Delta Zeta, Theta Xi Tie First Place in Annual Sing

First place trophy in the fifth annual Mothers' Day Sing was awarded to Delta Zeta Sorority and Theta Xi Fraternity. "An Old Fashioned Sing" was the theme selected by Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority, who sponsored the event.

"Down By the Old Mill Stream" and "My Mom" were sung by seventy-two Delta Zetas wearing pink dresses with white heels and gloves. Miss Karen Yoak, a senior Music major from Grantsville, was their director.

Theta Xi Fraternity with dress of blue shirts trimmed with garters on their sleeves and black derbys won the hearts of all mothers when they sang "I Want a Girl" and "The Impossible Dream." Richard Kump served the men as director. He is a freshman music major.

Second place trophy was won by Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. The men's selections were, "Faith of Our Mothers" and "When Your Hair Turns To Silver." They too wore blue shirts and ties. Larry Williams directed the TEKES.

Omega Kappa Phi, led by Lawrence Ball was awarded third place in the sing. "If I Ever Leave You" and "Strolling Through the Park One Day" provided a most entertaining sing by the new fraternity on GSC's campus. President, Jack Albert, was Master of Ceremonies.

Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority sang "Apple Blossom Time" while the judges tallied their votes. Other organization in competition were Verona Mapel Hall directed by Lois Ingram and Women's Hall with Judy Keys as director.

The voting was based upon the per centage of the organization that participated in the sing, appearance, originality of the songs pertaining to the theme of the Gay Nineties. This was the fifth year for Mother's Day Sing held by ASA.

William Flesher To Lead ADE Business Fraternity

William Flesher, a junior from Weston, was recently elected as president of the Alpha Delta Epsilon business fraternity. A history minor, he served as sergeant-at-arms for the past year.

Elected to the office of vice-president was James Hinter. He is a junior from New Milton and has served this past year as treasurer. His minor field is history.

Mary Gainer is the new recording secretary. She is a freshman from Charleston majoring in the two year business program. Rebecca Colow of Durbin is the new corresponding secretary. She is majoring in secretarial studies.

The new treasurer is Ronal Boothe of Tariff. He is a junior with a minor field in math. Re-elected to the office of reporter was James Bull of Walkersville. He is minoring in journalism.

Steve Burke of Weston was elected to the office of sergeant-at-arms. He is a junior with a minor field in history. Elected as historian was Daniel Shumate, a junior from Ripley. His minor field is art.

The business fraternity will hold its annual steak picnic at Cedar Creek State Park on May 21 for members and their guests.

College Designated NTE Testing Center

Glenville State College has been designated as a test center for administering the National Teacher Examinations on July 6, 1968, Kermit L. Kinder, Director of Guidance and Counseling announced today.

College seniors preparing to teach and teachers applying for positions in school systems which encourage or require applicants to submit their scores on the National Teacher Examinations along with their other credentials are eligible to take the tests. The examinations are prepared and administered by Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N. J.

The designation of Glenville State College as a test center for these examinations will give prospective teachers in this area an opportunity to compare their performance on the examinations with candidates throughout the country who take the tests, Mr. Kinder said.

At the one-day session a candidate may take the common Examinations, which include tests in Professional Education and General Education, and one of the Thirteen Teaching Area Examinations which are designed to evaluate his understanding of the subject matter and methods applicable to the area he may be assigned to teach.

Bulletins of Information describing registration procedures and containing Registration Forms may be obtained from Mr. Kinder in the Office of Student Affairs or directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Box 911, Princeton, N. J. 08540. Prospective teachers planning to take the test should obtain their Bulletins of Information promptly, Mr. Kinder advised.

Osborne Announces Semester Payments

Beginning with the fall semester of 1968, an increase in fees will become effective, according to William J. Osborne, Business Manager.

Total fees due for dormitory students for the semester are $434.72 for W. Va. students and $734.72 for out-of-state students. (This number includes room fee for a room designed for four persons.)

W. Va. students living off campus are charged $101 and out-of-state students living off campus owe $401.

Room charge for dormitory students will vary according to the size of the room. Additional charge of $9.27 per person per semester is charged for a room designed for three persons. A room designed for two persons will cost an additional $18.54 per semester per person. A private room will cost an additional $37.08 per semester.

Tuition and fees will be $1 less for the spring semester. There will be only one charge for identification cards for the whole year.

