New Faculty Numbers 11

Eleven new members of the instructional faculty began their initial duties as they participated in a Glenville State College faculty meeting on Friday morning in the ballroom of the Pioneer Center.

James H. Balitz, of Cleveland, Ohio, is a graduate of Kent State University with a master's degree in library science. He has been employed to teach library science.

Kenny Joe Smith, of Harman, is a 1969 GSC graduate and holds the M.A. degree in political science from West Virginia University. He replaces Douglas Smith who is on sabbatical to do further graduate work this year at West Virginia University.

Nancy Jane Chapman of Oak Hill, holds a B.S. from Kent State and a M.S. from the University of Kentucky. She will also instruct in library science.

Mrs. Karen Lee Fredin and Miss Sharon Jean Yoak have been hired as instructors in English. Mrs. Fredin, holding a M.A. degree from Ohio University, is an instructor in English Foundations. Miss Yoak, from Spencer, is a graduate of Glenville State College and holds a M.A. degree from West Virginia University.

Glenville graduate, Mrs. Anna N. Slack, will join the faculty as an instructor in business. The Braxton County native holds a M.Ed. degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Hired as director of Foundation Studies is Miss Dorothy Ann Snozek, assistant professor of education. Dr. Snozek holds a M.Ed. degree from Ohio University and a D.Ed. from West Virginia University.

Assistant professor of political science, Dr. Joe Barton Darnall holds a M.A. degree and a Ph.D. from the University of Kentucky.

Hired as assistant professor of biology is Dr. Frank Jenio. He holds a M.S. degree from Eastern Michigan University and a Ph.D. from Southern Illinois University.

Miss Mary Ellen Kennedy and Ronald A. Chapman, Jr. have taken over the vacancies left by Miss Ann Rodney Lorentz and Miss Fraya Pugh.

Miss Kennedy is a 1961 graduate of Villa Maria College in Erie, Pa. and a 1970 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh Library School.

Mr. Chapman graduated from Salem College in 1964. He later attended Temple University in Philadelphia and Marshall University. In May of 1971 Mr. Chapman received his Master's Degree from the University of Kentucky in Library Science.

Historical Society Plans First Meeting Of Semester

The Glenville State College Historical Society will meet Aug. 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the library.

The purpose of the informal meeting will be to decide on a reading list for the coming year and places of historical interest to visit. The Historical Society plans to visit many college campuses this coming year to hear public speakers and to attend lecture programs. This will be to help broaden the interests of the members and to increase their choice of programs and speakers.

The Historical Society also plans to have a display during Freshman Week and will serve refreshments. Everyone is invited to stop by.

President Addresses Parents Of Freshmen

Members of the class of 1975 arrive on campus today, and therein begins a new chapter in the history of Glenville State College and in the lives of these new college students.

This afternoon at 1:30 p.m., parents of the new freshmen will attend a Parents' Convocation at which Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, president, will greet them in the ballroom of the Pioneer Center.

In discussing concerns of the parents, Dr. Wilburn will answer questions regarding rules, regulations, size, location, health services, religious organizations, social activities, food services, the academic program, housing and other matters confronting the freshmen.

Dr. Wilburn notes the importance of an education in today's world by stating:

"The uncertainties of the world in which we live, as emphasized by the armed conflict in South Vietnam, strife in our cities, the problems of developing nations everywhere, and all of the problems inherent in bringing greater economic and social privileges to larger and larger numbers of our citizens, emphasize clearly the vital importance of knowledge and indicate strongly the necessity that we must strengthen constantly and continually our education system at all levels. Our colleges and universities must be regarded as vast storehouses of knowledge which, when they are drawn upon by the youth of our land, will provide them with the techniques and skills along with new procedures to be applied in solving today's domestic, national, and international problems. It is not a mere cliché to say that survival of civilization depends, to a large degree upon the graduates of our colleges and universities. Of one thing we are certain: not many years ahead, your sons and daughters, and thousands of others like them, will be managing our country's affairs. An education adequate to qualify them for that task is difficult to identify or define." He says further:

