Educators Honor Dean Somerville

Dr. Delmer K. Somerville, Dean of the College, has been chosen to appear in the 1970 edition of Outstanding Educators of America. A complete biographical sketch of Dean Somerville will be featured in this annual awards volume along with those of other outstanding educators. Former Vice-president Hubert Humphrey is writing a special introductory message for the volume.

The Outstanding Educators of America is an annual program designed to recognize and honor men and women who have distinguished themselves by exceptional service, achievements and leadership in education.

Guidelines for selection include talents in the classroom, contributions to research, administrative abilities as well as civic and professional recognition previously received. Nominations for this national honor were made earlier in the year by presidents, deans, superintendents, and other heads of schools and colleges who have first-hand knowledge of their nominees.

Dean Somerville is the only educator at GSC selected to appear in the 1970 edition of Outstanding Educators of America.

Workshop Is Held For Special Educ.

A one-day Special Education workshop is being held today for Special Education teachers in Region IV.

The workshop will cover information on materials for the Special Education classroom. Dr. Roger Elser, director of Special Education, West Virginia Department of Education, is here to discuss materials along with Harvey Schneider, field service coordinator with the University of Kentucky.

Others participating in the workshop are Kay Strosnider, director of regional Special Education Instructional Materials Center, and the project director of Music Specialist with Project HUM on music materials.

Counties in Region IV which are expected to participate in today's workshop include Braxton Calhoun, Clay, Gilmer, Nicholas, Pocahontas and Webster.

Mrs. Lula Fittro, LBH director and Mrs. Zora Kittle, VMH director, are shown partaking of watermelon at last week's feast.

NTE Test Is Requirement For Teaching Certification

Dean Delmer K. Somerville wishes to remind students that the completion of the National Teacher Examinations is a requirement for graduation and certification of persons who are candidates for an A.B. degree in teacher education.

Students are advised to take the test only on the dates given. The test results must be on file in the dean's office before recommendations can be made for graduation or certification. The examinations must be taken during the time the student is enrolled in the professional education semester unless another date is approved by the dean of the college.

The fee has been changed from $13 to $15 for the student taking both the Common Exam and one in the teaching area. Separately, the Common Exam is $10, while the teaching exam is $9.

There will be a $3 penalty fee for late registration. For example, the first NTE exam will be held on Nov. 14. Persons wishing to take the test must register with Dr. Morris at 3 p.m. After Oct. 22 the penalty fee will come into effect. Registration will close permanently on Oct. 29. Seniors planning to take the first test should note that they will be given material on Oct. 8, which will allow 14 days before the penalty fee comes into effect.

Dates of the other NTE exams are as follows:

Examination Date
Jan. 30, 1970
April 3, 1970
July 17, 1970

Registration Date
Dec. 17, 1970
Feb. 25, 1970
June 17, 1970

Penalty Date
Jan. 7, 1970
Mar. 11, 1970
June 24, 1970

Registration Closing Date
Jan. 14, 1970
Mar. 18, 1970
July 1, 1970

The Dean also wishes to remind elementary education majors that they must take the Common Examination and 01-Education Examination in the Elementary School. Majors in early childhood education must take the Common Examinations and 02-Early Childhood Education Examination, and majors in secondary education must take the Common Examination and the Teaching Area Examination in one teaching field.

College seniors preparing to teach and teachers applying for positions in school systems which encourage or require applicants to submit their scores on the NTE are eligible to take the tests. Last year approximately 105,000 candidates took the examinations which are prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, N. J.

Bulletins of Information describing registration procedures and containing registration forms may be obtained from Dr. Morris on registration day, Oct. 8, in Clark Hall.

The parade, beginning at 10 a.m., will be under the direction of Parade Marshal John Wagner and Chairman John White. Judging this year will be done from a judging stand with the winning entry being announced at half-time of the game. The three criteria for judging are these: appropriateness, originality, and beauty. Coronation of the Homecoming queen will be held at 11:15 with the football game beginning at 2 p.m. against Bluefield State.

This year there will be an informal reception for alumni from 4:30-9:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Pioneer Center. No alumni dinner will be held.

