S. Congress Holds Meet

Thursday, Nov. 12, President D. Banks Wilburn and the Who's Who recipients were honored guests of the Student Congress.

Ken Davis, chairman of the Who's Who Committee presented certificates to the honored students. Pictures of these students were taken.

Dr. Wilburn, President of Glenville State College, attended the meeting to discuss and answer questions concerning the problems of the student organization's quest for activity permission cards, auditing of organization record books and the recently formed Ad Hoc Committee on Lyceum programs. Dr. Wilburn is now in the process of amending some of the old regulations concerning off-campus activities. Dr. Wilburn stated the new regulations will "contain more maybes and more shalls." He stated he had the ultimate say in off-campus activity permission cards but if the organization had presented legitimate and valid arguments for such an activity and the Activities Committee, composed of the Dean of Student Affairs, Dean of Men, Dean of Women and four representatives from the student body, passed this activity, he could see no way that he could veto this action.

Dr. Wilburn concluded his visit by expressing his present utmost desire for the Congress. This was to make it a known fact that all record books, kept by student organizations, must be audited at the earliest convenience. It seems that there has been a slight irregularity to the financial statements of certain organizations.

The Constitution of the Women's Auxiliary to Theta Xi Fraternity, Theta Girls, was brought to the floor of the Congress. A motion was made and seconded to table this constitution for a one week period for a closer examination by a committee.

"Cool Hand Luke" was the movie selected by the Congress to be shown in the auditorium of the Administration Building. The date is still in question but admittance will be granted upon presentation of student I.D. cards.

Tuesday, Dec. 8, the GSC campus will have as its guest speaker, the Chancellor to the Board of Regents, Prince Woodard. This session will be strictly in lecture form.

Jan. 10 and 11, the Advisory Board to the Board of Regents, will be the guests of the Student Congress.

Sadie Hawkins week-end was celebrated with many activities including pie throwing as experienced by Deborah Woods.

"Sadie" Is Celebrated

by Fred Albert

The annual Sadie Hawkins—one of the most eventful weekends at GSC—was celebrated this past weekend. The event, sponsored by the Theta Xi fraternity, was scheduled to begin Friday night with a mix in the ballroom which unfortunately had to be canceled due to the late arrival of the band. But festivities were carried on as planned on Saturday.

Surrounded by a cloudy sky and a muddy atmosphere, the activities of Sadie Hawkins got underway at 1 p.m. in front of Verona Maple Residence Hall and continued approximately 4:30 p.m. The activities of the day included; sack races, three-legged races, tobacco spitting contest for the men and a cigar smoking contest for the ladies. Also there was a greased pig chase for the men and women, an egg toss, greased pole climb and, of course, the "throw-a-pie-at-a-Theta Xi" event. The activities on Verona Maple lawn concluded with the hitchin' ceremonies performed by Marlin Sam who was portrayed by Robert Letty.

Concluding the weekend was the Sadie Hawkins dance that was held in the GSC ballroom from 9-12 p.m. on Saturday evening. Reigning over the dance were Lil' Abner, Virgil "Pee Wee" Lacey and Daisy Mae, Vicky Shanklin. Both were voted on in the student union preceding the week-end activities but were not announced until the dance.

Lacey is a senior physical education major, from Poca, and the son of Mrs. Cecelia Shaffer. He is a member of the Theta Xi fraternity and the GSC football team.

Miss Shanklin, a junior elementary education major from Charleston, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester William Shanklin. She is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, the Mercury staff, and a charter member of Theta Girls.

Music for the dance was provided by "The Fog", a rock group from Pittsburgh, Pa. The band also played for a small portion of the daytime activities on Saturday.

Student Congress To Sponsor Dance

Free food will be distributed this Saturday evening, Nov. 21, from 9:00-12:00. A dance, the price of which will be fifty cents per person, will accompany the free food. This event is a continuation of the Student Congress' projects for the GSC students.

The free food consists of petti-fores, punch, potato chips, and ham and bacon biscuits. Phi Delta Phi will serve the refreshments for the occasion.

