O'Neill Play To Be Nov. 9

On Tuesday, Nov. 9, The Vanguard Theatre of Pittsburgh will present Eugene O'Neill's play, "Long Day's Journey into Night," in the college auditorium of GSC. Featured in the play are Jane Cronin, Tom Dennis, Ted Graeber and David Bray.

The Vanguard Theatre is a professional Pittsburgh-centered mobile theatre now completing its ninth year of operation under the management of Marcelle Felsner, Creative Director; Thomas P. Struthers, Technical Director and Miriam M. Cherin, Administrative Director.

The original emphasis of the Vanguard Theatre was at the high school level, bringing fully-mounted productions into the high schools on a regularly scheduled basis, during the school day. Since 1962 Vanguard has toured 16 productions into high schools in and around Pittsburgh, playing to more than 500,000 young adults.

This is the third annual College Tour of the Vanguard Theatre and will reach an even larger area than previously covered, going as far as 200 miles from Pittsburgh. The anticipated schedule for this year will provide for approximately 30 dates, on 26 campuses, with several days of experimental workshop sessions included.

The play is being sponsored by the Convocation-Lyceum Committee and affords students at GSC an opportunity to view the literary merits of a great playwright. Curtain time is promptly at 8 p.m.

Senator Si Galperin, scheduled to speak at GSC on Wednesday, Nov. 3, will not be able to make the appointment because the Legislature has not adjourned. Senator Galperin has rescheduled his visit to GSC on Thursday, Nov. 11, at 11 a.m. in the auditorium.

Sadie Hawkins Festivities Expected To Be 'Best Yet'

by Tom Woods

It's that time of year once again for patched "briches" and a little "sip from the cider jar." You guessed it! Sadie Hawkins is only a week away. This year's Sadie Hawkins activities will prove to be the best yet and as all GSC students know, that means the time of your life.

Theta Xi fraternity once again will sponsor the annual Sadie Hawkins festivities. This year's festivities will begin at 9 p.m. Nov. 12 with a mix at the Pioneer Center Ballroom. The music will be furnished by the group Yancey O'Flanagan.

The Sadie Hawkins' "Olympic games" will begin Saturday afternoon at approximately 1 p.m. This year's activities have been revised and new additions will prove a valuable asset to the hilarious times. The sack race once again will kick off the day's activities. The three-legged race should prove to be a real "stumble" of a race. Another event that is always a big hit is that of tobacco spitting. A new event in this year's activities is that of the log toss. The purpose of this event is to see how far a man can toss a sizeable log.

Probably the highlight of the

Presenting the contribution to Dr. Wilburn is Mr. Lough. Looking on are Dr. Ronald Burke and Mr. James Campbell.

Consolidated Gas Company Presents $1000 Gift To GSC

On Tuesday, Nov. 2, the Consolidated Gas Company with headquarters in Clarksburg presented a

$1,000 gift to the student aid fund of GSC. This contribution, an annual gift from the corporation, was presented to Dr. D. Banks Wilburn by Mr. John Lough, Manager of Area Development, and Mr. James M. Campbell, Area Development representative.

This $1,000 will make $10,000 available for student aid through the nine-to-one matching program of the National Defense Education Association.

Forestry Dept. Attends Meeting In Charleston

The West Virginia Chapter of the Society of American Foresters is holding its fall meeting today at the Heart of Town Motor Inn in Charleston. Dr. David W. Smith, chairman of the Forestry Dept., Mr. Darrell Dean, instructor of forestry, and Mr. Eldon Plaugher, assistant instructor of forestry took six to eight forestry students to attend the meeting today.

Those who will be speaking on the panel include: Senator Carl E. Gainer, Chairman of the Senate Natural Resources Committee; Lawrence Deitz of Richwood; Delegate Charles E. Lohr, Co-Chairman of the Interim Committee on Forestry; John Bowling, Mayor of White Sulphur Springs; Professor Robert G. Burrill, President West Virginia Highlands Conservancy.

There will be a buffet style banquet at 7 p.m. with Senator Hans McCourt of Webster Springs as the speaker.

Marryin' Sam (Raymond White) is practicing for Sadie Hawkins with Pat Law, Martha Moore, Mary Cunningham, and Jennings Eddy. Supervising is Tom Carper.

Mr. Langford Sets Registration Dates

Advanced registration for second semester will be held on Nov. 15, 17, 18, and 19 for all students, except for those entering the education block. Those students who pre-register and pay their fees before Jan. 6, 1972, will not be required to return to the campus until Tues., Jan. 11, when classes begin for the semester.

During advanced registration, all students will be required to attend their classes. Students are to register when they do not have a class instead of cutting one in order to register. All students are urged to arrange a lunch period.

The procedure for advanced registration will be as follows:

Each student must meet with his adviser during the week of Nov. 8-12, to prepare his schedule. The adviser must check, approve, and sign the card.