Student teachers will also follow new regulations. The student may elect to live in the dormitory or off-campus during the

Choral Union Sings 'Gloria'

On May 21, at 8:15 p.m., the Choral Union will present the "Gloria" by Antonio Vivaldi, in the Glenville State College auditorium. The "Gloria" was composed in the 18th century, and was dedicated to a girls' orphanage. In fact, the original orchestra was composed of these teen-age girls. The text of "Gloria" forms part of the ritual of the Mass in the Roman Catholic Church. Its 12 movements vary in length from eight measures to more than 12 pages. Movements are divided among the chorus and three soloists.

The May 21 performance is based on an edition of the "Gloria" made in 1939. It is really an elaboration of the original score.

Nationwide Results Favor Sen. McCarthy

Nationwide, college students voted for Senator Eugene McCarthy (D-Minn.) and an end to the war in Vietnam in Choice '68, the national presidential primary held April 24.

McCarthy polled 28.7 per cent of the almost 1.1 million votes cast, followed by Senator Robert Kennedy (D-N.Y.) with 19.9 per cent and Republican Richard Nixon with 18.4 per cent.

A combined 62.6 per cent of the students voted for either an immediate withdrawal of American troops or a reduction in American military involvement in Vietnam against 30 per cent who voted for either increased or all-out military effort. Some 58 per cent voted for either a permanent or temporary halt to bombing.

Seventy-nine per cent voted for either job training or education as solutions to the urban crisis. While McCarthy swept the nation with 285,988 votes, he ranked third in the GSC voting with 102. Robert Kennedy, the top choice of Glenville students with 229 votes polled 213,832 in the nationwide poll. The nation's third choice was Richard Nixon with 197,187 votes. He polled 207 votes from GSC students to become their second choice.

Nelson Rockefeller polled 115,937 votes nationwide of which 68 came from Glenville students. Fifth choice of the nation was President Johnson who polled 57,362 votes. He received 48 votes on campus. Forty-one Glenville students voted for George Wallace of the American Independent Party. He received 33,078 votes nationwide.

Ronald Reagan, the Republican governor of California polled 28,215 votes and was the first choice of 28 Glenville students. New York Mayor John Lindsay (R) received 22,301 votes but received only seven of them from local students.

Vice president Hubert Humphrey (D) received 18,535 written votes, followed by Charles Percy (R) with 15,184. Mark Hatfield (R) received 7,605 votes, Fred Halstead (Social Worker) received 5,886 votes and Harold Stassen (R) received 1,033 votes to complete the balloting. None of these candidates received notable support from Glenville students.

Balloting on the referendum by Glenville students showed that 210 students wanted a phased reduction of American military activity and 105 students wanted complete withdrawal of American forces. Increased military activity was desired by 107 students while 78 wanted to maintain the current level of military activity. An all-out military effort was urged by 259 students.

Intensified bombing was wanted by 350 students and the use of nuclear weapons was desired by 42 students. Ninety-eight students wanted to maintain the present level of bombing. On the other side of the issue 90 persons voted for permanent cessation of bombing and 178 votes were cast for temporary suspension of bombing.

In confronting the urban crisis, 354 GSC students thought that education was the answer to the problem. Riot control and stricter law enforcement was the choice of 176 students while 190 students preferred job training and employment opportunities.

Albert Heads LBH

Jack Albert was elected as the 1968-1969 Louis Bennett Hall president at an all-dormitory election held on May 7, 1968.

Other officers are: vice-president, Ronald Riggs; secretary, Michael Geary; treasurer, Daniel McPherson; and sergeant-at-arms, Stephen Seals.

Albert, a sophomore majoring in social studies, is from River-view, W. Va. He is president of the sophomore class and president of Omega Kappa Phi fraternity.

Riggs, a sophomore from New Matamoras, Ohio, is majoring in art and journalism. He is also editor of the 1967-68 Kanawach-en.

Geary, an elementary education major, is a sophomore from Charleston. He is also a member of Omega Kappa Phi fraternity.

McPherson, a freshman from Parkersburg, is a business administration major.

Seals, a junior from Charleston, is a physical education and social studies major. He is a member of the varsity football team, G-Club and Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

There were 258 votes cast which meant 82 per cent of the residents voiced their opinion.

Sing Is Successful

Mothers' Day weekend has come to a very successful close. Students, faculty members, and the administration alike should all be congratulated for their co-operation and attendance to a well run weekend.

What appeared to be another rained out event turned into one of most successful weekends GSC has ever seen.

Tau Kappa Epsilon's 35th annual Court Ball saw 168 couples turn out to dance and be entertained by the "Kickin Mustangs" from Kentucky. The Ball was probably the most profitable and attended dance at GSC for many years.