The dance will feature the Appalachian Mainline, a band from Marshall University. The group is known for its versatility, its repertoire includes such musical genres as blues, hard rock, modern rock jazz, soul, etc.

Admission charge will be taken at the door at 9:00.

Chancellor Prince Woodard Appears At Faculty Meeting

Chancellor Prince B. Woodard of the W.Va. Board of Regents will visit Glenville State College this week. He will address the Thursday meeting of the F.A.O. The meeting will be held in the Pioneer Center Ballroom beginning with a social hour at 3 p.m. with Chancellor Woodard's remarks coming at 3:30 p.m.

Chancellor Woodard who is married and the father of three children is a native of Courtland, Va. and now resides in Charleston. The Chancellor was a member of the U.S. Army during World War II and attained the rank of First Lieutenant during the years 1943-46.

Chancellor Woodard holds a B.A. degree in history from Virginia Military Institute in 1943, an M.A. degree in Educational Administration from the University of Virginia in 1950, and an Ed. D. in Educational Administration also from the University of Virginia in 1954.

Some professional positions held by the new chancellor include: Assoc. Professor of Educational Administration, Temple University; Graduate Professor of Educational Administration, Temple University; and immediately preceding his present position, Director, State Council of Higher Education for Virginia. Other professional experiences include, member of the Board, Southern Regional Education Board, Virginia Commissioner to the Education Commission of the States, Chairman of the Board and Executive Committee, Regional Education Laboratory for the Carolinas and Virginia Member Executive Committee, Executive Officers of Statewide Boards of Higher Education, Executive Committee and Board Member, Virginia State Board of Technical Education, and member of the Graduate Board of Temple University.

Research and Publications by the new Chancellor are, Urban University Study, which is a study of selected urban universities throughout the nation, Higher Education in Virginia;

Rev. John Wilkes Delivers Address

Next Tuesday, Nov. 24, at 9:45 a.m. in the auditorium, a Thanksgiving program will be presented by the Campus Christian Coalition. The Rev. John J. Wilkes will be the principal speaker. The college choir will appear also. They will sing two selections: "Praise Ye the Lord" by Alan Bovhannes, and "Psalm XX" by Heinrich Schutz.

Rev. Wilkes is the senior minister at the Baptist Temple in Charleston. He received his honorary degree—Doctor of Divinity—from Morris Harvey College in 1967. He is also very active in civic affairs, having held offices for various organizations. From 1964-1965, he was Chairman for the Kanawha Valley Council on Human Relations. During 1966-67, he served as Chairman of the Action of Housing Committee. From July, 1968-Sept., 1969, he was Chairman of the Charleston Human Rights Commission. Everyone is invited to attend.

Today and Tomorrow and Staff Welfare Practices in the Public Schools.

Chancellor Woodard will also appear at Rotary Club in town Thursday evening.

Council Aids Miss Sandy

Greek Council is now involved in a philanthropic drive to aid Brenda Sandy in receiving a kidney transplant. Miss Sandy is a 14-year-old resident of the Williamstown-Waverly Community.

Miss Sandy's future depends on a kidney transplant. Due to the great expense of the operation, her parents are unable to procure the necessary funds for the operation. Brenda has seven brothers and sisters.

Thus, once again the Greek council is endeavoring to take part in a service project. Each Greek organization on campus is sponsoring its individual project to secure money.

Miss Sandy's problem became apparent about three years ago. She was a patient in West Virginia University clinic for four weeks, has visited the clinic at least once a month since, and has been admitted as a patient on two occasions for short periods of time.

About four weeks ago it was determined that a kidney transplant was inevitable. Brenda was transferred to Ohio State University where a diognosis machine is available. She remained there as a patient for three weeks and is now at home. She must return to the machine three times every two weeks while she awaits the availability of a suitable kidney transplant. It is hoped the transplant can occur this month if a suitable donor is found.

