Housing Area Designated College Park

"College Park" is the name selected for the college housing located by the College Farm.

Names were submitted by the faculty and administration and the Campus Planning Committee selected three names from those submitted. The final choice was made by the president of the college, Dr. D. Banks Wilbum.

"College Park" consists of five one-family houses, one duplex and Town House which has eight apartments. Five of the apartments have two bedrooms, two have one bedroom and one has three bedrooms. The duplex and two apartments are vacant.

The housing is available to faculty and the administrative staff. Where there are vacancies, the housing will be open to married students.

Any married students interested in renting housing may inquire at the business office with Mr. William J. Osborne, business manager.

English Workshop Formed on Campus

A "Writer's Workshop" in poetry and fiction will meet once a week for an hour beginning Tuesday, Feb. 13 at 7 p.m.

The actual program will be developed by students through the combined study of professor's poetry and their own works. Poetry will be mimeographed, discussed and critically analyzed.

Participation in this activity will be voluntary and no class credit will be given.

Mr. Harvey J. Musser and Mr. Ronald A. Gaskill, instructors with the English department, will sponsor the workshop.

Six Finalists Selected For Cover Girl Contest

Due to a tie Glenville State College has six finalists competing in the GSC Campus Cover Girl Contest sponsored by the MERCURY. The finalists are Marjorie Craddock, Rita Jones, Betty Keen, Anne Knapp, Sue Sullivan, and Sherry Hersey.

Pictures of the six finalists will be presented to an impartial panel of judges including the "Fun-Loving Five" of WHAR radio station of Clarksburg.

Miss Craddock is a sophomore biology major from West Union. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bantz W. Craddock and represented her class as Homecoming princess last year. Miss Craddock is sponsored by Chi Beta Phi, science honorary.

Miss Jones is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Jones of Stumptown. She is a junior majoring in business and is sponsored by Alpha Delta Epsilon, business fraternity.

Majoring in art and minoring in journalism, Miss Keen, a sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Keen of Newton. Delta Zeta Sorority sponsored Miss Keen.

Miss Knapp, a freshman in elementary education, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Knapp of Charleston. She represented the freshman class as their princess this Homecoming. Miss Knapp was sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity and Theta Xi Fraternity.

As the daughter of Mrs. Helen Sullivan, Miss Sullivan is a junior majoring in library science and business. The Greek Council sponsored Miss Sullivan.

Miss Hersey, sponsored by the Order of Diana, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hersey of Ravenswood. She is a sophomore majoring in social studies.

Student Teachers Enhance 21 Schools

By Marie Davis

Glenville State College is represented by one of the largest groups of student teachers in its history. Dr. B. E. Ross, chairman of the division of education and psychology, disclosed that 64 students are teaching in 22 schools in eight counties.

Charles Vance Weekley is teaching social studies and working in the library at Parkersburg South High School. Also working in the library and teaching English is Janet Drennan. Renovation Named For Former Teacher

The former Robert F. Kidd Library which will be reopened in September, 1968, will be renamed. It will be called "Clark Hall" in honor of Mr. H. Y. Clark, retired member of the faculty of Glenville State College.

The Division of Education and Psychology offices of which Mr. Clark was a member, the journalism department, Mercury headquarters and other faculty offices will be housed in the renovated building.

Mr. Clark was graduated from West Virginia Wesleyan College with a B.A. degree in 1917. He was graduated from Columbia University with an M.A. in 1925, and completed additional graduate study at the George Peabody College for Teachers in 1926 - 27 and 1930. Prior to accepting a position at Glenville State College, Mr. Clark held the following positions in other school systems: Principal of Wallace High School, 1917 - 18, Principal of Smithfield Schools, 1919 - 20, teacher at Fairmont High School, 1920 - 22 and Principal of Grafton High School, 1922 - 26.

Mr. Clark came to Glenville State College in the fall of 1927 as a professor of elementary education. He continued as a member of the college faculty until his retirement in 1955, and during his stay here, he served in several capacities. In addition to being a member of the faculty in the education department, he supervised student teachers and taught English, social studies and West Virginia history during the years of World War II. He is teaching English and speech.

Robert Newton Cooper is teaching English and social studies at Ravenswood High School along with Willa Kate Johnson who is teaching biology and physical science, and Linda Kay Wood who is teaching business principles and occupation.

