Unmarried Undergraduate Students Subject To Required Dorm Residency

The following policy statement was obtained from Dean Pennington.

The present housing policy for students attending Glenville State College is as follows:

"So long as there is room for them, all students, except those who live at home, are required to live in the residence halls and eat their meals in the cafeteria. Any exception to this rule can be made only with the approval of the Dean of Women or the Dean of Men."

The Supreme Court has affirmed the right of state colleges to require all unmarried undergraduate students to live in college dormitories.

The court upheld a decision by a three-judge federal panel last fall that two resolutions by the Louisiana Board of Education establishing such rules at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute were not unconstitutional.

Three students at the institute had challenged the rules, claiming that they were arbitrary because they were imposed only to assure maximum occupancy of the dormitories.

In a 2 to 1 decision, the federal panel ruled that dormitories also serve an educational function. It said:

"When one considers the fully adequate facilities that are provided by such rules and the thousands upon thousands of students throughout the country who are able to obtain a higher education only because of such facilities... certainly it cannot seriously be contended that the parietal rules are unreasonable, arbitrary, or capricious."

The federal panel also rejected student contentions that required dormitory residence violated their rights of privacy, freedom of association, and basic family rights. It said that students have the option of attending other state institutions that do not require all students to live in dormitories.

Additional residence hall space will be available for both men and women for the 1971-72 academic year. The new wing for women will be available for occupancy in August and Verona Mapel will be used for men along with Louis Bennett Hall.

Presently there are vacancies in all of the residence halls which could develop in the enforcement of the policy on student housing if the vacancies are not filled prior to the opening of the 1971-72 academic year.

GSC Will Feature Rev. Wm. Glenesk

by Gayla Deitz

A brilliant young minister who has been profiled in the nation's top magazines, Rev. William Glenesk, will speak at Glenville State College on Tuesday, May 11, at 10 a.m. in the college auditorium.

Rev. Glenesk's topic will be on "The New Cinema." His cool and lively talk on the cinematic arts will include a director's concept, his sense of technique, form, and his points of view. Experimental "underground" and other documentary films from the work of modern filmmakers Norman McLaren, Ed Emshwiller, Stan Van der Beck, Kenneth Anger and others will be shown. Also included are references to major "established directors": Antonioni, Fellini, Resnais, Bergman, Truffaut, and Godard, with an analysis of "Blow-Up."

Of Scottish-French-Irish ancestry, Pastor Glenesk is a handsome, intense, dark-haired Canadian who took his degrees in the humanities and in divinity in 1952 at the University of Toronto, and received his M.A. in philosophy of religion and ethics in 1956 from Columbia University. Articles by him have appeared in The New York World-Telegram, Vance Magazine, Music Journal and other well-known publications. He has also been on the faculty of New York University and has lectured widely at colleges in the United States and Canada.

Pastor Glenesk has been, at various times, a journalist, an actor and a director. He is one of the few people who have been able to contribute to and connect the religious, cultural, and social scene.

Applications for positions on The Glenville Mercury will be accepted until Friday, May 14 in the Mercury office. Positions include editor, ass't. editor, news editor, sports editor, photographer, typists, IBM operators, news bureau director, circulation manager and advertising manager.

Mother's Day Sing will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday in the amphitheatre instead of 1 p.m.

Rev. William Glenesk observes rehearsal for scenes and interpretations by his Beginning Acting Class.

Speech Class To Stage Scenes, Interpretations

Speech Class 349, Beginning Acting, will present an evening of scenes and expressionistic interpretation at 8:00 p.m. on May 13-14 as part of their public performance requirement. The selections include Tennessee Williams' The Glass Menagerie and God's Trombones by James Weldon Johnson.

Class members participating include Susan Bennett, David Grapes, Dawn Lamb, Dan McPherson, Susan Smith, Julia Murin and Loretta Wilson.

Mr. Gerald Lee Ratliff of the English and Speech Departments is instructor and sponsor of the class and presentation.