Miss Brenda Sandy

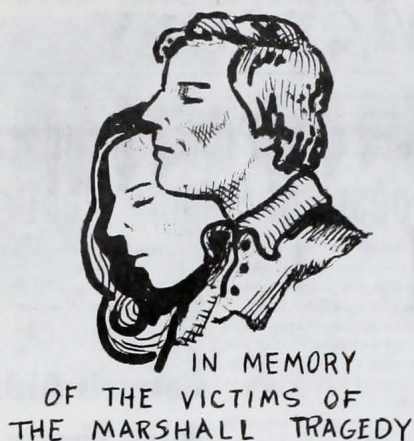

At Marietta College, the Interfraternity Council voted to cancel the building of floats for Homecoming this year so that all money normally spent on the projects could be donated to the Brenda Sandy Fund.

It is hoped that all GSC students will become involved in this action by assisting the Greeks. Anyone wishing to contribute may send their contributions to: Brenda Sandy Fund, Williamstown National Bank, Williamstown, W.Va. 26187.

Any faculty or students wishing flu shots may get them at the Infirmary during the months of November and December.

Sympathy Offered In Memoriam . . .

Death can never be an easy burden to realize. Tragedies are atrocities that never could happen at home. Yet, the great loss Saturday night in Huntington brought realization of death and monumental tragedy to our door.

Many of us are very familiar with the Marshall University campus; the rest of us, too, can identify with their experience. In our own state - not only in the obscurity of Wichita, Kan. - we are faced with an unbelievable situation.

Dedication seems the most appropriate term for the 75 lives lost. The Marshall University football team, the bulk of its coaching staff and several prominent Huntington fans were on that plane to support their school. They were dedicated to their cause and confirmed in their conviction.

It is in their honor that all colleges and universities in our state of West Virginia and throughout the nation should rededicate themselves to a firmer belief in their educational system.

The Glenville Mercury staff extends its sincerest expression of sympathy to the families, friends, and the entire Marshall University campus on behalf of Glenville State College.

Yesterday morning, a most impressive service was held in memoriam. The entire college community is to be commended for its outstanding turnout and somber composure.

TKE

Iota Omega chapter of TauKappa Epsilon held its weekly meeting at 6 p.m. at the fraternity house with Prytanis Michael McCartney presiding over the meeting.

The Thanksgiving dinner sponsored by the Order of Diana, formerly scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 24, was cancelled due to extenuating circumstance.

The fraters are establishing a date for a weekend affair at Davis and Elkins College which will include a basketball game and conferences concerning various fraternal obligations.

In improvement of the fraternity house, the fraters are laying ceramic tile in the bathroom and kitchen along with minor house repairs.

Some of the fraters plan to attend the concert Nov. 21 at the Charleston Civic Center featuring the "Lettermen." This group is composed of alumni Tekes. The event will be sponsored by the Morris Harvey chapter of TKE.

Fraters plan to sell light bulbs for another money making adventure.

The chapter will be visiting the Salem Colony some time in the near future. The object of this visit will be concerned with observation and recommendation to International about whether or not they become a charter member of TKE.

Alumni frater Jim Hissom has been accepted to the School of Dentistry at West Virginia University.

Tri-Sigma

The Robbie Page Memorial Program chairman, Lois Gill, has planned a program for the pledges and actives to remind them of the significance of their pledge to Robbie Page. On Nov. 19, she will present slides to show what the money has been doing for children at Chapel Hill Memorial Hospital.

Brenda Sandy Week of Nov. 15-21 will be acknowledged by the sisters of Tri-Sigma with a bake sale, which will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 18 in front of the old cafeteria, or at the sundial if weather permits, and in Women's Hall from 9:30-10:30 p.m. The funds obtained from the bake sale will be added to the pennies which all the girls are saving and will be sent as a chapter contribution to Brenda Sandy.

A tape to be sent to men in Vietnam is being prepared by the sorority. It will be a Christmas tape with songs and jokes and will be added to a package of various other items such as books and cookies. The package will be shipped through PAL or SAM.

Tri-Sigma had Lois Gill, Judi Arnold, Susan Siers, Jennifer Pitzer, Vicki Shanklin, and Karen Kessler represent them at the Kick-Ball game which was to be played on Nov. 11.