Harrison County's eleven student teachers are distributed at three high schools. South Harrison High School student's are receiving instruction in vocational home economics by Rebecca K. James. Stanley Earl Boyles is teaching physical education and social studies. Frances Kay Cogar is teaching social studies and working in the library with Rebecca Stalnaker who is also teaching business.

Bridgeport High School students are being taught physical education and biology by Clarence Elliott Workman, vocational home economics by Sue Taylor Jones, and are being assisted in the library and taught English by Donna Jean Riley.

taught extension courses for several years in such locations as Clendenin, Parkersburg, St. Marys and Richwood. From 1950 to 1955, Mr. Clark was director of Extension and Field Service.

Active through the years in educational and civic endeavors, Clark was named to the State High School Athletic Board of Appeals in 1922 and served as its secretary until he accepted a position at Glenville State College. He was appointed a member of the first State Teachers Education Committee and served as its secretary for five years. He was the co-director, with Mr. H. Cliff Hamilton, of the Attendance Directors' Workshop for seven years. The workshop was established at Glenville State College 20 years ago, and is conducted regularly each summer session.

Mr. Clark is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, West Virginia Education Association, Rotary International and the First Methodist Church in Parkersburg.

Woofter's Women Sentenced To Nine Week's Residency

Under the direction of Miss Elma Jean Woofter, instructor of home economics, the girls perform household duties. The jobs consist of a general manager, cook, assistant cook, housekeeper and assistant housekeeper. These jobs are alternated on a five-day rotation plan.

Four women are now living in the Home Management House, and receiving training for graduation requirements. They are: Kay Childers, Smithburg; Connie Hamrick, Sutton; Linda Roberts, Ripley; and Ruth Cosner, Canaan Valley.

Along with their other duties, occupants are required to serve two professional guests and two personal guests.

Occupants of the house change each term.

Bame, Griffin Start GSC Radio Plans

Dear Editor:

Plans are now underway to attempt to obtain a campus radio station at Glenville State College. Besides the entertainment one would receive, consider the educational value of a "campus radio station." Concerts, lectures, plays, revue sessions, ball games, and important meetings could be recorded and played back at more convenient hours for those whom it would be impossible otherwise for them to hear. A "campus radio station" would be of great value to the Dramatics Department and the Music Department in presenting programs for the benefit of the college as a whole. A station would also be priceless experience for those in science and electronics or for anyone who has desire and the initiative to work in program planning.

Should our plans for a "campus radio station" materialize, then, and only then, could all of our dreams and ideas of a more-informed GSC come true. This is possible only through the full cooperation of the student body and the faculty. If you are an interest faculty member or student and can help in anyway, contact Mr. Ralph Bame of the Science Department or Buddy Griffin in Room 202 of Louis Bennett Hall for further information concerning what you can do to help.

Graduate Sets Example

To the Editors

The Glenville Mercury

Increasing numbers of our students are considering graduate work, and I believe it might be of interest to note that Sue Ellen Frederick (B.S. '66) has just finished her third semester of graduate study at the University of Wisconsin, maintaining a grade of A in all courses in which letter grades are assigned.

She holds for the second year one of the University's prized NASA Fellowships.

He is actively associated with the Parkersburg Chapter of Glenville State Alumni, where he was honored with an honorary lifetime membership at a recent dinner ceremony.

Mr. Clark comes from a family of educators, having brothers and a sister who are well-known in this area for their teaching endeavors. His wife also teaches in Vienna, where they now reside. The Clark's have two daughters and seven grandchildren.

All clubs, organizations and individuals who wish to have yearbook pictures taken are to see the posted mimeographed schedules on the campus bulletin boards. A representative from Delmar Studios will be here today to take these pictures. Anyone seeking further information can contact Mr. Charles Scott, Kanawhachen advisor.

Bandits Enter Theta Xi House

Bandits hit the Theta Xi house over the semester break. They, or he, entered the house by breaking out the window in the front door. After entering the house the thieves, or thief, ransacked every bedroom, going through the lockers, where most of the men keep their loose silver. Oddly enough, nothing was stolen from the house except money, even though valuable merchandise, such as cameras, guns and clothes were visible.