As pastor of the Spencer Memorial Church—"a minister for and with the fine and performing arts"—he seeks to have his congregation participate both in the services and in weekly dialogues with men and women active in the arts, politics, industry, Wall Street, and the law. Reverend Glenesk himself takes an active role in church performances, having studied dance with Martha Graham, acting with Eva Le Gallienne, and music and painting Uta Hagen. To him "Christianity is a dramatic happening, an event for its participants to act out." Rev. Glenesk brings fresh perspectives to bear on the role of religion in modern and the spiritual contribution of the arts.

Some of you may already know Rev. Glenesk if you happened to watch the "Tonight Show" when Tiny Tim was married. Rev. Glenesk performed the ceremony before thousands of people.

Rev. Glenesk's talk is sponsored by the Convocation-Lyceum committee and no admission will be charged.

Ratliff To Present Scenes, Sonnets

Mr. Gerald Lee Ratliff of the English and speech department will present an evening of scenes and sonnets from Shakespeare May 19-21 at 8 p.m. in the college auditorium. The program is entitled, "William Shakespeare: A Man For All Seasons."

BANGING ONES HEAD AGAINST A

Movement Leaders Adopt GSC Apathy

Dear Editor:

We, the acknowledged leaders of an unacknowledged organization tried, but due to "promises", to various organizations and ourselves, we too, must learn to be apathetic in order to survive on this campus. Our country was formed under the fine principle of compromise. As one faculty member inasmuch has stated, when an instructor comes to GSC he loses his Bill of Rights. In order to stay on this campus, students must like GSC, just the way it is. Compromise (with students) on this campus must not be in the administration's dictionary.

Students complain daily about what's wrong with GSC and would like to see something done about it. We did have support. Our first meeting brought 20 girls into our room, the second night we had close to 30. We did not want to change all of the policies of GSC, just one small part of it—women's hours. We do not believe the administration would have gotten so upset so quickly if Dean Wright's "staff" (it's on tape) had gotten their facts straight. Our intentions were legal, we were not going to bomb the administration building, nor were we going to stage any mass demonstrations, or walk out. We just wanted the administration to know that the students are unhappy and are willing to try to change GSC, through the legal procedures.

All colleges are made up of students—not parents or administration. There are many types of individuals on this campus. The rules and regulations should be liberal enough to suit the majority of students. At our two meetings we had a variety of girls who wanted to be themselves. We would like to thank all those who were indeed interested and willing to help our cause. However, with promises over our heads, our hands are tied, we can do nothing more this semester. We are sorry that hopes are raised so fast, only to be deflated so quickly by the administration and staff.

The administration may now put away their tape recorder, file the tape in the Robert F. Kidd Library, sit back, and sigh with relief for the time being. Someday there will be students on this campus who will get sick and tired of the down-turned thumbs at the administration and do something to bring this college up to date, in spite of promises of swift disciplinary action to those who try.

Finally we wish to thank President Wilburn for personally assuring our parents that we are not in any trouble with the school.

In The Groove

Album of the Week...

For those of you who are unfamiliar with the group Cactus, it is composed of four outstanding musicians, two of which are ex-Vanilla Fudge members. The pair which consists of bassist Tim Bogert and drummer Carmen Appice receive ample support from lead guitarist Jim McCarty and vocalist Rusty Day.

The groups latest effort is an album entitled, "One Way...Or Another." The album contains a full color poster of the group. This album is definitely recommended for all those people who dig super heavy music.

Record News...

Jethro Tull will be releasing a new album soon entitled "Aqualung".

The Doors also have a new album out. It is entitled "L.A. Woman" and includes their hit single "Love Her Madly."

The Rolling Stones also have an album out, on a new label. The album is entitled "Sticky Finger" and I will review it for you next week.

Places to Go...

If you are ever near Charleston, the Fraternity House sends out some nice vibes.

A promoter in Wheeling is trying to organize an outdoor rock concert for this summer with a name band appearing. Watch your paper for details.