The Sigmas pledges are now carrying purple lunch pails for one week. These lunch pails will be used as a goodie bag which was a Nu Lambda Psi tradition.

In a special ceremony before the regular Monday night meeting the pledges' big sisters were disclosed. They are as follows: Deborah Buchanan's is Beverly Wood; Vickie Dillon's is Karen Kessler; Beth Dunham's is Judy Jordan; Sandra Hall's is Mary Margaret White; Deborah Hardman's is Janice Judy; Darlene Hart's is Judi Arnold; Beverly Moore's is Anne Bordas; Jacqueline Morton's is Jeanne Worstel; Brenda Rose's is Debra Blair; Diane White's is Sharon Neely. The pledges are now collecting signatures of the actives as they do favors for them.

A fight scene from "View From the Bridge" indicates part of the action to be seen Nov. 18-20.

Speech Dept. Play Begins

On Nov. 18, (today), 19 and 20 the Speech Department will present Arthur Miller's Pulitzer Prize winning drama "A View From the Bridge."

The play is Miller's attempt to show the "tragedy of common man" as he attempts to realize his own ineptitude. Although Miller dealt with this theme much more effectively in "Death of a Salesman," this drama is a poignant attempt to show the destruction of one Eddie Carbone when he realizes that he is no longer capable of preventing his niece, whom he has protected and hidden from society, from marrying an Italian emigrant. The setting of the play is the slum area of New York City in the early 1950's.

The production will be staged at 8:00 p.m. in the Auditorium. Mrs. Judy Curtis of the Speech Department is director of the production.

Theta Xi

Kappa Eta chapter of Theta Xi held its weekly meeting at the fraternity house. The informal meeting was presided over by Lonnie Nicely. Plans were discussed about intramural basketball and other activities. Plans were also discussed about the purchase of the house and property. Dr. Paul Nagy, director of the Office of Career Planning and Placement, has been helping the brothers on this matter by compiling a portfolio and brochure to be presented to various bank presidents. Dr. Nagy has also assessed the property and will be aiding the fraternity in other manners.

Theta Xi Fraternity is happy to welcome back its housemother, Mrs. Nettie Turner, who was just released from Union Protestant Hospital in Clarksburg.

The brothers would also like to thank everyone who helped make Sadie Hawkins weekend the best ever through their work, help, and participation.

Theta Xi's are also participating in the "Brenda Sandy Week" which the Greek Council is sponsoring. Theta Xi is making its own contribution to this cause and would like to urge everyone to donate to this cause. The fraternity is now selling records in the Student Union for $2 and $3. A good selection is still available.

Theta Xi pledges are also working on the Christmas party for the children of Gilmer County. If anyone has toys, games, or clothing they are willing to donate, please notify any Theta Xi. This party will be held Dec. 16, and in order for the underprivileged to have a "Merry Christmas," toys are needed.

Kappa Eta is now nearing completion of a house constitution concerning issues which have to do primarily with the house, house rules, and house occupancy. Members of this committee are Lonnie Nicely, Mike Roscoe, Steve Ash, Thomas Lyons, and Richard Kump. The chapter has not had a house constitution since the founding of the Kappa Eta chapter, and the committee feels this will be a vital part of the fraternity's organizational plan in the future.

The pledges worked on the house to get it in shape for Sadie Hawkins weekend and to prepare it for the winter months ahead.

Lambda Chi

Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity is proud to announce that it is the winner of this year's Fraternity Commode Bowl. The brothers and associate members combined efforts to defeat both Theta Xi and TKE.

Both games were won by a score of 6 to 0. The first game was won by means of a touchdown pass from Bob Gruesser to P.D. Blankenship. The second was won by Bill Webb who intercepted a pass and returned it for the necessary touchdown.

Plans for the Closed Ball and installation banquet are now in Committee. Probable date is sometime in March.