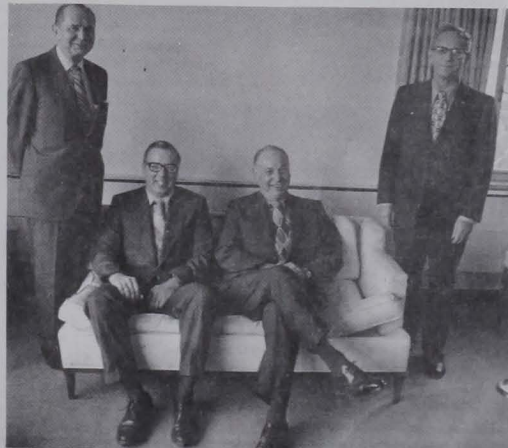

"Whatever that education is, it is something that each person must acquire for himself. It cannot be purchased, borrowed, or conferred. It cannot be imposed on a student. He cannot acquire it by some mysterious process resulting by merely living on a college campus for four years in contact with professors, classrooms, and books."

Glenville State College will offer to your sons and daughters the opportunity to achieve an education; but each student must, through individual effort, acquire that combination of knowledge and maturity of thought, wisdom, tolerance, curiosity, ambition, integrity, character, and attitude which distinguish the truly educated."

In speaking of the next few weeks ahead, President Wilburn remarks, "Experience has taught us that the early months of college are a time of crisis for parents and students alike. Until now, most of you have been closely associated with the education of your sons and daughters. You have provided much of their instruction in your homes. Most of you have encouraged them to receive religious training. You have known your children's teachers and the members of the school board; you have participated in PTA activities and school events; you have had the chief responsibility for discipline, supervision of study, and control of non-academic activities outside of school. And now, you are turning your sons and daughters over to Glenville State College. It is understandable if you have some misgivings and apprehensions."

Greeting freshmen and their parents today will be members of the administration: Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, Dr. Alfred Billips, Mr. Beryl Langford, and Dr. Delmer K. Somerville.

Week Of Activities Awaits Freshmen

Freshman Week begins Sunday, Aug. 22 with the opening of resident halls to all incoming students from 9 a.m.-10:10 p.m. Unless the Dean of Women or Dean of Men has been notified beforehand, all unclaimed room reservations will be automatically cancelled after 10:10 p.m. August 25.

There will be a meeting for parents in the Pioneer Center ballroom at 1:30 p.m. The President and administrative officers will provide answers for parents on orientation to the college as well as other related questions.

The President is sponsoring a reception from 7:15-9:15 p.m. today in the Pioneer Center ballroom for all Freshmen. Suits and ties and dresses are appropriate.

On Monday, Aug. 23 from 8-9 a.m. there will be a general assembly for freshmen in the auditorium. Here they will be given a general orientation session, handout material, meet the Student Congress president and the administrative staff. Students who have not pre-registered during the summer will be assigned advisors.

Freshmen who have pre-registered will have I.D. photographs taken at the Pioneer Center, Room 105, from 9:42 a.m. and from 1-4 p.m. From 9-12 a.m. freshmen who have not pre-registered will meet their assigned advisors to plan their schedules.

Two-Day English Meet Planned For GS Campus

The West Virginia Association of College English Teachers, of which Dr. William Simmons is president and Miss Virginia West is secretary, is planning a two-day meeting on Glenville State College campus. The meeting will be held on Friday and Saturday, October 8 and 9.

The meeting will be a panel discussion during which five or six papers will be presented. The members of the panel are as follows: Dr. Rheul Foster, West Virginia University; Dr. Jack Brown, Marshall University; Dr. Esy W. Miller, Glenville State College; and Dr. Leonard Nelson, West Virginia State College.