The dance featuring the 'Great Pacific Express' will begin at 9 p.m. in the Ballroom.

There will be an election of the Junior Class princess Thursday, September 24 at 3:30 in the amphitheater. Any interested junior girls should have submitted their names to Keith Boyles, class president, by 3:00 today; however nominations from the floor will be accepted.

GSC Experiences No Expense Hike

College is an expensive endeavor as is probably all too apparent to GSC students so shortly after their registration period. Yet, Glenville—and subsequently its students—is very lucky.

In a new booklet listing the cost of a year at college prepared by the Life Insurance Agency Management Association, Glenville was shown to be the second least expensive school in the state—Bluefield ranking first.

Glenville's figure—$954 per year—compares rather favorably to the national mean of $1,234. In addition, repercussions of an average of 7 to 12 per cent increase in the fees throughout the country was not felt here. We had no increase in fees this year.

College is the beginning of adult responsibility; the means by which we obtain our livelihood for the rest of our lives. College graduates make, on the whole, much better salaries in the most comfortable of jobs not to mention the social significance of a degree.

Our degree at GSC will cost approximately $3,816 (residence students living in dorms), yet we will yield at least $6,000 a year or something like $300,000 in a normal teaching lifetime. Your four year investment is increased 100 times over!

Another point that makes it easier to finance your way through Glenville State is its student aid program. Jobs are readily available to those interested that allow the student to earn as much as $96 per month and still have plenty of time to be a full time student.

Besides the workshops, loans, grants-in-aid, and numerous scholarships enhance the student's chance for success without severe financial problems.

In a time of rising costs and inflation, it is remarkable that Glenville has remained so inexpensive to attend. Of course, the lighter the financial burden the more young people will be able to take advantage of higher education.

If education is the key to a brighter, more stable future for America, the more important it is that our generation be given the chance that education can offer. At least Glenville State College is doing its part.

WF Revises Plans, Hours

Changes involving Wesley Foundation have been announced for the 1970-71 school term, according to Wesley Foundation Director, Mr. Ralph Gay.

Married students will serve as hosts and hostesses for the evening. They are provided to help students in any way that they can. These student couples include Mr. and Mrs. Danny Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Boggs, and Mr. and Mrs. James Reed.

Also, Wesley Foundation has other plans in the limelight for the near future. These include the introduction of Sunday evening meetings to discuss problems faced by individuals and society and to try to find solutions for them, one of which is Christianity.

In the past, Wesley Foundation has had a part-time director but now the Methodist Church is planning with other denominations to form a new association called the United Christian Ministries in Higher Education. This group will operate a campus ministry program on state college campuses of which the Methodist church will be a part. In the near future, the Wesley Foundation Building and programs will be under the control of this council. This program will be under the supervision of a full-time director provided by the new organization.

Mr. Gay invites every student to visit Wesley Foundation.

Dormitory Life Is Exciting, If Not Hilarious, Frightening

by Ruth Swatzyna

I am on the verge of suicide for the 59,786th time today. You would think that one who got up at 11:00 would not have time to get into so much trouble in one day, but I have an uncanny ability to do so.

So far today, my roommate Ellen and I have disturbed the house mother twice, been hollered at six times for excessive noise in the hall, and driven our poor old hall monitor to a state of schizophrenia.

It all started when we got locked in our room and couldn't get out. One might think it is impossible to be imprisoned in a room in Women's Hall, and it is, unless the room is 424. You see, our door never did close right, and the first time it did, durned if it didn't lock us in. After a bout of screaming, hollering, and trying to slide under the door, someone finally came by and opened it with a key we had slid under the door.