Alpha Sigma Alpha is also to be commended for the wonderful job they did in preparing for the Annual Mothers' Day Sing. All day Sunday, mothers, relatives and friends turned out in masses to be entertained by various groups and organizations at GSC. Although none of the singing groups seemed to produce the sound that was so terrific last year, I'm sure everyone enjoyed themselves.

Jack Albert and the brothers of Omega Kappa Phi Fraternity should be proud of the success their efforts are proving on campus. Winning third place in the Mother's Day Sing, the first round of competition they have entered, proves that they are not taking the fraternal system lightly and are seriously trying to build a firm foundation which will be remembered for many years.

After visitations were completed and refreshments were served the GSC music department finally received the support they deserved all year. A good crowd turned out to hear what Dr. Ross termed as "GSC's third attempt for an outside concert" and gave the stage and concert bands a well deserved standing ovation. The ovation not only summarized the efforts of stage and concert bands for their fine performance Sunday evening but also be the support and co-operation they have given GSC all year.

I am quite sure last weekend laid a firm foundation for Mothers' Day weekend to become a tradition and a highlight of yearly activities at GSC.

Robert Scott Cribbs

Can Life Be Simple?

Is there a simple answer to the many problems of life? Can one master his own fate, control his own destiny? If given only one minute to phrase an explanation of life, would we be more eloquent than the 64 former inhabitants of Spoon River who appeared on the GSC stage last week?

For the regular Glenville theatre-goer, this most recent production was extremely unique. In the first place, Edgar Lee Master's Spoon River Anthology is not a play, but merely an interpretive recitation of epitaphs written for fictitious inhabitants of a fictional town in Illinois.

One is immediately reminded of Thornton Wilder's Our Town as the scene begins in a cemetery and especially as he realizes that these are dead people who are philosophically reflecting memories of a past life. The audience shudders to hear one recount of how "he came to his end."

Setting for the production was simple and somber: a graveyard portrayed by risers or a series of steps which served to allow actors to move about at will which they did often much to our dismay and confusion until we realize that the purpose is to depict different deceased ones who speak from their various graves.

Lighting was superb, excellently manipulated to illumine the particular speaker who was to unearth the human frailties of his life in Spoon River. A series of bright reds, pinks, purples and yellows lent mood to the recitations.

The only relief from the realms of death in the play was afforded by the two most capable folk singers who compatibly and excellently offered various tales of human everyday life with its opportunities for laughter and gaiety, as evidenced by a particularly well delivered, "I Give To You a Paper of Pins" and an equally good rendition of "A Horse Named Bill." However, some tragic songs depicting life as we know it, were included, also. Whether rendering a tale of woe or a comical ditty, the singers assumed a naturalness common to those who might sing and strum a guitar at a campfire circle.

One cannot view this presentation without identifying for a while with some of the characters and trying to imagine what he'd say if he were to sum up the essence of his own life—his confession of gripes, beliefs, yearnings, and endeavors. Therefore, an individual interpretation of this "play" is necessary for each viewer.

Again, as in all major productions this year, the show was well-directed and well-cast. It must have taken excellent directing to use eight characters to depict some 64 human personalities. This was done in clearly-defined terms as it took little adjusting for the audience to realize that one Emily Sparks was no longer speaking but her identity had been shrugged off to allow Mrs. Kessler to speak. These changes of personality, difficult for even the veteran thespian, were smooth, without incident. Often accent, stature and tone of voice were modified as one character shifted from depicting an old person to depicting a younger citizen.

Occasionally, lines from an epitaph were delivered so as to strike a comical response from the on-lookers. However, this was not classed as a comedy. According to spectators queried as to their response, it was a believable, enjoyable "slice of life." It might even seem to suggest a moralistic viewpoint: when all is said and done, how important are our little everyday problems, what changes the course of one's life? Would we change anything now past is given the opportunity? What constitutes our memories?

Cast-wise, the appearance of three young ladies who heretofore have served on make-up and property crews, was well accepted by the audience. Kathy Steele, Sherry Erwin and Julia Murin made quite impressive debuts. Each depicted her own individual style, the former, a very pronounced, self-certain mood; Miss Erwin, a little less certain of herself, but evidencing clear diction and good characterization; and the latter a very flippant, refreshing change of

Region 4 Theta Xi's Confer On Campus

On April 27, the Theta Xi chapters of Region 4 held a Region Wide conference. One hundred and two delegates representing all six of the chapters which constitute Region 4 (West Virginia) were present.