The student will report to the Registrar in the Ballroom in the Pioneer Center with his advance enrollment card from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. on the following dates:

Juniors and Seniors - Nov. 15
Sophomores - Nov. 17
Freshmen - will register in alphabetical order as follows:
Mc-Z Nov. 18
A-L Nov. 19

After classes have been recorded on the various class rolls, the student will complete the final registration form and print his adviser's name on it, he may then report to the Business Office to pay his tuition and fees. If the student is not paying his fees at this time, he will leave his registration form with the Registrar.

Those students who do not pay their fees before Jan. 6, will pay them as scheduled during final registration on Jan. 10.

Students who enroll in Education 301, will need to schedule an activity with Mr. Hickman prior to scheduling other classes. Those in Education 201 will arrange their activity after classes begin.

Those students who will be entering the education block are to meet with their advisers during Nov. 8-12 for the purpose of planning schedules, but they will not register until Jan. 10. On this date, students will report to Dr. Morris in Clark Hall, Room 102 between the hours of 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. At this time they will complete the permanent registration form, have it approved by Dr. Morris and report to the Registrar in the Ballroom.

Those students who are off-campus during student teaching will register at the regular registration period.

Rehearsals Finish For 'Tobacco Road'

Cast and crew of Tobacco Road have begun final rehearsals for the Nov. 17 opening of the play. More than 500 work hours have already been spent by the set design crew headed by Doug Murray, the costume crew headed by Gayle Bailey, the property crew headed by Loretta Moore, and the publicity crew headed by Marilyn Murin.

The first major production for this year's theatrical calendar anticipates attendance by some 15 surrounding high schools and several out-of-state colleges and universities. For the first time, members of the audience will be able to greet cast and crew members at an informal coffee hour following each performance.

The publicity crew has been at work on a ten page program which includes biographical material and highlights of each member of the cast.

Members of the Ohningohow Players pledge class will serve as ushers as a part of their initiation. In addition, members of Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority will serve as usherettes.

Tobacco Road will introduce several new concepts of theater at GSC. Patrons are reminded that curtain time is 8:05 p.m. and that the doors will be locked at that time. No late comers will be seated. The balcony will not be open until all seats are filled in the main auditorium.

Down On The Corner

by Mike Smith

A Little Slice of Heaven . . .

For the seniors, tomorrow's game with Concord is their last one ever in a Pioneer uniform. Football for all concerned here has been a little slice of heaven. One player, Taz Spencer, summed it up best when he expressed his feelings this way:

"Football is the only thing I like doing better than I like sleeping and eating." The seniors, led by captains Stoffel and Stepp, have all had fine careers and will never be forgotten in the hearts and minds of Glenville fans.

Conference Race . . .

Fairmont will meet West Liberty in a showdown which will probably decide the winner of the Conference Championship. Salem and Bluefield are close behind in the running, with Shepherd and Glenville coming in next. A win over Concord could vastly improve the Pioneer record in the conference.

That's all . . . Keep that good attitude.

GSC Hosts 'Lions' On Sat.

On Nov. 12, GSC will be represented at the Mid-East Individual Events Tournament. "MEIET" is to be held at Parkersburg Community College. A troupe of 17 speakers and three judges, accompanied by Mr. Gerald Ratliff, will participate and compete in poetry, prose, impromptu, humorous, extemporaneous, and persuasive speaking.

The group is one of 80 colleges from 15 states invited to participate. Finals will be held on Saturday, Nov. 13, and the troupe will spend Friday evening in Parkersburg.

Those attending the "MEIET" from GSC include: David Berger, Howard Scott, and Cecelia McCoy who will be in the persuasive division. Fran Spiker, Harry Riley, and David Grapes will compete in the extemporaneous division. Arthur Wilt and John Mussetto will participate in the humorous division. Phil Duncan, Marqueta Stephens and Kathy Fluharty will be represented in the impromptu division. Sharon Anderson, Gayle Bailey, and Susie Smith will participate in the poetry division. Odessa Geary, Marlene Parsons, and Bobbie Nicholson will be represented in the prose division. Guinevere Lemon, Douglas Morrison, and Loretta Moore will join the troupe as observers and judges. These three persons will also judge in the preliminaries on Friday.

Mr. Ratliff will be attending "MEIET" as guest critic, and he will be the final judge covering the prose division.

The Veterans Club will continue showing first-run movies with "El Conder," starring Jim Brown. The movie will be shown Monday night, Nov. 8 at 7 p.m. in the auditorium. Admission is 75 cents.

The Glenville Pioneers will meet the Mountain Lions of Concord here Saturday. It will be the Pioneers' last game of the season and a win would give them a very respectable 4-1 mark.

Concord is a passing team and can score from any position on the field. Their star quarterback, Marshall Parker, is out with injuries but freshman star Bobby Jude, Parkers' replacement, has done a respectable job.

Concord is 0-8 for the season.