Later, we went on to supper, with nary a care about the door. But when we came back our "little cross" was stuck again. Five minutes and fifty thousand tries later, Ellen and my friend Barb decided to see if someone in the lobby could help us. Well, by that time I was getting pretty tired of the whole thing. "Silly old door," I said, "The devil with you anyway!" I have this thing for personification. "Open, sesame," I said, figuring magic words couldn't hurt. Upon failing with the traditional magic word, I started inventing my own. "Open, mustard seeds," I demanded, but that failed along with all the other spices, vegetables, and fruits. That is, until I came to "Open, pumpkin," which, miraculously enough, opened the door. So I propped it open and ran to find the others, who had called out the house mother, the locksmith, and all four of the town's policemen. (Bits of questionable wisdom from Sandi Suran: Don't worry about getting locked in or out, just about getting locked in between.)

Time passed and, thank heavens, nothing eventful happened until shortly before 10:00, when I received a message to call home. So I went up to the penthouse, oblivious of the time, and spent about 25 minutes on the phone. Ellen had gone with me, and when we got back, we noticed we had missed room check, by a half hour, no less. Our hall monitor wasn't in, so we decided to be good for once and take our showers and see her later. So there we were, in the shower, when Barb came in and said, "Where have you been? The monitor has been looking all over for you two and has given you each two demerits." Indeed, poor Judy had looked all over the dorm for us and couldn't find us, so she had summoned the house mother (again), the head monitor, the dean of women, and the FBI, just in case we had killed ourselves. They decided to search the building one more time, and if they couldn't find us send out an "all points alert" bulletin for the apprehension of two GSC coeds dressed in pajamas.

There we stood, hair dripping and little buckets in hand, meekly accepting our punishment of two demerits for getting lost in the dormitory, when who should approach us but the head monitor. She had a summons slip for Barb, calling her before the listening board. That's what she gets for laughing at us for getting demerits.

Can you see why I have attempted suicide? I don't even do anything and I get into trouble. First I get locked in my room, then out of it, then I get demerits for using the phone, and my girlfriend gets nervous about taking punishment for something she did months ago—with me, I might add—and, good grief, I'm going to bed before the roof falls in.

Lit. Society Schedules Talk On Cassills Work

Intro I, edited by R.V. Cassill, will be the initial selection to be discussed by the Literary Society September 27 from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the old Louis Bennett Lounge. Preceding the literary discussion will be a general business meeting, presided by Keith Boyles, President.

Intro I is quite apropos for a college talk in that it deals with the writings of graduate students across the country; these works are a sampling of the new fiction and poetry depicting the American scene.

This anthology of short stories and poetry may be purchased in the college bookstore. Anyone interested in worthwhile literary comment is invited to attend the first session of the Literary Society.

Down On The Corner

by Mike Smith

Inside story: The Glenville State College football team lost its opening game Saturday, Sept. 12, 1970, to Mars Hill of Mars Hill, N.C., by the score of 15-13. The Pioneers defense was marvelous. The offense is explosive, but in this first game they sputtered. My opinion is that the rest of the season will be different.

The captains on this year's Pioneer squad will be: center Jerome Rea, a senior from St. Marys; tight end Michael Roscoe, senior from Henderson; offensive tackle Gary Ray, senior from Scott Depot; offensive guard Ron Duncan, senior from Pt. Pleasant; defensive halfback Richard Cain, senior from Wirt. All of the captains are starters at their positions. The only other senior on the squad is record-setting kicker, Ray Swisher, from Ripley.

The defense shows much improvement over last season. Glenville's version of the "Fearsome Foursome" will have junior tackles Gary Jones of Richwood and Bob Lipscomb of Handley, Va.; defensive ends will be juniors Steve Stoffel of Herbert Hoover and former linebacker Randy Dillon of Milton. The inside linebackers will be sophomore Vic Watson hailing from South Harrison and freshman Michael Spears of Parkersburg. Outside linebackers will be juniors Steve Clendenin and Carl Williams from Back Fork Elk River. The defensive backs will be transfer student Scotty Hamilton, junior from Marietta; senior Mike Devol; and freshman Robert Richardson of Charleston.

Advice to freshman football players: keep on pushing and don't look back.

Forest Club Plans Homecoming Float

The Forest Tech Club had its first meeting of the new school year, Tuesday, September 15, 9:30 a.m., at the Forestry Building.