Kappa Eta Chapter at Glenville State was the host of the initial conference.

The conference opened with a registration of delegates at 8:30 in the Old Louis Bennett Lounge entrance hall. An assembly of all delegates followed at 9:30 in the lounge. David Morton, Region 4 Director, introduced the conference staff and Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, GSC president, delivered a brief welcoming address. The remainder of the morning was spent in the first two of the five discussion group classes which were held on the third floor of the administration building. Following lunch, the remaining three classes were held.

The conference enrollment was divided into five groups. Each group spent one hour in each of the five classes, discussing major phases of fraternity operation including: the national constitution, the ritual, chapter financing, alumni affairs, and pledging and rush. Conference staff members acted as lecturers and discussion leaders in their classes.

Open House Held

Open house was held at the chapter house on Sunday with parents of all students as well as those of Delta Zeta's being welcomed. The girls sang "Shenandoah" in tribute of their deceased house mother, Eula Ewing. It was one of her favorites.

Having various study sessions with active DZ's, learning the duties of each officer, and giving Miss Kellerman an apple were only a few duties the spring pledge class were given during Rose Week. Each pledge was assigned two actives who provided them with DZ gifts the week of May 6-10. On Friday night, a party was given by the pledges in honor of the actives at the DZ house. On Saturday morning, nine girls were initiated into the bonds of Delta Zeta sorority. They are as follows: Connie Deem, Mary Stone, Frankie Hollandsworth, Mona Harvey, Lynn McKown, Ellida Van Allen, Rebecca Law, Jeanie Rochhold and Sharon Burkhammer.

The Theta Xi Chapter of Delta Zeta is sponsoring an hootenanny tonight in the amphitheatre from 7-8 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the Greeks.

Alpha Sigs Initiate 6

On Monday, May 13, the Alpha Sigs initiated six girls. These were: Elaine Barker, Mary Daniels, Ruth Orendorff, Sharon Slusher, Andrea Lipscomb and Marilyn Smith. Prior to their initiation, the pledges had to get signatures from members of three fraternities; carry a goody bag; wear red and white all day, not speak to boys for a day and one day was turn-about-day when the actives did things for the pledges.

For their activity, the pledges gave a tea for the actives, patroness and alumnae. The patronesses were presented with a single red rose. For entertainment, the pledges presented an original skit based on four aspects of pledging and a song.

The Alpha Sigs had a booth in TKE carnival Saturday May 11 and played the Delta Zeta's in a Powder Puff football game yesterday afternoon.

The game was previously scheduled for May 4. Due to a muddy field, it was rescheduled at a date which would be convenient for both sororities.

The challenge for the game was made by the Alpha Sigs at the Greek party sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon and Theta Xi. Kathryn Roten, an Alpha Sig, was in charge of the arrangements for the game.

The coaches for Alpha Sigma Alpha were: Bruce Shew, Sheldon Hinkley, Marshall Stanley and Gary Farnsworth.

Dale Sheets, Rick Dayhuff and Stephen Seals were referees for the game.

Cindy Day TKE Sweetheart

Sweetheart Reigns

Cynthia Ann Day was crowned as the Iota Omega Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon's Sweetheart at the 35th Annual Court Ball Saturday evening, May 11. She was elected by the fraternity on Monday, May 6.

Miss Day is an elementary education major from Parkersburg. Through being elected sweetheart she became an honorary member of Diana, women's auxiliary of Tau Kappa Epsilon. Miss Day will reign until next year's Court Ball. She replaced Miss Linda Boswell who was the 1967-1968 Teke Sweetheart.

As I See 'Em . . .

by Ken Curren

Two pitchers, an outfielder and an infielder will be the only losses suffered by the GSC baseball team. Although only four men are graduating, they were four important men who played valuable parts in what ever successes the team attained.

Larry Frisby, a four year regular on the mound, was again the leading thrower with a 3-2 record, and will be one of the casualties, due to graduation.

Bill Burbank, a hard-throwing lefthander, and speedy infielder John Fling and outfielder Bob Harbaugh are the other losses. Flint, who misses much of the season due to student teaching and injuries has been the starting shortstop for the last four years and his quickness and certainly his bat will be hard to replace.

Burbank, whose 1-3 record may not look impressive, but when you find that one of his losses was a two hitter against Morris Harvey and others were partially results of unmeasured runs, his pitching cannot be judged by his record.