The main topic of discussion will be some of the most crucial problems of teaching English and the humanities in a technologically oriented society.

From 10-11 a.m. French placement tests will be given in Room 307A. This is for students who have completed two high school units or more.

Registration for freshmen who did not pre-register will be from 1-4 p.m. From 4-5 p.m. an assembly for freshmen will be held in the auditorium with addresses by President Wilburn and several local ministers.

I.D. photographs will be taken on Tuesday, Aug. 24 from 7:30 a.m.-4 p.m. in the Pioneer Center. Registration will begin at 8 a.m. for upperclassmen in the ballroom.

Freshmen testing will be conducted from 8-12 a.m. at the Health and Physical Education Building and will be continued after lunch from 1-5 p.m.

General Freshman Orientation Session No. 3 will be held in the auditorium to hear Dr. Paul Nagy, Director of Career Planning and Placement office at 6 p.m. From 7-8 p.m. freshmen are to meet in the amphitheater to hold an election of freshman officers. This will be followed with the capping ceremony.

An informal mix will be held from 8-10:30 p.m. in the ballroom sponsored by the Student Congress.

Classes will begin on Wednesday,

Aug. 25. All freshmen are required to attend the Registrar's meeting in the auditorium from 4-4:30 p.m.

The Greek Council will sponsor an informal mix in the ballroom from 7-10 p.m.

All freshmen women will be honored with a tea on Thursday from 4-5:30 p.m. in the Multipurpose Room.

There will be a Coffee House at the Wesley Foundation on Thursday evening from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Parents Tour GSC Campus

GSC freshmen pre-registration was July, 27-29 from 9 a.m., until 12 noon.

While students met in the auditorium and later with their advisors for scheduling, parents met with Dr. Billips in the new cafeteria for coffee. Dr. Billips answered questions that parents had concerning GSC.

Parents toured the campus at the end of the coffee session with guides: Sharon Erwin, '71 graduate; Mary Helen Murin, sophomore; Judi Arnold, senior; and Alice Kimble, sophomore.

The Pioneer Center tour included the student union, ballroom, bookstore and game room.

Each dormitory had arranged for a room to be open for display to parents as well as visits to the lounges and offices.

All three floors of the library and the LMC were visited.

In the physical education building the infirmary, pool and gym were toured.

The science building and the amphitheatre were shown to parents.

Each office of the administration building was pointed out to the parents as they met with their sons and daughters at the auditorium at noon.

Lunch, for $90, was served to the visitors in the GSC cafeteria at noon.

Mr. Darrell Dean, instructor in forestry, has become a licensed land surveyor. Mr. Dean was registered as such on Aug. 9.

Editor Welcomes Freshmen As Centennial Year Begins

Glenville State College embarks on its Centennial year with the opening of this fall session. The year will be packed with activities and new experiences for all students especially for the new faces on campus. A new football season, the much-improved Lyceum schedule and the new Women's Hall wing are only a few of the new attractions Glenville can boast.

The Mercury, too, will have some new attractions with some special features concerning Glenville's past 100 years and a centennial issue of extended length published around our founding date in Feb.

This particular issue of The Mercury is provided for the freshmen, their parents, and new staff members to assist them in their adjustment to our campus. We welcome the freshmen to GSC and hope that they find their years here enjoyable and fulfilling. We also extend our welcome to the new faculty with our wish for a most pleasant association with our college.

The Mercury is a student publication produced for students by students. Our staff welcomes all letters and wants the campus to be actively involved in its efforts.

Again, welcome to all.

Gainer Announces Lyceum Schedule For 1971-'72

Robert Gainer, Assistant to the President, has announced the programs of the Convocation-Lyceum series for this year. These programs are of a varied selection, which should appeal to the interests of a diverse audience.

Delegate Richard Neely, a candidate for the senate from Fairmont, has been nominated to open GSC's progression of cultural activities. Neely will speak early in September but has not yet announced his address topic.