Delta Zeta

The sisters of Delta Zeta are presently selling tuition raffles. The sisters will be selling chances at $1.00 for one semester's in-state tuition. Tickets may be purchased from actives and pledges of the sorority. DZ's are ineligible for the tuition prize.

The Theta Xi chapter of Delta Zeta received the membership award at state convention. The trophy will be presented to Jenny Page, president of the chapter.

Lambda Chi

On Thursday April 29 the Lambda Chi's were involved in their fourth annual graveyard clean-up campaign. Since the founding of Omega Kappa Phi, the brothers have taken it upon themselves to care for the cemetery behind Louis Bennett Hall.

Plans are in the making for the alumni picnic at Cedar Creek State Park on May 15.

Theta Xi

Theta Xi fraternity of Glenville State College held its annual Closed Ball at the Elks Club in Parkersburg on May 1. The evening's festivities began at 6 p.m. with a cocktail party. Both old and new members of the fraternity and their dates got reacquainted with one another in the social hour provided. Following at 7 p.m. was the annual banquet. The guest speaker this year was Jim Hall of the national Theta Xi headquarters. His topic was "How to Make the Perfect Martini" and was centered more in a symbolic fashion around the making of a "perfect" fraternity. The ball began at 9 p.m. with music provided by "The Cold Duck," a band from the Pittsburgh area. Two mugs and a "THETA XI FRATERNITY" beach towel were given as favors.

Several awards were presented at the banquet. Miss Rebecca Law and Mrs. Deborah Woods were chosen as "Theta Xi Sweetheart" and "Theta Xi Sweater Girl" respectively. The Pat Wiant Memorial Award was presented to Thomas Carper for his outstanding service to Theta Xi fraternity in the past academic year. The Kappa Eta Alumni Association presented Clyde Stepp with the Frank Toth Memorial Award for quality academic progress at Glenville State College. This award also carries a grant of $100 to be used in the 1971-72 school year.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Due to the recent movement on campus to liberate the "Girls" of Women's Hall, I feel it necessary to make a comment.

I am twenty-two years old and have finally broken out of confinement from our beloved dorm. After the magic age of twenty-one was reached, I suddenly became aware of the fact that I could no longer be suppressed.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to the many "mothers" that hovered over me during my stay at Women's Hall. After all I have only been self-supporting since the age of seventeen and truly I needed guidance. I want to say to the "Girls" of Women's Hall—You don't need out. Downtown Glenville is pure hell after two o'clock.

Let me paint you a picture of freedom. After movement from the dorm I was able to become a happily married woman. Contrary to the beliefs of the Administration, I was not molested, did not become pregnant, or fall by the way as a woman of the streets.

So hang it up "Girls"—who needs a home, husband or the rights our friend Tom Jefferson offered us!

Mrs. Donna Shaffer Schoonover

Dear Editor:

I would like to address this to you in hope that the administration will answer the questions on women's hours.

Why are there hours for women students and not the men? It cannot be women are more immature. In high school and certain college courses, we are taught the female species matures physically and emotionally at an earlier age, than the male species. Is it for our protection? What happens to the peaceful and serene area of Glenville after ten during the week, and one on the weekend? I know the women of GSC are not animals that have to be locked up as in zoos. I mean, women have been formally recognized by the American Constitution since the passing of the 19th amendment. Please just answer why there is such a gap in the treatment accorded to the men and women students of the Glenville State campus by the administration?

Becky Raymond

Dear Editor:

It would appear that my letter of April 14 was unquestionably prophetic. No doubt almost everyone, the apathetic as well as the suppressed, is aware of the situation to which I am referring. The term chosen for the situation of this particular adjective could have been no more exact. The destiny of GSC students is set and as steadfast as any mountain. Our fate is sealed.

It is difficult to find any indication that Glenville is located in democratic America and that the "unalienable rights" are guaranteed to even us. The only real proof is that the still intact freedom of the press. I like to exercise that right. It gives one the feeling of power—the power in the ability of thinking for oneself, which seems to be rare in this vicinity. No one should be blamed for this lack, except maybe environmental factors.