First year students were welcomed and given an introduction to the purposes and objectives of the club. Homecoming plans were briefly discussed as to what the club might have representing it in this year's parade. More closely at hand is the Forest Festival which is held in Elkins. A committee has been assembled to work on this year's display which will represent the Glenville State College Forest Technology Program. The theme to be expressed at the 1970 Forest Festival is "Fifty Years of Forestry."

New officers were then elected. They are as follows: Ted Jones, president; Charles Parks, vice-president; Tom Morris, treasurer; Larry Jefferson, secretary; and Robert Born, reporter.

NOTICE TO FRESHMEN: The GSC Pioneer Football Team will be home against Fairmont on October 3.

GSC Quarterback Pete McDermitt faces a strong rush from Mars Hill defenders.

Glenville Suffers Loss After Half Time Lead

Saturday, Sept. 12, Glenville State College tasted defeat 15-13 at the hands of the Mars Hill Lions. The game was the home opener for the Pioneers. With 3:03 remaining in the game, Ted Williams kicked a field goal from 27 yards to give Mars Hill the victory. All in all it was a frustrating afternoon for the Pioneers as nothing seemed to go right. Place kicker Ray Swisher was a bright spot for Glenville as he booted 2 field goals and 2 extra points. The 2 field goals in one game set a West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference record. The extra point made 31 consecutive for Swisher, which is also good for a conference record.

Glenville opened the scoring in the first quarter on a 28 yard field goal by Swisher. The Pioneers reached field goal territory by way of a 22 yard reception by Mike Roscoe; a 15 yarder by Virgil Lacey and a 12 yard run by Lacey. Mars Hill ran the following kick off back to the Pioneer 3 yard line. Marvin Parrot, Mars Hill's All American candidate quarterback then hit John Dawkins with a pass for the touchdown. The extra point went wide to the right. Glenville got back in the scoring act when quarterback Pete McDermitt hit Virgil Lacey with a pass good for 39 yards. Richard Cain, halfback from Wirt, then went through a large hole provided by the right side of the Glenville line for the score. Cain's run came from three yards out. Swisher then booted the extra point making the score 10-6 in favor of the Pioneers. With seconds remaining in the first half Swisher increased the Pioneer lead 13-6 with a 21 yard field goal. This was the half time score. Mars Hill made the score 13-12 in the third quarter when quarterback Parrot crashed over from the one yard line. The extra point try was again wide to the right. At this point the Pioneers seemed to fold, as they could not hold their lead. An interception of a Pete McDermitt pass set up the winning field goal by Williams.

Scotty Hamilton was the defensive star for the Pioneers and was named the game's most valuable player. Linebacker Vic Watson turned in a good performance as did Neal Christiansen, who came in for ejected Steve Clendenin. Randy Dillon also looked good on defense from his defensive end position. On offense guard Harland (Tarzan) Spencer was a standout.

"1776" Musical To Be Played In Capitol City

"1776," the New York musical hit concerning the American Revolution - its famous names, places and dates - is coming to the Charleston Municipal Auditorium Saturday, Sept. 26, 1970.

The play, by Peter Stone, delves into the "real truth" of the American Revolution. It tries to explain and answer the questions held by the average layman, who in many instances, knows very little about the Revolution.

Pioneers Thwart Shepherd With Mighty Defensive Unit

The Glenville Pioneers won their first game of the young season here Saturday defeating the stubborn Shepherd Rams, 21-0. The Pioneers were led by their mighty defensive unit. The "Blue Bandits" led by linebacker Carl Williams, defensive tackle Gary (Deacon) Jones, and defensive end Randy Dillon thwarted the Shepherd ground attack the whole afternoon. Scotty Hamilton, Mike Devol, and Robbie Richardson were the pass defenders and they performed well. The offense appears to be jelling and should be in high gear for the Salem game. Quarterback Pete McDermitt appears to be back in his record form and tackle Gary Ray looks ready to display his fine blocking talents. Jerry Rea, Harland (Tarz) Spencer, Ron Duncan, Craig Lipscomb, and Mike Roscoe showed much improvement over last week's game with Mars Hill. Split end Randy Modessitt had a good afternoon Saturday, as did fullback Clyde Stepp of Marsh Fork.