Lastly, outfielder Bob Harbaugh, whose fine play in his years as a substitute and regular, will be missed.

Leading this year's hitters was right-fielder Jim Potts. Potts, who will be back next year, hit at a .302 pace, .052 points ahead of the nearest man. Potts, who more important than just getting hits, got them when they really counted. During the winning streak at mid-season, Potts continuously came up with two or three hits a game, usually with men on base.

Lead-off man Tom Haight, a center fielder, and Pee Wee Lacy, shortstop, each hit at .250 pace. The importance of these and the fourth leading hitter, Tom Turner (.241) right fielder, is that Haight is a sophomore and Lacy and Turner are only freshmen.

Continuing down the list, next catcher Bob Hays, another freshman, hit .222. Of the top five hitters three are freshmen, one a junior.

Another freshman, pitcher Mike Wentzel whose 1-3 record is quite well for a first year man will have to be relied heavily upon next year along with sophomore Mick Goodwin. These will be the only two experienced pitchers returning, after the loss of Frisby and Burbank.

All in all, there will be seven freshman, four sophomores and three juniors back next year and the experience they gained this year should prove to be very instrumental in a fine season effort next year.

Alpha Delta Epsilon wishes to thank the faculty and staff members for their donations to the annual slave auction. The proceeds from the sale will help provide a scholarship for a business student.

PLEDGES SELECTED

In a meeting held Tuesday afternoon of last week the Ohnimgohow Players chose to invite the following people to become a part of this semester's pledge class: Connie Montgomery, Julia Murin, Ruth Terry, Twila White, Susan Wolford and James Williams. These potential members were informed of the details of the Ohnimgohow pledge period Friday at a meeting held for that purpose. The pledge period began Monday and will last all this week.

Tech Gains Win, Loss

W. Va. Tech exploded for five runs in the fourth inning of the first game of a double header played here last Tuesday, taking a 5-0 victory over the Pioneers.

They managed only two base hits in the fourth but Glenville errors proved very costly. After the lead-off man fled out to the center fielder, pitcher Michael Goodwin issued two consecutive walks.

Two runs resulted from two errors and Tech had two runs on the board without a hit. A base hit followed by a sacrifice fly and another base hit produced three more runs before the side was retired.

Glenville managed six hits in the first game but could not produce a run, while Tech mustered five runs on only four hits.

Leading Glenville hitters in the initial contest were Thomas Haight, (2-3); James Potts, (2-2); Robert Hays, (1-3); and James Settle, (1-2).

Glenville rallied for what proved to be the winning margin in scoring three runs in the first inning of the second game, taking a 3-1 win to split the double dip with Tech.

Thomas Haight led off the inning with a walk followed by Thomas Turner's base rap. Haight then scored when Werry's ground ball was bobbled by the short stop. Potts grounded out but two runs scored on Frost's hit before the sides were retired.

Tech managed their only run in the seventh when Franklin walked, advanced on Kelley's hit and score on Angyal's base hit.

Richard Werry went two for four to lead Glenville hitters while Haight was 1-3.

Frisby was the winning pitcher and Franklin got the loss.

GSC Wins 3-2

Glenville closed out its regular season baseball schedule Wednesday with a 3-2 victory over Alderson-Broadbush.

Glenville started off fast, scoring two runs in the first inning. Thomas Haight walked and stole second. Harbough struck out before Werry singled in Haight and later also stole second. Potts then struck out before Frost grounded to the shortstop, who committed an error, allowing Werry to score.

AB came back in the third to tie the game 2-2. Tim Brinkley singled and McCoy got aboard on an error. Price sacrificed, moving the runners to second and third before Racan rapped a two run single.

Glenville scored the winning run in the seventh when Haight singled and went to second on Harbough's sacrifice bunt. Werry lined out to left field before Thomas Turner brought Haight in with a single. Burbank got the win while Gainer was the loser.

There will be an All-Campus Assembly in the College Auditorium tomorrow, Thursday, May 16, 1968, at 1:25 p.m. Purpose of the assembly is to provide the Student Government Association an opportunity for the presentation of various awards.

No classes or laboratories are to be in session; the Student Union, Bookstore, and Library are to be closed during this period.

pace, which the audience immediately loved.

As a cast, characters seemed to work well together. Their finished product was believable and smooth for the most part. However, most lacked variety in both gestures continued to be repetitious throughout the play as did characterizations, as actors assumed one personality and stuck to it with few variations throughout the play.