Appearing on Sept. 19 at 7 p.m. is the Wheeling Symphony Orchestra. Of a lighter vein is Josh White, a Black entertainer, appearing on Sept. 30 at 8 p.m. White is a contemporary soloist, making use of soundtrack backups; he is also a comedian.

Oct. 7 at 8 p.m. features the Blacklight Theatre of Prague, an avant-garde type of entertainment. This is an international group on tour in the U.S. Musically organized movement of objects in combination with live action on stage provides enchantment for adults and children.

John D. Rockefeller, W. Va. Secretary of State, will speak on Oct. 13 at 11 a.m. Singing contemporary ballads, the Charlie Byrd Quintet will appear on Oct. 14; Charlie Byrd, a guitarist, and his group have toured Africa among other distant places.

Concerned with the plight of strip-mining, Senator Si Galperin, Jr. will point out the ecological and economical dangers of the unpopular industry on Nov. 3 at 11 a.m.

A Long Day's Journey Into Night by Eugene O'Neill will be on stage at GSC Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. This harrowing domestic tragedy will be produced by the reputable Vanguard Theatre. Robert Verbeck, a faculty member of Ohio State University, will present "An Evening at the Silent Movies" on Dec. 10 at 8 p.m. Verbeck plays the organ, providing the necessary musical score.

The Hilltoppers, a trio from W. Va., will attract the attention of the GSC audience on Jan. 14 at 8 p.m.; these girls are now on a USO tour.

Women's liberation will have a voice on campus when Claudia Dreifus makes her way from New York to speak on Feb. 7 at 11 a.m. The Oberlin Pro Arte Orchestra, a part of the fine arts program, will appear on April 20 at 8 p.m. This group is primarily a string orchestra, performing in the mode of the Classical and Baroque eras.

The final program of the Convocation-Lyceum series will recognize a W. Va. native from Morgantown; this is Betsy Byars, Newberry medalist. Byars' Summer of the Swans was considered the most distinguished children's book of 1970. The scheduled date has not yet been determined.

President Greet Class Of 1975

BEST WISHES, CLASS OF 1975

It is with much enthusiasm and high expectations of your future that I greet you as the Class of 1975. You, undoubtedly, are beginning what possibly will be the most rewarding four years of your lives. As you progress through each of these years, your experiences will be many and varied. I hope that most of what happens to you will have a most positive effect upon what you will become and what you will believe in terms of values which will guide you in relating yourselves to others.

Glenville State College must quickly become, in every sense, truly your Alma Mater. If this is to be, it must necessarily include the arriving at a degree of maturity which is exhibited in a sincere personal loyalty to yourselves, to your fellow students, to those who cause you to want to be creative, imaginative and objective in all areas of daily living. Only when you measure what you do in terms of values which make actions positive, and only when you measure loyalty to yourselves as being identical with your loyalty to others will Glenville State College have the meaning that it should have as your Alma Mater.

With best wishes,

D. Banks Wilburn
President

Home Game Begins Slate

A new opponent, Northwood Institute of Michigan, will help the Glenville State College Pioneers open the 1971 football season at Rohrbaugh Stadium on Sept. 11 at 2 p.m. The Michigan team replaces Mars Hill, N.C.

Following the home lid-lifter, Coach Hanlin's team will travel for the next three weeks meeting Shepherd on Sept. 18, Salem at St. Mary's in a night contest and Fairmont under the lights at East-West Stadium in the Marion County city.

Back home for a game with W. Va. Wesleyan and Parents' Day, the road weary Pioneers will head south to do battle with the Big Blues of Bluefield, the NAIA's 12th ranked team last year.

West Liberty, 6th ranked by the NAIA last year will furnish the opposition for Homecoming on Oct. 23. The Hill Toppers are touted to be as tough as they were last year.

West Virginia State will be met at Institute in the season's final road game. The Yellow Jackets are supposed to be rebuilding but will still have Eddie Lee.