The Pioneer offense during the first period moved the ball well, but couldn't punch it over for the score. Late in the first quarter however, the Hanlin men got a drive going led by McDermitt's passing and Stepp's running. As the second quarter opened McDermitt hit Randy Modessitt with a pass for the touchdown. Ray Swisher then booted the extra point making the score 7-0 Glenville.

The touchdown drive was saved when Mike Roscoe, playing Johnny-on-the-spot, recovered a Clyde Stepp fumble deep in Shepherd territory. The defense continued to stop the Shepherd offense and with 5:59 remaining in the second quarter Carl Williams broke through to block a punt, then taking the ball on the Ram 40-yard line Williams raced into the end zone for the score. This contribution by the "Blue Bandits" gave the Pioneers a 13-0 lead. It increased by "1" when Automatic Ray Swisher again kicked the extra point. This score stood until halftime. The rest did not do much for the Rams as the Pioneers proceeded to push the ball down their throats. With 11 minutes remaining in the third quarter Carl Alloway hit over from the one yard line for another Pioneer score and Swisher followed with his thirty-fourth consecutive extra point. From this point, the Pioneers coasted to the victory evening up the season record at one win and one loss.

Williams was awarded the most valuable player award for his defensive play and fine punts. The trophy was given by Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Next Saturday on Sept. 26, 1970, the Pioneers travel to Hite Field in Clarksburg to meet the always tough Salem Tigers. Salem tied West Liberty in their opening game and defeated the Bluefield Big Blues by the score of 21-0 on Saturday.

Readmission Rules Aired By Delmer K. Somerville

General policies governing readmission of students who have been suspended for academic reasons have been listed by Dean Delmer K. Somerville, chairman of the Academic Affairs Committee.

All applications must be made in writing on the forms provided by the College and received in the Office of the Chairman of the Committee on Academic Affairs on or before the designated date prior to the semester when admission is requested. For admission to the First Semester, applications must be filed not later than June 15; for admission to the Second Semester, not later than October 15; for admission to the Summer Session, not later than April 15.

After an application is received, the applicant will be instructed to come to the campus for an interview with the members of the Committee and to take tests administered by the Director of Testing and Guidance for the purpose of determining if the applicant has the ability to do college-level work.

The Director of Testing and Guidance will submit to the Chairman of the Committee the results of the tests along with an evaluation of them and any pertinent information concerning the applicant which may be helpful in predicting his academic success or failure.

The Committee will review all of the facts at hand and make a decision as to whether or not the applicant is to be readmitted to the College on academic probation.

A veteran will be readmitted one time automatically regardless of his academic status in accordance with the regulations of the West Virginia Board of Regents, providing his military service has been during the period of time between suspension and application for readmission. After such readmission he will be subject to the same policies of the College as any other student on academic probation.

VA Gives Suggestions Concerning Assistance

In a recent release from the Veterans Administration several suggestions were made to those who receive veteran's educational assistance.

One suggestion was that the Certificate of Eligibility be turned into the Registrar at registration or as soon after as possible. Secondly, veterans should see that this form is promptly sent to the Veterans Administration.

Before checks can be processed the VA must be notified that a veteran is enrolled. The first check will probably be received by veterans in October. If the VA is not notified early enough the first check can not be sent out until November.

If a veteran changes his college, course, course load, or address the VA should be notified so adjustments can be made.

'Steam' Rock Concert performers will be seen in the first Lyceum series tomorrow evening.

GSC Will Host Steam Rock Concert

Tomorrow night GSC will be invaded with the magic sound of Steam, the group who received a gold record on the ABC-TV Dick Clark American Band Stand program for their record of "Na Na Hey Hey, Kiss Him Goodbye."

Since making the Top 10, Steam has been deluged with many offers for personal appearances. The four-man group recently completed a two-week engagement in Los Angeles and has consented to perform on the GSC campus Thursday night.

First in a series of lyceum and convocation programs scheduled for this year, Steam can be seen in the auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Admission will be by I.D. cards.