Remember, this letter not only commemorates history, but foreshadows the future as well.

Nancy Sparks

Dear Editor:

Is the rumor true that there will be a locked fence around Women's Hall next year? I would also like to say "Amen! Nancy Sparks."

Sandy Channell

Dear Editor:

This letter is addressed not to those who actively supported the recent "unknown women's lib" (?) movement on this campus. Nor to those who sincerely feel women at GSC need hours. Rather it is to the complainers and one other group—of students on campus.

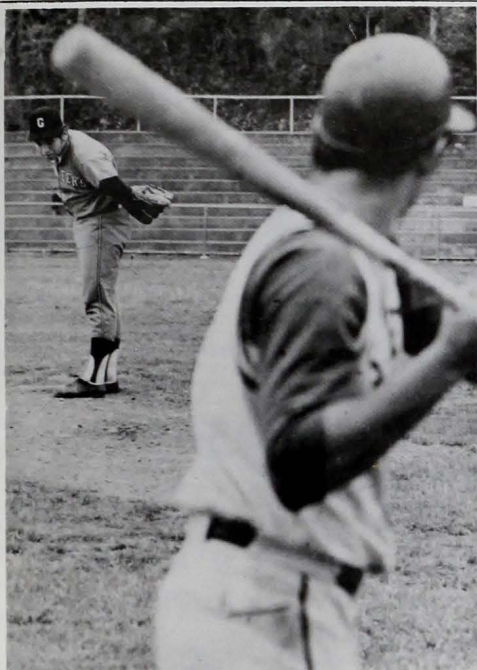

First this letter is addressed to complainers—the women students—who can be heard complaining and cussing about the unfair and discriminating hours everywhere and anytime one is willing to listen. To them we would like to ask a few questions. Why weren't you the girl who took "a" step which might have led to abolition of hours? Asked to support the movement, how did you answer? If the answer was yes, were you willing to back your answer with direct action or by lending your services?

The last question throws quite a different light on the subject. Yes, I know, you have loans, scholarships, and standing with administration to protect which could be damaged by associating with those "radicals." Someday we should have a peaceful meeting and compare our answers so next time we will be better prepared to justify our apathy. At least some can say that they did attend a couple of the meetings which should give them the right to complain just a little louder than the rest. We are not saying all not present at the meetings were unwilling to support the movement. This isn't directed at you. This is for those who constantly complain then sit by the sideline waiting while other people do the dirty-work and get the dirty-deals for a privilege they clamor for. You haven't come a long way, Baby. The rate of progress you are making does not sound like free-way speed.

We have the greatest respect for those girls who were willing to back their complaints and beliefs with action instead of just complaining. Thank you for trying; as for the rest, quit complaining.

In this letter too, we would like to thank another group of girls, although for a different reason. Thank you for making some of us known by the administration. We hope you spelled our names correctly. Also we would like to say that before you become part of "the staff" again, please clean your ears in order to get the facts straight next time.

Apathy forever,
Pat Carroll

Accept my Apology...

Last week in this column I wrote that Wayne Mencer was the Medalist at one of the golf tournaments in which Glenville participated. Well, I was mistaken. Neil Christiansen poked the 69 to take the honor. Wayne Mencer was the medalist in a tournament played the previous week. To Neil, the golf team, and all who read this column, I apologize.

Speaking of golf this past week the conference tournament was held. West Liberty came from behind to win it, while GSC finished next to last. One bright spot was the consistent play of Neil Christiansen who earned a spot on the All-Conference Golfing Team. Neil had the second best score in the tournament. That was the week that was...

Henry Aaron slammed his 600th home run, but his team lost.

Willie Stargell hit his 11th home run for the month of April to break the record for home runs in the month. His team also lost.

The Milwaukee Bucks defeated the Baltimore Bullets four games to none to capture the NBA Championship play-off to start this week.