Individually, in addition to the above-mentioned members of the cast, the other included five Mr. Albert Rauch who did not live up to his past performances on the GSC stage. Although his stage presence is quite commendable, he had a tendency to build up the part to more than its deserved importance and volume. His facial control as well as his stature were refreshing evidence of his talent for changing roles, from young to old characters.

Ken Coleman was a believable, natural actor who did not have to force his actions to comply with those of his characters. However, his lack of variety in gestures was noticeable, also.

Dave Bennett gave a dynamic performance although he seemingly relaxed on stage. Again his naturalness added to his portrayal and his forceful good diction made it easy for the audience to relax, also.

The problem with gestures found among so many others in the cast was not present in Twila Cline White's performance. Twila had the emotion and the feeling necessary for the proper rendition of her poem but there was something lacking in her performance. The expression in acting comes not from pat gestures alone, or understanding and appreciation of meaning, or any other clearly defined means. Although Twila knew what she was trying to show the audience, her acting resources were not coordinated into one expression per poem in such a way as to have optimum emotional impact on the audience.

Gary Hollandsworth, always an audience pleaser, was again repeating gestures but he, too was forceful. He can assume varied roles with seemingly little effort but seems to do better when there is something exciting happening, as many of his actions seem breathless.

All in all, the production was a fitting finale to a very successful year of theatre at GSC under the expert supervision of one Stewart Beach who has proven himself technically, directorially and dramatically.

Banquet Set For Alumni

Glenville State College's alumni banquet will be held on May 18 at 6:00 p.m. Classes which will be honored are those of 1918, 1930, 1931 and 1932. Guest speaker for the evening is Sheldon Brannon, who has been named Alumnus of the year.

From 10:00 a.m. till 2:00 p.m. the ballroom will be open for a social gathering. Following the gathering, a program will be held at 2:00 to discuss problems concerning the Alumni Association. At 3:00, there is a meeting for general business and for 5:30, a pre-dinner social hour has been scheduled. There is an estimated 150 people expected to attend the banquet and all seniors are invited.

During the day, all building facilities will be open for visiting alumni.

27 HS Students Visit GSC Campus

Last Thursday, May 9, 27 juniors and seniors from Normantown High School visited the GSC campus.

These are students that are interested in attending college someplace. They had interviews with faculty members in the field in which they are interested.

The students made requests for certain things that they wanted to see at GSC. For their requests, Mr. Ralph Bame gave a demonstration in chemistry, Paul Dillon gave a discussion on biology and Frank Toth gave a demonstration in physics. They also visited the ceramics laboratory.

Mr. Roy White, a science and mathematics instructor at Normantown High School, made the arrangements with Dr. Byron Turner, professor of chemistry at GSC, for the visit to our campus.

Soloists will be: Shirley Starcher, soprano, Joyce Lawhon, soprano, and Sondra Neese, mezzo-soprano. The Choral Union, directed by Mr. Robert Ellis, and accompanied by Shirley Cunningham, consists of 85 students and townspeople.

Students, faculty, staff, and their families are invited to attend this evening of Baroque music. This will be the final choral concert of the year.

Head cook, Mrs. Mildred Stoneking, has been employed for 24 years.

Miss Erma Edwards has been employed as assistant registrar for 26 years.

Recognized for her service for the past 37 years was Miss Bertha Olsen, assistant professor of music.

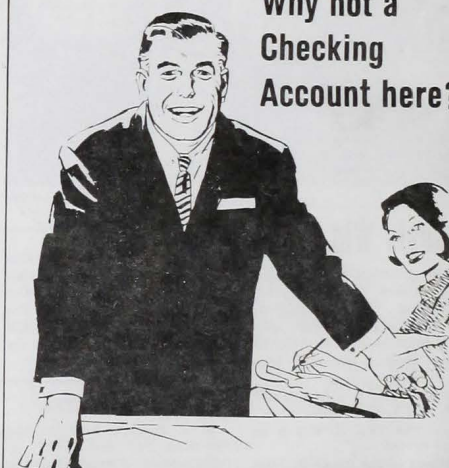

Faculty Wins, Regains Title

The GSC male faculty, playing without the full services of Robert Dollgener, managed to hold off a determined G-Club five for a 84-82 victory at the Glenville gym.

The scoring was handled mainly by the star of yesterday, Robert Bence who had a game high of 20. Milliken added 14 and Rogers had eight.

Rookie talent, William Morrow, showed in spots that he is also a man to watch. When these men gain the experience necessary for this type of competition, watch out.