Delta Zeta

Delta Zeta sorority received word from National Philanthropies concerning sponsoring of a Carville, La., hospital patient. Theta Xi chapter will be responsible for remembering Lela Mae Perez on her birthday and Christmas, along with a monthly allowance for her personal use. The primary aim of Carville is morale building. The patients that Delta Zeta sponsor are handicapped by blindness, amputations, bad feet or hands, or are confined to a wheel chair. Most of these patients have been at Carville for a long time and have lost all contact with their families and relatives due to the type of disease they have and the stigma attached to it.

Shirlee Camp, vice-president of pledging has released names of "Big Sisters" for the fall pledge class. They are as follows with active Delta Zetas listed first: Cheryl Chaddock; Jane Johnson; Diane Cochran-Mary Hickman; Jenalee Page-Marsha Monroe; Sherry Erwin-Mary Cunningham; Linda Fox-Rosanna Corathers; Ellida Van Allen-Sandra Suran; Betsy Wingfield-Sue Sturm; and Lynda Alford-Cheryl Beebe.

Delta Zeta pledges have been busy conducting hot dog sales, getting interviews, and preparing for their formal party.

December activities for Delta Zeta include the "Winter Frolic" closed dance to be held Dec. 11. Plans are being made for the annual Christmas house party and caroling.

Lambda Chi Alpha Is 'Bowl' Winner

The second annual Commodore Bowl was won by Lambda Chi Alpha on Thursday, Nov. 12. The Commodore Bowl is sponsored by Greek Council and is a game of two-hand touch football between the fraternities on campus. Last year's winner was Theta Xi. The winner is presented a commodore bowl which is placed in the Student Union. It is painted the colors of the winning fraternity.

In the first round Tau Kappa Epsilon drew a bye. Theta Xi played Lambda Chi Alpha on a muddy field. The game was won 6-0 by a Lambda Chi on a second quarter touchdown. Theta Xi put together a last minute drive but it was thwarted on the last play of the game on a pass interception in the end zone.

Lambda Chi played TKE on Thursday. This game was won on a pass interception run for a touchdown by Lambda Chi. The commodore bowl was presented to Lambda Chi Saturday night at the Sadie Hawkins dance.

The officials for the games were Ronald Flint, James Patterson, Larry Darenburger and Steve Scherer.

GSC Basketball Squad Participates In Tourney

Glenville State College basketball team will participate in the Weston Shrine Tournament. The Pioneers will play Salem College in the first round Monday, Nov. 23 at 7 p.m. If Glenville defeats Salem in the first round, they will go against the winner of the Fairmont-West Virginia Wesleyan game. Last year Glenville placed third. This is an annual event which kicks off the basketball season for these colleges.

Governing Board Holds Meet, Marble Tourney

The Louis Bennett Hall governing board held its regular meeting Tuesday, at 10:10 a.m. in Old Louis Bennett Lounge with Ken Davis presiding.

A marble tournament is now in process. Larry Silcott is tournament manager, and results should be given to him.

A committee was formed to help IRC plan for Christmas parties within the dorms. The Inner Residence Council correlates the activities of all the dorms. The membership consists of the vice-president and treasurer of each dormitory. A separate committee has also been formed to decorate Louis Bennett Hall.

The Inter-dorm football program will be concluded next week.

Down On The Corner

by Mike Smith

Get on up...

The basketball team has been practicing diligently for the past few days. After watching them practice Friday afternoon I have to say that they are definite contenders for this year's conference race. Jim Garnett looked outstanding in practice as did Dave Barnes, Steve Datcher, Dale Tawney, and Ron Jones. Jim Spicer looked real good with his soft shooting touch. Ralph Cook can rebound as good as anyone but is having trouble adjusting his ball handling to the Lilly style. Freshman Earl Hawkins looks real good and is a very fine jumper. Ken Ledbetter, a junior college transfer from Dodge City Jr. College will add both scoring and rebounding punch. The Pioneers will face the Salem Tigers in the Shrine tournament at Weston on Nov. 23, at 7 p.m. The Shrine tournament is a warm-up to the regular season and entered in it are Glenville, Fairmont State, Salem, and W. Va. Wesleyan. It should make for a great event. He wrote me a letter...