Mike Wentzel allowed only three hits in the 16 innings pitched.

Charleston High School won another track meet...easily.

Glenville's Bowling Team went to New York and captured second place in the Eastern Intercollegiate National Bowling Tournament.

The GSC Baseball Team still was fighting for the southern division pennant.

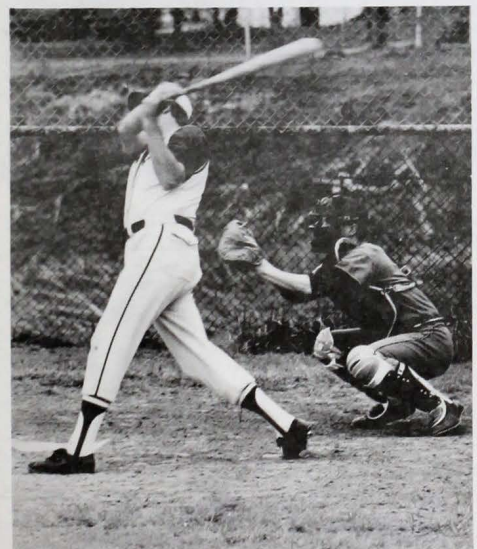

John Unitas' salary was finally disclosed in a divorce suit...$125,000.

George Blanda says, he will play two or three more years to give the people over 40 years of age something to cheer about.

Yes, that definitely was the week that was.

Football spring practice starts Saturday and the TKE Softball tournament is in full swing.

That's all. Let's keep that good attitude.

Tom Lilly does the catching for GSC's Pioneers as they lose to Salem in last Thursday's game.

Falcon Game Called 'Best'

A few days ago some of us Monday morning quarterbacks were discussing the Pioneer baseball team. Someone remarked that when Mike Wentzel's control was good, he was virtually unbeatable. I think he may have been right.

Wentzel was on the hill for the first game against Fairmont Saturday and he allowed the Falcons only three base runners. Wentzel walked two batters and gave up only one hit. The Falcons scored "O" runs.

The Pioneers scored one run in the first inning. "PeeWee" Lacey surprised the Falcons when he bunted and then beat it out for a base hit. Lacey stole second and then scored on a Jim Garnett single.

The game was probably the best of the year. The Pioneers only collected three hits in the game. The Fairmont pitcher Wayne Mathias was nearly as impressive as the pitching of Wentzel. Mathias struck out six of the Pioneers while Wentzel fanned seven Falcons.

The second game saw the Pioneers on the losing end by the score of 4-2. Scotty Hamilton and "PeeWee" Lacey scored the Pioneer runs in the first inning. Hamilton got on base when he walked and Lacey singled driving in Hamilton who had stolen second. Lacey then stole second and went to third on Jim Garnett's single. Garnett and Lacey then completed one of baseball's most daring and exciting plays, the double steal. Lacey coming from third scored the Pioneers' second run of the inning and the last of the game.

The Falcons came back to score two runs in the first inning. The first batter singled off Bill Rice, and then Rice hit the next batter. The next man smashed a 2-2 pitch for a double to score both runners.

There was no further scoring until the fourth inning when Fairmont got two more. One batter singled, and the next doubled. With men on second and third, Bob Hopkins, the pitcher, singled to drive in two runs. That did it for the day as Glenville won one and lost one.

Pioneers Hand AB 'Ninth Inning Loss'

Mike Wentzel hurled a no-hitter for eight innings against the AB Battlers last week before giving up one run in the ninth inning on a walk and two singles. Glenville won the game handily by the score of 6-1.

Wentzel pitched a perfect game for five innings retiring 15 AB batters in succession. In the sixth inning Wentzel retired the first two batters and had the third one until the second baseman made an error. Wentzel walked the next batter on four straight pitches, but then had the next batter to pop up to the first baseman, Rudy King. Wentzel was back in form during the seventh inning as he got three up, three down on only five pitches. The eighth inning was almost as easy. Mike struck out the first batter walked the second, got the third one to ground out to the shortstop, and then came back to strike out the next batter on three pitches.