The Concord Mt. Lions and Merchants' Day will close the season at Rohrbaugh Stadium in a 1:30 p.m. contest on Nov. 6.

College Bookstore Has Ten Best Sellers

It's fall again, colorful days and long nights. If these long nights drain you of excitement and thought, turn to the College bookstore. Awaiting you there is a world of adventure with the best-selling books of 1971. The bookstore now has these best sellers in paperback editions to fit the economic needs of college students.

The 1971 best sellers now available are:

- (1) Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Sex by David Reuben
- (2) Love Story by Erich Segal
- (3) The Greening of America by Charles A. Reich
- (4) The Sensuous Woman by "J"
- (5) Future Shock by Alvin Toffler
- (6) The Prophet by Kahlil Gibran
- (7) The French Lieutenant's Woman by John Fowles
- (8) The Godfather by Mario Puzo
- (9) The Population Bomb by Paul R. Ehrlich
- (10) Body Language by Julius Fast

The bookstore opens at 8:30, and closes at 4:30 p.m., so don't wait until one of those long fall evenings to pick up a paperback novel.

The 1971 Pioneers have begun fall practice sessions as pictured above.

Down On The Corner

by Mike Smith

Pioneer Land...

Excitement is running high in Glenville this year. The football players are fever-pitched with anticipation as they anxiously await the coming season.

Head Coach Bill Hanlin is very optimistic about the coming season. Many veterans return and much is expected of them. At this stage the team appears to have a positive attitude. They are winners in every sense of the word.

Coach Bill Hanlin and his staff greeted the 1971 Glenville State College football team on Thursday, Aug. 19 for the beginning of pre-season practice. Twenty-eight lettermen led by co-captains Clyde Stepp and Steve Stoffel form the nucleus of this year's version of the Pioneers. Among the returnees are three-year lettermen Gary Jones, Craig Lipscomb, and Carl Williams along with Stepp and Stoffel. Also back for another year on the gridiron are standout kicker Ray Swisher and all WVIA defensive back Scotty Hamilton.

Two-year letter winners are Steve Clendenin, Randy Dillon, Bob Lipscomb, Harland Spencer and Swisher, Carl Alway, and Randy Modesitt. Junior college transfers include John Bord and Rich Trickett from Potomac State.

One-year monogram winners are Neil Christainsen, Hamilton, Vince Butta, Jim Carter, Larry Chapman, Kenneth Morrison, John Pratt, Robbie Richardson, Richard Richmond, Kim Wilson, and Randy Jeffries, who directs the Pioneer offense from his quarterback spot.

Forty-eight upperclassmen and thirty-odd freshmen give the Pioneer mentors a squad in the neighborhood of eighty players. It is expected that several freshmen will see some action with the varsity during the coming season.

Darrell Atkins returns to aid the Pioneers with his role of trainer. Greg Nicholson and Bill Sparkman will also help with training. Senior Doug Hoselton will serve the Pioneers in the capacity of equipment manager. He will be assisted by Bill Nicholson.

Frank Marcinko helps in about every category for the Pioneers, but this year his main duty is serving as the Pioneer audio-visual man.

Not to be left out of course are the coaches. They are head coach Bill Hanlin and assistants Earl (Whitey) Adolphson, Bob Summers, and Jerry Milliken.

Be There...

The season opens on Sept. 11 with the Pioneers entertaining a strong Northwood Institute of Michigan.

Freshman Week...

Some advice to all: You are Glenville Pioneers now. Take part in the activities, and of course, festivities. Forget high school! Be a Pioneer. Play your part. Your loyalty will help a lot.