I received a letter from freshman football standout Mike Wolf's father this week. Mike Wolf is the very spirited Pioneer who had his leg broken during the Fairmont game. His father says that Mike is home and doing well. He will be back in school second semester. His address is 78 Orchard Drive, New Martinsville, W.Va. 26155. We look forward to seeing you second semester, Mike. How Great Thou Art...

The tremendous shock of the Marshall tragedy has left most of us a shaken bunch. The team, athletic staff, and the supporters who were killed in the plane crash will long be remembered for their deeds during their short lives. The Marshall team has had many troubles, but they were very capable opponents. East Carolina defeated Marshall Saturday, but they had great respect for the Thundering Herd. Marshall lost a football contest, but the nation has lost much more. The question now is what can Marshall do to recover?

Will they field a team next year? My feeling is that they should hire a head coach and let him pick a staff, hire a new athletic director and let him start working with the coaches on recruiting. Marshall could then play their schedule next year. I am sure that the deceased players, coaches, and fans would want it that way.

Forestry Men Fight Fire As Finale For Field Trip

This weekend the Forest Technology men extinguished the first high fire hazard in W.Va. The 24 men were on their way back from their field trip at Logan this past weekend when they were notified that help was needed to put out the fire.

The fire was at Hernshaw, a small coal mining town between Charleston and Danville. The forestry men arrived on the scene at 3 p.m. and at 3:45 p.m. they had the fire stopped at the top of the mountain. At 4:30 p.m. they had the fire completely surrounded with fire lines.

The fire was located at an elevation of 1000 ft. on 70 to 90 per cent slopes. If the forestry men, led by crew chiefs Glen Ioner from Elkins and Richard Morris from Dunbar had not stopped the fire, there is a great chance that the Kanawha State Forest, one of the largest state forests in W.Va. could have been greatly damaged.

Women's Intramurals Taken By Independents

Patricia Clayman, women's intramural chairman, announces that the Independents are the winners of the double elimination tournament in volleyball.

Plans for future women's activities are in committee and will include individual and dual sports.

Intramural Championship Captured By Defeat Of Ex-Champs, Red Devils

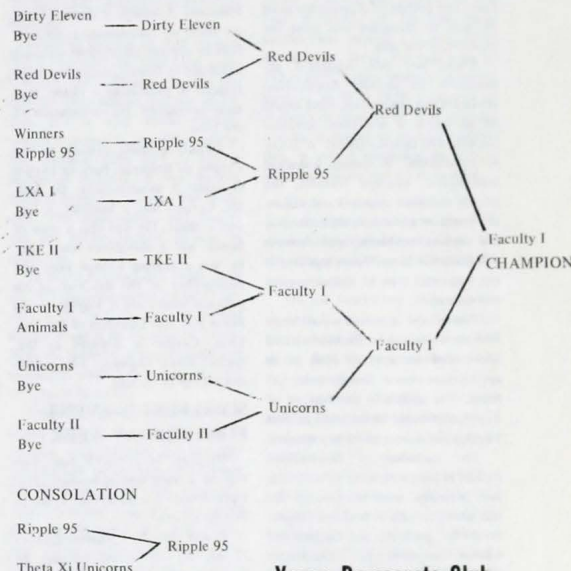

The volleyball intramural program ended Thursday, Nov. 12, with Faculty I emerging as the champion in the ten team single elimination tournament. The Red Devils finished second, losing to faculty in the championship. Ripple 95 defeated the Theta Xi Unicorns for third place; the Unicorns finished fourth.

Points are awarded to the first four teams, the first team receives 100 pts.; second, 75; third, 50; and the fourth, 25. At the conclusion of all team sports, intramural total points are added. The team finishing with the most points receives a revolving trophy. This trophy is awarded each year for the team finishing with the highest amount of points. Red Devils have won this three years in a row.

Members of Faculty I were Timothy Carney, Earl Adolphson, Jerry Milliken, David Smith, Robert Summers, and Ralph Kornegay. Members of second place Red Devils were Kenneth Squires, Gary Norris, Charles Deaton, Adair Wilson, Dave Barnes, and John Wymer.