With a no-hitter going into the ninth, Wentzel had to feel a bit of nervousness. He walked the first batter on a 3-2 pitch and then gave up two singles in a row. The next three batters flew out but one run was scored as the runner on third tagged up and came home.

The Pioneers collected ten hits for the afternoon. Jim Garnett was the offensive star for Glenville as he got four hits in five trips to the plate, scored one run, had 3 runs batted in, and stole four bases. Jim Settle continued his hitting pace by collecting two safeties, one a double in his four times at bat. Settle scored twice, stole one base, and also walked once.

Glenville got its first run in the second inning when Jim Garnett singled. Garnett then stole second base and two pitches later stole third. A single by Rudy King drove Garnett across with the run.

In the third inning Mike Wentzel added to his heroics by leading off the inning with a home run. Wentzel's batting average is .376 to go along with his three wins, two losses pitching record. Jim Settle got a double later in the third inning and scored seconds later when Jim Garnett hit the second pitch for a single.

The Pioneers scored their last three runs in the fifth inning. Scotty Hamilton led off the inning and he was safe on an error. "PeeWee" Lacey then slammed a double scoring Hamilton. Jim Settle walked, but while he was batting the pitcher uncorked a wild pitch allowing Lacey to advance to third base. When Settle walked, he waited for one pitch and then stole second. Then Jim Garnett came up and stroked a single, scoring both Lacey and Settle.

The game ended with Glenville on top six to one.

Salem Tigers Serve Defeat

Salem's Tigers came to town last week and soundly defeated the Pioneers 10-3.

Joe Stora started on the mound for Glenville and allowed only one hit for the first four innings. In the fifth inning, the roof caved in on Stora. The first batter doubled and went to third on a sacrifice fly. The next batter singled driving in one run. Stora got the next batter to fly out, but the next one singled. Stora then walked the next two batters, allowing one run to score as the last batter was walked with the bases loaded. Big Ralph Cook came in to relieve Stora at this point and promptly got the first batter to ground out ending the inning.

At this point Glenville was behind 2 to 1. The Pioneers had scored in the third inning when a sacrifice fly by "PeeWee" Lacey scored Rudy King. King had singled and went to third when Scotty Hamilton slammed a double.

Salem broke the game open in the sixth inning when the first batter singled. Ralph Cook was hurt on the play and Bill Rice came in to relieve him. Rice walked the next hitter and the third man got a sacrifice bunt. The next two batters were safe on errors and one run scored as a result. The next batter drove in three runs as he slammed a bases-loaded triple to deep center field. All total that inning, Salem scored four runs to go out to a 3-6 lead.

Glenville came back in the sixth inning for a run by "PeeWee" Lacey. Lacey walked, stole second and scored on Jim Garnett's single. The Pioneers also got a run in the seventh inning when freshman catcher Tom Lilly singled to drive in Ken Squires who had doubled earlier.

That is all the runs that Glenville could manage and the six that Salem had were enough, but they exploded for four runs, in the eighth inning by collecting three walks, an error, two doubles, and two stolen bases.

All in all, it was a long, cold, and miserable day for the Pioneers who lost 10-3.

Keglers Win Second Rank

The Glenville State College Bowling team, under the guidance of athletic director Dr. Robert Dollinger, went to New York this past week to compete in the Eastern Intercollegiate National Bowling Tournament. The bowlers did themselves proud and represented Glenville State remarkably. They had a total pin fall of 7359 (top five bowlers) to finish second to Fairleigh Dickinson University of Teaneck, N.J. who had a total pin fall of 7374.

The Glenville bowlers posted these scores: Dave Grapes 1467; Mike Wooten 1243; Ron Sams 1445; Lynn Dawson 1501; Wally Kesling 1435; and Al Malone 1511.