The robbery was discovered when Ronald Blankenship returned on Monday, after the break, to check on the house. He notified State Patrolman, Don Sharp who immediately carried out the investigation. After the investigation Trooper Sharp said that he would notify the fraternity of any further developments.

Dorm Cost Jumps

Due to added custodial and maid services, increased costs of maintenance supplies since 1964 and added compensation for dormitory counselors, room rates in dormitories at Glenville State College have been increased. The increase has been approved by the West Virginia Board of Education. These changes which affect both men's and women's dormitories will become effective Sept. 1, 1968, according to Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, president of GSC.

In Louis Bennett Hall, rooms furnished for two persons will cost $8 per week, instead of the $7 per week now charged.

Verona Mapel Hall and Women's Hall residents will also pay $8 per week, for rooms furnished for two persons, rather than the former $7 per week. Rooms furnished for three will cost $7.50 per week, instead of $7.

In Women's Hall, rooms furnished for four persons will remain at the present rate of $7 per week.

A single room in either Louis Bennett Hall, Verona Mapel of Women's Hall will be rented at an increased rate of $9 instead of the $8 per week.

Corley Named As DZ House Mother

Miss Charlotte Corley has been selected by Delta Zeta Sorority to serve as Chapter House Mother for the remaining school year. Miss Corley, a native of Belington, W. Va., was graduated from Glenville State College with an A.B. degree in physical education at the close of the first semester.

While an undergraduate at Glenville, Miss Corley was an active Delta Zeta and a member of the Major's Club. During the first semester of this year, she served as house director at Verona Mapel Hall allowing Mabel Smith's three week leave

Lawhon, Lord Assist TKE's

Mr. Delbert Lawhon and Mr. Robert Lord have consented to assist Mr. George Lucas in advising Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

Mr. Lawhon was duly initiated into the fraternal bonds of Tau Kappa Epsilon on Tuesday evening, Jan. 23. He is a native of Huntington, W. Va.

After spending two years in the Air Force, Mr. Lawhon received his A.B. degree in history and theology at Kentucky Christian College. He then attended Marshall University where he received his M.A. degree in guidance and counseling. Presently Mr. Lawhon is working toward his Ph.D. in guidance at WVU. He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, honorary education fraternity.

Mr. Lawhon started his teaching at Chapmanville in Logan County where he taught adult education. Due to his high school experience in basketball and football and in college basketball, Mr. Lawhon coached both sports in Chapmanville.

He then returned to Huntington and Ashland, Ky. where he worked in a remedial reading and a counseling clinic.

Lawhon is married to Joyce Ann Lawhon, formerly from Pittsburgh, Pa., who attended Kentucky Christian College and is now a student at GSC. They have one son, Kevin, four years old.

Mr. Robert Lord, instructor of mathematics, received his B.A. degree from Washington College in Maryland and an M.M. degree at the University of Tennessee. During his college career, Mr. Lord was a member of Theta Chi Fraternity and is now a social advisor to Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

He started his teaching career at Selbyville High School, then moved in 1963, to Washington High School. After two years of teaching at Washington, Mr. Lord taught at Hargrave Military Academy and came to GSC in September, 1966.

During his college career, Mr. Lord played basketball, base-

Greek Week Planned

Greek Council is now planning "Greek Week" to be held sometime this spring. A committee has been appointed to make plans and several different activities will be sponsored during "Greek Week."

The council decided to conduct an all campus poll in order to determine the interest of the students in establishing an additional fraternity and / or sorority on this campus. The ballot will be designed to include the students' suggestion of a fraternity and / or sorority.

It was voted on and passed by the council that all persons pledging either a fraternity or sorority must have a 2.0 overall average to be pledged and initiated. This does not mean a 2.0 average for the term previous to pledging.

Members of Greek Council decided to sponsor Sue Sullivan as a candidate in the Cover Girl Contest. Sue is a business and library science major from Richwood.

of absence. This experience along with her sorority affiliation enabled her qualifications for the job.

As sorority house mother, Miss Corley will be called upon to provide leadership and direction for the girls individually and as an organized group. When asked how she felt about her new employment, Charlotte replied, "I really enjoy being down here with the girls. Since I am a Delta Zeta, my work seems somewhat simpler already. Being a house mother is definitely a challenge; I am presently working in the welfare department at Grantsville, and eventually I would like to go further into social work. Therefore, my duties at the house and my daily work in the office have proven to be enjoyable and hopefully most rewarding."