The final standings:

Captain D. Dockendorff Interviews Applicants

Captain Gary D. Dockendorff, Marine corps selection officer will be on campus on Nov. 19, for the purpose of interviewing and selecting applicants for Marine Corps officer training programs.

According to Captain Dockendorff, the Marine Corps offers two programs leading to a commission in the Marine Corps. The platoonleader's class is available to undergraduates while the officer candidate course is available to seniors and recent graduates. PLC training is conducted at Quantico, Va. during the summer while OCC is conducted five times a year. In both programs, its applicant must have a degree before commencing his active duty, and the pre-commissioning training does not interfere with his college attendance.

Any students interested in an interview with Captain Dockendorff may contact him between 9 a.m.-4 p.m. in the lobby of the Pioneer Center.

Young Democrats Club Holds Informal Meeting

The first executive meeting of the Young Democrats Club of GSC was held on the evening of Oct. 24. The informal meeting took place in the lounge of Louis Bennett Hall. Officers attending were: Ronald Smiseck, president; Fred Albert, vice president; Phillip Reale, secretary; Kenneth Davis, treasurer; and Daniel Snyder, parliamentarian. Mr. John Spears, who was also present, is the club's advisor. These officers are serving until the club is reorganized.

Business under discussion consisted of plans for getting the club reorganized and also a project for the officers. For the project, the officers were to visit several of the civic organizations in Gilmer and Calhoun counties and speak to the clubs, urging them to vote for the amendments that were vital issues of the primary election held on Tuesday, Nov. 3. The visits were scheduled for the week preceding the elections.

G-CLUB DISSOLVES

The Glenville State College G-Club is today non-existent. It has been dissolved since last year.

However, the lettermen held meetings earlier this fall to decide upon recognition for lettermen athletes. One year lettermen will receive a Glenville 'G' letter. Second year lettermen will receive a sweater. Third year men will receive a jacket and four year men will receive a blanket. A committee has been appointed to decide upon the design of awards.

Dean Recommends Appalachia Class For Current Curriculum Development

Dr. Delmer K. Somerville, Dean of Glenville State College is recommending that beginning next fall members of the social science division give serious and considered attention to the development of the current curriculum to include the specific treatment of Appalachia. This is not to be an entire program, but it is felt that some courses should be given.

Since many of our graduates will remain in the region, they should be familiar with the physical features, the historical development, the social make-up and the economics of the area. The leaders of Appalachia must be able to recognize and treat the problem of the area.

There are two suggested approaches to include Appalachian studies in our curriculum. First would be to create a new three semester hour elective course entitled "A Study of Appalachia" to include historical background, physical features, the people and their customs and values, the literature and music, the economy, the current problems, and possible solutions for them. Team teaching is the suggested type of instruction for this course.

The second approach would be to develop units around the topics listed above and incorporate each in an appropriate course already being offered. For example, the history of Appalachia could be included in West Virginia and American history courses.

The inclusion of Appalachian studies in the curriculum would make our programs more relevant to the real problems of our land and people. Most GSC graduates are teachers and will teach others in Appalachia. Better educating these people in the problems and customs of Appalachia will help them better educate citizens. Better educated citizens will someday produce a better community.

Literary Society Meets At Home Of Dr. Miller

All members of the Literary Society will be guests of Dr. and Mrs. Esby Miller at their residence for the Sunday, Nov. 22 meeting from 3-5 p.m. The work to be discussed at their session will be Cyrano De Bergerac by Edmond Rostand.

This nineteenth century French play is in keeping with the romantic tradition. Although it does not turn its back on naturalistic realism, it fails to portray the realism nervously exhibited by Ibsen, Gorky, or Chekov. Instead of presenting a victim, Rostand revitalized the convention of the hero.

Cyrano actually existed; he was Cyrano de Bergerac, born in 1519 in Gascony. A swashbuckler, the real-life Cyrano was a braggart, a liar, and a cheat. He was also a man of honor and a chivalrous one. Also, he was a leading French poet and philosopher of the day. Two of his patirical works are A Voyage to the Moon and The Countess of the Sun. Thus, Cyrano is depicted as the typical heroic character who comes out on top in the end.

