in Library Science at the University of Kentucky.

Once each year at graduation, the librarian will select from one to four students who have performed outstandingly well as library assistants and/or library science majors.

Grades will be only one factor in selecting the most deserving students to receive the Peterson Award. Attitude, dependability, enthusiasm, quality of work, creativity, interest in learning, contributions to the school and the library, as well as potential in librarianship will be some of the factors used to evaluate students.

This annual award to each graduate chosen will be an outstanding reference book or set of reference books to be selected by the librarian for its value as an aid to the student in further study.

Each award given will be inscribed "The Peterson Library Award." The first presentation will be made in 1965.

Only the interest from the principal of the fund will be used for award purposes, the original amount remaining intact. Any unused interest from the fund will be allowed to accrue until the amount is sufficient to be used for library science scholarships a needed piece of library equipment, or for some other worthwhile project related to the library as determined by the Alumni Council.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the Peterson Library Award Fund is free to do so, and should consult with Mr. John White, representative of the Alumni Council.