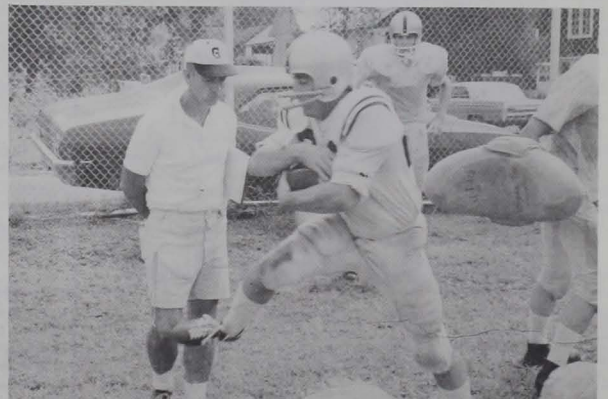

Good luck and have a good attitude.

Practice must not always be so trying as is evident by the antics of Ed Suddath and Mike Smith, both coaching assistants.

Head coach Bill Hanlin observes his struggling Pioneers as they go through their exercises.

Coach Hanlin makes careful note of his team's agility as they run obstacle courses.

Freshmen Eligible To Join Scholastic, Social Groups

Construction on the forestry building, which is the newest building on campus, was started in the spring of 1970 and was completed the following year in February.

The total cost of the building is an estimated $240,000, allocated by both state and federal funds.

The building is located on the College farm and makes use of 340 acres of the land. The building itself is two stories, 70 by 100 feet with a total floor space of 14,000 square feet. The top or main floor is fully air-conditioned. Also on the main floor are: a reception room; four offices for the instructors; a library, which is an extension of the Robert F. Kidd Library; two teaching laboratories; and four classrooms, which are designed for about 45 students each. Two of the classrooms are divided by a ceiling to floor, completely sound-proof, foldable chalk board, which, when unfolded, creates a lecture room designed for 90 students. The top floor is also semi-carpeted and the ceilings are acoustically designed to keep noise at a minimum.

On the lower floor are: a shower room and a locker room; a five-vehicle maintenance area; and several large storage areas.

Parking facilities are now under construction, which, when completed, will accommodate up to 50 cars.

The forestry department has three buses, one 20-passenger, one 42-passenger, and one 56-passenger; one 2½-ton flatbed log truck; two six-wheel-drive boom trucks; a four-by-four weapons carrier for transporting equipment; and one station wagon, all of which were purchased from Army Surplus. In addition to these, they also have a John Deere crawler tractor complete with a dozer blade and winch.

On another part of the College farm near Sycamore Run, the department owns and operates an all-electric sawmill. This sawmill is fully operational and is semi-portable with a 60 inch circular saw. The cost of this sawmill is estimated at $30,000.

Choral Auditioning Set For This Week

Auditions for all GSC choral organizations will be held during the week of Aug. 23. Interested students are urged to come to the Music Department and sign up for an appointment, according to the schedule of times posted. Monday and Tuesday are the preferred audition days for all students on campus before the start of classes.

The general auditions are a new attempt to allow students an opportunity to display their interests as well as abilities, according to Mr. James Baldwin, Director of Vocal Music. In this way the choral program can be designed according to student interest, and the future of groups collectively referred to as "Choral Union" can be determined.

It is hoped that this year's auditions will expand the talented membership of the Concert Choir to meet the exciting demands of the Centennial. This semester's musical activities will culminate in the Centennial Christmas Convocation. The Concert Choir will be joined by instrumentalists in what is hoped to be a fitting celebration of the anniversary season.

There will be a general meeting of all past Concert Choir members on Wednesday, Aug. 25, at 12 noon in Room 214A.

Construction Of New Forestry Building Enhances Old College Farm Location

Glenville State College has a variety of social and scholastic groups that freshmen may join. Many of the organizations are related to students' social activities, whereas others deal with fields of study.

Freshmen who have a desire to be in extra-curricular activities may choose an organization that appeals to them.

Alpha Rho Tau is a group for those students interested in the field of art.

All freshmen women will automatically belong to the Association of Women Students.

Students interested in a Baptist group will find the Baptist Student Fellowship the group to be in. Wesley Foundation is a Methodist organization that welcomes all students.