SONG FEST IS EVENT FOR HOLIDAY WEEK

On Nov. 24 at 10:15 p.m. there will be a song fest in Women's Hall main lounge for everyone living in Women's Hall.

It was moved by Marlene Parsons at the Oct. 27 board meeting, to have the song-fest. This was seconded by Donna Newberry, who was then selected to be in charge of the fest.

The Lettermen will be appearing in Charleston this Saturday night.

'Lettermen' To Sing Sat. In Charleston

"The Lettermen" will appear in Charleston, Saturday, Nov. 21, at 8:30 p.m. in the Charleston Municipal Auditorium.

Very few singing groups can claim the attention of both young and old, yet the Lashinsky Brothers present the group that contradicts this statement. "The Lettermen" will make their appearance with all of their golden hits; hits that will warm the hearts of all to a golden glow.

"The Lettermen", consisting of Tony Butala from Sharon, Pa., Jim Pike and Gary Pike from St. Louis, Mo., was formed in 1961. Their first single recording for Capitol, "The Way You Look Tonight," has sold more than a million copies.

But time hasn't stood still; along with such established tunes as "Hurt So Bad," "When I Fall in Love," "Come Back Sissy Girl," "The Lettermen" have astounded the young with "Gentle on My Mind," "Light My Fire," "Harper Valley PTA" and "Spinning Wheel."

Tickets are on sale at the Civic Center Box Office, Turner's, Gorbys, Sears, AAA Club in Kanawha City and Kay Jewelers in Huntington. Tickets are $5 and $4.

"The Lettermen" are fraters of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. (A Lashinsky Brothers' Presentation)

Art Show Is Presented By Senior Art Students

A senior art show is being presented this week, Nov. 16-20, by four senior art majors in the Multipurpose Room of the Pioneer Center.

The medias include oil, watercolor, acrylics, ceramics, sculpture, and graphics. Mixed medias and pastels are also included.

The four seniors who are presenting the show are: Mary Louise Durnell, Parkersburg; Kathy Hickenbottom, Williamstown; Benton Linn, Buckhannon; and Jean Morris, Glenville.

Everyone is invited to attend this exhibition. The show may be viewed daily from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. and 4-7 p.m. or later on request.

November Is Deadline For Room Reservation

The month of November has traditionally been established as a month in which all students who now reside in the residence halls may pay their $25 fee and guarantee themselves space in the residence hall for the ensuing academic year. This year the same procedure is valid.

After Dec. 1, 1970 reservations are open to new students and are allocated a "first come, first serve" basis.

Following March 15, those having reserved space in the residence halls may indicate specific choices of roommates provided those chosen also make the same request at the residence hall offices.

AWS Plans Discussion

A dinner and a meeting have been planned for tomorrow, Nov. 19 at 5:15 p.m. for Associated Women Students. Every college woman is urged to go through the cafeteria line, then meet in the multi-purpose room for dinner.

The dress will be casual and afterwards there will be a discussion on money-making projects, the national convention at Colorado University, and the future of AWS at Glenville. Members are urged to attend.

ADULT EDUCATION CLASSES CONVENE

On Nov. 24 and Dec. 1, the 380 Adult Education Home Economics Class will begin its discussion of refinishing furniture. The teachers will describe methods of refinishing wooden furniture. The class will meet in the ballroom of the Pioneer Center from 7-9 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

HISTORY STUDENTS MEET TO CREATE CLUB

Several students majoring in social studies met at the home of Dr. Flack Monday evening to organize a history club. The group plans to hold discussion sessions on various historical topics and to visit important historic sights in West Virginia. Membership in the club will be open to upper class social science majors who meet specified point hour requirements.

Students who are helping organize the club are Charles Beymer, Frederick Boothe, Gerald Holder, Janet Snyder Spears, Quentin Stewart, Cofer Walls, and Patricia Carroll.