Avenge Earlier Loss 91-75 Cagers Trip D-E Senators,

Senior guard Steve Spicer tossed in a game high 22 points in leading the Pioneers to a 91-75 victory over the visiting Senators from Davis and Elkins. The victory avenged an earlier 80-73 overtime loss at Elkins in the second game of the regular season.

Spicer started his performance early in the first segment, hitting from the left corner on half turn-around jump shots to score eight of his 22 in the initial ten minutes of play. Jack Robinson and Jim Archer tossed in six each to help move Glenville to a 23-17 lead at the end of the first 10 minutes. The remainder of the first half was a repeat of the first with Spicer and Robinson getting six each as the Pioneers took a 46-35 lead into the dressing room.

In the second half the Pioneers continued to increase their lead to 19 at 69-50 as the

Scholarship Won By Spicer

The Glenville State College Alumni Association has just announced the selection of Stephen Spicer as the recipient of the President D. Banks Wilburn Scholarship, according to Mr. Robert Gainer, Alumni director. Spicer, a senior physical education major from Gauley Bridge, was chosen by the Scholarship Committee of the college.

Anne Gerstner and Barbara Miller have been awarded the first Alma J. Arbuckle Scholarship. This scholarship was designed by Miss Arbuckle, a retired Glenville State librarian, to be given to a deserving West Virginia resident. Miss Gerstner and Miss Miller are both residents of Glenville with majors in library science.

third ten minutes ended and then coasted to the 91-75 victory.

Besides Spicer's 22, Robinson and Archer contributed 18 and 15 respectively followed by Gene Watson's eight, all of these in the last half.

Jim McClure was the big gain for Davis and Elkins with 21 counts, followed by Ron Kyle's 17. Glenville's record now stands at 10-10 while Davis and Elkins' is 4-11.

MH Eagles Defeat Glenville Pioneers

The first and last ten minutes of play made the difference in Morris Harvey's 88-64 victory over Glenville in the rescheduled game which had been earlier postponed because of bad weather. The Golden Eagles outscored the Pioneers 19-14 in the first quarter to gain the 24-point victory. The second and third quarters were played to a dead beat.

Steve Quinn hit for ten of his game high 23 in the first segment of leading the Eagles to a 19-14 advantage. The remainder of the half was played evenly with each team accounting for 16 points and Morris Harvey held a five-point halftime lead at 35-30.

The third quarter was in the same fashion as Morris Harvey held on to their five-point lead of 56-51 with only ten minutes remaining. The Pioneers then went cold and the Eagles got hot and rolled for 32 points as compared to Glenville's 13 to give them the 88-64 win.

Steve Quinn and Gerald Martin led Morris Harvey with 23 and 15 points, while Jim Archer and Steve Spicer got 15 and 14 to lead the Pioneers.

It's been a long time since the Pioneers have won the WVIAC Tournament. There once was a time, in the 30's, when nobody but Glenville was supposed to win it. Now it's just the opposite. In 1951, Bob "Hooks" Hardman, one of the all-time GSC greats, combined with "Tex" Gainer to lead the underdog Pioneers to their last WVIAC Tournament victory. Hardman and Gainer were the one-two scoring leaders of the tournament and also solid choice for all-tournament honors.

Since then the closest Glenville has gone was to the finals in 1956 tournament. An almost unbelievable fact is that GSC has not won a WVIAC Tournament game since 1961, losing every first round game. It would be a welcome change to see the capable Pioneers reverse this situation when they travel to Charleston next week.

The Pioneers are going to have to show something that they have shown only on occasion this year. There have been times when they seemed unbeatable, but we have not seen enough of these times. If someone could find that magic formula that does this to GSC on occasion, we may be quite pleased with the way in which we are represented in Charleston. That one thing that could make them all play the type of ball each member is capable of playing on a given night could even produce one of the biggest dark horse showings in the history of the tourney. It seems that only Fairmont, State, Morris Harvey and West Liberty are being considered as probable winners, and based on regular season play, rightfully so. But this tournament begins a new season, and every team is starting anew, so we can hope that Coach Lilly can put that desire to win in their souls and bring us back a winner; we've waited long enough.