Freshmen desiring a little inter-collegiate competition will find the Chess Club a rewarding experience.

Musically inclined people may try out for the College Band or Chorus. The music department welcomes all those who can meet the qualifications for these groups. The Music Educators National Conference (MENC) is also open to any music student at GSC.

The Collegiate 4-H Club welcomes new members and those who desire the continuation of past 4-H membership. Students enrolled in forestry will probably want to join the Forestry Technology Club.

English majors and those students who enjoy a discussion of literary works will want to belong to the Literary Society.

Those people who enjoy sports may join two athletic organizations on campus. The Majors Club is open to all women who enjoy games and sports. There is also a Fellowship of Christian Athletes on campus that welcomes both men and women who are interested in competitive activities.

Freshmen interested in science will want to belong to the SUPER Club at GSC. Phi Delta Phi is a club for home economics students.

The Student Education Association is an organization for all students who are planning on the field of teaching.

The school newspaper, The Mercury, can offer freshmen jobs as typists and reporters.

Freshmen are not permitted to join sororities and fraternities their first semester, but may pledge their second semester. There are three national sororities on campus: Alpha Sigma Alpha, Delta Zeta, and Sigma Sigma Sigma. Three national fraternities are also on campus: Theta Xi, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Lambda Chi Alpha. Membership is by invitation only.

The Order of Diana is the ladies auxiliary for Tau Kappa Epsilon and The Ladies of the White Rose is the auxiliary of Lambda Chi Alpha. Theta Girls is Theta Xi's new auxiliary.

Gamma Beta Phi is a service fraternity with membership open to all freshmen and former high school Beta Club members.

An incoming freshman may become a member of the group or groups that fit his or her particular desires. The organizations on campus are looking for new members.

Parents Addressed

The president labels Glenville State's academic program better today than ever before. He further discusses the newly-instituted Foundations Studies which insure a student's placement at the proper level, whether in remedial or advanced courses. This program provides assistance in improving language skills, reading, writing, and/or basic information in mathematics or the sciences. It also provides for recognition of achievement in that students who have demonstrated that they have acquired those certain knowledge and skills which are presented in first-year college level courses will be assigned appropriate credit and provided registration for advanced courses at the outset of their college careers.

Parents will be invited to visit housing facilities which are adequate for the first time since 1959.

Health services will be adequate, also, with the addition of a new physician, Dr. Louis J. Manley, aided by nurses, Mrs. Linda Dollgener and Mrs. Betty Smith.

Dr. Wilburn pledges the cooperation of all his staff and personnel with these final words:

"As parents of our entering freshmen class, you are naturally favorably inclined toward higher education. You are hopeful of its value and are convinced that it is well worth the sacrifice many are making to send your sons and daughters to Glenville State."

Finally, on the part of Glenville State College, I pledge to you that all who serve here will do their best to encourage your sons and daughters to become better men and women by reason of having studied here and by having associated with us. We appreciate your confidence in this College and in giving us, for a time, your most precious possessions—your sons and daughters. We accept this trust with sincere responsibility."

House Ruling Requires Student Tuberculin Test

All students enrolled for the first semester in Education 301 and the professional semester must take a tuberculin test before doing their student teaching.

This is required by House Bill No. 573 passed in the 1971 session of the W. Va. legislature. This bill states that all persons having contact with school children shall obtain a Tuberculin Skin Test as approved by the Director of the Department of Health.

Arrangements have been made for students to report to the Student Health Center on the following dates to receive inoculations and to check test results after a 72-hour period. Any student failing to report must comply with the law and pay for the tests before entering a public school in 1971-72.

Tests will be given on Aug. 27, 30, and 31. Tests will be checked on Aug. 30, Sept. 2 and 3.

There will be an important meeting of the Veterans' Club in the Little Theatre at 9:30 a.m. on August 31. All GSC veterans are urged to attend this meeting since a schedule of this year's activities will be planned.