The high singles will go to Chicago to meet the Western Champions for the National Intercollegiate Bowling Singles Championship. The top 20 bowlers from the EINBT are invited. Glenville's Al Malone missed out by only a few pins as he finished 27th.

Theta Girls

The second pledge class of Theta Girls began pledging on April 19, 1971. Pledges consisted of Brenda Dillon, Beverly Butcher, Birdie Lockhart, Donna Stalnaker, Debbie Davis, Beth Snyder, Diana Edwards, Bobbie Robinson, Susan Edens, Becky Raymond, Barbara Kuhl, and Sandy Sutipin. Beth Snyder was elected president of the pledge class and Beverly Butcher was elected as treasurer.

The pledge session, which extended over a two-week period ending May 3, involved three main projects for the girls. These projects were under the supervision of the Theta Girl sponsor, Mrs. Ralph Kornegay, vice president of Theta Girls, Debbie Woods, and pledge trainer, Linda Meek.

The first requirement to be met by the girls was a house project. On Wednesday afternoon of April 28, ten of the twelve pledges, along with the supervisors, met at the Theta Xi house and cleaned the downstairs rooms. The project was designed by the girls as an effort to show their willingness and enthusiasm in helping the Theta Xi's.

The second undertaking of the pledges was a Slave-for-an-hour raffle. Each girl was responsible for selling twenty tickets. The drawing was held on April 30, and each pledge devoted one hour as a slave to one of the twelve winners. The purpose of this money-making project was to increase the treasury of Theta Girls for future services to the Theta Xi's.

As a third project, the pledges were required to interview the officers of Theta Girls. The officers consist of President, Elida VanEllen, Vice president, Debbie Woods, Secretary, Cynthia Ray, and Treasurer, Jackie Tawney. The girls were also required to interview Linda Meek, pledge trainer. Through these interviews, each girl was given the opportunity to get acquainted with the officers and to be informed as to what would be expected of them as a Theta Girl.

Having as their slogan, "Theta Girls to help Theta Guys," all of the pledges expressed their sincerity and enthusiasm in helping the Theta Xi's during the two week period. In return for their services, the pledges were received warmly and shown appreciation by members of the Theta Xi fraternity.

Sidewalk Art Show was sponsored yesterday by the kindergarten class.

Berger Wins First Place

On Tuesday evening, April 27, the Ohningchow Players sponsored an interpretative reading contest in the GSC auditorium. David Berger, Susan Smith, and Sharon Anderson won first, second, and third places respectively.

Mr. Berger, a junior business major from New Martinsville, read an original prose selection which dealt with his experiences as a medic in Viet Nam.

Miss Smith, a sophomore Language Arts major from Parkersburg, interpreted three selections from Kahil Gibran's The Prophet.

A sophomore social studies and English major from Parkersburg, Miss Anderson read four of her own poems.

Susan Bennett and Julia Murin read for entertainment, not competition, the selections which they presented at the W.Va. State Speech Festival at Jackson's Mill. Mrs. Bennett's prose selection was Eudora Welty's short story, "Why I Live at the P.O."

Miss Murin read five anti-war poems by Carl Sandburg. Mr. Carl Kerr, Mr. Gerald Ratliff, and Mr. Lowell Fredin, all instructors in English at GSC, served as judges.

The camp season begins in mid-June and continues until late August. This includes one-week staff training and four camper sessions.

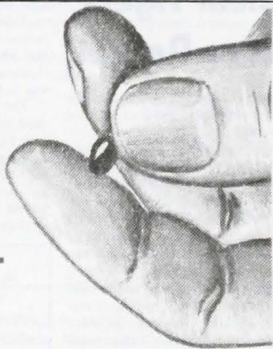

If interested, one may receive additional information, such as the salary ranges for different positions, by going to the Placement Office in the Pioneer Center and asking there.

There will be a short meeting at 10:15 a.m., Thursday, May 6 in Room 301 of the Administration Building to discuss the procedure and mechanics of the course Human Ecology (Biology 380).