Glenville State College has started a new sport to compete with other WVIAC colleges — bowling. The team will be in a postal league, that is they will bowl here while opponents bowl at their alley and the scores will be mailed to the commissioner. Glenville's first match will be Monday against Fairmont. At the end of the season, they will compete in a regional tourney for the right to go to NAIA National Championship.

Non-Conference Battle Leaves Lillymen Lagging

Shepherd overcame a five-point halftime lead and completely dominated the second half of play to gain a 83-69 non-conference victory at Shepherd.

Dave Barnes hit for all ten of his points in the first segment of play to move the Pioneers to a 21-17 lead at the end of the first ten minutes. The second part of the first half was an even battle with each team scoring 17 points giving the Pioneers a 38-33 lead as the teams went to the dressing rooms.

Glenville came out cold in the second half and with 15-23 remaining, Charles Coffman hit a field goal to give Shepherd a 46-44 lead they never relinquished. Shepherd outscored Glenville 26-12 in the third period to move to a 59-50 lead and increased this by five in the last ten minutes of play to preserve their 84-69 win.

Charles Coffman led all scorers with 37 and Simms had 20 while Jack Robinson and Steve Spicer had 22 and 11 to lead Glenville.

Grant Approved For Education

Glenville State College is the recipient of a $14,000 grant awarded by the United States Office of Education, for the development of a program in the education of teachers of the mentally retarded. This program will begin in the fall of the 1968-69 school term, according to Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, president of Glenville State College.

Application and descriptive materials concerning this 12-month grant were prepared by Dr. B. E. Ross, chairman of the department of education and psychology, assisted by Miss Pauline Harvey, assistant professor of education. Miss Harvey will have the major responsibility of developing the curriculum and guiding the program.

Miss Harvey came to Glenville State in the fall of 1967 with the purpose of developing this program in mind. She received her B.A. in education from Concord College and an M.S. in Special Education from Marshall University. She is presently enrolled in a doctorate program in special education at the University of Virginia, where she did graduate work last summer and plans to continue her studies this summer.

This grant is renewable in the second year; however, once a college begins course work and can support the program, applications are available for training grants for students.

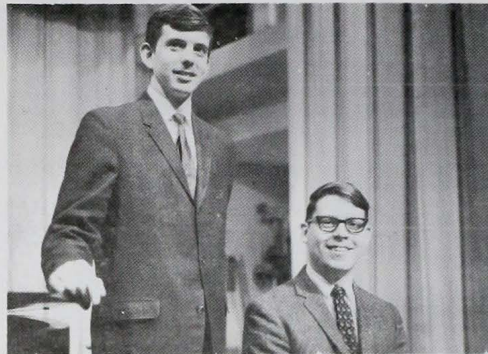

CRC Sponsors Debate Series

The Campus Religious Council is sponsoring a series of debates, panel discussions and open discussion at the Wesley Foundation on Tuesday evenings from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. A panel discussion is included on the agenda for Feb. 13.

"Artificial Life and Institution of Marriage," is the topic of an open discussion to be held on Feb. 20. Considering the sociological aspects of this problem will be Mrs. Eileen Wolfe, associate professor of Laverne E. Anderson, associate camp director of the YMCA Camp Storier in Toledo, Ohio, will visit the Glenville State College campus Feb. 28 from 8:00-11:30 a.m.

She will interview students in the Student Union for the purpose of hiring men to work as cabin counselors with boys 8-14 years of age.

John Collins, standing, Gerald Black, sitting, prepare for their senior recital.

Dept. Schedules Revue, Play

"Off the Shelf," a revue to be presented by the Ohnimgohc Players, was presented last night and will be presented again tonight. The program is written by William Lewis and William Monk. The revue features original satires, skits, songs, monologues and adaptations of television programs and top Broadway shows. There will be a 50 cent admission charge for the production.

Stage manager of the presentation will be Kenneth Coleman, assisted by Kathy Steele, director of make-up. Larry Reed is in charge of the technical direction for the presentation.

Try-outs for "Epiphany" have been announced by William Monk, director. They will be held on Feb. 27. Monk stresses that roles in the production are not limited to members in the speech department and urges everyone to read for a part. "Epiphany" will be presented as part of the night of one-acts to be held this term on March 27. The play will be presented as GSC's entry in the West Virginia Inter-Collegiate Speech Festival in Jackson's Mill, to be held April, 23, 24 and 25. The production, according to Monk will possibly be presented for the Parkersburg Actors Guild of Parkersburg in April.