Veterans Club Stages Christmas Card Project

The campus Veterans Club will sponsor "Operation We Remember." That is the name of a project underway to send Christmas cards to friends and relatives of students and faculty now serving in Viet Nam.

"Operation We Remember" was brought about so that people "back home" might let a few of the members of the Armed Forces now serving in Viet Nam know they are not forgotten.

Those people who would like their friends to receive cards can give his name and address to any member of the club. A registration table will also be set up in the lobby of the Pioneer Center from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday, November 9, 10, and 11.

Pioneers Defeat State; Passing Game Successful

Glenville's Pioneers behind the running of John Pratt, Carl Alloway, and Richie Richmond, plus the passing of Randy Jeffries and Chris Anderson, defeated the Yellow Jackets of W. Va. State 21-2.

The Blue Bandits did a bang up job on defense allowing State only five first downs. The Yellow Jackets had only 138 yards total defense. They had 133 on the ground and five yards through the air.

The first quarter of the game was scoreless as both teams slammed it out in the middle of the field and struggled through the 80 degree heat. The last play of the first quarter saw Ken Morrison make a great catch of a Randy Jeffrey pass and Morrison was hauled down on the six yard line of W. Va. State. Richmond moved the ball five yards to the one where John Pratt cracked over for the game's initial score on his first touchdown of the season. Ray Swisher put his talented toe to work and booted the extra point. Glenville led 7-0.

Moments later a Paul Ashby punt was blocked and the ball squirmed through the end zone giving State two points on a safety. State almost scored with one second remaining in the half, but it was not to be. Halfback Charles Singleton took the ball up the middle on a draw play and rambled 51 yards to the Pioneer four yard line where freshman Roger Bonnette stopped him. The ball squirmed from Singleton's grasp and the Pioneers recovered for a touch back. The half ended at Glenville 7, State 2.

About halfway through the third period the Yellow Jackets blocked another Ashby punt to give them good field position. However, Blue Bandit tackle Gary (Deacon) Jones knocked the ball loose from State's Singleton and Bob Lipscomb, the other Blue Bandit tackle, played Johnny-on-the-spot and recovered the fumble. From there, freshman quarterback Chris Anderson took over. Anderson came in and fired a 17 yard pass to Rich Richmond and then an 11-yard strike to Ken Morrison. Moments later Anderson tossed a 39-yard bomb to freshman receiver Steve Buffington for a touchdown. Swisher's PAT was perfect and Glenville led 14-2.

The Pioneers scored again in the final quarter on a 53 yard drive. The big play in the drive was a 35 yard pass from Anderson to Randy Modesitt. John Pratt scored his second TD of the day when he crashed over from the State two yard line behind the blocking of Harland Spencer, Craig Lipscomb, and Irvin Braniff. Swisher again added the PAT and the Pioneers won 21-2.

The victory put Coach Hanlin's squad a 3-4-1 on the season with only a game with Concord remaining on 1971 Centennial schedule.

Pat Law climbs the greased pole in preparation for "Sadie Hawkins."

Nader's Representative Visits Campus Tuesday

by WV-SPiRG Committee

Mr. James "J" McAteer, a representative from Ralph Nader's office will speak in the GSC auditorium at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 9. McAteer, a West Virginia native from Fairmont, graduated from Wheeling College and West Virginia University Law School. He since has been a member of the Nader Organization in Hawaii and currently in Washington, D.C.

Mr. McAteer is appearing at GSC on behalf of the West Virginia Student Public Interest Research Group (WV-SPiRG), a Nader-oriented student organization. "WV-SPiRG" represents a unified, cohesive effort for change in areas of importance to us all: consumer protection, environmental quality, and various social problems. WV-SPiRG means students plus professionals for change. Such an organization of the vast body of West Virginia cannot and will not be ignored. Mr. McAteer will answer any questions concerning WV-SPiRG, further define its organization, and offer guidelines for its establishment. This is an open meeting for anyone who is interested.

Convocation Is Scheduled

The Centennial Convocation on "Professional Education of Teachers: Present Status and Future Trends" will be held in the College Auditorium at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 16. Dr. Archie Dykes, Chancellor of the University of Tennessee, will deliver the main address which will be followed by a Symposium by Dr. Delmas Miller, Dean of the College of Human Resources and Education, West Virginia University; Galen F. Duling, Director of Teacher Education, Fairmont State College; and Harry M. Brawley, Executive Secretary of the West Virginia Educational Broadcasting Authority.

The local chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education fraternity, is cooperating with the Centennial Cultural Affairs Committee in sponsoring this event.

Civil Service Schedules Examination For Dec. 4

The GSC Placement Office wishes to announce the upcoming W.Va. Civil Service examinations. People who take this test may have their names placed on an eligibility list for various Civil Service positions.

This exam is to be administered on Dec. 4 at Civil Service Offices to be announced. Applications for this test must be submitted before Nov. 13. Application forms and further details are available at the Placement Office.