The series of one-acts, to be presented third term, is to be selected from those presented by the play production class. These productions are directed by members of that class.

The cast for the three-act play, "Look Back in Anger," by John Osborne was selected through try-outs held recently. The part of Jimmy will be portrayed by David Lough, a junior from Parkersburg. William

Senior Recital Scheduled For Sunday

A senior recital will be presented by John Collins and Gerald Black, Sunday, Feb. 18 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

John Melvin Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Collins of Weston, is a tuba major at GSC. He is a member of the Concert Choir, Choral Union, Madrigal Singers, Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, Stage Band and Marching Band. Collins is active in the Music Educators' National Conference, serving as vice-president at the state level, and last year was president of the GSC chapter. His tuba instruction has been with Dr. David Swanzy and Mr. Ronald Ross of the GSC music department and with Dr. Walter Hartley of Davis and Elkins College.

Collins will perform the following works at his recital: Air and Bouree, J. S. Bach; Variation on "Judas Meccabeus," Beethoven; Allegretto Grazioso and Rondo, Kreisler; Chaconne, Leo Sowerby; and Sonatina, Walter S. Hartley. His accompanist will be Rosemary Idleman.

Mayor Signs Proclamation

Mayor Boyd C. Collins of Glenville has proclaimed February, Heart Fund Month in Glenville, according to Gilmer County Heart Fund Chairman, Mrs. Yvonne King. In so doing, Mayor Collins has approved next Sunday, Feb. 18, as Heart Sunday, the day set aside for door-to-door canvassing for Contributions to this drive for combatting the nation's number one killer — heart disease.

Included in plans for this month's Heart Fund activities are: a Heart Ball on Saturday, Feb. 17, at the Recreation Center; the crowning of a Heart Queen for the county; guess cakes at various locations; coin container collections; a donation raffle for a record album; school contributions; ballgame collections; bake sales and a fashion show. Also, heart-shaped cakes are placed in various locations for the purpose of depositing coins in the frosting.

Mary Ann Kazer, Donna Gayle Pittman and Marilyn Sue Sinnett are teaching at Park Elementary.

Retha McAvoy is the lone Glenville student teacher at Worthington Elementary.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn B. Black of Baldwin, Gerald Glenn Black is a baritone major. He is a member of the Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, State Band, Concert Choir, Choral Union and Madrigal Singers. Black will do his student teaching fourth term. His instruction has been with Dr. David Swanzy and Mr. Ronald Ross.

Black will perform the Andante and Allegro by Barat, and the Concerto by Rimsky-Korsakov. His accompanist will be Lynn Stotler.

Following the recital, a reception, sponsored by MENC, will be held in the Louis Bennett Lounge.

Students and staff members of GSC are invited to attend the recital and reception.

Heart Dance Set Feb. 17

A Heart Ball will be held at the Recreation Center Saturday night, Feb. 17, from 8-12 p.m. in conjunction with Gilmer County's Heart Fund Drive, currently in session.

The Philly-Loo-Byrd will play for the dance which will be open to people of all ages. It is hoped that this dance will combine county-wide efforts to better promote the Heart Fund.

Climaxing the dance will be the crowning of a Heart Queen who will remain unknown until intermission of the dance. Any one may be a contestant for queen — any age from two to 20, nine to 90. Winner will be determined by collecting the most money at a penny a vote. Jars may be placed in business establishments in support of contestants or school classes may support class queens. Runners-up will be named maids-of-honor.

Advance ticket sale is being conducted all this week by individual Heart Fund volunteers at the cost of $1 stag or $1.50 per couple. The dance, semi-formal in attire, is open to all ages and music will be appropriate for children, teenagers, college students, middle-aged and older.

The Philly-Loo-Byrd, a recently-organized group of Glenville State College students, has appeared at many social and benefit happenings in this area, being especially active in local high school activities. The group includes vocalist Tom Carter; drummer, Ronald Nichols; bass guitarist, J. B. Butcher; lead guitarist, Gerald Ramsburg; and Ross Polk, organist.

Tickets may be purchased at the door or in advance.
